BURDEN'S
Pressed Boat, Ship, Brad & Countersunk Railroad Spikes
ARE well known in the United States, and are conspicuous for their regularity and finish, their unvarying uniformity of size, and for the excellent quality of iron from which they are made, to which may be attributed their rare strength. They are everywhere considered far superior to the hand-made spike of common English iron, and inferior to nothing of the kind yet introduced to the public.

MONDAY, JUNE 8, 1857.

NOT SO.—The black republican papers have been particularly severe upon the U. S. Supreme Court, because in the Dred Scott case it decided, as they allege, that slaveholders have a right to carry their slaves into free States, an l hold them their at pleasure. It made no such decision. In his opinion, Judge Nelson said :—"The right of the master with his slave, of transit into or through a free State, is not before us. When that question arises, we shall be prepared to decide it."

We find the above in the N. H. Patriot, copied from some quarter. Judge Nelson was right, in this thing,—and forty papers have gone wrong in supposing that any negro voter was disfranchised by Judge Taney's opinion. No question about that matter was raised—and none decided. The only decision was, that Dred Scott was a slave. Upon no other thing, so far as we have seen, did a majority of the judges agree.

AN ACCIDENT.—Speaking of the State Councillors, the N. H. Patriot says :

In No. 2 Whitehouse has but 62 majority, and his plurality over Judge Coggswell is only 94: and in No. 5, Mr. Rogers (Dem.) has 165 majority. The success of the black candidate in the second district was entirely accidental; the weather and travelling were bad, and prevented a full Democratic vote in the sparsely settled towns, and to this alone is Judge Coggswell's defeat attributable.

Well: "accidents will happen in the best of families"—indeed one such did happen in No. 5, on the other side, possibly from the same cause.

LEGISLATIVE.—At the Republican caucus on Thursday evening the present incumbents, Messrs. Pattee and Sanborn, were nominated as Secretary and Treasurer of State for the ensuing year, and Wm. W. Eastman was re-nominated Warden of the States Prison by acclamation.

The nominations of State Printer and Commissary General were postponed.—Friday morning, the appointment of committees took place immediately after the election of Rev. E. E. Adams, of Nashua, as chaplain.

After the reading of the Committees, the House having gone into Convention, proceeded to the election of Secretary of State. Mr. Pattee was chosen by a large majority. The election of Treasurer and Warden was postponed; their reports not having yet been submitted to the Legislature.

The Senate having adjourned until Monday, the House, after a short afternoon session, followed their example.

Mr. Hackett of this city, is chairman of the committee on railroads.

At the village of Montiguy-la-Mere, near Paris, a druggist lately established a nursery of leeches, in a marsh or pond, where he was accustomed to feed them by driving an old worn-out horse every morning, into the muddy water, and allowing the leeches to gorge themselves with blood, at the expense of the horse's legs. His son, a boy of thirteen, used to ride the horse into the pond; but a few days ago, the boy having gone alone upon that errand, the family were terrified by the horse coming back without its rider; its legs were bleeding profusely, and covered with leeches that stuck to their prey. People went to the pond to look for the child, and found him immersed there, struggling to extricate himself from the mire, and to defend himself from the hundreds of voracious creatures which had crawled under his clothes (for he wore no shoes or stockings,) and had fixed upon every part of his body. He had probably been thrown off his horse's back, by the tormented animal. The poor boy was quite exhausted and speechless when he was got out, and died in a few hours.

IMPORTANT.—The Democratic party of New Hampshire hold their State Convention at Concord, on Wednesday, 10th inst. As the nominee of that Convention, we are told, "will be elected next Governor;" and as we have not been expressly informed that "Satan's kingdom 's tumbling down" at present, we beseech the members of the party to carefully select the right sort of a man; for we all have an interest in who the next Governor shall be. Q.

An Irishman was once asked why he wore his stockings inside out. "Because there is a hole on the other side!" he replied.

INTERESTING FROM KANSAS.

A letter in the Chicago Tribune, dated Lawrence, May 25, gives a graphic account of the arrival and reception of Hon. Robert J. Walker, the new Governor of Kansas, in that territory. Gen. Wilson arrived in the same boat. We make some extracts from the letter :

A friend of mine, Col. N., took occasion to have a set-to with the Governor, yesterday, on the boat, and I give the substance of their conversation :

Gov. W.—The instructions I have received from the government, as well as my own convictions, mark out a direct line of policy for me to adopt.

Col. N.—Well, sir, I only hope that policy will prove beneficial to the best interests of Kansas.

Gov. W.—The proceedings of the Constitutional Convention, (mark this) will be sustained at all hazards, and will be recognized by the Territorial and Federal governments.

Col. N.—Will not the constitution be submitted to the people for their endorsement or repudiation before being sent to Washington?

Gov. W.—Yes, sir, it will, and every man in the territory shall have the privilege of voting. But if the Free State party decline voting on this question, why they must submit to the consequences, as, lot them do what they may, after such a vote is taken, Congress will adopt the constitution.

Col. N.—Well, I think, sir, the Free State men will vote to a man, if they are allowed the privilege, unrestricted. They only desire a fair chance at the ballot box.

Gov. W.—I hope they may, for I am desirous of restoring peace to Kansas.

Thus ended the conversation, and the boat plowed her way along right gallantly, until she arrived at Quindaro.

Here was "Gov." Robinson and quite a number of Free State men. An introduction took place, and the two Governors shook each other's digits quite cordially.

This was really a scene, especially as both Robinson and Walker recognized each other's title of "Governor."

A crowd having collected about the boat, Governor Walker made a short address.

He said that he was going to do justice to all parties—and administer his government impartially,—that no Constitution of Kansas should ever be presented to Congress, if he could help it, without having been first submitted to the people, and that the object of his mission to Kansas was to secure to the people of the territory, those rights and privileges that were guarantied to them, by the federal constitution and the organic act.

A spirited discussion ensued. Senator Wilson got off, the bell rang, the darkies raised the song, boom went the cannon, flap went the flags, and off shot the boat.

This morning opened with a bright sun, a clear sky, and a delicious atmosphere.

About eight o'clock, the New Lucy came in sight of Leavenworth, and as it was known that the Governor was on board, a large crowd collected upon the levee.

The steamer was gaily decked, and rode the water like a thing of life. As soon as she was safely moored, the crowd increased in density. Gov. Walker appeared, and some enthusiastic individual proposed a "three-times-three."

Never was a proposition more coldly received. The response was even fainter than that which generally emanates from the "citizens of Rome," on the stage, when Anthony delivers his funeral oration over the body of Cæsar.

Gov. Walker landed at Leavenworth, and took rooms at the Planter's House, where throngs of people speedily visited him. Among the number was Gen. Jim Lane. The meeting of the General and the Governor is thus described :

The General pressed forward, and met Walker, who jumped cagerly, half way, grabbed the General's hand, and shook it as earnestly, as if he wanted to borrow money.

The grip was returned, and winks exchanged. Guess both gents are Masons.

Gov. Walker then said, in a clear, emphatic and distinct tone—"Gen. Lane, you cannot tell how happy I am to meet you upon the soil of Kansas."

The General thanked the Governor, and the Governor thanked the General, and both shook hands and winked again, as they separated.

I had to laugh (in my sleeve) at this singular meeting and greeting, and I am perfectly satisfied that Shakspeare was right when he makes Hamlet tell Horatio that,

"There are more things in Heaven and earth, Horatio,
Than are dreamed of in your philosophy."

It certainly never occurred to me, that Walker and Lane would meet in Kansas, like old chums.

I have said that Lane and Walker parted, but I omitted to say, that previous to parting, Lane introduced many citizens of Leavenworth, and finally, in their behalf, requested the Governor to deliver an address to the people, which he consented to do at 3 o'clock, this afternoon.

☞ The Mormons have lost another of their chief priests, J. M. Grant. His obituary closes with the following :

He has gone now, leaving seven disconsolate widows and several children, four of whom are under eight weeks of age, to mourn their irreparable loss.

☞ The official returns of the census of St. Louis, Mo., show a population of 126,276 souls, of whom 2,824 are colored, 1,532 being slaves. There are 65,640 white males, and 58,252 white females.

GOVERNOR PLUMER.

We remember Governors Langdon and Gilman, Smith and Plumer. The latter, William Plumer, we knew very well, as the writer of Cincinnatus in the Journal, and as an agreeable and instructive man in conversation at his own house.—His son, William Plumer, jr., was more particularly known to us, by more frequent intercourse, and by our membership in one association.

Now we have before us a beautiful octavo volume of about 550 pages, entitled, "the Life of William Plumer, junior, by his son, William Plumer, junior, edited, with a Sketch of the Author's Life, by A. P. Peabody."

The book is embellished with good likenesses of both the men, the father and the son.

The publishers are Crosby & Nichols, Boston,—and Alvin Kenney of Claremont. The latter gentleman is now in this city as canvassing agent for the sale of the work, which is to be sold exclusively by agents.

The work is admirably executed, both as to its literature and its typography;—and is a valuable contribution to New Hampshire Biography and History.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Due regard has been taken to have the price of the celebrated Carminative so low as to be within the reach of all. Price only 25 cents.

DAVIS' DAGUERREIAN GALLERY, No. 8 Daniel street, has been refitted, enlarged, and refurnished, the past week, and is now decidedly the finest and best Saloon in the State. No expense has been spared to make it not only a place to obtain good pictures, but an agreeable and interesting room for visitors. And while Daguerreotypes are unrivalled, their prices are so low that all can afford them.

THE SECRET DISCOVERED AT LAST.—We have noticed in passing through Market street, lately, that the NEW STORE, No. 15, always seems crowded with customers. We have at last discovered the secret of it. On stepping inside, we find that the proprietors, MESSRS. ALLEN & PAINE, in fitting up their store in the beautiful manner they have, had an eye for the useful, as well as for the ornamental; we noticed that the store appeared very light and cheerful, and, on looking for a solution of the mystery, we discover that the store contains a Daily Light, giving them facilities for showing their Goods possessed by no other Dry Goods store in town; as Customers by such a light, have no difficulty in seeing just what they are purchasing, and can not be deceived in the color or quality of goods. We notice, also, that their stock is always supplied with the best qualities and very latest styles, which is explained by the fact that one of the firm visits the market to replenish their goods every ten days,—and as they buy for Cash, all together, they are able to offer their goods at as low prices as any other parties.

Those about to purchase Dry Goods will do well to visit them. Read their advertisement in another column.

Also, Kennedy's Medical Discovery, price 68 cents per bottle.

☞ We call attention of the Bald and Grey to Professor Wood's "Hair Restorative;" without doubt the only remedy that can restore the hair to its pristine quality, and has given unfailing satisfaction. The Professor has the testimonials of hundreds of cases cured by this infallible restorative, and we can cordially recommend it to all who need to use this valuable preparation.—[Cincinnati Daily Sun.

DOES ANY OF OUR HIGH LIVERS ever eat too much dinner? If any of our readers have cooks who tempt their appetite a little too far, I will tell a secret that will restore the enjoyment of their dinners, without a visit from that gouty old gentleman, Dyspepsia. Take a dose of Dr. Sanford's Invigorator after eating, and you will never be troubled with indigestion; but on the contrary, before the next meal time approaches, the appetite will be sharpened to appreciate any kind of food. If the food rises for some time, Invigorator will fix the matter right at once, for there is something in it that, to use the expression of a friend, will let a man eat gravel stones, and have the Invigorator and they will digest. We have tried it in double doses on one or two occasions, for sick headache, and it acts like a charm.

What we want to say to our readers, young or old, is, if anything ails you, go without delay and get a bottle of Dr. Sanford's Invigorator, and if it don't cure, come and tell us, for we want to see one person that it will not benefit.

ADVERSARY WEEK.—"Is there a vandue here?" said Mrs. Partington, as she saw a crowd gathered about the door of one of our churches during the week. A gentleman with a white neck cloth informed her that a conference meeting was about being held inside. "A conscience meeting!" said she. "That is a very excellent thing to be sure; and I hope the consciences of all will be touched, and that they will try to do more for the salivation of heathens at home, for heaven knows there never was so many of 'em. And sometimes I don't know where the most heathens is, out of the church or into it, for the root of all evil is growing to be a great thing, and men root arter it like pigs arter artichokes. Of all the adversary meetings, I should think the conscience meetings must be the best." "I think the May training is the best anniversary meeting," said a little voice behind her, and as she looked round, Ike was seen with the ancient umbrella brought to "Present," and his feet beating time to the B. B. B. that then was passing by the foot of the street. She turned round to resume her remarks, but the gentleman with the white cravat had passed in, and she went her way thoughtfully.—Sat. Eve. Gaz.

NEW YORK, 5th.—Dr. Cheever Sustained.—At Dr. Cheever's church last night, a very exciting meeting was held.—The report of the committee, appointed to propose amendments to the standing rules of the church, was, after a bitter debate, adopted. The election of officers for the ensuing year then took place, and the meeting had not adjourned at midnight.—The report fully sustained Dr. Cheever. The Cheever list of officers was chosen by a large majority.

☞ Bayard Taylor says that the Finnish women, who will scrub, rub and dry their husbands, brothers, or other male friends in the bath, think a kiss the height of immodesty; and are shocked to learn that it is common in America for wives to kiss their husbands. This is certainly a Finnical notion.

Pianos, Melodeons, &c.

NEW STORE, AND NEW STOCK.

SAMUEL F. COBB,
Piano, Organ and Melodeon Manufacturer,

WOULD inform his old friends and patrons, and the musical public generally, that he has taken part of the commodious and elegant
NEW STORE, IN EXCHANGE BUILDINGS, (with Mr. Henry H. Ham,) where he will constantly keep for sale, at manufacturer's prices, a fine selection of PIANOS,
consisting of 6, 6½ and 7 octaves, from the celebrated unexcelled manufactory of Hallett & Cumston, Boston.

Also, and on hand, one PARLOR GRAND, a splendid instrument.

Also, Pianos from any other manufactory in the country, furnished to order, at the lowest prices.

Second hand Pianos usually on hand, for sale or To Let.

MELODEONS,

Also, a lot of fine toned MELODEONS, from different makers, constantly on hand, and for sale than elsewhere in this vicinity.

☞ Melodeons To Let,—and if sold within three months, the rent to go towards payment.

Also, for sale, one nice PARLOR ORGAN, of my own manufacture, and warranted.

A good assortment of PATENT MUSIC STOOLS, constantly on hand.

All the above instruments will be sold at the manufacturers' lowest prices.

Juvenile Singing School.

AT the repeated request of friends and parents and for the benefit of the rising generation more than of himself, the subscriber will commence a Term of Juvenile School, at his airy and beautiful new Room,
Exchange Hall, No. 4 Exchange Buildings,
On SATURDAY AFTERNOON, June 13,
at 3 o'clock precisely:
to continue on Wednesday and Saturday Afternoons.

TERMS, One Dollar for the Course of Twelve Lessons to be paid in advance. Tickets to be had at Mr. Cobb's Music Store, and of Mr. Pearson.

It must certainly be regretted by every one who considers the matter intelligently, that of about two thousand children attending the public schools in Portsmouth, so few are receiving any musical instruction in classes, or in any way save by private teachers—which of course is not the most efficient or economical mode of disseminating a general love and knowledge of music.

In the absence of any provision to have music taught in our public schools, the subscriber is willing and desirous to do wh t he can to make up the deficiency; and will therefore engage again in the instruction of a Juvenile Class—one of the most laborious, though not most remunerative, departments of the musical profession.

Having most excellent accommodations for
it would seem that this comparatively small number could easily be gathered from the various schools in the city.

The attention of parents and all others interested, is respectfully invited to our new and beautiful room, &c.

LOCAL.

FIRE.—A small house and barn, at Gravelly Ridge, situated on a lane which runs westerly from Newington Road, between the houses of Messrs. John Shannon and C. E. Myers, were burned, with all their contents, on Saturday afternoon. A pig and calf perished in the flames. The premises were occupied by Mr. Gove, who was absent at the time—his wife and children being alone. It is reported that the fire was caused by boys playing with matches.

☞ Collector Jenkins gives notice that hereafter the Custom House in this city, will be open for the transaction of business, from 9 o'clock, A. M., to 3 o'clock, P. M., (without intermission,) agreeably to General Regulations of the Treasury Department.

TO THE LADIES OF PORTSMOUTH.—At this season of the year, when the wardrobes of your families must necessarily undergo a revision, will you be kind enough to remember that there are scores of children in our city, waiting to be fitted up for Sabbath or day School; and that committees of the General Charitable Society will gladly fit for them such garments as you can spare? Any articles which you may send to the committee of your district, or to the house of the City Missionary, 31 State street, will be gratefully received, and the children to whom they are given will be faithfully looked after.

R. B. MEDBERY.

Portsmouth, June 8.

☞ On the fourth page, we copy from the Gazette an article respecting our new Cornet Band, and the celebration of the Fourth of July. We heartily concur in the plan proposed, and hope it will be carried out. The Band is undoubtedly deserving of all encouragement, not only for their own sakes, but for that of all our people, and the cause of music; and some such social excursion as that named would yield one hundred fold more real comfort and pleasure than any gunpowder and dusty show.

☞ His Excellency Governor Haile, with his wife and several other members of their family, arrived in this city, on Friday evening, from Concord; to spend a few days with his brother-in-law, Hon. H. D. Walker.

He visited the Athenaeum, High School, and other institutions.

WHAT HAS BEEN DONE?—The N. H. Gazette of June 6, says:—

In view of the evidence adduced at the inquest tending to show that Messrs. Whally and Lever have violated the liquor law, also a city ordinance against keeping a bowling alley without license, the Mayor, on Tuesday, instructed the City Marshal to take such measures as he might deem suitable, by prosecution or otherwise, to shut up Messrs. W. & L's bar, and the bowling alley connected therewith; and we learn that the same have been closed with a promise from Messrs. Whally and Leaver not to offend again.

LADY PHYSICIANS.—The success attending Mrs. Mansfield's visit to Portsmouth, and her treatment of the sick wherever she goes, we hope will illustrate to many others the advantages of ladies entering the medical profession. When suitably educated and adapted, their nature well fits them for the position. A very high opinion seems to be generally entertained regarding Mrs. Mansfield's knowledge of health, sickness, and curative agents. Her examinations—interpreting disease by its signs, as she does, so closely and minutely—are really remarkable, and cures are the natural result of this minute knowledge.—She is now announced to remain the whole of next week—a few days longer than at first intended.

THE LOST SHIP CATHEDRAL.—The following incident will interest all who knew the noble commander of the ill-fated ship Cathedral:

At the time the vessel was at her wharf in Boston, previous to her first voyage, Captain Howard while entertaining a small party of friends on board, expressed a desire for, and offered some trifling reward to any one present who would furnish him with a suitable motto to be inscribed in a conspicuous place in the cabin.

A few days after, a young lady who was of the party, a teacher in one of the public schools in this city, sent him a short hymn, of which the first two stanzas are given below, and the beautiful and appropriate lines of the second of these ever met the eye, painted upon the forward side of the skylight in the cabin, and must have been present to his mind with the thoughts of family and home during his sickness and in the final moment when all sank together under the merciless waves:

"Not less upon the tossing deep
Than on the firm set land,
The mighty God our way can keep,
And guide us by His hand.

Not less benignly will His smile
In our Cathedral dwell, [aisle,
Than where, through shadowy arch and The loud Te Deums swell."

—Traveller.

NEW YORK, June 5.—It appears that Judge Stiles, U. S. Marshal Dodson, Surveyor General Burr of Utah, H. F. Harrel, Postmaster of Salt Lake, and others, came with the last mail train to St. Louis. One thousand seceders from the Mormons, will, it is said, come to the states, and about one thousand would go to California.

NEW YORK, 6th.—A Delaware City, K. T., correspondent of the Sun says: The Mormons laugh at the idea of the administration sending troops to enforce obedience in Utah. They express their determination to resist such an assumption of authority. Brigham Young, with 350 followers, left Salt Lake City April 15th, to visit and treat with Indians in the north part of his territory.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—J. W. Knapp to-day resigned the lucrative office of Agent the U. S. Treasury, intending to move to Wisconsin, and engage in banking, real estate and law business.

Col. Cummings, although declining the Governorship of Utah, when in Missouri, would probably have accepted it on arrival here, had not the president meantime selected another, whose name will be officially concealed until it shall be known whether he will accept the appointment. This, ascertained affirmatively, two new judges to Utah, and a Marshal, and Superintendent of Indian Affairs will be appointed. Gen. Chatham of Tennessee, an officer in the Mexican war, has been appointed Consul to Panama.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., June 5.—Gen. Walker arrived here this morning unexpectedly early, and but few people were present to receive him. Col. Payne, of this city, welcomed him to his native state, and denounced Mr. Vanderbilt and the New York press as being the cause of his defeat, and not the Costa Ricans.

The speeches of Col. Lockbridge and Gen. Walker, in reply, were the same in substance as those delivered in New Orleans.

☞ The owners of vessels will hardly make their fortunes this season. The shipping business still continues very dull, and vessels, large or small, can hardly be profitably employed anywhere at present.

TO THE CITIZENS OF THE UNITED STATES
CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.

After several years experimenting in the manufacturing of Gin, I fortunately succeeded in the year 1848, in making a discovery in its manufacture by which it was deprived of all acrid and inflammatory properties, and rendered perfectly pure.

My manufactory is at Scheidam, Holland. After several months' reflection what title to give it, I introduced it to the American public under the name of "Wolfe's Scheidam Aromatic Schnapps." Scheidam is the name of the place in Holland where the Gin is manufactured. Aromatic derives its name from the Italian Juniper Berry with which it is flavored, and the word "Schnapps" is the German for drink—Cogne, Dram—Wolfe's Scheidam Aromatic Drink. No sooner had my Schnapps been introduced to the American public and received with approbation, than the Liquor Mixers of New York, Boston and Phila lelphia, started in pursuit with their mixed and poisonous stuff under various names: Scheidam Gin, Scheidam Schnapps, London Club House Gin, London Cordial Gin, &c., and in several cases my labels have been so perfectly imitated, with only the addition of a few letters to plead a technical avoidance of the law, and so carefully prepared as to impose on careless purchasers. I understand a large quantity has been purchased by the merchants of the Eastern States on account of the cheapness of the articles. A merchant who participates indirectly in the fraud by selling the spurious articles, is as much an offender as the principal who planned the imposition.

I hope every respectable citizen who values the health of the community in which he lives will aid me in ferreting out and exposing the unscrupulous merchant, who, for the sake of a few cents, will put in jeopardy the lives of the community in which he lives. Such men should be nailed to the pillory of popular execration.

WOLFE'S SCHEIDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS is made from barley of the first quality, selected with great care from the products of the most celebrated grain-growing districts, is flavored with the essence of the aromatic Juniper Berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process, which expels from the spirit every acrid particle.

As a means of preventing and correcting the disagreeable and often dangerous effects produced upon the stomach and bowels by a change of water—a visitation to which travelers and settlers, and all unacclimated persons in the West, the South and South-West are peculiarly liable—the Scheidam Aromatic Schnapps will be found absolutely infallible; while, in cases of dropsy, gravel, obstructions of the kidneys, diseases of the bladder, dyspepsia, and general debility, it is recommended most emphatically by the most distinguished members of the medical profession.

It is put up in quart and pint bottles, in cases of one dozen, with the name of the undersigned on the bottle and cork, and a fac-simile of his signature and label.

For sale by all respectable druggists and country merchants. UDOLPHO WOLFE.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN
Is shown by the Records of the Custom House to be the only London Cordial Gin IMPORTED and sold in bottles; all others are made here in imitation of it.

It is a delicious tonic beverage, and by its peculiar flavor (so different from other gins) is universally esteemed by all who use it. It is adopted with great success in cases of Dyspepsia, Gout, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Gravel, Colic, Cholera, Fever and Ague, Stricture, Diseases of the Urinary Organs, Epilepsy, Female Irregularities.

Dr. Valentine Mott of New York, in a letter to the proprietor, says:

Charles' London Cordial Gin, is the purest, best, and most valuable Extract of Juniper I have seen.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN is sold by all Druggists and Grocers in the United States, and so also are numerous poisons called "Lond n Cordial Gin"—to avoid them buy only "CHARLES'." Reject any other offered to you as you value your health. Price one dollar for quarts, fifty cents for pints.

The Portsmouth Cornet Band.

We have a few words for the ears of our Portsmouth readers, upon the subject of the Portsmouth Band. It is now about three months since a number of young men of this city, each, in the possession of a good degree of musical talent, united themselves for the purpose of taking thorough systematic musical instructions, with a view to a final appearance in public as a Cornet Band. They employed a competent instructor, Mr. Albert Bond of Boston, and, through the liberality of some of our citizens who furnished them a portion of the necessary means, were soon in the possession of a fine set of instruments. For months they have held tri-weekly meetings for rehearsal, and as many of our citizens are aware have been indefatigable in their endeavors to acquire that knowledge by which alone their success could be insured.

Competent musical critics, who have attended their rehearsals, and listened to their performances, assert that we are about to have a band in our city, which will prove an honor to old Portsmouth, and which must, probably, at no distant day, rank among the best brass bands in the State. Who will not rejoice at this announcement? There are prospective benefits connected with it, by no means trifling, but rather such as render it a matter of congratulation to every well-disposed citizen.

We have taken some pains to learn the precise pecuniary position of the band at the present writing, and find that the loss thus far to themselves in CASH, without calling into the account the nine hours every week, spent in rehearsal—amounts to something like five hundred dollars.

The statement of their position as copied from the books of the band, is as follows:

Cost of Instruments,	$1007 00
Expenses for Teacher,	88 00
Rent of Hall,	24 00
Incidentals,	16 00
	1135 00
Cash received from subscriptions, &c.	637 25
Leaving a debt of	$497 75

Many of our citizens have subscribed liberaly to this object, but the end is not yet. Something more must be done and done at once. Those young men who are devoting so much of their time and energies to this object are, nearly all of them, unable to meet this large demand upon their pockets. They are not men of wealth, but dependent upon their constant exertions for a support for themselves and families. They have now an actual debt of over four hundred dollars, and are without the means of liquidating it. In view of this conditions of things, we feel it our duty to make an appeal to the public in behalf of the band. The idea of petitioning the city government for an appropriation in their aid, has been suggested, and we trust it will be energetically carried out. Let us give up our Fourth of July celebration, or make any sacrifice, with a view to establishing on a firm basis our Portsmouth band.

When the subscription paper to raise funds for the purchase of instruments was being handed round, it was stated that the design was to make the property in the hands of the band, when paid for, in case of a disbandment at any time, really the property of the city, to which it was to revert should the original plan be abandoned at any subsequent period. But we learn that no measures have been taken thus to secure this property to the city, neither can the city have the slightest claim upon it as it now stands. It would be no breach of trust on the part of the members of the band to dispose of their instruments, pay their debts, and leave the field. But we hope it may not come to this. Their energy and perseverance, under an accumulation of debt and difficulty, entitles them to our consideration and respect, while their pecuniary wants, demand our sympathy and immediate aid.

We hope some one who has the leisure and the will to perform a generous act in a good cause, will move at once in this matter. Let petitions for an appropriation of, say, four hundred dollars by the city, be circulated at once, and let them receive, as we are sure they will, the signatures of our best and most influential citizens. The city government cannot fail to look upon this subject in its true light—that of a safe investment, securing property that, if ever abandoned them, will sell for considerable more than the sum asked. But the safety of the investment is a matter of slight importance, compared with the advantages which will accrue to our citizens from a permanent organization of this character. Music is educational in its nature, and the more we have of it the better. In Boston the city government think it no waste of money to pay the best bands high prices for semi-weekly concerts on the Common, during the summer months, and thousands attend regularly upon these out-door gatherings. In conversation with a gentleman from Exeter on Saturday last, he remarked that he must make haste to return home, as their band were that evening to commence a series of concerts upon the Square, and he must not lose the gratification of hearing them.

Why cannot we have a series of open-air concerts this season? The members of the band are willing to give their services one or two evenings each week, from this time till the month of September, if they can receive that pecuniary aid which at this moment they so much need. There are those we are sure, who, should the petition for aid from the city be disregarded, would gladly contribute liberaly of their abundance in behalf of so worthy an object. And as the matter stands to-day with the band, with the demands against it pressing for payment, it can hardly be imagined how grateful a sense of relief would find a place in the bosom of each member, could the so-much needed aid be at once forthcoming, whether by public contribution or private donation.

FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION.—We propose for our Fourth of July celebration the present year, a pic-nic, arranged and carried out by the Mercantile Library Association or the Young Men's Christian Association, in which the Sabbath Schools shall join, and which shall take place at some grove within a mile or two of the town—perhaps in the vicinity of Sagamore Bridge,—the occasion to be enlivened by speeches from our clergymen and others, singing by the children and the united voices of the company, while our Cornet Band shall lend their attractive and valuable aid to enhance the pleasures of the occasion. The Band will volunteer their services; the refreshments may be carried in baskets to the grove, each catering for himself, and the day be passed in a rational, quiet, agreeable and profitable manner, without expense or loss to any. Will one or the other of the above societies take the initiatory steps in this matter?

EXETERIAN.

EXETER, June 5.

Dear Chronicle:—It is dull enough here. That is evident. We do not see why it should be so particularly inactive at the present time. To be sure it is dull everywhere; but what has that to do with it? It is to be seen through the columns of your paper that beyond the usual rum-drinking and the grand conclusions in the shape of "shindies," "black eyes," and like agreeable conclusions, nothing has occurred at Portsmouth within the past month. Probably the same things, on a smaller scale, are daily going on here. You copied into your columns a week ago, an article from the News Letter, suggested by the death of a young man in our community, from delirium tremens. Your paper of Monday contained an account of another tragedy in your own city, the immediate result of liquor. Why is it that deaths from this cause awaken so little emotion on the part of the community in general?

But, as we were saying, we do not see why everything is so quiet and staid here. To be sure our town never was guilty of being remarkably lively—riots, murders, robberies, fires and such attractions of city life never occurring more than "semi-occasionally," as Tompkins would say. It cannot be the fact that freights are so low, for no perceptive diminution of the arrival and departure of cargoes at our wharves has been experienced. All the reason in the world we can think of, is, because there is nothing going on—which, after all, must be the true one.

There is but very little building doing here this summer, by no means so much as last year. Probably the departure of so many families Westward has left vacant houses for all new-comers. At all odds, we would advise no one to invest heavily in lands hereabouts, expecting that a second Chicago will spring up upon it—for the same reason that one should refrain from doing the same thing elsewhere—speculation is a tight-rope performance.

The only occurrence of the week worthy of much mention, is the concert given by Ole Bull and his able assistants at the Town Hall on Friday evening last. You no doubt availed yourself of the opportunity to hear them in your city on the following evening, when he must have given satisfaction. A respectable and intelligent audience were very much pleased with the performance—those, we mean, who were inside of the Hall. A motley array of young gentleman-idlers, commonly denominated "loafers," had music enough in their soles (at least one would think so from their demonstrations) to attract them to the vicinity of the Hall, but unfortunate enough of the other requisite in their pockets to ticket them through. The talented musicians must have felt highly gratified to find their efforts so highly appreciated as to call forth a spontaneous accompaniment in the way of innumerable indescribable "rat-tat-tats," about the windows and doors of the building.

Last year, we remember, a sort of running fire was carried on by "G. P.," at that time your first-rate correspondent at this place, ("we ne'er shall look upon his like again,") on the fertile subject of a Fourth of July celebration. Now, pray, are you going to have a celebration in your city this year? It is quite likely that the long-talked of celebration, so successfully and imposingly carried out here last independence day may ensure a like repetition this year.

The annual celebration of the Golden Branch Society of Phillips Academy will take place in about a month. An oration and poem will be delivered, and speeches made by eminent men. Hon. John P. Hale has been invited to attend.

"Mighty cool chap that, to tell us that everything is dull up his way, and then spin out a long yarn about nothing!" will no doubt be the involuntary remark of many; but, but—yours, F. G.

PUNISHMENT OF IDLE HUSBANDS.—The head chief of New Zealand often interferes in minor matters of a domestic nature; for instance, if a lazy fellow has a wife or two and children, and through his love for fishing, dancing, and loitering idly about, neglects to bring in the necessary support for his family, a complaint is made; the chief visits the house in person, and if he sees just grounds for punishment, he orders out the whole population of the village—men, women and children arm themselves with stiff canes, made of small birches; then they form a long double line, about six feet apart, and wait with anxious glee, the approach of the delinquent. At last, he is placed at one end of the lines, amidst a shower of yells, gibes, etc. The word is given by the chief, and away he darts at his utmost speed through the ranks, every one endeavoring to hit him as he passes. According to his deserts, he may get off with running the line once, or twice or thrice; but he is skillful in cunning and fleetness, that can run the lines even once, without having his skin tickled for him, by the hearty application of the birch, wielded by some strong woman! As the punishment is not of a fatal kind, the whole affair creates unrestricted merriment.

BURDEN'S
Pressed Boat, Ship, Brad & Countersunk Railroad Spikes
ARE well known to the United States, and are conspicuous for their regularity and finish, their unvarying uniformity of size, and for the excellent quality of iron from which they are made, to which may be attributed their rare strength. Morning Chronicle.

TUESDAY, JUNE 9, 1857.

FROM KANSAS.

The Quindaro Chindowan gives an account of a meeting of the citizens of Lawrence, on the evening of the 26th ult., which was addressed by Gov. Walker, Gen. Wilson, Gov. Robinson, and others.

Judge Conway presided, and first introduced Gov. Walker to the audience. The governor spoke but a few words. He referred the people of Kansas to his forthcoming inaugural for a statement of his policy as Governor of Kansas. He promised that every citizen of Kansas should be protected in the enjoyment of his rights, so far as he could secure such a result.

Senator Wilson followed in some general and appropriate remarks, giving his impression of Kansas, after the brief survey he had been able to make, and urging the people to prove worthy the momentous trust committed to them, and not only make this vast territory a free state, but place her in the column of active, efficient free states, when she should enter the Union, and send her senators and representatives to act for her in the councils of the nation. His remarks were received with great enthusiasm.

The Rev. Mr. Pierpont followed in a humorous and telling speech, in which he made a most capital hit against the usurping bogus legislature of Kansas, by referring to the grand cause of the revolution—the attempt of parliament to tax our fathers without allowing to them the right of representation. As then, so now; no tax must be paid which is levied in disregard of this vital rule. The application made of this great fact of the revolution brought down the house.

Daniel Foster next occupied the stand. He said he stood there as one of the squatters of Kansas, ready, as the Free State men are throughout the territory, to aid Gov. Walker in administering justice in Kansas. He was glad to hear these fair promises, but he was admonished by the past, as all the citizens of Kansas would be, to wait and see his action before he could recognise Gov. Walker as the friend of Kansas.

The Secretary of Gov. Walker followed in a speech designed to conciliate the free State settlers of the territory. He advised the young men to go in for the union first consummated in the garden between our first parents, and to bring each one his fair partner to help him fill up the measure of Kansas prosperity. This advice will doubtless be followed.

Dr. Howe was earnestly called for, but did not speak, as he had left the house.

Governor Robinson was next called out, and made one of his solid, sensible speeches, hitting the nail on the head, and driving it home to a sure place. He spoke kindly and hopefully of Gov. Walker's administration, but told him plainly the magnitude of the work to which he had that evening pledged himself.

Remarks were also made by Rev. E. Nute, Judge Conway, and Mr. Phillips of the New York Tribune.

The Leavenworth correspondent of the Missouri Democrat, gives the following account of a young border ruffian named Fugitt, who was recently arrested at Leavenworth, and whom Judge Lecompte refused to bail.

"This Fugitt is the person who made a bet in this city, last August, that before night he would have a yankee scalp. He got a horse and rode into the country a few miles, and met a German, a brother-in-law of Rev. E. Nute, named Hoppes. He asked if he was from Lawrence. Hoppes replied that he was. Fugitt immediately levelled his revolver and fired, the shot taking effect in the temple, and Hoppes fell a corpse. The assassin dismounted from his horse, and cut the scalp from the back of the head, tied it to the end of the pole, and returned to town, exhibiting it to the people, and boasting of his exploit. The body of the victim was found shortly afterwards and burned on 'Pilot Knob,' about two miles distant from this city. This same Fugitt was one of the party that, when the widow came from Lawrence to look for her husband's corpse, forced her on board of a steamer and sent her down the river. Now the assassin is in safe keeping, there are hopes of justice being meted out to him, and that he will soon suffer for his crimes on the gallows."

This correspondent says:

"Gov. Walker arrived here on Monday last, and treated a crowd of persons to two hundred and ten dollars' worth of wine or whiskey, paid for by the city. He preferred drinking to speaking."

THE EXCURSIONISTS.—St. Louis, June 6. Owing to a misunderstanding, that the railroad celebration would not occur until Monday, the 8th inst., 500 of the excursionists remained at Cincinnati, and only reached here this morning. The city authorities, not aware of this, had made no preparations for the enlargement of the additional number, but have since quartered the strangers on board of steamboats, where they will have to remain until Sunday afternoon. Among the strangers are Attorney-General Black, Ex-Gov. Bigler, of Penn., Senator Douglas, and also many noted New Yorkers and Baltimoreans.—Great numbers propose returning to their homes via Chicago, and others extending the trip to Keokuk.

☞ The Courier de Paris states that Rossini has just composed six new melodies, which will be published in a short time.

☞ A French correspondent of Hunt's Merchant's Magazine, for June, states that the projected "International Bank of Paris" is to be the most grand of all banking projects—the most wonderful speculation of the day. The capital is enormous, $24,000,000, to commence with. England and France take a third each;—the rest is for the Continent. There are to be twenty-five Directors—fifteen French, six English, four German. This great project will wield immense influence everywhere. It can defy litigation; rule the judicial bench; dictate the cabinets; make war or demand peace; manage the world's staples; spend millions where others dispense hundreds; play the despot in commerce—everywhere dictating the iron rule.

By the way, Hunt's Magazine for this month is a capital number, not only for the merchant, but the general reader.

☞ Several papers, speaking of Gov. Haile's recommendation that a law be passed "requiring every citizen to be able to read the the English language before being admitted to the right of suffrage," have stated that "such a law as Gov. Haile suggests would be a plain and direct violation of the provisions of the Constitution upon the subject." This is a mistake—no such provision exists. The Legislature have the right to prescribe the ability to read, as a prerequisite to the enjoyment of the elective franchise; and we see no injustice in the exercise of such right.

EX-GOV. HUBBARD was about 74 years of age. In early life he was a federalist, and as such represented Charlestown in the General Court many years. In 1828 he suddenly went over to the Democratic party, sustaining General Jackson for the Presidency. He was chosen Member of Congress, and served in the House from 1831 to 1834, both inclusive. He was immediately after put into the Senate for six years—1835-1841, became Governor in 1842, and was re-elected in 1843. Afterward he was appointed Sub-Treasurer of the U. S. Government, an office the duties of which were discharged in Boston. His personal appearance was agreeable and commanding. He was tall, well-formed, and unusually erect, even to the last. His hair had become white, and he was a noticeable man, even in a crowd of public men.

☞ On Sunday morning, about ten o'clock, in East Cambridge, Mass., some lambs of the groggery threw three bottles of coal tar through the windows of City Marshal Richardson, spoiling $100 worth of glass, furniture, &c. The marshal had been doing his duty on some rum pedlars. For this, the rascals played the dirty trick,—but the sufferer is in high company.—Several months ago, in this city, some lambs of the same flock, damaged the premises of two widows, (both the widows of sea captains,) and also the premises of a most respectable and conservative clergyman. Neither of the three could have given the least provocation.

☞ T. L. Tullock, Esq., with other gentlemen from this city and elsewhere, have recently visited Kansas, and have just returned from their trip. We cut the following paragraph from a letter in the Independent Democrat, written in Palmyra, Kansas, by Mrs. Julia L. Lovejoy, May 30:

We would tender our thanks to the little Misses of South Newmarket, N. H., for the valise filled with "articles of clothing," to be distributed amongst needy children, brought by T. L. Tullock, Esq., of Portsmouth, N. H. Each garment was made by their own hands, and the sewing, we assure you, sir, would put to the blush many an older Miss! We design to form a Sabbath School in this place, and fix out needy girls, who will attend, with this clothing, as far as it will go; and perhaps hereafter, those very little girls in South Newmarket, having grown to womanhood, will on these lovely plains meet those benefitted by their liberality, and from their lips receive oral thanks. We opine that among the list of names attached, are those of the daughters of Mr. Pike, Representative to Congress; but of this fact we have not been advised.

ACCIDENT.—We learn that Mr. John Rundlett of Epping, was severely injured on Thursday afternoon of last week.—While engaged in drawing a team from West Epping to Epping, it fell over, and Mr. R. was buried beneath a pile of boards with which the cart was loaded, injuring him seriously. Hopes are entertained of his recovery. Q.

SNOBBERY.—In view of the fact that some people who, in their prosperity, seem to forget 'the day of small things'—Squogs wants to know if their having begged "cold victuals" in childhood, induces them in after life to "turn the cold shoulder" on old acquaintances?

☞ The hail-shower of Tuesday evening last week, extended to Kensington, as we learn from the Exeter News-Letter.

The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Journal of Commerce says:—"Intelligent officers acquainted with the resources of Utah, say that to expel or subjugate the Mormons would cost a hundred millions of dollars.

Very probable. It has cost $50,000,000 or so, to expel Billy Bowlegs and his "illustrious predecessors" from Florida;—and they are not quite gone yet.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The beautiful towns adjoining Winnepisiogee Lake have been supplied for three years past with Lawrence's Carminative, and we learn that most of the families use and highly approve of it.

DAVIS' DAGUERRIAN GALLERY, No. 8 Daniel street, has been refitted, enlarged, and refurnished, the past week, and is now decidedly the finest and best Saloon in the State. No expense has been spared to make it not only a place to obtain good pictures, but an agreeable and interesting room for visitors. And while his pictures are unrivalled, their prices are so low that all can afford them.

THE SECRET DISCOVERED AT LAST.—We have noticed in passing through Market street, lately, that the NEW STORE, No. 15, always seems crowded with customers. We have at last discovered the secret of it. On stepping inside, we find that the proprietors, MESSRS. ALLEN & PAINE, in fitting up their store in the beautiful manner they have, had an eye for the useful, as well as for the ornamental; we noticed that the store appeared very light and cheerful, and on looking for a solution of the mystery, we discover that the store contains a Sky Light, giving them facilities for showing their Goods possessed by no other Dry Goods store in town: as Customers by such a light, have no difficulty in seeing just what they are purchasing, and can not be deceived in the color or quality of goods. We notice, also, that their stock is always composed of the best qualities and very latest styles, which is explained by the fact that one of the firm visits the market to replenish their goods every ten days,—and as they buy for Cash, altogether, they are able to offer their goods at as low prices as any other parties.

Those about to purchase Dry Goods will do well to visit them. Read their advertisement in another column.

BRILLIANT RESULTS FROM SMALL RISKS.—The world is kept in motion by the divine element of hope, which springs spontaneously in every breast to render even the hardest lot endurable. We have often thought that society would be doing a great service to the poor and struggling, by inventing some mode by which the poorest man might extend his hopes for wealth at a high figure. The nearer the certainty for a brilliant result, the better would be the effect upon mankind, because every man would educate himself for the possible change in his condition. The establishment of lotteries, with large prizes, comes nearer than anything else towards effecting this. For instance, every Saturday, Swan & Co., of Atlanta, Georgia, draw a lottery, sanctioned and supervised by the State. The prizes range from twenty dollars to fifty thousand; and for ten dollars sent for a whole ticket, a fortunate man may possess the last large amount. Proportionate sums must be sent for half or quarter of a ticket. Thousands of persons annually, without taxing their time, or doing worse than expending thus the money they would squander in dissipation, draw from these Saturday lotteries, means which establish them in business. Q.

Also, Kennedy's Medical Discovery, price 68 cents per bottle.

☞ We call attention of the Bald and Grey to Professor Wood's "Hair Restorative;" without doubt the only remedy that can restore the hair to its pristine quality, and has given universal satisfaction. The Professor has the testimonials of hundreds of cases cured by this infallible restorative, and we can cordially recommend it to all who need to use this valuable preparation.—Sold by all druggists. Agent in Portsmouth, JOS. H. THACHER. Wholesale Agents in Boston, Weeks & Potter. Retail Agents, Redding & Co.

DOES ANY OF OUR HIGH LIVERS ever eat too much dinner? If any of our readers have cooks who tempt their appetite a little too far, I will tell a secret that will lead them to the enjoyment of their dinners, without a visit from that gouty old gentleman, Dyspepsia. Take a dose of Dr. Sanford's Invigorator after eating, and you will never be troubled with indigestion; but on the contrary, before the next meal time approaches, the appetite will be sharpened to appreciate any kind of food. If the food rises or sours, the Invigorator will fix the matter right at once, for there is something in it that, to use the expression of a friend, will let a man eat gravel stones, and take the Invigorator and they will digest. We have tried it in double doses, on one or two occasions, for sick headache, and it acts like a charm.

What we want to say to our readers, young or old, is, if anything ails you, go without delay and get a bottle of Dr. Sanford's Invigorator, and if it don't cure, come and tell us, for we want to see one person that it will not benefit.

SAMUEL F. COBB,
Piano, Organ and Melodeon Manufacturer,

WOULD inform his old friends and patrons, and the musical public generally, that he has taken part of the commodious and elegant NEW STORE, IN EXCHANGE BUILDINGS, (with Mr. Henry H. Hallam,) where he will constantly keep for sale, of his manufacturer's prices, a fine selection of PIANOS,
consisting of 6, 6½ and 7 octaves, from the celebrated unexcelled manufactory of Hallett & Cumston, Boston.
Also, and on hand, one PARLOR GRAND, a splendid instrument.
Also, Pianos from any other manufactory in the country, furnished to order, at the lowest prices.
Second hand Pianos usually on hand, for sale or To Let.
☞ Old Pianos taken in exchange for new.
MELODEONS.
Also, a lot of fine toned MELODEONS, from different makers, constantly on hand, and for sale AT LOWER PRICES than elsewhere in this vicinity.
☞ Melodeons To Let,—and if sold within three months, the rent to go towards payment.
Also, for sale, one nice PARLOR ORGAN, of my own manufacture, and warranted.
A good assortment of PATENT MUSIC STOOLS, constantly on hand.
All the above Instruments will be sold at the manufacturers' lowest prices.
Repairing and Tuning of Organs, Pianos, Melodeons, Accordeons, and other Musical Instruments, carefully attended to, on reasonable terms.
Having the largest and best stock of Pianos and Melodeons ever offered in Portsmouth, and being practically acquainted with the manufacture of these instruments, the subscriber would invite the attention of all interested, to his establishment, believing that his facilities for carrying on the business, are not equalled elsewhere in this vicinity. june6

MUSICAL NOTICE!!

A. PEARSON, having returned to his old place of business, at Exchange Hall, No. 4 Exchange Buildings, in rear of Chronicle Office, which has been beautifully and thoroughly refitted since the fire last winter, would announce to his friends and patrons, and lovers of Music in general, that he is now again fully prepared to attend to all business in his line, as usual.—Thanks to the attention of kind friends and a liberal public, his facilities for the instruction of single pupils or classes, are better than ever before; and he invites a call from all interested.

Juvenile Singing School.

AT the repeated request of friends and parents, and for the benefit of the rising generation, more than of himself, the subscriber will commence a Term of Juvenile School, at his airy and beautiful new Room,
Exchange Hall No. 4 Exchange Buildings,
On SATURDAY AFTERNOON, June 13, at 3 o'clock precisely;
to continue on Wednesday and Saturday Afternoons.
TERMS, One Dollar for the Course of Twelve Lessons to be paid in advance. Tickets to be had at Mr. Cobb's Music Store, and of Mr. Pearson.
It must certainly be regretted by every one who considers the matter intelligently, that of about two thousand children attending the public schools in Portsmouth, so few are receiving any musical instruction in classes, or in any way save by private teachers—which of course is not the most efficient or economical mode of disseminating a general love and knowledge of music.
In the absence of any provision to have music taught in our public schools, the subscriber is willing and desirous to do what he can to make up the deficiency; and will therefore engage again in the instruction of a Juvenile Class—one of the most laborious, though not most remunerative, departments of the musical profession.
Having more ample accommodations for ONE HUNDRED PUPILS,
it would seem that this comparatively small number could easily be gathered from the various schools in the city.
The attention of parents and all others interested, is respectfully invited to our new and beautiful room, &c.
A. PEARSON.

DEATHS IN MAY.—The following is the record of mortality in Portsmouth, last month, as kept by the Superintendent of the City Hearse:—

Males seven—aged 19 years, 35, 38, 44, 50, 53, 66.

Females seven—aged 5 months, 4 years, 11, 29, 59, 62, 78.

Total number of deaths in May, fourteen.

TREATMENT OF INVALIDS.—MRS. Mansfield's treatment for the cure of invalids seems to have a basis as peculiar and effectual as her examinations are accurate and minute. Unexpected results have followed from both, and there seems to be a feeling among those interested, that her treatment will cure if anything can. Her evident knowledge of her subject naturally inspires confidence in the minds of all who observe it, that her treatment will be appropriate and thus effective. **

GOVERNOR PLUMER.

We remember Governors Langdon and Gilman, Smith and Plumer. The latter, William Plumer, we knew very well, as the writer of Cincinnatus in the Journal, and as an agreeable and instructive man in conversation at his own house.—His son, William Plumer, jr., was more particularly known to us, by more frequent intercourse, and by our membership in one association.

Now we have before us a beautiful octavo volume of about 550 pages, entitled, "the Life of William Plumer, by his son, William Plumer, junior, edited, with a Sketch of the Author's Life, by A. P. Peabody."

The book is embellished with good likenesses of both the men, the father and the son.

The publishers are Phillips, Sampson & Co, Boston,—and Alvin Kenney of Claremont. The latter gentleman is now in this city as canvassing agent for the sale of the work, which is to be sold exclusively by agents.

The work is admirably executed, both as to its literature and its typography;—and is a valuable contribution to New Hampshire Biography and History.

ROGUE ARRESTED.—Ebenezer Center, a noted forger, was arrested at Great Falls, N. H., on Wednesday last, and taken to Springfield, Massachusetts, the next day, en route for Chicopee, to answer to the charge of forgery, he having, in April last, obtained $60 from the Chicopee Bank by means of a forged draft on a Boston bank. After getting the money he went to Buffalo, where an officer was sent in pursuit, but he escaped, leaving $90 with an officer to settle with the bank and pay expenses. The bank officers thereupon sent circulars to all the banks in New England, describing the man and his modus operandi, with the request that he might be arrested on applying for any money, and themselves notified of the fact.

On Wednesday last Center applied to the Great Falls Bank for money, but was recognized as the man described in the circular and arrested. The Springfield Republican says that Center is an old and expert villain, a native of Charlestown, with highly respectable and wealthy connections. He has been twice in the State Prison for forgery. He was formerly a dry goods merchant in Boston and also in Baltimore, and ascribes his life of crime to the intoxicating cup.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.—An enthusiastic meeting of the friends of Temperance was held at Union Hall, East Cambridge, on Friday evening. W. P. Cherrington, Esq., of East Cambridge, presided. Able and spirited speeches were made by Samuel C. Knights, Esq., of Cambridgeport, and Richard Thayer, Esq., of Boston. Mr. Knights has been for many years one of the strongest supporters of the rum traffic, but having enlisted on the side of total abstinence, he is equally strenuous in the propagation of temperance principles. The influence which has been exerted by the example of this one man, has been felt not only in Cambridgeport, but in many other places where the liquor traffic still continues.

NEW YORK, June 8.—The seceding Southern members of the new School General Presbyterian Church, have issued an address to the conservative portion of that body, inviting them to unite in the formation of a New School Assembly, to be held in Washington, on the 27th of August next. In the new organization the subject of slavery is to be utterly excluded, except in judicial cases. The address records a solemn protest against the growing spirit of abolitionism in Northern Churches; regrets that such heresies should find a place there; and takes a long farewell of the present organization of the New School branch. The name of Dr. Ross again heads the list of signatures.

MOVEMENT OF TROOPS TOWARDS UTAH.—Washington, June 6.—Col. Charles Thomas, Assistant Quarter Master General, will, by direction of the Secretary of War, proceed to Fort Leavenworth, to superintend the removal of the U. S. troops to the government reserve within forty miles of Utah, where there is good pasturage.—The Quarter Master's department has been assiduously engaged on the subject for a week past.

Seth Kinman, who presented the buckhorn chair to the President, has received an appointment for assisting to remove certain Indians on the Pacific coast. His salary will be about $1,800 per annum.

NAVAL.—New York, June 7.—The officers ordered to join the steam frigate Mississippi, destined for the East Indies' are required to report themselves by the 1st of July.

From Venezuela.—Caraccas, Venezuela, dates to May 10 are at hand.

Many members of Congress repudiated the legislative haste with which the new Constitution was approved.

Gen. Jose Gregorie Monagas had renounced his title of General-in-Chief, and resolved not to recognize the new form of government. Great excitement prevailed.

Dr. Francisco Aranda, Minister of State, and late Plenipotentiary Minister of Venezuela in the United States, had resigned his portfolio, and Senor Rafael Arvelo, a satirical poet, was appointed to the Department of State.

State Case Decided.—The final judgment had been rendered at Kingston, Ja., in the case of the slaves captured on the 12th of April, by H. B. M. ship Arab.—Due notice of claim for the schooner having been published, and none having been asserted, the vessel and slaves were condemned on the 18th of May. The slaves were then apprenticed under terms of the British act of Parliament.

RAILROAD RIOT.—Chicago, June 6.—A serious riot occurred at Medina, Winnebago county, Wisconsin, on the 4th inst., between the contractors and laborers on the Racine and Missouri Railroad. The citizens were required to arm themselves against the rioters, two of whom were killed and a number seriously injured.—The Sheriff of Winnebago county had been sent for, and the excitment was intense.

TO THE CITIZENS OF THE UNITED STATES.
CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.

After several years experimenting in the manufacturing of Gin, I fortunately succeeded in the year 1848, in making a discovery in its manufacture by which it was deprived of all acrid and inflammatory properties, and rendered perfectly pure.

My manufactory is at Scheidam, Holland. After several months' reflection what title to give it, I introduced it to the American public under the name of "Wolfe's Schedam Aromatic Schnapps." Scheidam is the name of the place in Holland where the Gin is manufactured. Aromatic derives its name from the Italian Juniper Berry with which it is flavored, and the word "Schnapps" is the German for drink—Cogne, Dram—Wolfe's Scheidam Aromatic Drink. No sooner had my Schnapps been introduced to the American public and received with approbation, than the Liquor Mixers of New York, Boston and Phila lelphia, started in pursuit with their mixed and poisonous stuff under various names: Scheidam Gin, Scheidam Schnapps, London Club House Gin, London Cordial Gin, &c, and in several cases my labels have been so perfectly imitated, with only the addition of a few letters to plead a technical avoidance of the law, and so carefully prepared as to impose on careless purchasers. I understand a large quantity has been purchased by the merchants of the Eastern States on account of the cheapness of the articles. A merchant who participates indirectly in the fraud by selling the spurious articles, is as much an offender as the principal who planned the imposition.

I hope every respectable citizen who values the health of the community in which he lives will aid me in ferreting out and exposing the unscrupulous merchant, who, for the sake of a few cents, will put in jeopardy the lives of the community in which he lives. Such men should be nailed to the pillory of popular execration.

WOLFE'S SCHEIDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS is made from barley of the first quality, selected with great care from the products of the most celebrated grain-growing districts, is flavored with the essence of the aromatic Juniper Berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process, which expels from the spirit every acrid particle.

As a means of preventing, and correcting the disagreeable and often dangerous effects produced upon the stomach and bowels by a change of water—a visitation to which travelers and settlers, and all unacclimated persons in the West, the South and south-West are peculiarly liable—the Scheidam Aromatic Schnapps will be found absolutely infallible; while, in cases of dropsy, gravel, obstructions of the kidneys, diseases of the bladder, dyspepsia, and general debility, it is recommended most emphatically by the most distinguished members of the medical profession

It is put up in quart and pint bottles, in cases of one dozen, with the name of the undersigned on the bottle and cork, and a fac-similie of his signature and label.

For sale by all respectable druggists and country merchants. UDOLPHO WOLFE.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN Is shown by the Records of the Custom House to be the only London Cordial Gin IMPORTED and sold in bottles; all others are made here in imitation of it.

It is a delicious tonic beverage, and by its peculiar flavor (so different from other gins) is universally esteemed by all who use it. It is adopted with great success in cases of Dyspepsia, Gout, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Gravel, Colic, Cholera, Fever and Ague, Stricture, Diseases of the Urinary Organs, Epilepsy, Female Irregularities.

Dr. Valentine Mott of New York, in a letter to the proprietor, says:

Charles' London Cordial Gin, is the purest, best, and most reliable Extract of Juniper I have seen.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN is sold by all Druggists and Grocers in the United States, and so also are numerous poisons called "London Cordial Gin"—to avoid them buy only "CHARLES'." Reject any other offered to you as you value your health. Price one dollar for quarts, fifty cents for pints.

DOWN WITH THE BOWL.

Down with the bowl, young man, and say,
No more thy dregs I'll drain;
Thou fell destroyer of mankind—
Long, long has been thy reign.
Down with the bowl, and raise it not
To take another draught;
For those who taste the poison there,
Of reason are bereft.
Think of the dangerous path you tread,
And do not farther go;
Those who continue on that road
No peace on earth can know.
Think of the misery and sin
Which follow in thy track;
And oh! before it is too late,
Repent, and turn thou back.
Return, and join the ranks of those Who struggle manfully
Against the enemy of souls,
Rum and iniquity.

AYER'S Cathartic Pills,
(SUGAR COATED,)
ARE MADE TO
CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK
Invalids, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians
Philanthropists, read their Effects,
and judge of their Virtues.
Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach

PITTSBURG, PA., May 1, 1856.
DR. J. C. AYER. SIR: I have suffered for the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they cleanse at once. If they will do so by others as they do me, the fact is worth knowing.
Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE,
Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints

ASSISTANT OFFICE OF THE INTERIOR,
WASHINGTON, D.C., Feb. 1, 1856.
SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quite decisive. Many individuals say they are an admirable remedy for derangements of the organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not yield to them.
Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D.,
Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

POST OFFICE, HARTLAND, LIV. CO., MICH., Nov. 16, 1855.
DR. AYER: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine. They have done my wife more good than I can tell you. She had been sick and pining away for months. Went off to be doctored at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. They afterwards cured her and our two children of bloody dysentery. One of our neighbors had it too, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctors' bills, and lost much time, without being cured entirely even then. Such a medicine as yours, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here.
GEO. J. GRIFFIN, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.
DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among my people. I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, WYOMING CO., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.
DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.
JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.
DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They cured my little girl of a dreadful scrofulous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair, which she has now cured, she says, by using your Pills, and they have cured her. ASA MORGRIDGE

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawkes, of the Methodist Episc. Church.
PULASKI HOUSE, SAVANNAH, GA., Jan. 6, 1856.
HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best medical advice, the disease grew worse and worse, until, by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well.
SENATE CHAMBER, BATON ROUGE, LA., 5 Dec., 1855.
DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease which has afflicted me for years. VINCENT SLIDELL.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are agreeable and effectual.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness, and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, yet it is admitted by all to be a dangerous agent. If no particular disease is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. Tickets are sent to any address, free of charge. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket taken from a common plan, and drawing combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $500 '00. All orders for tickets or packages will be promptly attended to, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

☞ The drawn numbers of the Maryland Lotteries are published by the State Commissioner in the following papers: Baltimore Clipper, Patriot, American, Argus, of Baltimore; also, the National Intelligencer and Union, of Washington, D.C.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries authorized by Swan & Co. are sanctioned by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $20; halves, $10; quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the operation. Prizes vary from $40 to $50,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to SWAN & CO., Atlanta, Georgia.

Prizes paid in full; no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

All communications strictly confidential. m13 1y

JACOB WENDELL.

Cochecho Mutual Fire Insurance Co.

THE subscriber having been appointed Agent for the above Company, is now prepared to receive applications for Insurance of Real or Personal Estate. The risks are divided into Three Classes, viz: 1st, or Farm Class; 2d, or Village Class; 3d, or Hazardous Class. The premiums charged in the Farm Class from April 1850 (the time of the Classification) to Jan. 1856, has been less than ¼ of 1 per cent. annually on the amount insured. In the Village Class for the same time the average yearly assessment has been less than 1-10 of 1 per cent. on the amount insured. In the 3d, or Union Class, from Jan. 1846 to Jan. 1856, the yearly average of assessments has been less than 1-8 of 1 per cent. on the amount insured.

LOTTERIES.

The well-known MERRIAND Consolidated Lotteries, of which Franck & Co are the managers, are authorized by the State of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a manner, in the fair manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact worth the respectful attention is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day, Sundays excepted. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. Tickets are sent to any address, free of charge. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket taken from a common plan, and drawing combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $500 '00. All orders for tickets or packages will be promptly attended to, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

☞ The drawn numbers of the Maryland Lotteries are published by the State Commissioner in the following papers: Baltimore Clipper, Patriot, American, Argus, of Baltimore; also, the National Intelligencer and Union, of Washington, D.C.

S. D. & H. W. Smith,

—MANUFACTURERS OF—
Melodeons, Organ Melodeons,
—and—
PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,
No. 511 Washington Street, Boston.

The first premium over all competitors, at the Fair of the Mass. Charitable Mechanic Association, of the National Fair, Washington, D. C., also at the Ohio State Fair, held at Columbus, Ohio, was awarded to these Manufacturers.

By means of a new method of Voicing, known only to themselves, they have succeeded in removing all harsh and buzzing sound, which formerly characterized the instrument, and rendering the tones full, clear and organ like. The action is prompt and reliable, enabling the performer to execute the most rapid music without blurring, he tones The swell is arranged to give great expression.

THE PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,
Are designed particularly for Churches, Lodges, Halls, &c. It is arranged with two manuals, or banks of Keys, the lower set running an octave higher than the other, and may be used separately, and they get in one case two distinct instruments; or by use of the coupler, the two banks of keys may be played at the same time by one set of the front set only. This connected with the Pedal Bass, will produce the effect of a large organ, and is sufficiently heavy to fill a house that seats from 1000 to 1500 persons.

THE ORGAN MELODEON
Is designed for parlor and private use. The construction is similar to the Church Instrument, being arranged with two banks of Keys, and to have the same compass of tones, but is capable of as great volume of power as the Church Instrument when used without the pedals. Also, every variety of MELODEONS for Parlor use.

Purchasers may rely upon instruments from our Manufactory, being made in the most complete and thorough manner. Having removed to larger and better buildings

511 Washington Street,

We have every facility for manufacturing purposes, and employ none but the most experienced and skilful workmen. In short, we will promise our customers an instrument equal, if not superior, to any Manufacturer, and guarantee an entire and perfect satisfaction.

Music Teachers, Leaders of Choirs, and others interested in musical matters, are respectfully invited to visit our Rooms at any time and examine or test the instruments on exhibition for sale at their pleasure.

As a still further guarantee to the public as to the excellence of the MELODEONS from our Manufactory, we beg leave to refer, by permission, to the following

Piano Forte Manufacturers of Boston,

who have examined our Instruments, and will give their opinion when called upon:

Chickering & Sons,	Hallett & Cumston,
J. Gilbert & Co.,	W. M. Tapmerson,
Brown & Allen,	A. W. Ladd & Co.,
George Hewes,	Woodward & Brown,
	Newhall & Co.

MELODEONS TO RENTED.

Persons who wish to hire Melodeons with a view of purchasing at the end of the year, can have the rent credited as part payment of the purchase money. This matter is worthy of special note, as it enables those who desire a fair test of the instruments before purchasing, to obtain it at the expense of the manufacturers, to the extent at least of a year's rent.

Orders from any part of the country or world, sent direct to the manufactory in Boston, with cash, or satisfactory references, will be promptly attended to, and as faithfully executed as if the parties were present, or employed an agent to select, and on as reasonable terms.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1836.)
No. 78 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston,
OFFER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States, also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on the shortest notice. Reviving Patents. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice given in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE, where the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and proves, that the charges for this kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to secure a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration of their claims.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 7, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have the official intercourse.

JOB AND CARD PRINTING promptly executed.

A GREAT FLEET OF CANAL BOATS.—On Thursday last there were congregated on the Erie Canal, at Montezuma, and for many miles east and west, between one and two thousand canal boats, loaded with merchandise for the West, waiting for breaks in the canal to be repaired, so that they could proceed. Five thousand men and three thousand horses and mules were lying idle in consequence, and as provisions had feed were ruinously high, many of the poor boatmen were troubled to sustain themselves and their teams. On Friday, however, the breaks had been repaired so that the boats could pass freely.

WHEAT AND FLOUR TRANSACTIONS.—The Rochester Daily Union is informed that a merchant of that city who is not in the regular commission business, sold on Saturday last wheat and flour amounting to $53,000 on Canadian account. The prices did not transpire, but the wheat probably sold at about $1 95 per bushel for best white.

☞ An Irish boy at work in the mule room, on the Manchester Corporation, got caught in some of the machinery, and had his scalp torn off over the left temple, making a wound four inches wide, exposing the bone the whole distance. He was also severely bruised about the hands and body. He will probably recover.

☞ The Rev. S. Hobbs, Universalist clergyman at Webster, N. Y., has stopped preaching because he has on several occasions, while in the pulpit, been seized by a mania or influence popularly termed spiritualism, and made to utter sentiments utterly foreign to his own views and convictions.

EXTRA AMBASSADORIAL.—A letter from Caraccas states that complaint had been made to the British government that its charge at Venezuela had married two native Catholics, the bride being step-daughter to her husband, and the Archbishop and Pope having previously refused their sanction.

DEATH OF A LONG ISLAND EDITOR.—Col. H. W. Hunt, editor of the Corrector, published at Sag Harbor, died at his residence at Sag Harbor on the 31st ult. He had arrived at the advanced age of eighty-three years, and had been editor for the last thirty-six years.

☞ A correspondent of the Petersburg Express says that the North Carolina fisheries for 1857 have proved a disastrous failure, and several proprietors are selling their beaches at auction.

☞ Alexander Von Humboldt, the illustrious natural philosopher, has been presented with the decoration of grand officer of the Legion of Honor, by the Emperor of the French.

LARGE FIRE.—Madison, Wis. June 5.—The entire block of buildigs known as the Dane County Block was destroyed by fire this morning. The loss is estimated at $75,000—mostly insured.

One Joel S. Russell, was arraigned before the Police Court on Friday, on a charge of selling liquors at Georgetown on the 15th day of October—was found guity and sentenced to fine and imprisonment, from which he appealed.—Newburyport Herald.

The owners of the stallion "Ethan Allen" have backed down from putting up $4000 to run against the "Young Morrill" horse of Manchester in October. This puts an end to lots of excitement and fun among the b'hoys.—American.

Swift, reasoning upon the folly of the dread of death, says:

It is impossible that anything so natural, so necessary, and so universal as death, should ever have been designed by Providence as an evil to mankind.

Manny's Celebrated Mower
—AND—
MOWER AND REAPER.
IMPROVED.
Built expressly for the New England States.

THE MANNY MOWER has been extensively used for the past two years in New England, and more than six years at the West.—Its success is beyond that of any other Mower or Reaper ever constructed. Over 160 1st Premiums have been awarded it, including the Grand 1st Class Silver Medal at the WORLD'S FAIR, PARIS, 1856.
With the two past years' experience, we have been enabled to make a number of very important improvements. We find New England farmers require a different Machine from other sections;—the fields generally being small. It must be light, at the same time possess great strength, portable, with facilities to raise the cutter to pass obstructions, and to remove from field to field. A perfect cutting apparatus, to cut the fine grasses without clogging, and so constructed as to stand in the grass without backing, easily adjusted to cut high or low, and have a Reel to cut equally well with or against the wind, and to be worked with ease by a light team, and so easily managed and simple that any one of common ability may operate it successfully, and to be built in the most thorough manner.
With this knowledge of the farmers' requirements, and with the determination to build a better Machine than has ever before been constructed in this country, we offer the Manny Mower of 1857 with confidence, as combining the qualities enumerated above, and as one particularly adapted to meet the wants of New England farmers.
☞ We invite the farmers to call and examine Machines. Orders should be sent early. Circulars, with testimonials, forwarded free, on application.
Price of Mower, $110; with Reaper attachment, $15 Extra. Delivered on board the cars at Worcester, Mass. JOHN F. ADRIANCE & Co., Manufacturers.

THE BEST
Planing, Tonguing & Grooving Machine
IN THE WORLD.
PATENTED Nov. 21, 1854, and Nov. 13, 1855.—These Patents were obtained for improvements upon the celebrated Woodworth Planing Machine, the Patent for which expired, Dec. 26, 1856. By the combination of these several improvements, a machine is produced of unrivalled excellence.
A GOLD MEDAL for the invention was awarded by the Mass. Char. Mech. Assoc., at their exhibition of 1856.
Machines of all kinds and sizes, from $150 to $2000.
ALL MACHINES WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction, and to be superior to any other machines now in use.
For further information, address the Patentee,

BURDEN'S
Pressed Boat, Ship, Brad & Countersunk Railroad Spikes
ARE well known in the United States, and are conspicuous for their regularity and finish, their unvarying uniformity of size, and for the excellent quality of iron from which they are made, to which may be attributed their rare strength. They are everywhere considered far superior to the best made spike of common English iron, and inferior to nothing of the kind yet introduced to the public.

Morning Chronicle.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 10, 1857.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ELECTION.—Gov. Haile's plurality, as officially declared, was 3002, he having lost precisely 200 votes in the town of Candia, because the return gave his name as William H. Haile, and 36 votes in Eaton, because the return was Wm. instead of William, written out in full.—Add these votes to his, instead of counting them as scattering,

And he would have	3,452
And Wells having	31,214
Would give a plurality of	3,238

while it would reduce the scattering vote to 216, which last number was about the strength of the American party proper.—The clear Republican majority then would be 3,022.

THE WASHINGTON RIOT.—It is stated that five of the "Plug Uglies" have died of wounds received from the fire of the marines. Washington letters say that the prompt and energetic manner in which President Buchanan responded to the call of the Mayor, has met with universal commendation.

The K. N. organs use very violent and abusive language against all who were concerned in suppressing the riot.

The Providence Journal remarks as follows:

"The Washington Union rebukes the introduction of the Kansas mode of carrying elections, into Washington; and deals out to the Plug Uglies the denunciation which they deserve just as richly as the Border Ruffians of Kansas. Both were invaders from another jurisdiction, with the most brutal and infamous designs. The one gang was in the service of the Know Nothings, the other in the service of the Democratic party; both deserve the severest punishment which the offended laws apply to the worst crimes. One gang is defended and one is denounced by the organ of the administration. It it a pity that the two could not be set to fighting each other.

But however little hope there is that the outrages in Kansas will be overtaken by the law, we certainly ought to hope that this atrocious outrage upon the peace of the capital may be b..nished, that this shameful insult to the chief magistrate of the nation may be resented. The whole power of the government should be exerted to the arrest and conviction of the scoundrels who have carried the politics of Kansas under the very shadow of the capitol."

EMEUTE AT CAMBRIDGE.—A drunken teamster assaulted Conductor Moore, of the Cambridge Horse Railroad, yesterday afternoon. A team was going the same way with the car, the teamster pretending to be asleep, the horses, meanwhile, jogging along very slowly and steadily, directly upon the outward track, thus keeping the car in abeyance for about half a mile. No sooner had friend Moore touched the leading horse, than the teamster exhibited a wonderfully wakeful disposition, for jumping down from the wagon, he wheeled it again on the track, and stopped his horses. He then attacked Mr. Moore, striking him once or twice, but the car driver and some of the gentlemen passengers coming to his rescue, the drunken teamster turned upon them, striking the driver, who returned the blow with interest; and he then turned his attention to one of the passengers, who was endeavoring to restrain him.

His effort in behalf of the passenger was duly appreciated, and promptly acknowledged on the spot, being returned with such an unction, that the bullying and perverse individual was obliged to cry out, "enough." A pair of blue-colored "pigsty" were erected in close proximity to his optics, in a remarkably short space of time. The team was finally got off the track, the ladies got into the car again, the "tuff" passenger got aboard, the bell rang, and away went Conductor Moore with his car and passengers, the teamster swearing and wondering how such a genteel individual could manage to thrash him so soundly. Verdict of the crowd—served him right.—Ledger.

Wonder if they couldn't manage to hatch-up a writ for that Conductor.—as probably this drunken brute must have had a "somewhat aggravated provocation."

☞ A carpenter named McGrath, a permanent workman in the Lunatic Asylum in Worcester, went into one of the galleries frequented by patients, having his hammer and saw with him. One of the inmates named James Gibson, seized the opportunity, as McGrath laid down the hammer, to snatch it and bury it in his skull. Another blow was repeated before the homicide could be arrested. The blows were fearful, one breaking in the table of the brain over the temple, and the other over the eye, and both tearing through the dura mater, so that pieces of the skull bone were picked out of the brain. McGrath, who could not be removed to his home, receives every attention that medical skill could suggest in the wards of the hospital. He can hardly survive.

☞ Robert Burns, oldest son of the immortal bard, died on the 14th of May, in Dumfries, Scotland, aged 71 years.

N. H. LEGISLATURE.

CONCORD, MONDAY, June 9.

In the House, Mr. Conn of Portsmouth, presented a remonstrance of Marcellus Bufford and others, against the right of Charles W. March as representative of Ward three, which was referred to the Committee on Elections.

Mr. Clark of Pittsfield offered a resolution "that the committee on Military affairs be instructed to report a bill, at their earliest convenience, to the House, providing for a thorough re-organization and an efficient drill discipline of the militia of this State."

This was laid on the table, and will probably remain there.

Mr. Pitman, of Bartlett, introduced a resolution, instructing the Judiciary Committee to inquire into the expediency of changing the name of "Hart's Location," in the Apportionment Act, to "Hale's Location," the name of Hart's Location appearing twice in said act,—which was adopted.

MATTHEW THORNTON.

A Kingston correspondent of the Exeter News Letter says:

Hon. Mathew Thornton was a tectotaler 60 years ago. This trait in his character, worthy of all imitation, has been omitted by his biographer. In his frequent journeyings from Merrimack, to Exeter and Portsmouth, he often called at the house of an acquaintance by the way, and he always called for punch. The inmates all knew that he wanted milk and water—"not water and milk," he would say, but the larger portion milk. He remarked that when a young man, he commenced business as a physician, and in the course of the day, in visiting his patients, they all set out the bottle, and invited him to drink, and that he often found himself unfit for administering medicine. He at once abstained from all intoxication drinks. He advised others to do the same. He said, "I have seldom known a person who commenced life, drinking regular drams, who did not, in time, become an intemperate man." There is one, at least, now living, who recollects the doctor, and has heard him call for punch.

More than thirty years ago, Mr. Editor, Dr. Lyman Beecher delivered six sermons on temperance, and Jona. Kittredge, Esq. published his able address on the same subject. G. B. Cheever published the dream of Deacon Giles's Distillery. These publications produced at the time, quite a sensation, and the people were aroused. A general rally was made, temperance societies were formed on the principle of total abstinence from all that could intoxicate, good was done, a large proportion of the farmers, mechanics and professional men banished it from their houses, many signed the pledge, and have lived up to it ever since.

Twenty years ago, it was thought by many sanguine friends of temperance, that when the three hundred thousand drunkards should die off, the rising generation would be all temperance men; but it is not so. There are many youths under twenty years of age, of whom we might expect better things, who drink to intoxication.

Considering this alarming state of things, is it not necessary, Mr. Editor, that something should be done, if possible, to check the evil? I call on the citizens of Exeter to set the ball in motion. Exeter, though not a city, is, and ever has been, one of the leading and most prominent towns in the State on public affairs. It contains many industrious and intelligent farmers, enterprising mechanics, learned professors, and quite a sprinkling of lawyers, some of them second to none in the State. Come one, come all, and put your shoulder to the temperance wheel.

I call on the descendants of those illustrious men of the revolution, Sullivan, Cilley and the Gilmans, to come to the rescue to help to free us from a tyranny which threatens to be more fatal to our liberties than ever did that of George the Third. I call on the clergy of the county of Rockingham to enlist with more ardor in this cause. You were requested by the State Temperance Committee to preach on Temperance. Have you all done it faithfully, or has it been like the advice of Eli to his sons? You often have contributions on the Sabbath for missionaries to the heathen in foreign lands; do you ever have any to promote the cause of temperance at home. I call on the upper tendom to set aside their wine bottles and seal them, labelled Poison. You may flatter yourselves that you can use it moderately, but perhaps your example may cause you a drunken son, or an intemperate daughter.

☞ The City Council of Portland have under consideration an ordinance which "provides that the roof of any building in that city, which is covered with slate, shall have placed upon the eaves, upon that side which slopes towards the street, an iron or wooden railing of sufficient strength to prevent the snow and ice from sliding from the roof. And if any owner of such building shall neglect to comply with this requirement, after due notice, the municipal authorities may place such guards upon the roof as this ordinance requires." This is as it should be.

☞ The acid in rhubarb, gooseberries and currants may be neutralized by putting a third of a tea spoonful of soda in the fruit, and without affecting the flavor. A less quantity of sugar will then answer to sweeten them for pies, sauces, &c.

☞ The Congregational Church in Northampton, Mass., has had twenty-nine different clergymen since July, 1855; seventeen of whom were invited by the "committee," with the expectation of becoming candidates for the vacancy. It is a large and wealthy church. This is rather more of "itinerancy," than even the Methodists contend for.

☞ In Boston, on Saturday night, during a closely contested struggle for the first drink, at an Irish bar-room, on Factory street, a man named Martin Ragan interfered to separate the belligerent parties, when one of the men turned upon him with a club, and broke his jaw-bone.

☞ Col. John V. Plume, of Lake Mahopac, N. J., has a Durham cow that gave birth to three heifer calves on Friday last. They are all doing well, and cannot be distinguished apart.

☞ A writer of Blackwood says that every man who is not a monster, a mathematician, or a mad philosopher, is the slave of some woman or other.

☞ The Methodists of Portland are erecting a new Church, which the Argus says will be, without exception, the handsomest Church edifice in the State of Maine.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

"Charlie, dear, what have you here?"

"A bottle of the celebrated Carminative, for little bub; it cured Sally Ann's baby of the colic."

DAVIS' DAGUERREAN GALLERY, No. 8 Daniel street, has been refitted, enlarged, and refurnished, the past week, and is now decidedly the finest and best Saloon in the State. No expense has been spared to make it not only a place to obtain good pictures, but an agreeable and interesting room for visitors. And while their ..res are unrivalled, their prices are so low that all can afford them.

THE SECRET DISCOVERED AT LAST.—We have noticed in passing through Market street, lately, that the New Store, No. 15, always seems crowded with customers. We have at last discovered the secret of it. On stepping inside, we find that the proprietors, MESSRS. ALLEN & PAINE, in fitting up their store in the beautiful manner they have, had an eye for the useful, as well as for the ornamental; we noticed that the store appeared very light and cheerful, and on looking for a solution of the mystery, we discover that the store contains a Sky Light, giving them facilities for showing their Goods possessed by no other Dry Goods store in town; as Customers by such a light, have no difficulty in seeing just what they are purchasing, and can not be deceived in the color or quality of goods. We notice, also, that their stock is always composed of the best qualities and very latest styles, which is explained by the fact that one of the firm visits the market to replenish their goods every ten days,—and as they buy for Cash, all together, they are able to offer their goods at as low prices as any other parties.

Those about to purchase Dry Goods will do well to visit them. Read their advertisement in another column.

Also, Kennedy's Medical Discovery, price 68 cents per bottle.

☞ We call attention of the Bald and Grey to Professor Wood's "Hair Restorative;" without doubt the only remedy that can restore the hair to its pristine quality, and has given universal satisfaction. The Professor has the testimonials of hundreds of cases cured by this infallible restorative, and we can cordially recommend it to all who need to use this valuable preparation.—[Cincinnati Daily Sun.

DOES ANY OF OUR HIGH LIVERS ever eat too much dinner? If any of our readers have cooks who tempt their appetite to this dollar, I will tell a secret that will send them to the enjoyment of their dinners, without a visit from their jolly old gentleman, Dyspepsia. Take a dose of Dr. Sanford's Invigorator after eating, and you will never be troubled with indigestion; but on the contrary, before the next meal time approaches, the appetite will be sharpened to appreciate any kind of food. If the food rises or sours, the Invigorator will fix the matter right at once, for there is something in it that, to use the expression of a friend, will let a man eat gravel stones, and take the Invigorator and they will digest. We have tried it in double doses on one or two occasions, for sick headache, and it acts like a charm.

What we want to say to our readers, young or old, is, if anything ails you, go without delay and get a bottle of Dr. Sanford's Invigorator, and if it don't cure, come and tell us, for we want to see one person that it will not benefit.

PADDY AND LAWYER SNAP.—At a criminal court lately the counsel, dissatisfied at his want of success with an Irish witness, complained to the court.

Here Paddy lent in with genuine Irish brogue:

"An sure I'm no lawyer, yer honor, an the spalpane only wants to bother me."

Lawyer Snap — "Come, now, do you swear you are no lawyer?"

Witness—"Faix, an I do; and ye may swear the same about yourself, without fear of perjury."

ONE CONSOLATION.—Punch says,—'It is so far fortunate that the gentlemen's fashions do not keep pace with the ladies,' or else by this time, their hats would have dwindled down to the size of a charity boy's muffin-cap, and their trowsers would have swollen out to about double the size of those of a Turk's and Dutchman's stitched together.'

Juvenile Singing School.

AT the repeated request of friends and parents and for the benefit of the rising generation more than of himself, the subscriber will commence a Term of Juvenile School, at his airy and beautiful new Room,

Exchange Hall, No. 4 Exchange Buildings,

On SATURDAY AFTERNOON, June 13, at 3 o'clock precisely;

to continue on Wednesday and Saturday Afternoons.

TERMS, One Dollar for the Course of Twelve Lessons to be paid in advance. Tickets to be had at Mr. Cobb's Music Store, and of Mr. Pearson.

It must certainly be regretted by every one who considers the matter intelligently, that of about two thousand children attending the public schools in Portsmouth, so few are receiving any musical instruction in class, or in any way save by private teachers—which of course is not the most efficient or economical mode of disseminating a general love and knowledge of music.

In the absence of any provision to have music taught in our public schools, the subscriber is willing and desirous to "do what he can" to make up the deficiency; and will therefore engage again in the instruction of a Juvenile Class—one of the most laborious, though not most remunerative, departments of the musical profession.

Having most excellent accommodations for ONE HUNDRED PUPILS,

it would seem that this comparatively small number could easily be gathered from the various schools in the city.

The attention of parents and all others interested, is respectfully invited to our new and beautiful room, &c.

REMAIN AT THE

THROUGH the entire week, ending Saturday, 13th inst.,—three days longer than at first intended—in response to request to that effect, and she would express her thanks for the kindness and confidence manifested by the citizens of Portsmouth in her favor. j6 1w

LOCAL.

☞ Not much of a harvest in the way of local news, these days. Business is not very brisk—just as is the case everywhere else—and it is no use to talk about it; but go to work to improve matters. If you can't build a ship, plant corn; if sewing shoes don't pay, sowing grain may, and generally does.

The Piscataqua Ferry hadn't got to running at last accounts—that is, the boat hadn't, though the water will doubtless run some time yet. We have heard of financial troubles, and ultimately legal difficulties, concerning the little craft,—both which are certainly enough to sink anything that floats.

Our goodly steamboat which we were promised, to run in our harbor, and on excursions thence—where is she? Alas!—not even even echo answers.

The weather just now is delightful, and let us make the most of it. Frequent short excursions on the water or into the country, conduce to comfort and health. Everybody should walk a mile or two each day, and sniff the fresh air—and a little water, too, wont hurt 'em. Why, nine-tenths of our citizens might as well live in the dark, for all they see of the beautiful suburbs of Portsmouth; and if the people appreciated salt-water bathing, the Floating Bath would need to be ten times larger.

☞ Mr. Edwd. S. Gove, whose house and buildings at Gravelly Ridge, were burned on Saturday last, with their contents—in all worth perhaps $1200,—we are told is an industrious and worthy young farmer. His premises should have been insured;—but we are glad to see, by a subscription paper circulated for his benefit, that our citizens are doing considerable to help him start again. The circumstances of the accident were singular, and his loss comprised almost everything he had. His horse was saved by his wife, who took him from his stall at the risk of her life; and she also saved what she could, alone, move from the house in a few minutes. The cause of the destruction was the kindling of bonfires in the barn by thoughtless boys.

"THE BLIND RECEIVE SIGHT."—Dr. N. L. Folsom, of this city, has devoted much study and attention to the organs of sight; and according to the following statement, is a skilful operator on the eye.

Mr. Editor:—As there may be some one who is or may be afflicted as I have been, and who may have despaired of relief as I did, I consider it my duty to make known that such persons need not despair. A few years ago, I became gradually blind, so that I could not distinguish light from darkness. I could obtain no relief, and almost despairing, I went to Boston to consult eminent men there. After consulting several physicians, and being operated upon by several, without the least benefit, I returned to Portsmouth, convinced that I must go through life in darkness. But as long as there is life there is hope, and I finally applied to Dr. N. J. Folsom of this city, and although I had been reduced to poverty by my long-continued calamity, he, thinking he could do something for me, performed a surgical operation upon my eyes which was entirely successful. I can now see the finest print, and can read as well as ever I could. The cause of my loss of sight was a soft cataract, which, as I was informed, was much the worst to cure. I have now had the use of my eyes about three months. CHARLES HAM.

Portsmouth, June 1, 1857.

CURE OF INVALIDS.—The success already attendant upon Mrs. Mansfield's practice, has given an impulse to many invalids to visit her, who have previously had hardly any hope of ever being cured. The sensible improvement of a sick person or child is naturally calculated to quicken hope in others who are sick, and in the minds of their friends also.

Her ability to closely adapt remedies to the complaint, by her minute knowledge, as betokened by her examination, is no trifling matter, but one of really the deepest importance to those who are out of health. COM.

ADULTERATIONS.—Speaking of adulterations, the Newburyport Herald says:—

As to flour, the adulteration is probably not so universal; though plaster and Indian meal is mixed with it in great quantities; alum, however, is always or nearly always ground with it, to impart that artificial whiteness which consumers so foolishly but imperatively demand; so that this can hardly be called a cheat.

In regard to spices, as they are a matter of luxury, and used in comparatively minute quantities, we may as well submit to the imposition of ground bark and "wooden nutmegs" till we have removed greater evils.

The adulteration of liquors has ceased to be a fraud, since every one understands that if he buys a gallon of wine or any kind of spirit at whatever price, there is not one change in a hundred that he gets what he pays for.

KEEP YOUR TEMPER.—Avoid entering into an argument with a deaf man in a railway carriage, as it is sure to lead to high words.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—The pressure for the Consulship to London is so severe that the President has concluded to supersede Gen. Campbell.

Gov. Walker will probably be recalled soon, to take charge of the State Department, as Gen. Cass is failing under his labors.

The story of the visit of Fillibuster Walker to this city is not credited, as a writ awaits him from the U. S. Circuit Court of New York, for plundering the Transit Company.

LOUISVILLE, June 8.—The steamer Woodward, with Gen. Walker and suite on board, arrived here at 8 o'clock, this morning. There was no public demonstration, and there is apparently none in prospect. They leave for Cincinnati to-morrow.

The contest in Kansas is experiencing a marked change. The effort to make it a nominal slave State is abandoned as hopeless, and the pro-slavery party are bending all their energies to induce the people to elect the same U. S. Senators and Representatives that would have been chosen had the first and bolder scheme succeeded, and thus make it proslavery at Washington, whatever it is at home. There will be a sharp struggle at the October legislative election between the Republicans and proslavery Democrats on this point. Gen. Wilson's speech at Topeka furnishes the key to the true future contest in the Territory.—Traveller.

SPANISH JUSTICE.—A good comment on Spanish justice was made by a Spaniard, when speaking of a person who had been arrested, charged with a serious offence. "The case is so clear against him," was the artless remark, "that unless he has plenty of money he will certainly be condemned."

☞ On Monday morning, a prisoner by the name of Cann, who had for some time run the steam engine at the State Prison at Concord, made his escape. He was engaged, about 5 o'clock, in building the fire when, taking advantage of a favorable opportunity, he made his escape over the wall. Pursuit is upon his track, and he will probably be caught.

TO THE CITIZENS OF THE UNITED STATES.
CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.

After several years experimenting in the manufacturing of Gin, I fortunately succeeded, in the year 1848, in making a discovery in its manufacture by which it was deprived of all acrid and inflammatory properties, and rendered perfectly pure.

My manufactory is at Scheidam, Holland. After several months' reflection what title to give it, I introduced it to the American public under the name of "Wolfe's Scheidam Aromatic Schnapps." Scheidam is the name of the place in Holland where the Gin is manufactured. Aromatic derives its name from the Italian Juniper Berry with which it is flavored, and the word "Schnapps" is the German for drink—Cogne, Dram—Wolfe's Scheidam Aromatic Drink. No sooner had my Schnapps been introduced to the American public and received with approbation, than the Liquor Mixers of New York, Boston and Philadelphia, started in pursuit with their mixed and poisonous stuff under various names: Scheidam Gin, Scheidam Schnapps, London Club House Gin, London Cordial Gin, &c., and in several cases my labels have been so perfectly imitated, with the addition of a few letters to plead a technical avoidance of the law, and so carefully prepared as to impose on careless purchasers. I understand a large quantity has been purchased by the merchants of the Eastern States on account of the cheapness of the articles. A merchant who participates indirectly in the fraud by selling the spurious articles, is as much an offender as the principal who planned the imposition.

I hope every respectable citizen who values the health of the community in which he lives will aid me in ferreting out and exposing the unscrupulous merchant, who, for the sake of a few cents, will put in jeopardy the lives of the community in which he lives. Such men should be nailed to the pillory of popular execration.

WOLFE'S SCHEIDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS is made from barley of the first quality, selected with great care from the products of the most celebrated grain-growing districts, is flavored with the essence of the aromatic Juniper Berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process, which expels from the spirit every acrid particle.

As a means of preventing and correcting the disagreeable and often dangerous effects produced upon the stomach and bowels by a change of water—a visitation to which travelers and settlers, and all unacclimated persons in the West, the South and South-West are peculiarly liable—the Scheidam Aromatic Schnapps will be found absolutely infallible; while, in cases of dropsy, gravel, obstructions of the kidneys, diseases of the bladder, dyspepsia, and general debility, it is recommended most emphatically by the most distinguished members of the medical profession

It is put up in quart and pint bottles, in cases of one dozen, with the name of the undersigned on the bottle and cork, and a fac-simile of his signature and label.

For sale by all respectable druggists and country merchants. UDOLPHO WOLFE.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN

Is shown by the Records of the Custom House to be the only London Cordial Gin IMPORTED and sold in bottles; all others are made here in imitation of it.

It is a delicious tonic beverage, and by its peculiar flavor (so different from other gins) is universally esteemed by all who use it. It is adopted with great success in cases of Dyspepsia, Gout, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Gravel, Colic, Cholera, Fever and Ague, Stricture, Diseases of the Urinary Organs, Epilepsy, Female Irregularities.

Dr. Valentine Mott of New York, in a letter to the proprietor, says:

Charles' London Cordial Gin, is the purest, best, and most reliable Diuretic of Juniper I have seen.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN is sold by all Druggists and Grocers in the United States, and so also are numerous poisons called "London Cordial Gin"—to avoid them buy only "CHARLES'." Reject any other offered to you as you value your health. Price one dollar for quarts, fifty cents for pints.

FOR THE CURE OF

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach

PITTSBURG, PA., May 1, 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER: Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst Headaches by your Cathartic Pills, a box of one of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they cleanse at once. If they will do this to others as they do me, the fact is worth knowing.

Yours with great respect, EZ. W. PEEBLE,

Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, WASHINGTON, D. C., 7 Feb., 1856.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy in bilious derangements of the organs. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease to obstinate that it did not readily yield to them.

Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALLS, M. D., Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

POST OFFICE, HAVERHILL, LYC. CO., MICH., NOV. 16, 1855

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine they have done my wife more good than I can tell you She had been sick and pronounced by her physicians to be worn off to be doctored at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. Some days afterwards, she passed a large quantity of bloody dysentery. One of our neighbors had it bad, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, which others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctors' bills, and lost much time, without being cured entirely even then. Such a medicine as yours, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here.

Yours, J. V. GRIFFIN, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood they are the most efficacious medicine I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, WYOMING CO., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Salt Rheum, and Pulmonary Complaints.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of Erysipelas upon her hands and feet that had proved intractable for years. My mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her. Yours, truly, JOHN T. DOW

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawkins, of the Methodist Episc. Church.

PULASKI HOUSE, SAVANNAH, GA., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled upon my joints, which, in the form of acute neuralgia pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until I was laid up for four or five months at Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well.

SENATE CHAMBER, Boston, Mass., Jan. 5, 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been essentially cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years. VINCENT SLIDELL.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are agreeable and effectual.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness, and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its improper exhibition. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet of the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its efficacy, and few are the communities any where which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and deceitful disease of the throat and lungs. Yielding to no one the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous disease of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that stals upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the Cherry Pectoral will cure, at least, the last consumption it prevents them those it cures. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable, not neglect them until no human skill can reach the incurable seated, but fastened on the vitals, sole your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and as they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them that it is the best article they can procure.

Be. We speak not, nor care, no fall to produce it the most perfect possible, and thus afford those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their cure.

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which Mr. Swan is the sole manager, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which should be well considered is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the week. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (drawing a blank, prize, and various combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100 '20. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

☞ The drawn numbers of the Maryland Lotteries are published by the State Commissioner in the following papers, viz: Sun, Chronicle, Patriot, American, Argus, of Baltimore; also, the National Intelligencer and Union, of Washington, D.C.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the state of Georgia does, via Sam. Swan & Co. are legalized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next after that in which the same comes to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $20; halves, $6; quarters, $2.50. No tickets are sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no occasion for any parties to certify to have drawn a prize. Prizes vary from $40 to $50,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing published to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to SWAN & Co., Atlanta, Georgia

Prizes paid in full.—No percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

All transactions strictly confidential. m15ly

S. D. & H. W. Smith,

—MANUFACTURERS OF—

Melodeons, Organ Melodeons,

—and—

PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,

No. 511 Washington Street, Boston.

The first premium over all competitors, at the Fair of the Mass. Charitable Mechanic Association, of the National Fair, Washington, D. C., also at the Ohio State Fair, held in Columbus, Ohio, 1855, has been awarded to these Manufacturers.

By means of a new method of voicing, known only to themselves, they have succeeded in removing the harsh and burning sound which generally characterized the instrument, and rendering the tones full, clear and organ like. The action is prompt and reliable, enabling the performer to execute the most rapid music without blurring the tones. The swell is arranged to give great expression.

THE PEDAL BASS MELODEONS, Are designed particularly for Churches, Lodges, Halls, &c. It is arranged with two manuals, or banks of Keys, the lower set running an octave higher than the other, and may be used separately, and thus get in use as two distinct instruments; or by use of the coupler, the two banks of keys may be played at the same time by one set of front set only. This connected with the Pedal Bass, will produce the effect of a large organ, and is unusually heavy to fill a house that seats from 1000 to 1500 persons.

ORGAN MELODEON

Is designed for parlor and private use. The construction is similar to the Church Instrument, being arranged with two banks of Keys, and when properly played by means of the coupler, is capable of as great volume of power as the Church Instrument when used without the pedals. Also, every variety of MELODEONS for Parlor use.

Purchasers may rely upon instruments from our Manufactory, being made in the most complete and thorough manner. Having removed to the spacious Building

511 Washington Street,

We have every facility for manufacturing purposes, and employ none but the most experienced and skilful workmen. In short, we will warrant our instruments as instruments ought, it not superior, to any Manufacturer, and guarantee an entire and perfect satisfaction.

Music Teachers, Leaders of Choirs, and others interested in musical matters, are respectfully invited to visit our Rooms at any time and examine or test the instruments on exhibition for sale at their pleasure.

We feel at liberty to guarantee to the public as to the excellence of the MELODEONS from our Manufactory, we beg leave to refer, by permission, to the following

Piano Forte Manufacturers of Boston,

who have examined our Instruments, and will give their opinion when called upon:

Chickering & Sons, Hallett & Cumston,
T. Gilbert & Co., Wm. P. Emerson,
Brown & Allen, A. W. Ladd & Co.,
George Hewes, Woodward & Brown,
Newhall & Co.

MELODEONS WANTED.

Persons who wish to hire Melodeons with a view of purchasing at the end of the year, can have the rent credited as part payment of the purchase money. This method has been found equal note, as it enables those who desire a fair test of the instruments before purchasing, to obtain it at the expense of the manufacturers, to the extent at least of a year's rent.

Orders from any part of the country or world, sent direct to the manufactory in Boston, with cash, or satisfactory references, will be promptly attended to, and as faithfully executed as if the parties were present, or employed an agent to select, and on as reasonable terms.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,

(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)

No. 76 State st, opp. Kilby st, Boston,

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Reexamine into the patentability of Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the Claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Subscriber is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, it and immeasurably superior to any that can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE. THE SKILL and ZEAL and SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that the charges of the Subscriber for the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office, and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in securing inventors that they cannot employ a more competent and faithful agent worthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

August 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

A Retired Physician

Whose sands of life have nearly run out, discovered while in the East Indies, a certain cure for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds and General Debility.

The remedy was discovered by him when his only child, a daughter, was given up to die—Wishing to do as much good as possible, he will send a book on his skillful yellow beings as request it, this receipe, with full and explicit directions for making it up, and successfully using it. He requires each applicant to enclose him one shilling—three cent to be returned as postage on the recipe, and the remainder to be applied to the payment of this advertisement. Address

SINGULAR EFFECTS OF ELECTRICITY.—The following singular instance which recently occurred in Detroit, is chronicled by the Free Press:

A locomotive was being moved from the Manufactory to Central depot, and had arrived in the middle of the street, when suddenly all hands dropped the bars with which they were moving the machine, and all fell back in amazement. They applied them again to the wheels, and again fell back paralyzed, the instant they touched the iron.—The director of the job caught up one of the bars, and making a savage thrust, planted it under a wheel, preparatory to giving a huge lift. No sooner had it touched, however, than it fell from his grasp, to the ground, as it had done before. An examination was then made, as to the case, when it was found that the locomotive in passing under the telegraph line, had come in contact with a broken wire that hung sufficiently low to reach it. The whole mass of iron composing the locomotive had thus become charged with electricity, which had communicated itself to the bars that the men held in their hands, and caused the effect above described. The wire was then removed, and the difficulty obviated in a moment.

The Earl of Orford, England, in reply to an application made to him by the secretary of the Norwich Bible Society, to take the chair at their meeting, writes as follows:—"Sir,—I am surprised and annoyed at the contents of your letter—surprised, because my well known character should have exempted me from such an application; and annoyed, because it obliges me to have this communication with you. I have long been addicted to the gaming table: I have lately taken to the turf; I fear I frequently blaspheme—have never distributed religious tracts. All this was well know to you and your society; nothwithstanding which you think me a fit person for your president. God forgive your hypocrisy! I would rather live in the land of sinners than with such saints—I am, sir, &c., (signed) ORFORD."

SENATOR BELL'S DISEASE.—"The Concord (N. H.) Statesman says the body of Hon. James Bell was examined by Dr. Josiah Crosby of Manchester, when it was found that its disease had been misapprehended. It was cancer in the intestines." This statement is incorrect. The disease was a cancerous stricture of the rectum, and Mr. Bell's physicians, Drs. H. G. Clark of Boston, and Wyman of Cambridge, more than a year ago had pronounced it to be such. For personal reasons the public were allowed to believe it chronic diarrhœa. But the disease was not misapprehended, and the treatment prescribed was that demanded by the circumstances of the case.—Boston Courier.

NOT TO BE TRUSTED AT LARGE.—Queer things happen sometimes, even in Lunatic Asylums. A rough fellow passing the Worcester establishment, noticed at the window an old acquaintance, and bawled out to him, "Hello, old fellow, what are you in for?" "Voting for Fillmore," was the prompt reply. The inquirer sloped—he had probably done it himself.

There's a high old deacon up at Waukegan, who stands six feet six in his stockings, extremely pious, methodical, not over benevolent, a man of few words and a very hard check, and although rigid in enforcing family prayers, was never known to say grace at any meal in his life. His pastor, a rather odd stick himself, was one day questioned, "Why Deacon Q. never asked a blessing?" "Don't really know," was the reply, "but you know he isn't much given to asking for anything, and it's just like him to reach up and take it!"

ACCIDENT.—An Irishman named James O'Donnell, from Bath, fell from the P. S. & P. Railroad wharf, Portland, Monday afternoon, striking on his head and shoulders as he touched the flats. Report was carried to the Police office, that the man was killed, and some of the officers went up to remove the body. It was taken to the Alms House, but no bruises could be discovered, neither could any broken bones be found. After some little investigation it was discovered that the man was really dead—drunk!—Argus.

RUM'S DOINGS.—A man by the name of Sanford Holmes, of Francestown, while on his way from a liquor shop in a neighboring town to his residence, at a late hour of the night, fell from a bridge, and cut a severe gash in his head. Mr. Holmes was as promising a young man as any in the community, and but for the use of the intoxicating liquors would be a useful member of society. His wife has petitoned for a divorce.—Dover Star.

STRANGE MISTAKE.—An Irish girl in Newburyport, a few days ago, in telling her mistress that one of her friends had got into trouble, said he had been to all the liars in the city to get him out of it. It was soon perceived she meant the lawyers, and she was told the distinction in the words. She had before supposed they were the same, which was certainly a very remarkable mistake.—Herald.

A RUMMY CITY.—Toronto, C. W., must be about the rummiest city on this continent. Last year, one-eigth of the gross population was arrested for drunkenness, and at a recent feast, the cost of the liquors exceeded the contributions of the city for one year to all the public charities.—There are nearly five hundred licensed and unlicensed groggeries within the city limits.—N. B. Standard.

It has been thought that people are degenerating, because they don't live as long as in the days of Methuseleh. But the fact is, provisions are so high that nobody can afford to live very long at the current prices.

BURDEN'S
Pressed Boat, Ship, Brad & Countersunk Railroad Spikes
ARE well known in the United States, and are a conspicuous for their regularity and finish, their unvarying uniformity of size, and for the excellent quality of iron from which they are made, to which may be attributed their rare strength. Morning Chronicle.

THURSDAY, JUNE 11, 1857.

☞ The Rockingham Conference of Congregational churches met at North Hampton, on Tuesday morning. Rev. Lyman Whiting of this city, was chosen moderator, and Rev. Winthrop Fifield of South Newmarket, scribe. Sermon in the morning by Rev. Mr. Whiting. In the afternoon, accounts of the several churches were given, by about 20 ministers, who represented as many churches, with a larger number of delegates. Considerable additions were reported, to as many as ten churches; with renewed interest in sabbath schools, prayer and conference meetings, and temperance efforts. These accounts, with hymns and prayer, fully occupied the afternoon, interesting a large assembly. In the evening, the New Hampshire Missionary Society had its claims presented by Rev. Wm. Clark, its agent, who has visited most towns in the State.

WEDNESDAY, June 10.

Rev. Mr. Fifield in the Chair. Resolutions were passed, noticing the death of Rev. Drs. Jonathan French and Joseph Hurd, during the past year.

The interests of Home Missions were presented, by Rev. Messrs. Holmes and Clark. Resolutions were passed, to send a committee to visit feeble churches,—and to recommend that the Home Mission money raised in this State be increased, and more freely expended within the State.

Bible efforts were advocated by Rev. Mr. Cummings of Exeter, especially the furnishing of a new testament to every child in New Hampshire.

Tract operations were presented for consideration by Rev. Mr. Robie.

[A colporteur in the mountainous region of Virginia, found a neighborhood of ten families, in no one of which was there any bible, testament, or religious book.]

Seamen's Friend societies and efforts were commended by Rev. Messrs. Fifield and Otis.

A large Sabbath school was addressed by Rev. Messrs. Tenney, Herrick, and Clark.

The claims of Foreign Missions were presented by Rev. Mr. Warren,—and some particulars of the Choctaw Mission were given by Rev. Hobbs, who belongs to that mission.

In the afternoon, a sermon was preached by Rev. Mr. Holmes, and the Lord's supper administered, closing the services.

U. S. SENATOR.—The election of a United States Senator from New Hampshire, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Mr. Bell, is set apart for Friday next, at 11½ A. M. The Republicans will make a selection for candidate, this evening. The choice will doubtless lie between Hon. Ichabod Goodwin of this city, and Daniel Clark, Esq., of Manchester. We hear from all quarters that the preference for the first-named gentleman relatively increases, day by day—and that there is strong hope among his friends that he will be the candidate, which of course secures his election.

The Democratic party have nominated Hon. John S. Wells as their candidate.

☞ At the Democratic State Convention in Concord, on Wednesday, Col. Asa P. Cate of Northfield, was nominated as candidate for Governor.

☞ Among the resolutions passed at the late convention of the Universalist denomination of Massachusetts, at Weymouth, and which were offered by the Rev. E. G. Brooks of Lynn, from the "Business committee;" was the following:

Resolved, That in view of the course of events, and especially of the perversion of our judiciary, as exhibited during the past year, we affirm our increased hostility to slavery as a sin per se, tending, inevitably, to barbarize those among whom it exists, and to debauch the moral sentiment of the nation; and that while we cannot but declare the conviction that every dictate of humanity, every principle of our religion, and every interest of our country, and of the world, conspire to demand its abolition, we must also hold wilful and persistent slaveholding, one of "those works of darkness," with which we can have no fellowship, and that they who practice it, are of those concerning whom the word is, "Come ye out from among them, and be separate, saith the Lord."

☞ A male biped named Robbins, who kept a disreputable house not far from Detroit, to the annoyance of his lady neighbors, was waited upon a few days since by a 'strong-minded' committee of them, who threw a bucket of tar over his head as he appeared at the door of his infamous and polluted den, and then directed him utterly of his manufactured apparel, and clothed him instead with a picturesque and gallinaceous coat of feathers.

TEMPERANCE IN MANCHESTER.

Edson C. George was complained of on Saturday Afternoon, June 6, for selling some brandy to Miss Elizabeth Manchester, contrary to law.

Below is a condensed report of the evidence in the case. Fitch and Stanley are the defendant's counsel.

Elizabeth Manchester, sworn.—I know where Mr. George's place of business is; I bought half-a-pint of brandy there in the month of December last; am sure it was brandy; I called for brandy, and the gentleman who put it up for me said it was brandy: I paid one half dollar for it; I carried a bottle with me to get it in; it was put into the bottle that I carried; I don't know whether Mr. George was an agent for the sale of liquor at that time;—I could not tell of whom I purchased it; I could not tell as I have seen the person that I have bought it of; I don't remember that I have; I purchased it for Mrs. Prescott, and I carried it to her; I put it on the shelf; she was out at the time; I afterwards told her where it was; I boarded at Mrs. Prescott's at the time.

Cross Questioned.—I am 26 years old and am not married; I am at work in a tailor's shop; I don't know who entered the complaint; I never told any one before this time that I bought the brandy; I had no object in buying this brandy; Mrs. Prescott wanted me to buy it to make medicine of; I did't drink any of it; the bottle belonged to me; I had bitters in it; there was no liquor in it; I purchased this liquor in the month of December.

Mrs. Lorinda L. Prescott, Sworn.—I sent Miss Manchester to George & Co.'s to purchase some brandy; she did so; I was not with her; she took a bottle with her from the house and brought back the same bottle; I know she bought it there, because I took the same bottle, the next day, and went back to George's—I thought it was about half watered—it looked rather weak to me, and I wanted it to fix some medicine; I carried it into George & Co.'s shop, on the corner of Elm and Hanover streets; I spoke to a clerk—I can't tell who it was—I told him I thought I could get water for nothing, and I didn't want to pay half-a-dollar for it; he said he thought it was good, but couldn't tell, as he didn't sell it to the girl I sent in there; Mr. George stood by the writing desk, and turned to me and said, "Mrs. Prescott, it is pure brandy and I sold it to her; it is seven years old;" I took my brandy and walked out again; he did not change the brandy; I know Mr. George, and have known him three or four years; it was the very next day after I purchased the liquor that I returned it; it was in the month of December; I heard the testimony of Miss Manchester; she resides in my family.

[Mr. Stanley here asked the witness to whom she first revealed the fact of her having purchased the liquor; but the Judge instructed the witness not to answer any questions tending to show with whom she had conferred, or by whose means the prosecution had been instituted. The examination was then resumed, the following conversation occurring.]

Mr. Stanley—To how many have you revealed this matter?

Witness—To quite a number.

Stanley—For what purpose?

Witness.—For the purpose of doing good.

Stanley—How did you expect to do this good?

Witness—There are a number of ladies in Manchester, who feel anxious to save their sons from a drunkard's grave; and the ladies have daughters that they want to save from drunken husbands.

Stanley—Do you expect your telling will do all this?

Witness—I don't think telling would do it, but there is work to be done.

Stanley—What work?

Witness—Make use of the law while we have it.

Stanley—In other words, then, did you not buy this liquor for the purpose of prosecuting Mr. George?

Witness—When you find out, probably you'll know.

Stanley—But I ask you the question, and i want to know.

Witness—Do you?

Stanley—Yes.

Witness—Well you won't know from me.

Mr. Fitch—We will see about that.

Judge Upton—You may answer that question, Mrs. Prescott.

Witness—(After some hesitation) Well, yes, I did.

Stanley—And you had this prosecution in view from the commencement?

Witness—(After casting an inquiring look at the judge and counsel for prosecution) Yes, I did.

I have talked the matter over with as many persons as I was a mind to; I didn't count 'em; I didn't count the number of times I have spoken of it, either; I did buy it for the purposes of prosecution, but I made use of it as a medicine—not a beverage; I know it was somewhere in the month of December; I can't seem to recollect how I fix it in December; I should think it was near the last of December; I should be willing to swear that it was before the 1st of January; but should not be willing to swear that it was one day before that; I didn't have this case up before, because I didn't see fit; one reason why we have not done anything before, is, we have been waiting for the gentlemen to do something; we wanted them to take the thing in hand.

[Mr. Fitch inquired if any gentleman had taken the thing in hand and how long it was before they took it in hand—she replied]

Yes, they have taken it in hand, and that is the way the case came up.

I have no husband now, and I should be afraid to undertake to get one now-a-days; I didn't go and buy this myself, because I wa'n't a mind to; I did not disclose to her what I was about—I told her it was for medicine; I didn't tell Miss Manchester because I didn't see fit; I didn't intend she should have the secret; I sent her to George & Co.'s because I wanted her to go there and get some brandy; I sent her to that particular place because there is the place to go if you want to stop rum-selling; there is where the respectability go to drink; I do not wish to injure Mr. George; I did it for his good; I expect he has a mother somewhere, and I know how she must feel; I carried it back because it was not strong enough for my medicines; I call the medicine, cholera medicine; I have it here in my pocket, if you want to taste of it.

Stanley—No no, I am no judge of liquor.

I went back to Mr. George's because I thought Miss Manchester's evidence was not quite strong enough, and I wanted to get it a little stronger; I have prepared the cholera medicine; I wasn't any better satisfied as to the strength of the brandy after the conversation; I have sent others there since; no matter who I sent—I sent who I was a mind to.

Stanley—Is there not an organization of women to prosecute all that sell liquor.

Witness—It is none of your business.

Stanley—Does each female have a particular field of labor?

Witness—I'spose when you find out you'll know. Each one takes care of her own field.

Stanley—Then each one does have a distinct field—that's all I wanted to find out.

[Some discussion occurred here about the competence of the court to compel the witness to answer the question, inquiring when she had sent there since, and whether for the purpose of prosecution. The judge ruled that he had no right to compel a witness, in a cross-examination, to answer questions not immediately connected in the case. When asked how many times she had been there herself, she gave the usual reply, 'It's none of business,' but the court ruled that she might answer that.]

I sent just as many times as I wanted to; I have been there once since; the "once since," I went in on purpose for a prosecution; I know I might have asked him to stop selling, as I had got evidence against him, but I don't know why I didn't.

The testimony here closed. Mrs. Prescott maintained a determination throughout to answer no question which she considered not directly connected with the case, unless compelled by the court, giving such answers as "It's none of your business." "I shan't tell," "Don't you wish you knew," "When you find out I guess you'll know," &c.

Mr. George's counsel moved that he be discharged, because there was no evidence that he sold any liquor prior to the 31st of December. The story of the last witness in regard to what Mr. George said to her, he considered highly improbable, and he thought it would appear so to the Court.

The Judge, after summing up the evidence, ordered that the respondent give bail to the sum of $400 for his appearance at the next term of S. J. Court, and to ensure an observance of the law till then.—Mirror.

BURGLARY IN MANCHESTER.—On Saturday night, Mrs. Henry Hayes, hearing a noise in her cellar, and recollecting that she had left the cellar window open, and supposing cats had got in, went down stairs, and observing nothing out of the way, closed the window, and went back, retiring soon after. She knew nothing more until she was awakened next morning. She and her little daughter, who slept with her, were found completely stupefied, and a strong smell of ether in the room. On examination it was found that the whole of the lower part of the house had been searched, the drawers rummaged, &c., but nothing had been taken except in the room where Mrs. Hayes slept. Here the bureau had been searched, and a pocket book containing $40 had been found and the money abstracted.

The burglar must have been in the cellar when Mrs. Hayes closed the window.—The outside door was locked, but the key was left in the door, and the robber had unlocked it to go out and left it open.—About two o'clock, a glimmering light was seen in Mrs. Hayes's sleeping room.

☞ The Cambridge police on Monday seized a quantity of ardent spirits belonging to Geo. Baird, who keeps a drinking den in East Cambridge. He was fined $10 and costs and 20 days in the House of Correction, and ordered to recognize in the sum of $1000 to keep the peace.

DROWNED.—Last Friday, a small boat containing three persons, was upset in Saco river, near the covered bridge, and Jesse W. Libby, a young man of nineteen years, was drowned.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Mother's Blessing,—Lawrence's celebrated Carminative.

DAVIS' DAGUERRIAN GALLERY, No. 3 Daniel street, has been refitted, enlarged, and refurnished, the past week, and is now decidedly the finest and best Saloon in the State. No expense has been spared to make it not only a place to obtain good pictures, but an agreeable and interesting room for visitors. And while their pictures are unrivalled, their prices are so low that all can afford them.

ANOTHER MURDER IN NEW YORK.—On Monday morning, Eliza Shaw, a woman thirty years old, residing in the Fifth Avenue, was found with her throat cut, in the yard directly under the bed-room window. Her husband was arrested on suspicion of having committed the murder.

LOCAL.

☞ The "slaves" from Alabama sing at at the Temple to-night. Apart from benevolent considerations, one can expect a great fully worth the price of a ticket. The Boston Traveller says:

This company opened at the Melodeon on Monday to a crowded house. The company consists of seven "boys," as they are called at the South. They are the property of a gentleman residing near Haynesville, Alabama, who, having given them an opportunity to cultivate their propensities for music, was surprised to see their rapid advancement, and was finally induced to obtain a teacher from New York to finish their education as negro minstrels.

* * * We have not time to particularize the programme, but will simply say we were agreeably disappointed in the entire performance. Everything convinces the listener that he is listening to the performances of the real negro—not an imitation.

HON. DANIEL MARCY.—A Concord correspondent of the Manchester Mirror says:

Senator Marcy, of Portsmouth, is one of the most popular of men in all places where he is known, and he has been named as a candidate for Governor, and he would be a formidable candidate for the Democratic nomination, were it not known that he will not allow his name to be used for that office.

☞ It will be seen that Messrs. Lockwood & Lumb, the well known and widely experienced Plumbers, of Boston, are to open a branch establishment in Portsmouth. They have done considerable work in this city during the past few years; and to the satisfaction of all who employ them.

N. H. LEGISLATURE.

TUESDAY, June 9.

SENATE.—The Governor's Address was referred to the various Committees for consideration.

HOUSE.—On Tuesday forenoon, a great amount of business came before the House, and was disposed of with commendable rapidity. A petition for the abolition of Teachers' Institutes was handed in.

A motion for calling the roll every Saturday morning, was amended by substituting every for Saturday, but on motion of Mr. Towle of Lebanon, the matter was indefinitely postponed.

A warm debate arose between the Hillsborough members, relative to the removal of the courts from Amherst, much ability being manifested by both the friends and opponents of the measure.

The House voted to adjourn on the 27th day of the present month; a step, which if carried out, will entitle the members of the present Legislature to the respect and gratitude of their constituents.

Mr. Hackett introduced an act ceding to the United States, certain lands in the city of Portsmouth, and exempting from taxes. Read and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Also an act in amendment of the charter of the Portsmouth South Parish Sabbath School, was read twice, and referred to the committee on Judiciary.

Mr. Hackett gave notice of an act in relation to the testimony of witnesses.

On motion of Mr. Hackett, the committee on the Judiciary were instructed to inquire and report whether it be not expedient to allow a larger compensation to Sheriffs and Deputy Sheriffs, in attending courts. Adopted.

☞ In Philadelphia, last Sunday was used for the first time, the new Universalist litany, that has been prepared by Rev. A. C. Thomas, who is a most popular preacher there. Differing in text or doctrine from the Catholic service, it is still somewhat after their form; and if the congregation during the reading of the parts requiring much reverence, would kneel, it would leave a strengthening and beneficial effect. It will probably be introduced into all the Universalist churches in the country. So says the editor of the Newburyport Herald, who was on the spot.

☞ Dr. Theodore Ingalls of Portland, died very suddenly, Tuesday afternoon. He had just returned from the Post Office, and a few moments after, a young man calling for some medicine the Doctor was to prepare for him, found him lying upon the floor at the door of his office, insensible. He survived but about half an hour. His disease is supposed to be apolopexy. He was 67 years of age.

A QUICK DENIAL.—Washington, June 9th.—There is not even a shadow of truth in the report that Gov. Walker will be recalled from Kansas, to take the place of Gen. Cass as Secretary of State.

A poor Irishman, who applied for a license to sell ardent spirits, being questioned as to his moral fitness for the trust, replied; "Ah! sure it's not much a character that a man needs, to sell rum."

MURDEROUS AFFRAY IN NEWBURYPORT.—The Boston Journal learns that a desperate affray between two Irishmen occurred in Newburyport on Monday evening. The parties, Michael Connor and Jerry Cashman, living in "Guinea," got into a dispute as to the right of each other to cut grass from the banks of the Eastern Railroad, which passes by their lots. Connor was exercising the right and cutting grass therefrom on Monday evening, and was seen by his neighbor Cashman, when a dispute occurred between them. Cashman seized a heavy club and most unmercifully beat the head and body of Connor, fracturing his skull and mangling his face and body in a most brutal manner. Assistance was procured at once, and Connor was conveyed to his home. His condition is a precarious one, and may prove serious. Cashman has escaped, but the police are on his track.

TO THE CITIZENS OF THE UNITED STATES.
CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.

After several years experimenting in the manufacturing of Gin, I commenced, in the year 1848, in making a discovery in its manufacture by which it was deprived of all acrid and inflammatory properties, and rendered perfectly pure.

My manufactory is at Scheidam, Holland. After several months' reflection what title to give it, I introduced it to the American public under the name of "Wolfe's Scheidam Aromatic Schnapps." Scheidam is the name of the place in Holland where the Gin is manufactured. Aromatic derives its name from the Italian Juniper Berry with which it is flavored, and the word "Schnapps" is the German for drink—Cognac, Dram—Wolfe's Scheidam Aromatic Drink. No sooner had my Schnapps been introduced to the American public and received with approbation, than the Liquor Mixers of New York, Boston and Philadelphia, started in pursuit with their mixed and poisonous stuff under various names: Scheidam Gin, Scheidam Schnapps, London Club House Gin, London Cordial Gin, &c., and in several cases my labels have been so perfectly imitated, with only the addition of a few letters to plead a technical avoidance of the law, and so carefully prepared as to impose on careless purchasers. I understand a large quantity has been purchased by the merchants of the Eastern States on account of the cheapness of the articles. A merchant who participates indirectly in the fraud by selling the spurious articles, is as much an offender as the principal who planned the imposition.

I hope every respectable citizen who values the health of the community in which he lives will aid me in ferreting out and exposing the unscrupulous merchant, who, for the sake of a few cents, will put in jeopardy the lives of the community in which he lives. Such men should be nailed to the pillory of popular execration.

WOLFE'S SCHEIDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS is made from barley of the first quality, selected with great care from the products of the most celebrated grain growing district, is flavored with the essence of the aromatic Juniper Berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process, which expels from the spirit every acrid particle.

As a means of preventing and correcting the disagreeable and often dangerous effects produced upon the stomach and nerves by a change of water—a visitation to which travelers and settlers, and all unacclimated persons in the West, the South and South-West are peculiarly liable—the Scheidam Aromatic Schnapps will be found absolutely infallible; while, in cases of dropsy, gravel, obstructions of the kidneys, disease of the bladder, dyspepsia, and general debility, it is recommended most emphatically by the most distinguished members of the medical profession

It is put up in quart and pint bottles, in cases of one dozen, with the name of the undersigned on the bottle and cork, and a fac-simile of his signature and label.

For sale by all respectable druggists and country merchants. UDOLPHO WOLFE.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN

Is shown by the Records of the Custom House to be the only London Cordial Gin IMPORTED and sold in bottles; all others are made here in imitation of it.

It is a delicious tonic beverage, and by its peculiar flavor (so different from other gins) is universally esteemed by all who use it. It is adopted with great success in cases of Dyspepsia, Gout, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Gravel, Colic, Cholera, Fever and Ague, Stricture, Diseases of the Urinary Organs, Epilepsy, Female Irregularities.

Dr. Valentine Mott of New York, in a letter to the proprietor, says:

"Charles' London Cordial Gin, is the purest, best, and most reliable Extract of Juniper I have seen.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN is sold by all Druggists and Grocers in the United States, and so also are numerous poisons called "London Cordial Gin"—to avoid them buy only "CHARLES'." Reject any other offered to you as you value your health. Price one dollar for quarts, fifty cents for pints.

DOES ANY OF OUR HIGH LIVERS ever eat too much dinner? If any of our readers have cooks who tempt their appetite a little too far, I will tell a secret that will lead them to the enjoyment of their dinners, without a visit from that gouty old gentleman, Dyspepsia. Take a dose of Dr. Sanford's Invigorator after eating, and you will never be troubled with indigestion; but on the contrary, before the next meal time approaches, the appetite will be sharpened to appreciate any kind of food. If the food rises or sours, the Invigorator will fix the matter right at once, for there is something in it that, to use the expression of a friend, will let a man eat gravel stones, and take the Invigorator and they will digest. We have tried it in double doses, on one or two occasions, for sick headache, and it acts like a charm.

What we want to say to our readers, young or old, is, if anything ails you, go without delay and get a bottle of Dr. Sanford's Invigorator, and if it don't cure, come and tell us, for we want to see one person that it will not benefit.

Manny's Celebrated Mower
—AND—
MOWER AND REAPER.
IMPROVED.

Built expressly for the New England States.

THE MANNY MOWER has been extensively used for the past two years in New England, and more than six years at the West.—Its success is beyond that of any other Mower or Reaper ever constructed. Over 1500 Premiums have been awarded it, including the Grand 1st Class Silver Medal at the WORLD'S FAIR, PARIS, 1855.

With the two past years' experience, we have been enabled to make a number of very important improvements. We find New England farmers require a different Machine from other seasons—the field is more cleared of stumps and stones. It must be light, at the same time possess great strength; portable, with facilities to raise the cutters to pass obstructions, and to remove from field to field. A perfect cutting apparatus to cut the fine grasses without clogging, and so constructed as to start in the grass without backing, easily adjusted to cut high or low, and have a level bed to cut equally well with or against the wind, and to be worked with ease by a light team, and so easily managed and simple that any one of common ability may operate it successfully, and to be built in the most thorough manner.

With this knowledge of the farmers' requirements, and with the determination to build a better Machine than has ever before been constructed in this country, we offer the Manny Mower of 1857 with confidence, as combining the qualities enumerated above, and as one particularly adapted to meet the wants of New England farmers.

☞ We invite the farmers to call and examine Machines. Orders should be sent early. Circulars, with testimonials, forwarded free, on application.

Price of Mower, $110; with Reaper attachment, $15 Extra. Delivered on board the cars at Worcester, Mass. JOHN P. ADRIANCE & Co.,
Manufacturers.

AYER'S Cathartic Pills,
(SUGAR COATED,)
ARE MADE TO

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK
Invalids, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians
Philanthropists, read their Effects,
and judge of their Virtues.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach

PITTSBURG, PA., May 1, 1856.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been a sufferer for the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they cleanse at once. If they will do anything for me, the fact is worth knowing.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE,
Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 1, 1854.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the bowels is quick and decided, insomuch that they are an admirable remedy for derangements of the organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious dyspepsia or costiveness that it did not rouse to a healthy action.

Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D.,
Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

POST OFFICE, HARFORD, LIV. CO., MICH., Nov. 16, 1855

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine. They have done my wife more good than I can tell you. She had been sick and pining away for months. Went off to be doctored at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. They afterwards cured her and our two children of bloody dysentery. One of our neighbors had it bad, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctors' bills, and lost much time, without being cured entirely even then. Such wonderful cures, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here.

GEO. J. GRIFFIN, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among my people. They are to them in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, WYOMING CO., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1853.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with the same complaint, my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with the same complaint, my little daughter inherit it, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance areas well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another feature which the managers call attention to, is that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day in the year. If no prize number is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are sent out unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Ternary combination. Prizes range from the amount from $50 to $100 '00. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all persons who remit for it in every case.

☞ The drawn numbers of the Maryland Lotteries are published by the State Commissioner in the following papers, viz: Sun, Clipper, Patriot, American, Argus, of Baltimore; also the National Intelligencer and Union, of Washington, D.C.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and the commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. We would call the public attention to, or investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The managers respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the legislature of that state. Lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. Tickets are $20; halves, $10; quarters, $5. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. Only one prize upon than prize number on each ticket, and there are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes range from $50 to $50,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Louisville Courier, and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to S. SWAN & Co., Atlanta, Georgia.

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

S. D. & H. W. Smith,
—MANUFACTURERS OF—
Melodeons, Organ Melodeons,
—and—
PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,
No. 511 Washington Street, Boston.

The first premium over all competitors, at the Fair of the Mass. Charitable Mechanic Association, of the National Fair, Washington, D. C., also at the Ohio State Fair, held at Columbus, Ohio, was awarded to these Manufacturers.

By means of a new method of Voicing, known only to these manufacturers, they succeeded in removing the harsh and buzzing sound which formerly characterized the instrument, and rendering the tones full, clear and organ like. The action is prompt and reliable, enabling the performer to execute the most rapid music without blurring the tones. The swell is arranged to give great expression.

THE PEDAL BASS MELODEONS.

Are designed particularly for Churches, Lodges, Halls, &c. It is arranged with two manuals, or banks of keys, the lower set running an octave higher than the other, and may be used separately, and thus get in one case two distinct instruments; or by use of the coupler, the two banks of keys may be played at the same time, and the tones of the Pedals, when connected with the Pedal Bass, will produce the effect of a large organ, and is sufficiently heavy to fill a house that seats from 1000 to 1500 persons.

THE GOLDEN WAVE MELODEON

Is designed for parlor and private use. The construction is similar to the Church Instrument, is arranged with two banks of keys, and when used together, by means of the coupler, is capable of a great volume of power as the Church Instrument when used without the pedals. Also, every variety of MELODEONS for Parlor use.

Purchasers may rely upon instruments from our Manufactory, being made in the most complete and thorough manner. Having removed to the spacious Buildings

511 Washington Street,

We have every facility for manufacturing purposes, and employ none but the most experienced and skillful workmen. In short, we will promise our customers an Instrument equal, if not superior, to any Manufacturer, and guarantee an entire and perfect satisfaction.

Masters of Vocal Leaders of Choirs, and others interested in musical matters, are respectfully invited to visit our Rooms at any time and examine or test the instruments on exhibition for sale at their pleasure.

As a still further guarantee to the public as to the excellence of the MELODEONS from our Manufactory, we beg leave to refer, by permission, to the following

Piano Forte Manufacturers of Boston,

who have examined our Instruments, and will give their opinion when called upon:

Chickering & Sons,	Hallett & Cummings,
Timothy Gilbert & Co.,	W. M. Emerson,
Brown & Allen,	A. W. Ladd & Co.,
George Hewes,	Woodward & Brown,
	Newhall & Co.

MELODEONS RENTED.

Persons who wish to hire Melodeons with a view of purchasing at the end of the year, can have the rent credited as part payment of the purchase money. This matter is worthy of special note, as it enables those who desire a fair test of the instruments before purchasing, to obtain a superior article of the manufacturers, to the extent at least of a year's rent.

Orders from any part of the country or world, sent direct to the manufactory in Boston, with cash, or satisfactory references, will be promptly attended to, and as faithfully executed as if the parties were present, or employed an agent to select, and on as reasonable terms.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the act of 1836.)

No. 78 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston,

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, made on the shortest terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unexcelled, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that no other office in the United States charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and his accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MAGSON,
Commissioner of Patents.

Can Nothing be Done? is the question which is asked by hundreds of women, more than widows, and more unfortunate than the childless. Can nothing be done to save the husband who is on the verge of the drunkard's grave, or the son who is treading in his steps? Almost every paper we take up, contains the account of some young man, who in a fit of intoxication has passed from time into eternity. Something can be done, and ought to be done now—must be done now, or thousands of our most promising young men are ruined. To save the rising generation, the pledge should be adopted, and the children and youth be induced to sign it, and impressed with the importance of keeping it.—No pledge can permanently save the confirmed drinker, so long as the drinking houses and tippling shops are permitted to tempt him with their deadly draughts. Let the law be enforced and the liquor shops be closed. It has been done under the most unfavorable circumstances,—it can be done again. It is not, however, one of that class of devils, which goes out by fasting and prayer, it requires persevering effort, with undaunted courage and unflinching persistency—a determination to give the monster no rest day nor night until he shall depart out of our coast.

The authorities of Manchester, Nashua, Portsmouth and other cities have taken the premonitory steps. We hope each succeeding step will be taken with the same firmness and decision. If tufts of grass will not fetch the violators down, let the granite fly, until they are glad to abandon the business of drunkard making, and follow some useful and honorable occupation. Dover Star.

Facts about Digestion.—Wheat is the most nutritious of all substances, except oil, containing ninety-five parts of nutriment to five of waste matter. Dry peas, beans, and barley are nearly as nutritious as wheat. Garden vegetables stand lowest on the list, inasmuch as they contain, when fresh, a large portion of water. The quantity of waste matter is more than eight-tenths of the whole. Veal is the most nutritious—then fowls, then beef, last pork. The most nutritious fruit are plums, grapes, apricots, peaches, gooseberries and melons. Of all articles of food, boiled rice is digested in the shortest time, an hour. As it also contains eight-tenths of nutritious matter, it is a valuable substance of the diet. Tripe and pigs-feet are digested almost as rapidly. Apples, if sweet and ripe, are next in order. Venison is digested almost as soon as apples. Roasted potatoes are digested in half the time required by the same vegetable boiled, which occupy three hours and a half—more than beef or mutton. Turkey and goose are converted in two hours and a half—an hour and a half sooner than chicken.—Roasted veal and pork, and salted beef, occupy five hours and a half—the longest of all articles of food.—American Journal of Agriculture and Science.

Singular Presentment.—The grand jury of a town in Ohio have presented the "sewing society" of the place as a "nuisance."

☞ "The Shekel of Israel, or the Judas Coin, received by Judas Iscariot, for the betrayal of Jesus Christ, the savior of the world—being the same piece the Israelites paid as a ransom for sin. Translated by Dr. Raphael, the eminent Hebrew scholar and divine, and Rabbi of New York."—Under this title, Mr. John S. Dye, publisher of the Wall Street Broker and Coins of the World, has issued a neat and interesting circular, with a fac-simile, description and history of the coin. Specimens of the coin sent by mail for 25 cts., in silver for $1.50.

The Chinese army, though very large, is not at all formidable. The soldiers wear paper helmets, satin boots, wadded gowns, and quilted petticoats. When they salute an officer, they fall upon their knees. Every man carries a fan, while the officers always indulge in the luxury of an umbrella.

The Great Contest Coming On.—It is with great pleasure we are enabled to inform our readers that the event which we have so often indicated, and which has been so anxiously looked for, on this side of the Atlantic, is at last enlisted to come off. Lecompte, Prior and Prioress, the three gallant coursers which were sent from this country last fall, to confront the renowned champions of the English turf, upon their own ground, and at their own terms, are entered for the great Goodwood Cup! John Bull and Brother Jonathan are fairly pitted against each other, for the third time; and if we win, the victory will redound as largely to our credit, as if we again excelled the stout old gentleman in agricultural advancement, or distanced his vessels in speed upon the main.—Porter's Spirit of the Times.

Arab Counsel.—It is usually considered a great privilege to be able to drink when you are dry—and a mark of a sane man to avail yourself of the opportunity. A celebrated traveller in Egypt, however, says that the Bedouin Arabs gave him a counsel which experience proved to be a wise one—that the more water a traveller drinks during the day when exposed to the scorching rays of the sun, the more thirsty he becomes; and that their copious draughts during the day have a prejudicial effect on the health. At night, they considered it of no consequence how much a person drinks—indeed the more he takes, the less thirsty he is likely to be the next day. For this reason, the Bedouins, following the example of their camels, lay in a stock of water for the next day.

The Hog and his Malady.—There are as many theories about the Hog disease as about the National Hotel sickness. The poison theory is exploded in both cases. Strychnine is too costly an article to be used, directly or indirectly, in the poisoning of four-footed animals. The disease is generally styled the cholera, but the latest theories in regard to it are—first, that it is consumption, and second, worms. * * *

It is not now safe to eat pork in any form or in any quantity. The hog is now under suspicion. Let his friends satisfy the public that he is fit to eat, and then,—those who like him may resume the gratification of their tastes. As for ourselves, we are disposed to say that, however much we may have loved him, he can "never more be officer of ours."—Traveller.

For the Chronicle.

Say to the three thousand clergymen who signed and sent into the Government of the United States the petition for the freedom of Kansas, that if they will set apart but one evening each week, and petition our God, the God of the whole world, in prayer,—joined and united, as they will be, by the tens of thousands more of the strong men, in prayer and in faith—and ask God to set not only Kansas, but the whole nation free: this will be the result, as certain as the Bible is true. God's word for it. E.

FRIDAY, JUNE 12, 1857.

LETTERS FROM EUROPE.—No. I.

LONDON, May 19, '57.

When I promised you, a little more than seven weeks since, that I would furnish you a "Correspondence from Europe," I expected to date my first letter at least a fortnight earlier than this. But when an individual once trusts himself to the fortune (or lack of fortune, as it proved in our case) of a sailing ship, and to the "tender mercies" of wind and wave, in the North Atlantic, he finds, ere his passage is accomplished, that he can count upon almost anything, rather than the advertised or hoped for days of sailing and arrival.

Such, at least, was our case; and from the beginning to the end, the passage was one of more than ordinary roughness and disappointment. From the time we discharged our pilot, just abreast Boston Light, until we entered the English Channel, there was almost nothing but a succession of gales, head-winds, head-seas, calms, or moderate fair breezes. In not a single instance, were we able to do what the sailors call a good, or even a fair days' work.

Of course I was sea sick. Nearly everybody is, who finds himself at sea for the first time. Old Neptune is a hard sovereign; and when he once gets you in his power, he rarely fails to exact some tribute from you. I cannot say, however, that I found sea-sickness "so deathly" as many have represented it. * * * * It requires much effort to keep upon one's feet at such a time. For beside the fact that your every inclination prompts you to lie supine, you are obliged to contend in walking against the wayward, and every-way-ward motion of the ship. It is no easy task, even for a moderately well individual, to prevent himself from being thrown down by the rolling and pitching of the ship; and when you come to add to this, the incapacity which a whirling brain and a feeble step induce, you render one still less capable of maintaining his footing. At times, indeed, it is utterly impossible to do this; and during the roughest of our weather, I was obliged, consequently, to lie down and keep quiet.

I say "keep quiet." But who can do so, in a gale of wind? An "old salt" may in part. But for a neophyte in marine experiences, the thing is not to be thought of. I could not even lie still, much less sit or stand, during some of our gales; and always, unless I got the "lee" side of the cabin, I found myself obliged to hold on upon the sofa, or else I made an unexpected and a very undignified descent upon the cabin centre-table. You have heard, I suppose, (as I certainly have,) of "being rocked asleep upon the cradle of the deep," and it all sounds very prettily, as read in anything but a chair that is tied to the floor under your feet. But as read or thought of upon the North Atlantic, either in chair or berth, it is a humbug. More than fifty times have I been rocked awake, but never once asleep; and the very extent of my nightly slumbers upon "the deep" was four or five hours; and even this was much broken.

And yet it is not all unpleasant, this going to sea. It has its poetry and romance, its compensations and delights, like all other professions. To glide along smoothly and prosperously, in good weather, to glance out daily upon a promising sky, to commune nightly with the great old ocean around you, and with the heavens above you, to see the powers of the Great Father upon the surging waters, and the almost marvellous skill of man in his daring yet justifiable competition with it, is indeed a privilege and a glory.

So, too, it sometimes has its terrible and tragical side; to view it in which, makes one almost desire, at times, that sea-going might be less frequently practiced than it is. A case in point occurred in our own experience. We had retired one night, almost as reluctantly as despairingly, for a heavy gale was upon us, when, just about midnight, the terrible cry of "Man overboard! man overboard!" I sprang from my berth, rushed into the saloon, and learned the circumstances. The poor unfortunate victim was a foreigner, and he had been knocked off the topsail yard, while reefing the sail. Meantime the ship had been hove to, and preparations were in hand to go for his recovery. But the case looked so hopeless, (the night being dark, the wind violent, and the sea heavy,) that it was evident it would only fearfully peril other lives, should a boat be sent out on those dark and treacherous waters. From the moment, too, that the ship left him astern, we heard not a sound or a cry, by which to determine his position.

We were obliged, therefore, O, how reluctantly, to leave him to his sad doom, and with a tear for his fate, and a prayer for his soul, I retired to my berth, but not to sleep.

The next day after his loss, we learned that he was a Swede by birth, and a sailor of but one or two voyages. Among his few clothes (and they were very few) there were found letters from his sister, and papers which indicated his birth-place, &c.—Our carpenter, who was a fellow-countryman, and who knew something of his previous history, informed us that it was with great reluctance that he shipped for this voyage, and that it was only from constraint upon the part of his landlord, that he finally put his name to the ship's papers. He alleges, likewise, that out of the poor fellow's month's advance, this villainous landlord received everything, except just enough to buy his poor victim an oil cloth jacket. Who but a person of a fiendish heart, could thus prey upon and wrong the poor, confiding sailor?

But I am giving my letter too sad a tone for your general readers, and must, therefore, pass to something more cheerful. Less I could not say, respecting a tragedy so mournful, and yet so common; and I shall have done all that I could wish if, by this simple mention of it, I shall have done something to create in the minds of your readers a deeper interest in the fate of seamen, and a more earnest detestation of those who prey upon their hard-earned wages.

We passed into the English Channel, just towards night, and as the next day was foggy and calm, we were boarded by the usual Pilot from Cowes, &c. It was quite amusing to me, a new "stagur," to listen to their conversation, and watch their demeanor. They brought with them recent London papers and a few fresh fish, &c. In exchange for these, they seemed to expect quadruple their value in beef, pork, tobacco, bread, &c. Their capacity for begging, was of the highest class, and had they been American, instead of English, I should have been ashamed of them. It was "Capt., you will excuse me, but can you give me a little piece of manilla-rope;" and "Capt., have you a bit of canvas, you could spare, suitable to make a fender for my boat;" and a half dozen other begging questions. Our generous Captain gave them all they asked for, and more too, and they left as though they had done the most dignified thing in the world, and had even conferred a favor upon us Yankees. I could not but laugh as one of them boasted of the exploits of John Bull, in the recent assault upon Canton, and I asked myself, as I did so, if this same John, who is unquestionably a most respectable personage, would not gain more credit in the estimation of the world, by looking out less for the martial glory of his dominion and for the shillings of generous Yankees, and attend more to the establishment of his credit and dignity of character, and whole heartedness of national policy.

On our way up the Channel, we passed the Shakspeare Cliff, and the town and Castle of Dover. The first mentioned of these notabilities, is a bold prominence of chalk, now tunneled by a railway, and deriving its name from the well-known description, in the fourth act of King Lear, which it is presumed to have suggested. Formerly it may truthfully have been said to "look fearfully on the confined deep;" but more recently, portions of its summit have crumbled and fallen, so that it now retires inland, but it still affords a fine and "dizzy" prospect.

The Castle is situated 320 feet above the sea, and is a curious and interesting fortification. Its walls embrace an area of nearly 35 acres of ground, within which are contained towers and other buildings, from Roman to recent times. As seen from the water, and with a glass, it is brought quite near, and presents a very engaging, and even imposing appearance. Long did my eye rest upon it, as it was my "first castle;" I was reluctant to withdraw from its ancient ruins, and its modern "keep."

Our sail up the Thames was the most delightful part of the whole voyage, and we arrived safely in one of the justly famed London Docks.

I shall write you again, and shall then be able, I trust, to give you some account of the interesting sights of England's great metropolis. YOURS, JEHAUD.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—There are eight or ten applications for the Utah Judgship. Wm. B. Gere has been appointed Marshal for Minnesota, vice Irwin resigned.

No Governor or other officers have yet been appointed for Utah.

Official and private advices assure the administration that there is no probability whatever that the peace of Kansas will be interrupted, and that the prevailing controversy promises a happy termination.

FOUR DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE ERICSSON.

NEW YORK, June 10.—Steamship Ericsson, from Liverpool 27th ult., at noon, arrived this evening. Her advices are four days later than those by the last European arrival.

The Mexican Spanish negotiations were at a stand, waiting despatches from Mexico.

Bullion continues to ebb from the Bank of France.

The French had seized the territory of Dakkar in Senegal.

In Parliament, the annuity of £8000 a year to the Princess Royal, passed without a division, Mr. Roebuck making a feeble remonstrance.

The dowry of £40,000, was brought before the Committee on Supply, when Mr. Conyngham moved that the pension be reduced to £6000, and the dowry be omitted. Fourteen members voted with him on his first motion, and sixteen on the second. The bill was read a first time.

Attention has been called to the increased importation of slaves into Cuba, and the inadequate British force on that coast. Lord Palmerston said that Lord Clarendon had renewed his representations to the Spanish government upon this subject, and no effort would be wanting, so far as diplomatic negociation could go, to induce the government at Madrid to take effectual steps to put down the trade.

The East India company have taken possession of the Island of Perim, in the Straits of Babel Mandel, and commanding the entrance to the Red Sea. The ostensible cause is, that, two years since, an English ship which was wrecked on the coast of Barbary, was pillaged by the natives. An artillery garrison from India is already placed on the island.

Liverpool Breadstuffs Markets.—Breadstuffs have been in animated request. All articles have further advanced. Flour 31 to 35s.

THREE DAYS LATER.

SANDY HOOK, June 11.—The royal mail steamship Canada has arrived off this point. She left Liverpool on the 30th ult., consequently her dates are three days later than the Ericsson's.

Lord Palmerston has announced in the House of Commons the rejection of the Dallas-Clarendon treaty, and that new conditions had been received from Washington, and were under consideration.

Breadstuffs dull in the three days,—but prices not greatly changed: cotton, previous prices barely maintained.

The Liverpool Provision Market was dull. Sugar dull, at a decine of one shilling.

THE SECRET DISCOVERED AT LAST.—We have noticed in passing through Market street, lately, that the NEW STORE, No. 15, always seems crowded with customers. We have at last discovered the secret of it. In stepping in, we find that the proprietors, MESSRS. ALLEN & PAINE, in fitting up their store in the beautiful manner they have, had an eye for the useful, as well as for the ornamental; we noticed that the store appeared very light and cheerful, and on looking for a solution of the mystery, we discover that the store contains a Sky Light, giving them facilities for showing their Goods possessed by no other Dry Goods store in town; as Customers by such a light, have no difficulty in seeing just what they are purchasing, and can not be deceived in the color or quality of goods. We notice, also, that their stock is always composed of the best quality and very latest styles, which is explained by the fact that one of the firm visits the market to replenish their goods every ten days,—and as they buy for Cash, altogether, they are able to offer their goods at as low prices as any other parties.

Those about to purchase Dry Goods will do well to visit them. Read their advertisement in another column.

Also, Kennedy's Medical Discovery, price 68 cents per bottle.

DOES ANY OF OUR HIGH LIVERS ever eat too much dinner? If any of our readers have cooks who tempt their appetite a little too late, I will tell a secret that will lead them to the enjoyment of their dinners, without a visit from that gouty old gentleman, Dyspepsia. Take a dose of Dr. Sanford's Invigorator after eating, and you will never be troubled with indigestion; but on the contrary, before the next meal time approaches, the appetite will be sharpened to appreciate any kind of food. If the food rises or sours, the Invigorator will fix the matter right at once, for there is something in it that, to use the expression of a friend, will let a man eat gravel stones, and take the Invigorator and they will digest. We have tried it in double doses, on one or two occasions, for sick headache, and it acts like a charm.

What we want to say to our readers, young or old, is, if anything ails you, go without delay and get a bottle of Dr. Sanford's Invigorator, and if it don't cure, come and tell us, for we want to see one person that it will not benefit.

The Professor has the testimonials of hundreds of cases cured by this infallible restorative, and we can cordially recommend it to all who need to use this valuable preparation.—(Cincinnati Daily Sun.

HALIBUT,

Just received by REUBEN RANDALL

Juvenile Singing School.

AT the repeated request of friends and parents and for the benefit of the rising generation more than of himself, the subscriber will commence a Term of Juvenile School, at his airy and beautiful new Room,

Exchange Hall, No. 4 Exchange Buildings,

On SATURDAY AFTERNOON, June 13,
at 3 o'clock precisely;

to continue on Wednesday and Saturday Afternoons.

TERMS, One Dollar for the Course of Twelve Lessons to be paid in advance. Tickets to be had at Mr. Cobb's Music Store, and of Mr. Pearson.

It must certainly be regretted by every one who considers the matter intelligently, that of about two thousand children attending the public schools in Portsmouth, so few are receiving any musical instruction in classes, or in any way save by private teachers—the latter, which is not the most efficient or economical mode of disseminating a general love and knowledge of music.

In the absence of any provision to have music taught in our public schools, the subscriber is willing and desirous to "do what he can" to make up the deficiency; and will therefore engage again in the instruction of a Juvenile Class—one of the most laborious, though most remunerative, departments of the musical profession.

Having most excellent accommodations for

it would seem that this comparatively small number could easily be gathered from the various schools in the city.

The attention of parents and all others interested, is respectfully invited to our new and beautiful room, &c.

A. PEARSON.

Portsmouth, June 10, 1857.

Concord & Portsmouth Railroad.

THE undersigned, a committee to obtain subscriptions to the Capital Stock on the Concord & Portsmouth Railroad, give notice, according to the provisions in the second section of the act of incorporation, that more than one hundred thousand dollars of said Stock has been subscribed for, and that a meeting of the Corporation and Stockholders thereof will be holden at the COURT-HOUSE in Portsmouth, on SATURDAY the 20th day of June next at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, for the following purposes:

1. To choose Directors of said Corporation and such other officers as may be deemed necessary at said meeting.
2. To adopt such By Laws as may be determined proper.
3. To do any other business in relation to carrying out the objects of said Corporation which may properly come before said Meeting.

N. H. LEGISLATURE.

WEDNESDAY, June 10.

The House, in view of the Democratic State Convention, assembled at 9 o'clock. The attendance was rather meagre, many of the Democratic members being absent.

The session, though less than two hours in length, sufficed for the transaction of a large amount of business. The determination to avoid all doubtful measures, was exhibited more than ever.

An appropriation to the Pilgrim Monument at Plymouth, met with no favor; and the Sheriffs must content themselves with their present pay, a year longer.

Mr. Hackett of Portsmouth introduced a resolution of enquiry as to the cost and expediency of the better ventilation of the House of Representatives, and lighting the State House with gas.

The Senate concurred with the House, in fixing the 27th of June, as the day of adjournment.

The bill to amend an act to incorporate the Portsmouth So. Parish Sabbath School was referred to the Committee on Incorporations.

Mr. Hackett introduced a bill in relation to the testimony of parties to actions. Read twice and referred to Committe on Judiciary.

☞ At the Democratic State Convention, in Concord, Wednesday, Col. Asa P. Cate, of Northfield, was nominated for Governor, and Fredrick Vose, Esq., of Walpole, for Railroad Commissioner.—Geo. W. Morrison, Esq., President of the Convention.

The vote for Governor was as follows: Asa P. Cate, 244; Geo. W. Morrison, 112; Daniel Marcy, 74; Thomas Cogswell, 21; Wm. C. Clarke, 10; J. S. Woodman, 7; scattering, 14.

The resolutions glorify the Democratic party as having fixed and immutable principles; as holding to economy in the administration of Government, &c. &c.; in favor of a judicious regulation of the sale of spirituous liquors, but believing the present law unconstitutional, illiberal and oppressive in theory and in practice, aggravating the evil it was designed to remedy; they stigmatize the republican administration of the State as vindictive and partizan; deny the charge that the Democratic party of New Hampshire favors the extension of slavery; commend the course of the late administration, and pledge to President Buchanan the hearty support of the Democracy of New Hampshire.

TERRIBLE CALAMITY.—About one o'clock Sunday morning May 31st, the steamship Lousiana, Capt. Sheppard, took fire, six or eight miles south-east of Galveston, in the Gulf; the result was the total loss of the vessel, a large amount of property, and, what is worse than all, a large number of human lives. There were 104 souls on board the ill-fated steamer, of whom 49 are accounted for and 55 are missing. Among those lost was Col. Bainbridge of the U. S. Army. Many of these saved were picked up by the steamer Galveston, the Revenue cutter at Galveston, pilot boats, &c. The efforts of Capt. Sheppard to do all that could be done to save the lives of his passengers, are spoken of in the highest praise. He was the very last to leave his vessel, and was picked up clinging to some life-preserving chairs, nearly exhausted. Some of the passengers lost large amounts of money; one lost $4000, another $3000, and a third between $10,000 and $14,000.

THE FUGITVE SLAVE TROUBLE IN OHIO.—Cincinnati, June 10.—The case of the State against the United States authorities came up in the District Court this morning.—Mr. Mason for the defense read several affidavits, the general purport of which were that the first fire came from the U. S. Marshal's party, and that they were very violent in their manner, treating the prisoners they had in charge very harshly. The dispositions of several ladies, agreeing with the foregoing, were also read. Sheriff Laton's family physician deposed that he was lying very seriously ill, and that probably he never would fully recover.—Another affidavit stated that the Marshal's men were generally armed.

☞ Commodore John C. Stevens, of the New York Yacht Fleet, died at Hoboken on Wednesday.

PROGRESS OF FILLIBUSTER WALKER.—Louisiville, June 9.—Gen. Walker received the citizens of Louisville this morning, at the house of his brother-in-law, Mr. Richardson. His father was present, with the elite of the city. He attends the theatre this evening, with his staff, and leaves for Cincinnati to-morrow.

GOVERNOR OF UTAH.—Washington, June 9.—(New York Herald Correspondence.)—Col. Cummings to-day received the appointment of Governor of Utah. The other appointments for the Territory have not been agreed on. Ex-Governor Thomas did not report for duty, as his friends had pledged he would.

"POISON, SURE."—A writer in the New York Journal of Commerce, revives the poison theory, in relation to the National Hotel sickness, by saying that a victim of the sickness, after one or two recoveries, was induced to try the electro-chemical baths. After he had left the bath, the plates showed a heavy deposit of arsenic.

MRS. MANSFIELD'S DEPARTURE.—We are informed that Mrs. Mansfield cannot possibly remain beyond this week, it being three days longer than was intended. Hence those who wish to take advantage of her physical condition and the cause of it, will perceive that there is no time to lose, as she will probably be much crowded with patients, the last day or two.

☞ It will be remembered that a few days since, we mentioned a sad accident which occurred last week in Epping, in the case of Col. John Rundlet, having a load of boards fall upon him, whereby he narrowly escaped with his life. See certificate below:

This is to certify that about one week ago, as I was driving a team with a load of boards, I came to a sideling place; the load upset, with the hind wheels attached. I saw it coming, and sprang to get out of the way, fell on my back, with the end of the load falling upon me, covering me as far up as my hips, bruising me very severely about the lower part of my body, producing almost an entire interruption of my bodily functions—causing severe pain. My life was despaired of.—About five days after, Mr. Joseph Smith called upon me, by the request of friends, and bathed me with his "Curative Cleansing Compound," and gave me a little of it to drink; which very readily gave relief. I am now constantly improving, with the use of the above remedy, together with his Plaster; have used about two bottles of the Compound. I consider the Compound a superior article for bruises, either inwardly or outwardly. JOHN RUNDLETT.

Epping, June 11, 1857.

Mr. Joseph Smith of Haverhill, Mass., would respectfully inform those who are afflicted with Neuralgia, Ague, Bruises, Headache, &c., that he will spend a few days in this city, circulating his "Curative Cleansing Compound"—giving all an opportunity to test the merits of the article. Mr. Raitt of this city, will testify to its wonderful effects on himself. Mr. S. has also testimonials from Mr. Smith Gerrish, formerly of Portsmouth, from Moses Eaton, jr., of Hampton, and a host of equally reliable names.

TO THE CITIZENS OF THE UNITED STATES.
CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.

After several years experimenting in the manufacturing of Gin, I fortunately succeeded, in the year 1848, in making a discovery in its manufacture by which it was deprived of all acrid and inflammatory properties, and rendered perfectly pure.

My manufactory is at Scheidam, Holland. After several months' reflection what title to give it, I introduced it to the American public under the name of "Wolfe's Scheidam Aromatic Schnapps." Scheidam is the name of the place in Holland where the Gin is manufactured. Aromatic derives its name from the Italian Juniper Berry with which it is flavored, and the word "Schnapps" is the German for drink—Cogne, Dram—Wolfe's Scheidam Aromatic Drink. No sooner had my Schnapps been introduced to the American public and received with approbation, than the Liquor Mixers of New York, Boston and Phila'delphia, started in pursuit with their mixed and poisonous stuff under various names: Scheidam Gin, Scheidam Schnapps, London Club House Gin, London Cordial Gin, &c., and in several cases my labels have been so perfectly imitated, with only the addition of a few letters to plead a technical avoidance of the law, and so carefully prepared as to impose on careless purchasers. I understand a large quantity has been purchased by the merchants of the Eastern States on account of the cheapness of the articles. A merchant who participates indirectly in the fraud by selling the spurious article, is as much an offender as the principal who planned the imposition.

I hope every respectable citizen who values the health of the community in which he lives will join me in ferreting out and exposing the unscrupulous merchant, who, for the sake of a few cents, will put in jeopardy the lives of the community in which he lives. Such men should be nailed to the pillory of popular execration.

WOLFE'S SCHEIDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS is made from barley of the first quality, selected with great care from the products of the most celebrated grain-growing districts, is flavored with the essence of the aromatic Juniper Berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process, which expels from the spirit every acrid particle.

As a means of preventing and correcting the disagreeable and often dangerous effects produced upon the stomach and bowels by a change of water—a visitation to which travelers and settlers, and all unacclimated persons in the West, the South and South-West are peculiarly liable—the Scheidam Aromatic Schnapps will be found absolutely infallible; while, in cases of dropsy, gravel, obstructions of the kidneys, diseases of the bladder, dyspepsia, and general debility, it is recommended most emphatically by the most distinguished members of the medical profession

It is put up in quart and pint bottles, in cases of one dozen, with the name of the undersigned on the bottle and cork, and a fac-simile of his signature and label.

For sale by all respectable druggists and country merchants. UDOLPHO WOLFE.

Manny's Celebrated Mower
—AND—
MOWER AND REAPER.
IMPROVED.

Built expressly for the New England States.

THE MANNY MOWER has been extensively used for the past two years in New England, and more than six years at the West.—Its success is beyond that of any other Mower or Reaper ever constructed. Over 150 1st Premiums have been awarded it, including the Grand 1st Class Silver Medal at the WORLD'S FAIR, PARIS, 1856.

With the two past years' experience, we have been enabled to make a number of very important improvements. We find New England farmers require a different Machine from other sections, the fields generally being small. It must be light, at the same time possess great strength; portable, with facilities to raise the cutter to pass obstructions, and to remove from field to field. A perfect cutting apparatus, to cut the fine grasses without clogging, and so constructed as to stand in the grass without backing, easily adjusted to cut high or low, and have a Reel to feed equally well with or against the wind, and to be worked with ease by a light team, and so easily managed and simple that any one of common ability may operate it successfully, and to be built in the most thorough manner.

With this knowledge of the farmers' requirements, and with the determination to build a Mower Machine than has ever before been constructed in this country, we offer the Manny Mower of 1857 with confidence, as combining the qualities enumerated above, and is now particularly adapted to meet the wants of New England farmers.

☞ We invite the farmers to call and examine Machines. Orders should be sent early. Circulars, with testimonials, forwarded FREE, on application.

Price of Mower, $110; with Reaper attachment, $125 extra. Delivered on board the cars at Worcester, Mass. JOHN P. ADRIANCE & Co., Manufacturers.

AYER'S Cathartic Pills,
(SUGAR COATED,)
ARE NOW TO

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK
Invalids, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians
Philanthropists, read their Effects,
and judge of their Virtues.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach
Dyspepsia, Pain, Costiveness,
Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
WASHINGTON, D. C., 7 Feb., 1854.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say that they are the best cathartic we employ. Their lasting action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are simply a reliable remedy for derangements of the organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so persistent that it did not yield to them.

Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D.,
Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

POST OFFICE, HAVILAH, LV. CO., MISS., NOV. 16, 1855

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the perfection of a cathartic. They have done my wife more good than I can tell you. She had been sick and pining away for months. Went off to be doctored at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. They afterwards cured her and our two children of bloody dysentery. One of our children had been ill bad, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctors' bills, and lost much time, without being cured entirely even then. Such a medicine as your Pills, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here.

GEO. J. GRIFFIN, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, WYOMING CO., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountain of life, the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Practising Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the purgative par excellence of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her neck and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her. ASA MORGRIDGE

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawkes, of the Methodist Episc. Church.

PLEASANT HOME, SAVANNAH, GA., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be wanting in gratitude to your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which I could not subdue with opiates. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until, by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. MacKenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effect was magical. In a few days, by persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well.

SENATE CHAMBER, BATON ROUGE, LA., 5 Dec., 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that has defied all else for years. VINCENT SLIDELL.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are unrivalled.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness, and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skillful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL
FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town and almost every hamlet of the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, for are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects; and fewer yet the communities, may we not say, in which there have not some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in their dwellings, as a protection against the attacks upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the CHERRY PECTORAL saves more lives by the consumptions it prevents than any other medicine. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable, for neglect them until no human skill can master the incurable ranker that fastened on the vitals, cuts your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of these disorders, and as they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not dwelling upon them. It has stood the test it can bear. We spare no cost, no care, nor labor, to render it the most perfect medicine we can. We afford those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their cure.

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which H. Fairer & Co are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact worth the consideration of the nation is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day, Sundays excepted, the following classes named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket; and the prizes are paid in Uncurrent and combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100 000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to the parties immediately after it is over. ☞ The drawn numbers of the Maryland Lotteries are published by the State Commissioner in the following papers, viz: Sun, Clipper, Patriot, American, Chronicle, of Baltimore; also, the National Intelligencer and Union, of Washington, D.C.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the state of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. Their Schemes are so constructed that attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. As a lottery is drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same are received. In sending to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2,50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $50 to $50,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Mercury, Baltimore Sun, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to S. SWAN & Co., Atlanta, Georgia ☞ Prizes paid in full, without any percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

All communications strictly confidential. m18 1y

MARRIAGE GUIDE,
BY DR. W. YOUNG.

YOUNG'S GREAT PHYSIOLOGICAL WORK, The POCKET ESCULAPIUS, or Every One his Own Doctor, by WM. YOUNG, M. D. Twenty-ninth edition, revised for the general reader, and is illustrated with upwards of one hundred Engravings. All young married people, or those contemplating marriage, and having the least impediment to married life, should read this book. It discloses secrets that every one should be acquainted with. Still it is a book that must be kept locked up, and not left about the house. It will be sent to any one on the receipt of twenty-five cents. Address Dr. WM. YOUNG, No. 152 SPRUCE STREET, above Fourth, Philadelphia.

S. D. & H. W. Smith,
—MANUFACTURERS OF—
Melodeons, Organ Melodeons,
—and—
PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,
No. 511 Washington Street, Boston.

The first premium over all competitors, at the Fair of the Mass Charitable Mechanic Association, of the National Fair, Washington, D. C., also at the Boston Fair, held at Columbus, Ohio, was awarded to these Manufacturers.

By means of a new method of Voicing, known only to themselves, they have succeeded in removing the harsh and buzzing sound which formerly characterized the instrument, and rendering the tones full, clear and organ like. The action is prompt and reliable, enabling the performer to execute the most rapid music without blurring the tones. The swell is arranged to give great expression.

THE PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,
Are designed particularly for Churches, Lodges, Halls, &c. It is arranged with two manuals, or banks of Keys, the lower set running an octave higher than the other, and may be used separately, and thus get in one case two distinct instruments; or by use of the coupler, the two may be played at the same time by one of the front set only. This connected with the Pedal Bass, will produce the effect of a large organ, and is sufficiently heavy to fill a house from 1000 to 1500 persons.

THE ORGAN MELODEON
Is designed for parlor and private use. The construction is similar to the Church Instrument, being arranged with two Banks of Keys, which when used together, by means of the coupler, is capable of as great volume of power as the Church Instrument when used without the pedals. We also, every variety of MELODEONS for Parlor use.

Purchasers may rely upon instruments from our Manufactory, being made in the most complete and thorough manner. Having removed to the spacious Buildings

511 Washington Street,

We have every facility for manufacturing purposes, and employ none but the most experienced and skilful workmen. We feel safe in the promise our customers an Instrument equal, if not superior, to any Manufacturer, and guarantee an entire and perfect satisfaction.

Music Teachers, Leaders of Choirs, and others interested in musical matters, are respectfully invited to visit our Rooms at any time and examine or test the instruments on exhibition for sale at their pleasure.

As a still further guarantee to the public as to the excellence of the MELODEONS from our Manufactory, we beg leave to refer, by permission, to the following

Piano Forte Manufacturers of Boston,
who have examined our Instruments, and will give their opinion when called upon:

Chickering & Sons, Hallet & Cunston,
T. Gilbert & Co., Wm. F. Emerson,
Brown & Allen, A. W. Ladd & Co.,
George Hewes, Woodward & Brown,
Newhall & Co.

MELODEONS RENTED.

Persons who wish to hire Melodeons with a view of purchasing at the end of the year, can have them rented as part payment of the purchase money. This matter is worthy of special note, as it enables those who desire a fair test of our instruments before purchasing, to obtain it at the expense of the manufacturers, to the extent at least of a year's rent.

Orders from any part of the country or world, sent directly, or through any responsible house, with cash, or satisfactory reference, will be promptly attended to, and as faithfully executed as if the parties were present, or employed an agent to select, and on as reasonable terms.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)

No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston,

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years continued in the Patent Office in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on reasonable terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered on all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none but the MOST SUCCESSFUL AGENCY IN THE OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe he can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years, has enabled him to form and mature a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full access to the records of patents issued in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in asserting inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 21, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

MBRIDGE, MASS.—The Boston Herald —on Monday morning, the police of ridge seized a number of demijohns ining liquor, from a cart belonging to e named George Baird.—Baird was unloading in front of his shop on ridge street, East Cambridge, when ted. The demijohns were secreted in art, and covered with a lot of meat. g taken before the Cambridge Police t, he was fined $10 and costs, senten- to the House of Correction twentydays, ordered to furnish sureties in $1000, to violate the law again for a year.

The Essex County, (Mass.) Court is ed in Liquor Law trials at Newbury- In the case first tried, Timothy nner was sentenced to pay $50 and —total $73,30—to be committed to e House of Correction for three hs, and to recognize to the Common- th in the sum of $1000, not to violate w again for the period of one year. her verdict is returned against a con- eller; and the anti-liquor business e court, is now proceeding with ra- y, and without obstruction.

EAT TO USE.—A writer in Putnam's azine, in telling what kinds of stimu- to use, gives rather a gloomy picture e chance of getting pure ardent spir- and in reference to port wine, remarks "If you would get pure port, you go to Oporto, make it yourself, and home or the cask. It is notorious there is more champagne annually k in Paris, than the whole champagne try produces; the greater part must adulterated. Brandy is very expensive, re readily adulterated, and its habit- se congests the liver. Gin has fewer ctions, but it is often, too, fiery and ting."

LOODY TRAGEDY.—Col. James Price, an and esteemed citizen of Clark county, and his son, a young man, were both by a neighbor, named Gay, and neith- of the parties is expected to recover. lady of Col. Price, under the name of lly Broom," is a contributor to the Farmer, and in a recent communica- to that journal, she gave a description family residing in her neighborhood, the mismanagement of whose head, h domestic affliction and disastrous con- uences had arisen. This, Gay took as ended for himself, and hence the mur- ous revenge.

THE OFF OX.—There is probably nothing in legal practice more disagreeable to an attorney than taking depositions. This labor is always begun with regret, carried on with disgust, and finished to the delight of the practitioner. A distinguished counsellor of this county, not long since was compelled to attend to this business, at a town in the rural districts. The party to whom he was opposed was unfortunately deprived of the service of his own counsel, and was obliged to leave his ploughing and attend to his case himself.

He exhausted much time and also the patience of the counsellor and magistrate by the mode in which he conducted his side of the suit. What he lacked in knowledge and ability he seemed to make up in captious obstinacy. After a forenoon had been consumed, a boy to whom the plough ing had been committed, came in to deliver to the "farmer lawyer" a private message, and calling him just out of the room, bawled out, as boys are sometimes wont to do, loud enough to be heard by all, "We can't find the off ox in the pasture."

"Can't find the off ox in the pasture," repeated our counsellor, "no wonder at it. We've had him in the room here, all the forenoon."

CALVIN AND THE LADIES.—"More severely and more summarily did John Calvin deal with the ladies of Geneva. He caused the wives and daughters of the men of that city (if men they deserve to be called) to be sent to prison on Monday morning, and to be hung up by the hair of their heads as a punishment for having appeared at Church on Sunday with too great a profusion of curls. It was a brutal thing for him to do. But John Calvin was a harsh, hard-hearted, bloody man. He could torture a pretty woman for her curls, and burn, by a slow fire, a good man alive for his creed, with as much coolness and malignity as the most finished villain that ever served the Inquisition of Spain; black prelacy in Scotland, or the Star Chamber of England. Yet withal he was a coward. He had no notion of running into danger for the truth's sake, but showed a prompt instinct to run away from it for his own preservation."—Rev. W. Foster's "Lamp of Beauty."

☞ Edward W. Hawkins, who was hanged at Irvine, Ky., on the 29th ult., wrote a letter to the editors of the Louisville Democrat, acknowledging that he had murdered four persons, and married six wives—one of whom committed suicide on discovering the character of her husband. This atrocious villain was not quite 21 years of age at the time he was hanged.

VIRGINIA.—According to the figures of the Richmond South, Judge Hopkins, the regularly nominated Democratic candidate, has been elected to Congress in the 13th District. Hopkins's majority is but 9 votes.

☞ A slave woman is advertized to be sold at auction at St. Louis. She is said to be so beautiful that $5000 has been offered for her and refused at private sale.

A QUEER PROCEEDING.—Chicago, June 9. Hon. John Wentworth, Mayor of this city, was arrested this morning by the U. S. Marshal, charged with stealing the mail bags, and was held to bail in the sum of $3000. The examination will take place this afternoon. The mail bags were found on his premises, and the proof against him is positive.

P. M.—Mayor Wentworth was discharged from custody this afternoon, by Judge Drummond. He decided that Mr. Wentworth, in his official capacity of Congressman, received the mail bags, and that unless a special demand was made for them, had a right to keep them.

BURDEN'S
Pressed Boat, Ship, Brad & Countersunk Railroad Spikes
ARE well known in the United States, and are conspicuous for their regularity and finish, their unvarying uniformity of size, and for the excellent quality of iron from which they are made, to which may be attributed their rare strength. They are everywhere considered far superior to the hand-made spike of common English iron, and inferior to nothing of the kind yet introduced to the public.

MUNICIPAL.—In the Common Council, on Thursday Evening, the resolution appropriating $200 for the widening of Congress street, near Chestnut st., was passed, in concurrence.

The amendments adopted last Thursday evening by the Board of Aldermen, to the annual appropriation bill, were taken up, and all rejected. The Board of Aldermen adhering to the amendments, a committee of conference was appointed, who now have the bill.

In Board of Aldermen, The resolution of inquiry as to the rights and obligations of the Portsmouth Aqueduct Co. was taken from the table, slightly amended, passed, and sent to the Common Council for concurrence.

The following resolution was adopted by both boards in concurrence:

Resolved, That the School Committee of Dist. No. 2 be requested to make report as to the condition of the school houses in that district, with an estimate of the cost of putting the present school houses in proper repair and condition; and that they be requested to report the proper location and general plan of a new school house, with the probable cost thereof.

LAUNCH.—Sch. Dashing Wave, 91 tons, was launched from the building yard of Arad Tibbits, on Noble's Island, on Thursday afternoon. She is owned by Washington Freeman of this city, and others, and is intended for the mackerel and oyster business. She is to be commanded by John Freeman of Wellfleet, Mass.

☞ Wm. E. Chandler, of Concord, Israel O. Dewey, of Hanover, Martin L. Burbank, of Shelburne, Benjamin M. Colby, of Sanbornton, Russell Jarvis, of Claremont, and Edward M. Isaacs, of New Ipswich, having been appointed and commissioned aids-de-camp to Gov. Haile, with the rank of colonel, will be obeyed and respected accordingly.

SAD ACCIDENT.—On Tuesday last, as Mr. Cyrus Ford of this City, and Mr. William Warren of South Berwick, were sailing down the Cochecho river on a Gondola, when near Dover Point, the bolt that held the clasps to the stump mast broke and the mast falling upon Warren, killed him instantly. He was about 53 years of age, and leaves a wife and children in South Berwick.—Dover Enquirer.

MASONIC.—At the annual meeting of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Free and Accepted Masons of the State of New Hampshire, held in Concord on Monday last, the following Grand Officers were chosen for the ensuing year: Theodore T. Abbott of Manchester, M. E. G. H. Priest; Moses Paul of Dover, D. G. H. P.; John F. Daniels of Franklin, G. K.; George H. Hubbard of Manchester, Grand Scribe; H. Fessenden of Concord, Grand Treasurer; Horace Chase & Hopkinton, Grand Secretary; Rev. Thomas G. Salter of Dover, Gr. Chaplain; G. W. Adams of Manchester, G. C. of the Host; Chas. W. Harvey and Abel Hutchins of Concord, Grand Stewards; Wm. Carr of Concord, G. Tyler.

THE HURD WILL CASE.—In the Probate Court of the County of Middlesex, a few days since, the will of the late Joseph Hurd, of Malden, was set aside on the ground of unsoundness of mind of the testator. The will devised $5000 each to the States of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont and Massachusetts, the income of the money to be devoted to payment of premiums for success in the manufacture of native sugar by our farmers from the Chinese cane. The heirs-at-law of the estate contested the will, and were represented in Court by Messers. Hutchins and Wheeler, the will being sustained by Attorney General John H. Clifford, and Isaac S. Morse, County Attorney of Middlesex, who was retained by the four States.

The three attesting witnesses to the will, were put upon the stand, and gave as their opinion that the testator was not of sound mind at the time the will was made. On the other hand, evidence was produced to show that the testator had frequently, while his soundness of mind could not be questioned, expressed his intention to make the legacies which he did make. The counsel for the States claimed an appeal from the judgment of the Probate Judge, and the case goes to the Supreme Judicial Court for trial in November.

FLOUR AND WHEAT.—At Detroit and Buffalo, the flour and wheat which arrive do not command the prices which they brought at Milwaukie and Chicago. At Chicago, on the 2d, the receipts of wheat were 51,000 bushels, and of corn 110,000 bushels. The Boston Journal remarks:—"There is likely to be an improved demand for some weeks to come for breadstuffs in England, which will save the prices from falling too rapidly on this side, and may meliorate the present condition of the carrying trade. The letters from England state that though the crops promise a bountiful yield, yet the old stock is getting low, and large imports will be wanted before harvest. Since the 1st of January, the exports of breadstuffs from N. York have been only about $12,000,000 against $17,000,000 last year, a falling off of nearly one-third."

THE AGRICULTURAL PROSPECTS OF THE SEASON.—A friend who has recently paid a flying visit to the States of New-Hampshire, Vermont and Maine, and who has some taste in the matter of agriculture, says that, although the season has been somewhat backward for labor, there has been a larger breadth of ground planted this year than has been usual. Farmers have generally paid more attention to raising supplies of potatoes, as these have been a better paying crop for some years past than any other. The winter grains look splendidly everywhere. Spring wheat promises well. The pastures are rich in all directions.

The hay crop, which is by far the most important, pecuniarily, in New-England, gives indications of a bountiful yield. The best old hay can be bought for $12 to $14 per ton, and is falling.—Boston Journal.

The children, and parents too, will do well to remember that Mr. PEARSON commences a new term of Juvenile Singing School, at his beautiful new room, this (Saturday) afternoon at 3 o'clock. If the facilities here offered, for gathering the rudiments of a musical education, were rightly estimated,—Exchange Hall would not hold the class who would wish to attend.—[Journal.

A SEA TURTLE.—A sea turtle weighing upwards of fifty pounds, was caught in a seine on the Merrimack River, opposite Newburyport, by some fishermen on Friday last.

A horse standing before the St. Nicholas Hotel, New-York, near a crosswalk, Friday, seized an infant from its mother's arms with its teeth, and dashed it upon the ground. The mother fainted. The child was rescued by bystanders and taken to the hospital.

Morning Chronicle.

SATURDAY, JUNE 13, 1857.

GRAMMAR.—The Boston Courier "pitches in" to Gov. Haile's message, where it sees a stitch dropped in the grammatical construction,—all of which is quite in the Courier's line, as its literary aims are highly exalted. Unluckily, in the same article which "comes down upon" the governor's style, the Courier, speaking of New Hampshire, says:—

Besides this, she has a sturdy, and in the more remote districts, a population of simple character and habits, presenting illustrations truly refreshing of a somewhat primitive mode of life, unambitiously devoted to the noble pursuits of rural husbandry.

Now if the editor of the Courier will put on his glasses and read over the above quotation, he will perceive that he has made a most "refreshing" blunder, "presenting an illustration" of that primitive adage, warning all who live in glass houses, to be careful how they throw stones.

☞ In Concord, on Saturday June 6th, Edward O. Herring was tried for keeping liquor for sale at his house. It was proved that the officers in search found a twenty gallon cask of liquor in the house of Herring, that the liquor had been freighted from Boston billed in Herring's name, that the house had been noisy and disorderly, that men and women had been seen going to and from the house carrying pails, and that men had been seen coming from the house drunk. Col. George labored in his cross examination to prove that ale and beer was sold in divers places in Concord without prosecution on the part of the city. The connection of this fact with the case on trial was not however perceived by His Honor, who stated that in this class of cases wherever it should be shown that a man in Herring's circumstances had purchased and hid away such large quantities of liquor, that his house was noisy and disorderly, and that drunken people had been seen going to and from the house, he should hold that the liquor was kept for sale, and he therefore ordered Herring to be bound over to the Supreme Court in the sum of $200,00.

MANCHESTER POLICE COURT.—June 9.—State vs. Robert Young of Piscataquog, (familiarly known as "Bob Young," the short man.)

Hezekiah Niles testified that he worked at the sash business in "Squog;" had got liquor from Young at different times, once on the 22d of May, wanted it for bitters, for washing, and for drink. Did not get it for prosecution, but showed the book in which he kept a record of the purchases, to several persons, who probably reported it. The City Marshal wished to see the book, and he gave it to him, as he was not unwilling to aid the prosecution.

The Court held Mr. Young in $200 to answer at the Supreme Judicial Court. For want of bail, he went to Amherst jail.

The city officers of Manchester are doing well in a quiet way.

ESSEX COUNTY, MASS.—At the Court of C. P. in Newburyport, June 11, the following proceedings were had.

Patrick Cunningham and his wife, Ann Cunningham, of Lynn, as common sellers—verdict, guilty on one sale. Patrick was ordered to recognize for his appearance from day to day. Ann Cunningham was sentenced to pay a fine of $10 and costs, and be committed to the House of Correction at Ipswich, for 20 days.

James Burnham of Newburyport, plead guilty to being a common seller—sentenced to pay a fine of $50 and costs, and be committed to the House of Correction at Ipswich, for three months.

Patrick Daily of Lynn, as common seller—verdict of guilty. Sentenced to pay a fine of $50 and costs, and three months in the House of Correction, at Lawrence.

Stephen Callahan of Lynn, as common seller—verdict of guilty. Sentenced to pay a fine of $50 and costs, and three months in the House of Correction, at Ipswich.

COAL TAR THROWERS.—The Boston Traveller informs us, that William Allen and John Wait have been arrested as the parties, who, on Sunday evening last, committed the outrage upon the residence of the City Marshal of Cambridge. They were brought before the Police Court, Cambridge, on Tuesday morning, and bound over one week, for examination. Allen found bail to the amount of $2000, and Wait in $1500. Allen was bondsman to the parties implicated in the liquor selling, and brought before the Police Court, and sentenced some days since.

In company with Allen and Wait, was also found Baird, convicted the day before, for the same offence, viz., liquor pelling. The worthy trio, at the time of the arrest, were disturbing the peace, so that all of them will have to answer to a second charge.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

DEPARTURE. — Mrs. Mansfield leaves Portsmouth to-day, and hence those who desire to be cured by her treatment have but a short time to consult her at the Rockingham House. Good opportunities to regain health should not be passed by.*

THE OCEAN HOUSE,
ON RYE BEACH,

Is to be opened on the 25th of this month. The proprietors would invite their friends and neighbors in Rye and the adjoining towns to look through this splendid establishment, in which great improvements have been made the past season. No one can visit this beautiful house but to admire it, and it has been and is the admiration of thousands in this country and throughout Europe.

The proprietor would take this opportunity to return his sincere thanks to the people of New Hampshire for the liberal patronage bestowed upon him for the last ten years, and also to correct an error which prevails as regards the charges at the Ocean House.—The rate for transient boarders is $2.00 per day; and transient parties for fractions of days are accommodated on as low terms as at any first class hotel. The house will be opened June 25th, for inspection and business.

JOB JENNESS & CO., Proprietors.

THE SURF HOUSE,
AT RYE BEACH.

The proprietors of the OCEAN HOUSE have purchased the UNION HOUSE, which is hereafter to be called the SURF HOUSE, and will be conducted in connection with the Ocean House, under the management of N. P. STEARNS Esq., who has for the past six years been favorably known as one of the employees at the Ocean, and is to be kept open the year round. No pains will be spared to make the Surf House one of the best resorts on the coast for regular boarders, parties of pleasure, or invalids. The large stable connected with the house will be well conducted, where good horses and carriages may always be procured, and coaches will run daily to meet all the trains on the railroads. Sail boats will be kept for the accommodation of visitors, and the proprietor hopes, by attention to the wants of his guests, to merit and receive a share of public patronage.

Direct to "N. P. STEARNS, Surf House, Rye Beach, N. H." Stop at the Greenland Depot, where coaches will take passengers to the House.

THE SECRET DISCOVERED AT LAST.—We have noticed in passing through Market street, lately, that the NEW STORE, No. 15, always seems crowded with customers. We have at last discovered the secret of it. On stepping inside, we find that the proprietors, MESSRS. ALLEN & PAINE, in fitting up their store in the beautiful manner they have, had an eye for the useful, as well as for the ornamental, and we find that the store appeared very light and cheerful, and on looking for a solution of the mystery, we discover that the store contains a Sky Light, giving them facilities for showing their Goods possessed by no other Dry Goods store in town; as Customers by such a light, have no difficulty in seeing just what they are purchasing, and can not be deceived in the color or quality of goods. We notice, also, that their stock is always composed of the best qualities and very latest styles, which is explained by the fact that one of the firm visits the market to replenish their goods every ten days,—and as they buy for Cash, altogether, they are able to offer their goods at as low prices as any other parties.

Those about to purchase Dry Goods will do well to visit them. Read their advertisement in another column.

Also, Kennedy's Medical Discovery, price 68 cents per bottle.

DOES ANY OF OUR HIGH LIVERS ever eat too much dinner? If any of our readers have cooks who tempt their appetite a little too far, I will tell a secret that will lead them to the enjoyment of their dinners, without a visit from that gouty old gentleman, Dyspepsia. Take a dose of Dr. Sanford's Invigorator after eating, and you will never be troubled with indigestion, but on the contrary, before the next meal time approaches, the appetite will be sharpened to appreciate any kind of food. If the food rises or sours, the Invigorator will fix the matter right at once, for there is something in it that, to use the expression of a friend, will let a man eat gravel stones, and take them down easy and they will digest. We have tried it in double doses, on one or two occasions, for sick headache, and it acts like a charm.

What we want to say to our readers, young or old, is, if anything ails you, go without delay and get a bottle of Dr. Sanford's Invigorator, and if it don't cure, come and tell us, for we want to see one person that it will not benefit.

N. H. LEGISLATURE.

CONCORD, THURSDAY, June 11.

On Thursday, in the House, Mr. Hackett gave notice of a bill to amend the Charter of the city of Portsmouth.

After debate, a resolution was passed, instructing the Judiciary Committee to report a bill for the equal distribution of the property of insolvent debtors among their creditors, in proportion to the amount of their claims.

It had been proposed to amend the above, so as to inquire into the need of such a bill, but it was voted down, 138 to 113.

Bills and Joint Resolutions read a third time and passed.—Bill, entitled "An act ceding to the United States of America exclusive jurisdiction over certain land and its appurtenances in the city of Portsmouth, and exempting the same from taxation."

Bill entitled "An act to incorporate the Nashua Foundry Company."

Joint Resolution in favor of Wm. B. Randall, Commissary General.

In Convention, Wm. W. Eastman was chosen Warden of State Prison, Geo. G. Fogg State Printer, and Peter Sanborn State Treasurer; vote 195 to 123.

ELECTION OF U. S. SENATOR.—Concord, June 12.—In the N. H. Legislature this morning, Daniel Clark of Manchester was elected to the U. S. Senate. The vote stood as follows: House—Clark 182;—John S. Wells 122; scattering 3. Senate—Clark 8; Wells 3.

TREMONT TEMPLE.—We learn from the Christian Era that the effort to raise the sum of $40,000 in order to secure the Tremont Temple to the Baptists has been successful. It will in time, doubtless, become the head-quarters of the denomination in New England.

☞ Peterson's Ladies' National Magazine, for July, is a beautiful number, with 43 embellishments; 45 articles; frontispiece, The Interview. Chas. J. Peterson, publisher, Philadelphia.

Juvenile Singing School.

AT the repeated request of friends and parents and for the benefit of the rising generation more than of himself, the subscriber will commence a Term of Juvenile School, at his airy and beautiful new Room,
Exchange Hall, No. 4 Exchange Buildings,
On SATURDAY AFTERNOON, June 13,
at 3 o'clock precisely;
to continue on Wednesday and Saturday Afternoons.

TERMS, One Dollar for the Course of Twelve Lessons, to be paid in advance. Tickets to be had at Mr. Cobb's Music Store, and of Mr. Pearson.

It must certainly be regretted by every one who considers the matter intelligently, that of also two thousand children attending the public schools in Portsmouth, so few are receiving any musical instruction in classes, or in any way but by private teachers—which of course is not the most efficient or economical mode of disseminating a general love and knowledge of music.

In the absence of any provision to have music taught in our public schools, the subscriber is willing and desirous to "do what he can" to make up the deficiency; and will therefore engage and in the instruction of a Juvenile Class—one of the most laborious, though not most remunerative departments of the musical profession.

Having had most excellent accommodations for
ONE HUNDRED PUPILS,
it would seem that this comparatively small number could easily be gathered from the various schools in the city.

☞ The attention of parents and all others interested, is respectfully invited to our new and beautiful room, &c.

LOCAL.

☞ Is it desirable that everybody, or all who have the talent, should learn to sing? Do the churches desire to have good choirs, or in fact, any choirs at all? Do parents like to have singing in their families?

If yes to either or all these questions,—is there any reason why the "one hundred children," whom Mr. Pearson announces he is ready and willing to instruct, may not be in attendance, this afternoon? He has a very nice, airy and pleasant room; with a rich-toned piano to aid and assist in tuning the young ears and voices; and we can hardly conceive of a more attractive place than this, for the children to spend an hour or two. See Mr. P.'s advertisement, and count out the juveniles.

☞ The Slaves' Concert, on Thursday evening, we thought richly worth hearing. Of course the performances were open to criticism—in fact it was only announced as a plantation entertainment; but there was not a little wit to enjoy, and something to admire. The whistling was well worth a quarter; and the dancing hard to beat, of the sort; and the humorous "Boy George," with his banjo, (which he played all over and everyhow) contributed his full share of the fun. There was more Nig in that troupe than in half-a-dozen imitations; and the whole performance certainly reflects creditably upon their teacher and leader, Mr. E. Warden. We are told that these negroes can neither read nor write, and cannot talk English in a manner to be understood by a Yankee. Hence, it is easy to see how much of rote work their teacher must go through—having only the native good ear and humor of the race to build on. We liked their most homelike and natural pieces the best, such as the Cotton boat song, and others.

We learn that the Slaves may give another entertainment here in a short time—and have no doubt they would be well received.

☞ Mr. Joseph H. Foster has been appointed Agent for the sale of The Life of William Plumer, in this city.—The book is a very instructive one,—of great value to the reader of our history.

GEN. WALBACH.

Gen. John B. Walbach, the oldest officer in the U. S. Army, died at his residence in Baltimore on the 10th inst., in the 93d year of his age.

Gen. W. was by birth a Prussian. He was a Captain in the U. S. Army, commanding at Fort Constitution, at the mouth of our harbor, before the war of 1812, and at the commencement of that war. In the course of it, he went on to the Canada Line, and was in the battle at Lundy's Lane, with Miller, Upham, &c.—He afterwards commanded at Frankfort Arsenal, at Old Point Comfort, and at Annapolis.

Capt. W. was highly respected here.—His family tenement, in Daniel street, was burnt in the great fire of Dec. 1813.

ROBBERY IN NEW YORK.—The New York Express gives the following particulars of an adroit and extensive robbery effected in that city on Monday night:—Some two weeks ago, George Bano de le Vege, a Cuban gentleman, arrived in that city from New Orleans, bringing with him $20,000 in gold doubloons, and $300 in silver. He put up at a public house, 43 Walker st., where he kept his money in a common trunk. Early on Monday, during the temporary absence of the Cuban, his room was entered by some parties, who, it is supposed, had "piped" him from the South, the lock forced from the trunk, the money secured and carried off. At the latest accounts, neither the robbers nor their plunder had been secured.

SUICIDE.—A man named Henry, of Nottingham, was found hanging from a tree near Bloody Brook, in Exeter, on the road to Epping, on Wednesday forenoon last.—He was a fisherman, and on his return from the sea-shore, with his horse and wagon, he took a halter and strung himself up. He was a middle-aged man, and leaves, we believe, a family in Nottingham. He is supposed to have committed the deed while in a fit of insanity.

☞ Mrs. Patten, the woman who so heroically navigated a ship to California, after her husband lost his mind, is now dangerously ill in Boston with typhoid fever, consequent upon the fatigues and exposure incident to the voyage, and her untiring devotion to her husband. Capt. Patten, we regret to add, has lost both his sight and hearing.

MASONIC.—The Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of New Hampshire, and the Annual Convocation of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter, were held at Concord on Tuesday and Wednesday. The attendance upon both bodies was large, and both institutions are understood to be increasing in numbers and strength.

CONCORD, N. H., June 11.—Ex-President Pierce arrived here to-day.

The Republican Senatorial Caucus was held this evening. Hon. Daniel Clark of Manchester received the nomination. The following is the ballot:—Daniel Clark, 110; Thomas M. Edwards, 44; Ichabod Goodwin, 23; Amos Tuck, 8; scattering, 1. The nomination of Mr. Clark was subsequently made unanimous.

RICHMOND, June 11.—A man named Jefferson Randall, who was some time ago, expelled from Rockingham county, for barn-burning and other crimes, returned there recently, when he was seized by a Vigilance Committee of citizens, and hung on Tuesday. Randall's son-in-law is in custody, and was to have been hung yesterday.

ROCHESTER, June 11.—Damage to the Canal, &c.—There was a tremendous deluge at Dansville, on the 9th inst. The canal is in ruins for three miles from Dansville, down the side cut. The locks had given way. The aqueduct remains, but has no embankment.

NEW YORK, June 11.—A new and independent Line between New York and Boston has been established, at a three dollar fare, via Newport, Bristol and Providence. The steamer Governor, now running, will soon be followed by the steamer Eastern City.

PENN YAN, June 9.—A severe Freshet, this morning, caused serious damage along the whole line of the Crooked Lane canal. Navigation cannot be resumed before Saturday or Monday next. The storm was the most severe known here for many years.

CONVICTED.—The Boston Journal says:

"Phillip Romp, who managed considerable of the fraudulent voting by which the Democrats carried Pennsylvania last fall, has been convicted of perjury for swearing falsely in regard to certain unnaturalized voters."

Punch suggests, in anticipation of the titles to be bestowed upon Her Most Prolific Majesty's physician, that he be dubbed Lord Deliverus.

TO THE CITIZENS OF THE UNITED STATES.
CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.

After several years experimenting in the manufacturing of Gin, I fortunately succeeded in the year 1848, in making a discovery in its manufacture by which it was deprived of all acrid and inflammatory properties, and rendered perfectly pure.

My manufactory is at Scheidam, Holland. After several months' reflection what title to give it, I introduced it to the American public under the name of "Wolfe's Scheidam Aromatic Schnapps." Scheidam is the name of the place in Holland where the Gin is manufactured. Aromatic derives its name from the Italian Juniper Berry with which it is flavored, and the word "Schnapps" is the German for drink—Cogne, Dram—Wolfe's Scheidam Aromatic Drink. No sooner had my Schnapps been introduced to the American public and received with approbation, than the Liquor Mixers of New York, Boston and Philadelphia started in pursuit with their mixed and poisonous stuff under various names: Scheidam Gin, Scheidam Schnapps, London Club House Gin, London Cordial Gin, &c., and in several cases my labels have been so perfectly imitated, with only the addition of a few letters to plead a technical avoidance of the law, and so carefully prepared as to impose on careless purchasers. I understand a large quantity has been purchased by the merchants of the Western States on account of the cheapness of the articles. A merchant who participates indirectly in the fraud by selling the spurious articles, is as much an offender as the principal who planned the imposition.

I hope every respectable citizen who values the health of the community in which he lives will aid me in ferreting out and exposing the unscrupulous merchant, who, for the sake of a few cents, will put in jeopardy the lives of the community in which he lives. Such men should be hailed to the pillory of popular execration.

WOLFE'S SCHEIDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS is made from barley of the first quality, selected with great care from the products of the most celebrated grain-growing districts, is flavored with the essence of the aromatic Juniper Berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process, which expels from the spirit every acrid particle. As a means of preventing and correcting the disagreeable and often dangerous effects produced upon the stomach and bowels by a change of water—a visitation to which travelers and settlers, and all unacclimated persons in the West, the South and South-West are peculiarly liable—the Scheidam Aromatic Schnapps will be found absolutely infallible; while, in cases of dropsy, gravel, obstructions of the kidneys, diseases of the bladder, dyspepsia, and general debility, it is recommended most emphatically by the most distinguished members of the medical profession. It is put up in quart and pint bottles, in cases of one dozen, with the name of the undersigned on the bottle and cork, and a fac-simile of his signature and label.

For sale by all respectable druggists and country merchants.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN is shown by the Records of the Custom House to be the only London Cordial Gin IMPORTED and sold in bottles; all others are made here in imitation of it.

It is a delicious tonic beverage, and by its peculiar flavor (so different from other gins) is universally esteemed by all who use it. It is adopted with great success in cases of Dyspepsia, Gout, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Gravel, Colic, Cholera, Fever and Ague, Strictures, Diseases of the Urinary Organs, Epilepsy, Female Irregularities.

Dr. Valentine Mott of New York, in a letter to the proprietor, says:

Charles' London Cordial Gin, is the purest, best, and most valuable Extract of Juniper I have seen.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN is sold by all Druggists and Grocers in the United States, and so also are numerous poisons called "London Cordial Gin"—to avoid them buy only "CHARLES'." Reject any other offered to you as you value your health. Price one dollar for quarts, fifty cents for pints.

The Medicine
THAT NEVER FAILS!

IS DR. WILSON'S
DYSENTERY POWDER,
Which cures Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Cholera Morbus, and all the affections of the Bowels attended with Pain and frequent Discharges.
This Medicine is now being introduced into all parts of the United States and British Provinces, and great success attends its use everywhere.—These Powders are now offered to the world as a PERFECTLY SAFE AND EFFECTUAL MEDICINE, for the purposes they are recommended, and in nine cases out of ten
ONE POWDER WILL CURE THE WORST CASE,
when they are taken in the first stages, and almost invariably two will effect a permanent Cure;—and unlike all other preparations, which, if they check the disease, leave the person in a condition that requires physic after it, which is not the case with the Dysentery Powders, for they regulate the Bowels, tone up the system, and leave it in a healthy state.
These Powders are put up in boxes, with full directions on each box, and sold for 50 Cents.
Please try them; if they do not give perfect satisfaction, return them and take your money.

Manny's Celebrated Mower
—AND—
MOWER AND REAPER.
IMPROVED.

Built expressly for the New England States.

THE MANNY MOWER has been extensively used for the past two years in New England, and more than six years at the West.—Its success is beyond that of any other Mower or Reaper ever constructed. Over 150 1st Premiums have been awarded it, including the Grand 1st Class Silver Medal at the WORLD'S FAIR, PARIS, 1856.

With the two past years' experience, we have been enabled to make a number of very important improvements. We find New England farmers require a lighter Mower. Machines from other states, the fields generally being small. It must be light, at the same time possess great strength; portable, with facilities to raise the cutters to pass obstructions; and to remove from field to field. A perfect cutting apparatus, to cut the fine grasses without clogging, and so constructed as to start in the grass without backing, easily adjusted to cut high or low, and have a Reel to cut equally well with or against the wind, and to be worked with ease by a light team, and so easily managed and simple that any one of common ability may operate it successfully, and to be built in the most thorough manner.

With this knowledge of the farmers' requirements, and with the determination to build a better Machine than has ever before been constructed in this country, we offer the Manny Mower of 1857 with confidence, as combining the qualities enumerated above, and we feel we can particularly adapted to meet the wants of New England farmers.

☞ We invite the farmers to call and examine Machines, which we have left with our agents. Circulars, with testimonials, forwarded FREE, on application.

Price of Mower, $110; with Reaper attachment, $15 Extra. Delivered on board the cars at Worcester, Mass. JOHN P. ADRIANCE & Co.,
Manufacturers.

R AYER'S Cathartic Pills,
(SUGAR COATED.)
ARE HERE TO

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK
Invalids, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians
Philanthropists, read their Effects,
and judge of their Virtues.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach

PITTSBURG, PA., May 1, 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills, and I have recommended them to friends, which they cleanse at once. If they will do to others as they do me, the fact is worth knowing.
Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE,
Clerk of Steamer.

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
WASHINGTON, D. C., 7 Feb., 1856.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we have. Their action is lasting action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of the organs. Indeed, I have seldom failed to cure any of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them.
Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D.,
Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

POST OFFICE, HARTLAND, LIV. CO., MICH., Nov. 16, 1855

DR. AYER: For three years I was afflicted with dysentery. My physicians gave me up, and said I could live but a few days. They have done my wife more good than I can tell you. She had been sick and pining away for months. Went off to be doctored, but got no better. Her friends advised her to try your Cathartic Pills. She did so, and from the commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. They afterwards cured her and our two children of bloody dysentery. One child, a little girl, had been bad, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctors' bills, and lost much time, without being cured entirely even then. Such a medicine as yours, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here.
GEO. J. GRIFFIN, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Cathartic Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, WYOMING CO., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.
JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Pioneering Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the best physic of all that I great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with tetter and pimples on her face, which her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her. ASA MORGRIDGE

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawkins, of the Methodist Episc. Church.

PUTNAM HOUSE, SAVANNAH, GA., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which I had no remedy to bring same. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until, by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were astonishing and sure. By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well.

SEXATE CHAMBER, BATON ROUGE, LA., 5 Dec., 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease which had defied me for years. VINCENT SLIDELL.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are admirably adapted.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness, and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL
FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, INFLUENZA, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, IN CITE CONSUMPTION,

and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet of the American States, its wonderful effects in pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects; and fewer yet the communities anywhere which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the fearfully dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the insidious attacks that steal upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the CHERRY PECTORAL saves more lives by the consumptions it prevents from coming, than any thing in the world. Many, very many, are the colds which they are curable, not in fact them until no human skill can master the hectic fever, tanker that, fastened on the vitals, sets your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and all they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not dwelling more than to assure them it is still made the best in our power. We spare no cost, no care, no labor, to make it the most perfect medicine we know, and thus afford those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their cure.

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. FRANCIS & Co are the managers, are authorized by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in the fairest and most honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another feature which the managers call attention to is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day, and a number of different classes are named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $100. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket; for instance the Havana plan, and Tertian combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

☞ The drawn numbers of the Maryland Lotteries are published by the State Commissioner in the following papers, viz: Sun, Clipper, Patriot, American, Exchange, of Baltimore; also, the National Intelligencer and Union, of Washington, D.C.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the state of Georgia, and each town commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with them is managed in the fairest and honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. Their business is conducted with the strictness to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Georgia and Louisiana are authorized by the legislature of that State. A lottery is drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the communication comes to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. They work upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to puzzle the brain, and no chance for mistakes. Every prize is drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Courier, Nashville Banner, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to S. SWAN & Co., Atlanta, Georgia

Prizes paid in full less commutage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

All communications strictly confidential. m31y

S. D. & H. W. Smith,
—MANUFACTURERS OF—
Melodeons, Organ Melodeons,
—and—
PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,
No. 511 Washington Street, Boston.

The first premium over all competitors, at the Fair of the Mass. Charitable Mechanic Association, of the National Fair, Washington, D. C., also at the Ohio State Fair, held at Columbus, Ohio, was awarded to these Manufacturers.

By means of a new method of Voicing, known only to themselves, they have succeeded in removing the harsh and buzzing sound which formerly characterized the instrument, and rendering the tones full, clear and organ like. The action is prompt and reliable, enabling the performer to execute the most rapid music without blurring the tones. The swell is arranged to give great expression.

THE PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,
Are designed particularly for Churches, Lodges, Halls, &c. It is arranged with two manuals, or banks of Keys, the lower set running an octave higher than the other, and may be used separately, and thus get in one case two distinct instruments; or by one of the coupler, the two banks of Keys may be played at the same time by use of the front set only. This connected with the Pedal Bass, will produce the effect of a large organ, and is sufficiently heavy to fill a house that will contain 1500 to 2000 persons.

THE ORGAN MELODEON
Is designed for parlor and private use. The construction is similar to the Church Instrument, being made through two banks of Keys, and when used together, by means of the coupler, is capable of a great volume of power as the Church Instrument when used without the pedale. Also, every variety of MELODEONS for Parlor use.

Purchasers may rely upon instruments from our Manufactory, being made in the most complete and thorough manner. Having removed to the spacious Buildings

511 Washington Street,

We have every facility for manufacturing purposes, and employ none but the most experienced and skilful workmen. We feel safe in promise our customers an Instrument equal, if not superior, to any Manufacturer, and guarantee an entire and perfect satisfaction.

Musical Teachers, Leaders of Choirs, and others interested in musical matters, are respectfully invited to visit our Rooms at any time and examine or test the instruments on exhibition for sale at their pleasure.

As a still further guarantee to the public as to the excellence of the MELODEONS from our establishment, we beg leave to refer, by permission, to the following

Piano Forte Manufacturers of Boston,

who have examined our Instruments, and will give their opinion when called upon:
Chickering & Sons, Hallett & Cummston,
T. Gilbert & Co., Wm. P. Emerson,
Brown & Allen, A. W. Ladd & Co.,
George Hewes, Woodward & Brown,
Newhall & Co.

MELODEONS RENTED.

Persons who wish to hire Melodeons with a view of purchasing at the end of the year, can have the rent credited as part payment of the purchase money. This matter is worthy of special note, as it enables those who desire a fair test of the instruments before purchasing, to obtain it at the expense of the manufacturers, to the extent at least of a year's rent.

Orders from any part of the country or world, sent directed as above, will be promptly filled with cash, or satisfactory reference, will be promptly attended to, and as faithfully executed as if the parties were present, or employed an agent to select, and on as reasonable terms.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1836.)
No. 78 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to procure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on Reasonable Terms, and despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unequalled by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL IN PATENTS, and SPECIFICATIONS being superior, and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office in the land are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full access to the Patent Office records in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the vexatious delays and expense attendant thereon, are hereby saved inventors.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any, persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration of their claims.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,

MASSACHUSETTS LEGISLATIVE PROCEEDINGS. Burbank of Suffolk, and Taft, of your county, had rather a sharp passage at arms on the temperance question. Burbank claimed that the military were noted for their temperate habits. Taft thought it news had not got into the rural districts, and with his information, he should go into military companies to find teetotallers, and hinted to the gallant Colonel Burbank at a military supper at the United States Hotel, by the scent, he should not judge that Edwin Thompson presided. Burbank retorted, by saying that there was not so much liquor drank, as at a Legislative supper at the Tremont House, the same evening. Taft agreed to that, and took occasion to say that the last mentioned party was a disgrace to all concerned. It was given by the friends of the Crystal Lake Water Works. Report says some hundred dollars worth of crockery was broken in a drunken frolic. They were so busy as to attract the attention of passers-by. Happening to be passing by, my attention was called by noise and confusion. I stopped long enough to see who were there. It was a sorry sight. Some of our most eloquent Legislators so disguised with liquor, as to be beneath the brute. Brutal speeches and corrupt songs, such as one seldom hears in the purlieus of the North End. I am sorry to say that several of the Worcester County Representatives were present, and participated in the Boston revels. Voters of Worcester County, look at that in future you are represented by one who will practice Temperance.—Boston Cor. Milford Journal.

DANGEROUS ADVICE.—The Philadelphia Ledger lately stated that housekeepers should know that the acid in rhubarb, gooseberries and currants may be neutralized by putting a third of a teaspoonful of soda in the fruit, without affecting the flavor. All experience shows it to be worse than useless, for, as the Pittsburgh Post says, fruit prepared in this way should be carefully thrown out of the window. It is not fit for the table. The immense quantities of soda already used in the culinary department of our households is a serious detriment to the health, and we are sorry that any new use of this already too popular alkali should have been suggested.

CAUSE OF THE DEATH OF HON. THEODORE INGALLS.—Upon a post mortem examination of the body of Dr. Ingalls, it was found that his death was caused by apoplexy from the rupture of a blood vessel. A considerable quantity of blood was found upon the brain. This examination revealed the fact that Dr. Ingalls was mistaken as to the cause of his long continued ill health. He firmly believed and asserted that one lobe of his lungs was entirely gone, whereas upon examination, it was found that his lungs were sound and perfect, and that the cause of his ill-health was from some other source.—Portland Argus.

☞ The Cincinnati Gazette says:—"Christopher Noble clung on the rear portion of a car on the Great Western Railroad last Tuesday, in such a manner as to be concealed from sight, and while the train was going at full speed, let go his hold and got off, intending to proceed to his house close by. The consequence may be anticipated. He fell on his head; the momentum of the train then threw him up seven feet in the air, and on reaching the ground he was thrown up a second time, the body was then hurled a distance of forty-one feet from the spot where he first fell, and he was picked up dead."

COLLISION.—Thursday morning, the first inward passenger train from S. Dedham, after waiting at the turnout near Dedham for the outward freight train to pass, started on, and soon met the freight train with considerable violence. Fortunately no one was injured, although one of the engines was considerably damaged. The blame attaches chiefly to the conductor of the freight train, who did not wait for the passenger.

☞ Two children of an Irish family in Roxbury, a boy of 5 and a girl of 3 years, were suffocated on Thursday by setting fire to the bed clothes, probably while playing with matches. The father and mother had gone out to work, having, as usual with many Irish, and sometimes American parents, fastened the children in the room, to await their return.

☞ Mexican papers confirm to the fullest extent the death of Gen. Crabbe and his associates. Only one youth, 12 years old, was spared. It was rumored that Crabbe's friends are making horrible reprisals on all the Mexicans who fall in their hands.

☞ Mrs. M. O. Beekman, a sister of ex-President Tyler, died at her residence on the 2d inst. This event will prevent the ex-President's visit to Boston on the 17th.

A young lady, about 20 years old, belonging to a respectable family in Newburyport, died on Thursday evening, in consequence of a criminal operation performed upon her a short time since, by a quack doctor in Boston. She was supposep to absent on a visit to a neighboring town, but after being taken to one or two houses of ill-repute in Newburyport, she was finally carried to the domicil of the villain in Boston. Her seducer was arrested on Thursday, and placed under $2000 bonds, and measures were also taken to arrest the perpetrator of the offence, in Boston.—Herald.

BURDEN'S
Pressed Boat, Ship, Brad & Countersunk Railroad Spikes

ARE well known in the United States, and are conspicuous for their regularity and finish, their unvarying uniformity of size, and for the excellent quality of iron from which they are made, to which may be attributed their rare strength. They are everywhere considered far superior to the hand made spike of common English iron, and inferior to nothing of the kind yet introduced to the public.

CRIME—OLD AND NEW.—A writer in the Boston Traveller, who has been hunting up the records of Boston, for the last 50 years, brings out many curious items, and comes to the following conclusion:

It does not appear to us, from an inspection of these records, that wickedness in Boston is the modern invention some would have us believe. A hall century ago, the amount of crime committed was in about the same proportion to population as at the present time. The executions for capital offences, for the quarter of a century ending in 1830, were much larger than for that ending in 1855; and when we consider the fact that for the past dozen years, some of the governments of Europe have been forcing upon us a portion of their hardened offenders, our criminal statistics for the past few years, so far as aggravated offences are concerned, show a remarkably favorable result.

Of juvenile crime, he says:

Juvenile crime was, comparatively, very rare then. A boy having been arrested for larceny, the pupils of two of the public schools were dismissed, in order that they might have an opportunity of witnessing for their benefit the "melancholy spectacle" and the Court room, on the trial, exhibited a singular sight, being crowded with school-boys.

Fifty years ago, in Portsmouth, and probably in Boston, boys were whipped in the town school, for stealing, fighting, &c. in the streets and elsewhere. They were as profane, dishonest, and quarrelsome then, as their successors are now,—and we think, a little more so.

RHODE ISLAND.—The Legislature of Rhode Island, at its January session, passed a law, declaring grog-shops, tippling-shops, &c., nuisances; and thirty indictments found by the Grand Jury against such places came up before the Court of Common Pleas at Providence, on Thursday. The Journal says the Court room was crowded all day, chiefly by liquor dealers and their friends, and a good deal of interest was manifested in the result of this first trial under the new law.

On Friday, verdicts of guilty, were rendered in the first two cases tried. The cases were both taken up to the Supreme Court on exceptions.

ANOTHER ELOPEMENT.—A Mr. Root, of Ellicottville, Cattaraugus County, N. Y., recently sold his farm and "eloped" for the West with the proceeds. "Not long after," the Utica Herald says, "the widow Curtiss was missing from Ellicottville, and rumor said she and Root had found each other in the West. A short time since, Lawrence Root, son of his father James, started out to hunt up his errant pere, and found him in the village of North East, Erie County, Pa., living with the widow Curtiss, whom he had married. But Root Senior would not recognize Root Junior; so Root Junior says, 'I'll soon put you in a way to know me,' goes for a magistrate, and has papa arrested for bigamy. Root Senior, finding himself caught, prays for mercy, and effects a settlement with his son, by paying him all the money he could raise, with which the son has returned to Ellicottville, to comfort his mother."

WHEN IS A POLICEMAN "ON DUTY."—Dennis Hill was before the Police Court, in Boston on Friday morning, charged with an assault upon officer Hicks, of the 2d police station, "while in the discharge of his duty." Dennis grounded his defence on the fact that the officer was not within his regular district of service at the time of the collision, and therefore was not on official duty. Justice Rogers held, however, that policemen were sworn to protect the public peace within the city, and on any occasion that they acted for this object, they were strictly in the discharge of duty. The defendant was fined $10 and costs.

☞ Mrs. Cunningham, having been tried once before the coroner, and again before the jury, is undergoing a third ordeal before the Surrogate, which, so far as circumstantial evidence goes, is the severest of all. The counsel for the Burdell family are unroofing No. 31 Bond st, and showing a combination of intrigue plotting, indecency and bad morals, which is startling even to those who thought that the shamelessness of the case had been exhausted.

THE NEW CENT.—The Congregationalist discovers one peculiarity in the new coin, in the omission of the word "Liberty," which had so conspicuous a place in the old money. It says the new cent is eagerly sought for from the South, where the old one was almost unknown.

THE "LITTLE JOKER" GAME.—Tuesday morning, Mr. George Mann, a tobacconist in one of the interior towns of New York, arrived at the Tremont House, Boston, for the purpose of purchasing goods. He made the acquaintance on the boat, of a gentlemanly appearing man, who offered to show him around, introduce him to traders, &c., all of which was highly acceptable to the dealer in cigars and tobacco. The first thing, Mr. Mann did, was to draw $800 from the Merchants' Bank, on a draft, receiving one $500 bill and three bills of $100 each.

He then went to the Tremont House, and in company with his boat friend—who represented himself to be E. G. Saunders, a merchant of Baltimore—repaired to the suburbs for the purpose of seeing the country, Mr. Saunders pretending to have business on Heath street in Roxbury.

The twain repaired to the Norfolk House, and thence took a walk to Heath street, where they were met by a third party, who pretended to belong in New Hampshire. The three went upon a vacant lot in Heath street, when they stopped under a tree for rest and shelter from the heat of the sun. To make a long story short, the "little joker" game was successfully played upon Mr. Mann, who loaned his boat friend his $800, and received in exchange, a draft for $900 upon a pretended firm in Milk street.

When this transaction was completed, a fourth party came up and warned them off the ground as trespassers, when the rogues took to their heels, and Mr. Mann returned to Boston, to get his draft on the Milk street firm cashed. He learned soon enough that he had been swindled, when he set about the detection of the rogues, through the aid of the police. The rogues were not to be found, and it is presumed that they have left the vicinity.

That any man, arrived at years of discretion, and who has an opportunity of reading the papers, should be swindled in this manner, seems astonishing.

The papers don't say what they drank at the Norfolk House.

ABORTION AND DEATH.—A Dr. Lewis Dix, of Endicott street, Boston, charged with an operation on Miss Emma Post of Newburyport, to procure abortion, was arrested in Boston June 12, and brought before the Police Court. The case was continued to Thursday of next week, and the defendant ordered to find sureties in $4000 for his appearance at that time.

The name of the individual charged with being the seducer of the deceased young woman, is F. W. Rickerson, living at Belleville. For the past year, he has visited the family and received the kindest treatment. A short time since, he found the girl was encienta; and after a number of attempts to get her to leave town, he at last succeeded. Her parents supposed she was in Dover, on a visit, instead of which, she was kept in two houses of ill-repute in Newburyport. What occurred there, will probably be shown at the coroner's inquest. She was afterwards inveigled to Boston, and underwent a surgical operation, was hurried thence to Newburyport, on Wednesday, and on Thursday afternoon, paid the forfeit of such acts, dying in excruciating agony.

Her seducer was arrested, and in default of bail, was committed to jail.

The deceased female, before death, made an affidavit, setting forth the above facts, and stated that it was against her will that she went to Boston.

The punishment of the offence of which Dr. Dix is accused, is not less than five years, and not more than twenty, in the State Prison.

In the eye of the higher law, her seducer is a murderer.

FIRE ENGINE RACING.—The Boston Transcript informs us that on Thursday afternoon Coroner Smith's jury returned their verdict upon the death of Alonzo Darling, who died a short time since from being run over by a fire engine in Cross street, in accordance with the circumstances already reported. The jury found that No. 4 was racing with No. 12 at the time, and was proceeding at a dangerous degree of speed when the accident occurred.

☞ John B. Gough delivered his farewell lecture in the New York City Assembly Rooms on Thursday night, James Harper presiding. He expects to be absent in Great Britain and Ireland, for about two years.

NEW MODE OF STEALING.—At Philadelphia, on Thursday afternoon, a prominent New York physician, while passing through a street, was met by a woman with a veil, who suddenly snatched his gold-bowed spectacles from his nose and vanished.

☞ Accounts from Bombay, of the 1st, state that at that date the English regiments were returning from Persia.

THE ALLEGED CRIMINAL JUROR.—Wm. Thomas, whose trial on an indictment for passing counterfeit money has been several times postponed in the Boston Municipal Court, on the ground that Thomas was serving on the Grand Jury in the U. S. Circuit Court, having been defaulted, was brought before Judge Nash on a capias, and in default of increased bail was committed to jail on Friday, as we learn from the Transcript.

AN OLD SOLDIER.—There is now living at Acton, Me., near the New Hampshire line, a soldier of the Revolution, who fought at the battle of Bunker Hill. He will be one hundred and one years old next July 6th, and is as active as men usually are forty years younger. His name is Ralph Farnham. The citizens of Acton and several towns in Maine and New Hampshire celebrated his hundredth birthday last July with great parade.

☞ Mr. Underwood, the Secretary of the New York Emigrant Aid Society, gives notice that the important manufacturing site at the Falls on the Rappahannock River, in Virginia, has been secured for improvement, and he publishes a letter from the mayor of Fredericksburg, conveying to northern capitalists and emigrants who desire to settle, their assurances of fraternal feeling and cordial good will.

☞ Rev. Mr. Spurgeon is not coming to this country at present. He has received $1000 from the sales of his books in America during the last three months.

THE SECRET DISCOVERED AT LAST.—We have noticed in passing through Market street, lately, that the NEW STORE, No. 15, always seems crowded with customers. We have at last discovered the secret of it. On stepping inside, we find that the proprietors, MESSRS. ALLEN & PAINE, in fitting up their store in the beautiful manner they have, had an eye for the useful, as well as for the ornamental; we noticed that the store appeared very light and cheerful, and on looking for a solution of the mystery, we discover that the store contains a Skylight, giving them facilities for showing their Goods possessed by no other Dry Goods store in town; as Customers by such a light, have no difficulty in seeing just what they are purchasing, and can not be deceived in the color or quality of goods. We notice, also, that their stock is always composed of the best qualities and very latest styles, which is explained by the fact that one of the firm visits the market to replenish their goods every ten days,—and as they buy for Cash, all together, they are able to offer their goods at as low prices as any other parties.

Those about to purchase Dry Goods will do well to visit them. Read their advertisement in another column.

Also, Kennedy's Medical Discovery, price 68 cents per bottle.

DOES ANY OF OUR HIGH LIVERS ever eat too much dinner? If any of our readers have cooks who tempt their appetite a little too far, I will tell a secret that will lead to the enjoyment of their dinners, without a visit from that grim old gentleman, Dyspepsia. Take a dose of Dr. Sanford's Invigorator after eating, and you will never be troubled with indigestion; but on the contrary, before the next meal time approaches, the appetite will be sharpened to a keen edge of any kind of food. If the food rises or sours, the Invigorator will fix the matter right at once, for there is something in it that, to use the expression of a friend, will let a man eat gravel stones, and take the Invigorator and they will digest. We have tried it in doubtful cases on one or two occasions, for sick headache, and it acts like a charm.

What we want to say to our readers, young or old, is, if anything ails you, go without delay and get a bottle of Dr. Sanford's Invigorator, and if it don't cure, come and tell us, for we want to see one person that it will not benefit.

HORSE THIEF ARRESTED.—The Woonsocket Patriot says that two men came to that town on Tuesday, and traded horses with Mr. John A. Corey. Soon after they were gone, Mr. Corey saw an advertisement in a Boston paper, offering a reward for a stolen horse and wagon. Being satisfied that he had been dealing with thieves, he pursued them through Franklin and Medway to Medfield, Mass., to the house of Augustus Plimpton, who, he had ascertained, was one of the men who came to his stable. Plimpton told him that the horse was in the stable, but that his companion was not about the premises. Corey, however, with his assistants, searched the house and found the accomplice behind the chimney in the garret. The wagon and harness were found buried up in the hay-mow. A telegraphic despatch was sent to the owner, Mr. Samuel Batterfield, of West Cambridge, who went to Woonsocket on Wednesday, and took the property and thief, who gave his name as Peter Burns. He confesses to belonging to a gang of thieves and robbers, and also to having performed sundry "garrotings" in Boston and vicinity. He evidently wishes to turn State's evidence. The man Plimpton, at whose house Burns was taken, is also implicated, and officers started to arrest him on Thursday. He is a young man, possessed of considerable property.

☞ The state of religion in Texas is very low. Not more than one-sixth of the inhabitants of Austin and its vicinity ever go to a place of worship. So says a writer in the N. Y. Observer, who adds, "You hear no political preaching." Nor religious either, probably.

☞ An elderly man, whom the Portland Argus describes as an exhorter of threescore years, living near that city, lost his wife about a year ago, and has since seduced a young girl of 17, his own niece, who has become a mother by him. He has fled.

☞ It is stated that prior to 1850, the number of Americans who indulged in a "tour of Europe," did not exceed 7500 in any one year. Now, the number who cross the water, annually, has swelled to 35,000.

☞ A little boy about eight years old, son of Milo Dickerman, was drowned in the canal of the Jackson Company in Nashua, on Wednesday afternoon. He was fishing from the canal bridge, when he fell in.

☞ The Republicans carried three-quarters of the officers chosen at a city election in New London on Monday.

THE OCEAN HOUSE,

ON RYE BEACH.

Is to be opened on the 25th of this month. The proprietors would invite their friends and neighbors in Rye and the adjoining towns to look through this splendid establishment, in which great improvements have been made the past season. No one can visit this beautiful house but to admire it, and it has been and is the admiration of thousands in this country and throughout Europe.

The proprietor would take this opportunity to return his sincere thanks to the people of New Hampshire for the liberal patronage bestowed upon him for the last ten years, and also to correct an error which prevails as regards the charges at the Ocean House.—The rate for transient boarders is $2.00 per day; and transient parties for fractions of days are accommodated on as low terms as at any first class hotel. The house will be opened June 25th, for inspection and business.

JOB JENNESS & CO., Proprietors.

THE SURF HOUSE,

AT RYE BEACH.

The proprietors of the OCEAN HOUSE have purchased the UNION HOUSE, which is hereafter to be called the SURF HOUSE, and will be conducted in connection with the Ocean House, under the management of N. P. STEBBINS Esq., who has for the past six years been favorably known as one of the employees at the Ocean, and is to be kept open the year round. No pains will be spared to make the Surf House one of the best resorts on the coast for regular boarders, parties of pleasure, or invalids. The large stable connected with the house will be well conducted, where good horses and carriages may always be procured, and coaches will run daily to meet all the trains on the railroads. Sail boats will be kept for the accommodation of visitors, and the proprietor hopes, by attention to the wants of his guests, to merit and receive a share of public patronage.

Direct to "N. P. STEBBINS, Surf House, Rye Beach, N.H." Stop at the Greenland Depot, where coaches will take passengers to the House.

LOCAL.

☞ Our advertising columns show that Col. Wm. S. Hadley has taken the City Hotel, in this city, and just opened there as landlord. The "City" is a neat and inviting looking house, viewed from without; and with Col. Hadley to look out for the interior arrangements, there need be no fear but these will be equally pleasing. He is one of the best, most attentive, and mind your own business sort of landlords we ever met with.

The Granite House, long occupied by Col H., is hereafter to be in charge of Mr. Benj. H. Grant and others, we hel eve.

☞ Well, we have tried Hansen's Patent Pancholders, advertised this morning by Messrs. John S. Harvey & Son, and "like them first-rate." Some of our scribblers don't like them—they say the guards or stays "are right in the way." Well, that is where we want them—for being in the right way, they keep the pen there too.

OWNER WANTED, for a stray Barrel of Pork. Apply to the City Marshal.

N. H. LEGISLATURE.

On Friday, both Houses elected Daniel Clark, Senator to Congress.—In the House, Mr. Hackett of this city, introduced a bill in amendment of our city charter, which was referred to the committee on the judiciary.

The House voted, 179 to 100, that Mr. Wheeler of Dunbarton is not entitled to his seat.

Messages were received from the Senate, announcing that Hon. Daniel Clark had been elected, on its part, U. S. Senator in place of Hon. James Bell, deceased. Also, announcing its concurrence in House bill, ceding to the United States, certain lands in the city of Portsmouth, and the act incorporating Nashua Foundry Company. Also that it had passed a bill in relation to days of grace.

The business of the session is moving steadily onward. Both houses adjourned from Friday P. M. to Monday P. M.

TRUE AS THE MEETIN' BOOK.—The following is true as the meetin' book in its brightest binding:

"The Fine Arts are unlike everything in their requirements. A man may change from one kind of employment to another in the common affairs of life without difficulty or regret. But one who is by nature an artist, must be one or nothing; and this is why he is treated with great though perhaps unintentional injustice. When through neglect and want of encouragement he remains poor and sometimes approaches the very verge of starvation, 'business men,' mechanics, and men of wealth, often say 'why don't he go to work and make money as we have done?' They might as well ask why the bee, when he can find no flowers, does not make honey by sipping cabbage heads?"

THE SLAVE TRADE.—The N. Y. Tribune calls attention to the fact that the President has remitted the fine imposed upon Capt. Smith, tried some days since for implication in the slave trade. It says:

"He was charged with a capital offence, and the case was perfectly clear against him; but to avoid the chance of his getting off by some quibble or pretence set up by him of not being a citizen of the United States, the prosecution accepted a plea of guilty for a minor offence. Under this plea he was sentenced to a term of imprisonment and a fine of $1000. During his imprisonment he freely boasted to those who visited him, of his connection with the slave trade, and his special relish for the business. His term of imprisonment having expired, the President has remitted his fine and set him free."

MURDER IN BROOKLYN, N. Y.—James Keys, an Irishman, has been arrested in Brooklyn for the murder of his wife on Wednesday night. When the officer went to the house, he found her lying on a straw bed, all crampt up. One side of her jaw was broken, a cut was over the left eye, one eye was very black, and a bruise was on the left breast. She made two or three gasps for breath, when the officer came in, and then died. The witnesses against Keys are a little girl and two little boys. The little girl says that when Keys came home he went in and beat his wife. The boys looked through the window, and thought Keys was "licking" her, though there was no blow struck. The woman had been drunk, according to the testimony of the neighbors, and Keys says when he came home she was bloody. He was a troublesome fellow, however, and in the habit of abusing her.—Traveller.

☞ The N. Y. Herald's Washington correspondent says Gen. Walker declares himself a citizen of Nicaragua, and that he will soon return there and take charge of his government.

BALTIMORE, 13th.—A desperate fight took place in San Antonio, Texas, on the 30th ult., between some citizens and a gang of robbers. The cause of the fight was the murder of a woman and the robbery of her house by the ruffians. Three desperadoes and two citizens were killed.

FROM THE PACIFIC COAST.

THE ISTHMUS—CALIFORNIA—PERU, ETC.

NEW YORK, June 12.

Steamship George Law, from Aspinwall, has arrived. She brings the California Mail of May 20th, has nearly $2,000,000 in specie on board.

The Granada left Aspinwall for New Orleans, on the 3d inst.

The massacre of Crabbe's party has caused great excitement in California.

The Mines are yielding well.

Affairs at the Isthmus are quiet.

The New Granadian new administration will not accede to the demand of the United States.

There is nothing new from Nicaragua.

The revolution in Peru has been suppressed, the insurgent fleet surrendering to the government forces.

Central America.—The U. S. ships Independence, Decatur and St. Mary's, were off Panama, and the Wabash and Cyane off Aspinwall.

Intelligence from San Juan del Norte, states that over 100 of Walker's men are still at that place, destitute and sick.

The Panama Star expresses strong fears that Gen. Walker, in conformity with threats made by him after his capitulation, will return with another army of fillibusters to the Isthmus; and regrets that Gen. Mora did not bind him and his officers, in the terms of the capitulation, never again to put their feet in Central America.

Peru.—The sloop-of-war John Adams was at the Chinchas, as also 200 vessels loading with guano.

SUPPOSED SLAVER CAPTURED.—New York, June 12.—The schooner Maitland, a supposed slaver, was captured this morning, outside of Sandy Hook, by the cutter Washington.

☞ Neal Dow made his first appearances before a London audience at Exeter Hall, on the 26th. His reception was quite enthusiastic.

☞ A gentleman who has resided in Venezuela twenty years, says the wild cattle meat there is as good as any beef he ever tasted here.

TO THE CITIZENS OF THE UNITED STATES

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.

After several years experimenting in the manufacturing of Gin, I fortunately succeeded, in the year 1845, in making a discovery in its manufacture by which it was deprived of all acrid and inflammatory properties, and rendered perfectly pure.

My manufactory is at Scheidam, Holland. After several months' reflection what title to give it, I introduced it to the American public under the name of "Wolfe's Scheidam Aromatic Schnapps." Scheidam is the name of the place in Holland where the Gin is manufactured. Aromatic derives its name from the Italian Juniper Berry with which it is flavored, and the word "Schnapps" is the German for drink—Cogne, Dram—Wolfe's Scheidam Aromatic Drink. No sooner had my Schnapps been introduced to the American public and received with approbation, than the Liquor Mixers of New York, Boston and Phila lelphia, started in pursuit with their mixed and poisonous stuff under various names: Scheidam Gin, Scheidam Schnapps, London Club House Gin, London Cordial Gin, &c, and in several cases my labels have so perfectly imitated, with only the addition of a few letters to plead a technical avoidance of the law, and so carefully prepared as to impose on careless purchasers. I understand a large quantity has been purchased by the merchants of the Eastern States on account of the enhancement of the articles. A merchant who participates indirectly in the fraud by selling the spurious articles, is as much an offender as the principal who planned the imposition.

I hope every respectable citizen who values the health of the community in which he lives will aid me in ferreting out and exposing the unscrupulous merchant, who, for the sake of a few cents, will put in jeopardy the lives of the community in which he lives. Such men should be hailed to the pillory of popular execration.

WOLFE'S SCHEIDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS is made from barley of the first quality, selected with great care from the produce of the most celebrated grain-growing districts, is flavored with the essence of the aromatic Juniper Berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process, which expels from the spirit every acrid particle.

As a means of preventing and correcting the disagreeable and often dangerous effects produced upon the stomach and bowels by a change of water—a visitation to which travelers and settlers, and all unacclimated persons in the West, the South and South-West are peculiarly liable—the Scheidam Aromatic Schnapps will be found absolutely infallible; while, in case of dropsy, gravel, obstructions of the kidneys, diseases of the bladder, dyspepsia, and general debility, it is recommended most emphatically by the most distinguished members of the medical profession.

It is put up in quart and pint bottles, in cases of one dozen, with the name of the undersigned on the bottle and cork, and a fac-simile of his signature and label.

For sale by all respectable druggists and country merchants. UDOLPHO WOLFE.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN

Is shown by the Records of the Custom House to be the only London Cordial Gin IMPORTED and sold in bottles; all others are made here in imitation of it.

It is a delicious tonic beverage, and by its peculiar flavor (so different from other gins) is universally esteemed by all who use it. It is adopted with great success in cases of Dyspepsia, Gout, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Gravel, Colic, Cholera, Fever and Ague, Stricture, Diseases of the Urinary Organs, Epilepsy, Female Irregularities.

Dr. Valentine Mott of New York, in a letter to the proprietor, says:

Charles' London Cordial Gin, is the purest, best, and most reliable Extract of Juniper I have seen.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN is sold by all Druggists and Grocers in the United States, and so also are numerous poisons called "Lond n Cordial Gin"—to avoid them buy only "CHARLES'." Reject any other offered to you as you value your health. Price one dollar for quarts, fifty cents for pints.

THAT NEVER FAILS!

IS DR. WILSON'S

DYSENTERY POWDER,

Which cures Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Cholera Morbus, and all the affections of the Bowels attended with Pain and frequent Discharges.

This Medicine is now being introduced into all parts of the United States and British Provinces, and great success attends its use everywhere.—These Powders are now offered to the world as a PERFECTLY SAFE AND EFFECTUAL MEDICINE, for the purposes they are recommended, and in nine cases out of ten

ONE POWDER WILL CURE THE WORST CASE,

when they are taken in the first stages, and almost invariably give a perfect and a permanent Cure;—and unlike all other preparations, which, if they check the disease, leave the person in a condition that requires physic after it, which is not the case with the Dysentery Powders, for they regulate the Bowels, tone up the system, and leave it in a healthy state.

These Powders are put up in boxes, with full directions on each box, and sold for 50 Cents.

Please try them; if they do not give perfect satisfaction, return them and take your money.

By HENRY F. WENDELL,

Store at the Old Stand, No. 70 State Street.

HOUSE LOTS AT AUCTION.

A grand chance to lay the foundation for a home.

WILL be sold at Public Auction on the premises, in Portsmouth,

On SATURDAY Afternoon, June 27th, at 3 o'clock,

TEN HOUSE LOTS!

Consisting in the aggregate of about 90,000 square feet of land, which is bounded on the south by Islington street, on the east by Creek street, on the west by land of True M. Ball, bordering on Frenchman's Lane, and on the north by a new street, being the land now owned by Kittredge Sheldon.

This is in every respect the most eligible and desirable position for House Lots now in the market. It is about 10 minutes' walk from Market Square, in a direct line through the pleasantest and best street in the city, with a good sidewalk the entire distance, and combining in an unusual degree the advantages of rural and city life. The land is dry, the grounds are shaded with full and graceful elms, forming the most picturesque landscape to be found in this vicinity. The lots vary in size from 5000 to 12000 feet; the smallest affording ample garden, as well as building room.

An accurate plan of the Lots may be seen at H. F. Wendell's Store, No. 70 State street, and further particulars may be obtained of the subscriber. KITTREDGE SHELDON.

ON THE PREMISES,

(If not previously disposed of at private sale.)

SAID FARM is in Kittery, on the old post road, leading from Portsmouth to York, 21 miles from Portsmouth or the Navy Yard; within 50 rods of the town school house, and about half a mile from the Methodist Church. Said farm contains about 56 acres of land in a high state of cultivation, producing 50 tons of hay yearly. On the farm is a new containing 11 rooms, with a BARN and other outbuildings. A good Well, and a never-failing spring of water are on the premises.

Further particulars may be learned prior to the sale, of CYRUS FERNALD, in said Kittery; of C. W. WALKER, Portsmouth, N. H.; or of JOHN FERNALD, Boston.

Manny's Celebrated Mower
—AND—
MOWER AND REAPER.
IMPROVED.

Built expressly for the New England States.

THE MANNY MOWER has been extensively used for the past two years in New England, and more than two years in the West—Its success is beyond that of any other Mower or Reaper ever constructed. Over 150 1st Premiums have been awarded it, including the Grand 1st Class Silver Medal at the World's Fair, PARIS, 1856.

With the two past years' experience, we have been enabled to make a number of very important improvements. We find New England farmers require a different Machine from other sections; the fields generally being small. It must be light, at the same time possess great strength; portable, with facilities to raise the cutter to pass obstructions, and to remove from field to field. A perfect cutting apparatus, to cut the fine grasses without clogging, and so constructed as to store in the grass without backing, easily adjusted to cut high or low, and have a Reel to cut equally well with or against the wind, and to be worked with ease by a light team, and so easily managed and simple that any one of common ability may operate it successfully, and to be built in the most thorough manner.

With this knowledge of the farmers' requirements, and with the determination to build a better Machine than has ever before been constructed in this country, we offer the Manny Mower of 1857 with such improvements as combine the qualities enumerated above, and as one particularly adapted to meet the wants of New England farmers.

☞ We invite the farmers to call and examine Machines. Orders should be sent early. Circulars, with testimonials, forwarded FREE, on application.

Price of Mower, $110; with Reaper attachment, $15 Extra. Delivered on board the cars at Worcester, Mass. JOHN F. ADRIANCE & Co., Manufacturers.

LOTTERIES.
The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. FRANCIS & Co are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a company incorporated by the State, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Ternary combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100 000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

☞ The drawings of one of the Maryland Lotteries are published by the State Commissioner in the following papers, viz: Sun, Clipper, Patriot, American, Argus, of Baltimore; also, the National Intelligencer and Union, of Washington, D.C.

Address T. H. HUBBARD & CO.,
No 39 Fayette st., or box No. 40,
ja 31 v Baltimore, Maryland.

LOTTERIES.
THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have every connection necessary for an independent drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity to venture, which will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Herald. Write your address plainly, and forward to S. SWAN & Co., Atlanta, Georgia

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

MARRIAGE GUIDE,
21 ED. WM. YOUNG.

YOUNG'S GREAT PHYSIOLOGICAL WORK. THE POCKET ESCULAPIUS, or Every One His Own Doctor, by WM. YOUNG, M. D. It is written in plain language for the general reader, and is illustrated by upwards of one hundred Engravings. All young married people, or those contemplating marriage, and having the least impediment to married life, should read this book. It discloses secrets that every one should be acquainted with. Still it is a book that must be kept locked up, and not lie about the house. It will be sent to any one on the receipt of twenty-five cents. Address Dr. WM. YOUNG, No. 152 SPRUCE street, above Fourth, Philadelphia.

S. D. & H. W. Smith,
—MANUFACTURERS OF—
Melodeons, Organ Melodeons,
—AND—
PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,
No. 511 Washington Street, Boston.

The first premium over all competitors, at the Fair of the Massachusetts Charitable Mechanic Association, of the National Fair, Washington, D. C., also at the Ohio State Fair, held at Columbus, Ohio, was awarded to these Manufacturers.

By means of a new method of Voicing, known only to themselves, they have succeeded in removing the harsh and buzzing sound which formerly characterized the instruments, rendering the tones full, clear and organ like. The action is prompt and reliable, enabling the performer to execute the most rapid music without blurring the tones. The swell is arranged to give great expression.

THE PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,
Are designed particularly for Churches, Lodges, Halls, &c. It is arranged with two manuals, or banks of Keys, the lower set running an octave higher than the other, and may be used together, and thus get in one case two distinct instruments; or by use of the coupler, the two banks of keys may be played at the same time by use of the front set only. This connected with the Pedals, will produce the effect of a large organ, and is sufficiently heavy to fill a house that seats from 1000 to 1500 persons.

THE ORGAN MELODEON
Is designed for large parlors and private use. The construction is similar to the Church Instrument, being arranged with two banks of Keys, and when used together, by means of the coupler, is capable of as great variety of power as the Church Instrument when used without the pedals. Also, every variety of MELODEONS for Parlor use.

Purchasers may rely upon instruments from our Manufactory, being made in the most complete and thorough manner. Having removed to the spacious Buildings

511 Washington Street,

We have every facility for manufacturing purposes, and employ none but the most experienced and skilful workmen. In short, we will promise our customers an Instrument equal, if not superior, to any Manufactory, and guarantee an entire and perfect satisfaction.

Music Teachers, Leaders of Choirs, and others interested in musical matters, are respectfully invited to visit our Rooms and Manufactory, and examine or test the instruments on exhibition for sale at their pleasure.

As a further guarantee to the public as to the excellence of the MELODEONS from our Manufactory, we beg leave to refer, by permission, to the following

Piano Forte Manufacturers of Boston, who have examined our MELODEONS, and will give their opinion when called upon:

Chickering & Sons, Hallett & Cumston,
T. Gilbert & Co., Wm. P. Emerson,
Brown & Allen, A. W. Ladd & Co.,
George Hewes, Woodward & Brown,
Newhall & Co.

MELODEONS RENTED.

Persons who wish to hire Melodeons with a view of purchasing at the end of the year, can have the rent credited as part payment of the purchase money. In this matter it is worthy of special note, as it enables those who desire the best of the instruments before purchasing, to obtain it at the expense of the manufacturers, to the extent at least of a year's rent.

Orders from any part of the country or world, sent direct to the manufactory in Boston, with cash, or satisfactory reference, will be promptly attended to and faithfully executed as if the parties were present, or employed an agent to select, and on as reasonable terms.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1836.)

No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston,

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Advice as to the patentability of Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice connected with all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than my agency; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents, more numerous than those acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and faithfulness. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,

BURDEN'S
Pressed Boat, Ship, Brad & Countersunk Railroad Spikes
ARE well known in the United States, and are conspicuous for their regularity and finish, their unvarying uniformity of size, and for the excellent quality of iron from which they are made, to which may be attributed their rare strength. They are everywhere considered far superior to the hand-made spike of common English iron, and inferior to nothing of the kind yet introduced to the public.

Morning Chronicle.

TUESDAY, JUNE 16, 1857.

☞ The fillibuster Gen. Walker is thirty-three years of age, about five feet seven inches high, weighs about one hundred and thirty pounds, stoops slightly in walking, has light hair, a broad and somewhat retreating forehead, dark "blueish-grey" eyes, which have a very staring yet calm expression, a nose of the Roman order, a full Henry Clay mouth, and a slightly receding chin. His general appearance and expression is so insignificant that one would rarely think of looking at him a second time. You would recognize, however, resolution and firmness. His voice is light and agreeable in conversation, but is too shrill in addressing large audiences. He is strictly temperate in his habits, is a man of few words, and what he says is what he intends to say, and is expressed in fitting language. He passed through college with credit, graduated in law and medicine, made the tour of Europe, and afterwards was an editor—all previous to setting up in the fillibuster business. He is now quietly awaiting the arrival of Mr. Soule, who has been two or three weeks in Washington, urging the claims of Nicaragua.

PEASLEE VS. TANEY.—Our fellow citizen, Gen. Peaslee, while collector of Boston, gave the following protection, which we copy from the Traveller.

I, Charles H. Peaslee, Collector of the District of Boston and Charlestown, do hereby certify that James Jacobs, an American seaman, aged 26 years, or thereabouts, of the height of five feet, 6¼ inches, BLACK complexion, woolly hair, black eyes, born in Georgetown, in the State of Delaware, has this day produced to me proof in the manner directed by the Act, entitled "An act for the relief and protection of American Seamen;" and pursuant to the said Act, I do hereby certify that the said J. Jacobs is a Citizen of the United States of America.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my Hand and Seal of Office, this 15th day of December, in the year of our Lord, 1856. C. H. PEASLEE, Collector.

Mr. Peaslee in this case is right,—and he has all the precedents on his side. And Judge Taney has certified to a falsehood and a blunder, which he calls law. That's all.

SUICIDE.—An Englishman, 63 years of age, named Charles Westwood, was found dead, Friday afternoon, in his lodging room and shop, at 25 Doane street, Boston. Deceased was a stencil cutter and engraver in the employ of W. W. Wilson. He was of intemperate habits, and leaves a family, from whom he had been separated a short time, on that account. It is supposed that deceased committed suicide, on Thursday night, by cutting one of the principal arteries in his left arm, and thus bleeding to death. Coroner Pratt held an inquest on the body, and a verdict in accordance with the above facts was rendered.

ANOTHER BROOKS AFFAIR.—At Petersburg, Va., on the 8th inst., A. D. Banks, editor of the South Side Democrat, was assaulted by P. Kean, a correspondent of the New York Herald, who crept up behind him and dealt two blows on his head with a heavy bludgeon. The assault was provoked by strictures on the Herald correspondent's letters which Mr. Banks published. Kean added falsehood to his cowardly attack. He had previously denied the authorship of the letters, and Mr. Banks had withdrawn the personal expressions he had employed. Mr. Banks at the time of the deadly assault of Brooks upon Sumner, exulted over the deed, and termed it a "classical caning." He has now had the chalice commended to his own lips. He appears not to have relished his "classical caning."

In the Municipal Court this morning, Wm. Thomas, who served as a grand juryman at the present term of the U. S. District Court, was tried and convicted on a charge of uttering a forged promissory note. It is said that Thomas can neither read nor write, and that he has been naturalized but two years. His trial was once postponed on account of his being engaged as a juryman.—Boston Journal.

And the city officer who put the miscreant's name into the jury box, ought himself to go into the criminal's box.

☞ Col. Titus, of missnory memory, both in Kansas and Nicaragua, has published a letter, in which he calls Walker a tyrant and Lockridge a coward, and advises young men at the South to wait till Walker's men get home and tell their story, before enlisting in another campaign. This is sensible advice, if it does come from a ruffian.

DIVIDEND.—The Boston and Maine Railroad has declared a semi annual dividend of 3 per cent, payable 1st of July.

LIBERTY OR SLAVERY.—The Concord Democratic Standard closes an article laudatory of the Dred Scott decision, thus:

This republic is ordained and established for white men, women and children. They only are citizens; and not Negroes, Indians, Chinese, Arabs, Mogul Tartars, nor Hottentots. If a different doctrine were recognized and carried out in practice, we would have a "pretty kettle of fish" for a community. Such a hotch-potch would soon obliterate not only the republic, but all its christianity, its civilization, and its liberty. If people will but reflect, they will be convinced of the absurdity of abolitionism, and of the soundness of the decision of the Supreme Court.

MAGNIFICENT PREPARATIONS FOR WALKER'S RECEPTION.—The New York Tribune gives the following sketch, which is corroborated by other papers, of the great meeting which took place in New York city on Thursday night, to make preparations for the reception of the immortal fillibuster on his arrival in that metropolis:

"Sixty-seven men and sixteen boys were assembled at a room in Canal street at 8 1-2 o'clock, last evening, for the purpose of making arrangements for giving Gen. Walker a public reception in this city.—The room was that occupied by Marshal Rynder's Empire Club, and was lumbered with the exuvize of the campaign. The walls were covered with Buck and Breck banners, most of them containing allusions to the Tribune, evidently not intended to be complimentary."

☞ In the Boston Municipal Court, on Saturday, one Brian Kelly, for assaulting officers Brown and Foster, was fined $20. In this case, the first complaint was made by Kelly, to whose head had been applied some of the legal suasion carried about in a "policifer's club." The defence of the officers was commenced by J. H. Bradley, but after the examination of two witnesses on their side, Mr. Cooley, attorney for the commonwealth, abandoned the case. Kelly was fined as above, besides getting soundly beaten. He should have been sent to the House of Correction.

A MONSTER EEL FROM LAKE COCHITUATE. Friday evening an eel, measuring four feet in length and two inches in diameter, was taken from the Cochituate water pipe at the People's Ferry, Boston. The pipe was used for the purpose of supplying the boilers on the boats, and was completely obstructed by the intruder.

This is another warning for people who are accustomed to drink in the dark, for though they might not swallow an eel as large as this one, still they might imbibe something disagreeable, a young lady in this city having drawn from our aqueduct, only a few evenings since, a lizard two inches long.

C. C. P., NEWBURYPORT.—On the 12th, Thomas Brookings of that ilk, for selling intoxicating drink, was sentenced to 22 days hard labor in the House of Correction; fined $20 and costs, and unless said fine is paid, to stand committed 30 days in addition; and further, to recognize in the sum of $500, not to violate this law for one year.

George H. Butney of Cambridge, larceny. Sentenced to two years hard labor in the House of Correction at Ipswich.

Barnabas P. Faxon of Cambridge, larceny. Sentenced to two years hard labor in the House of Correction at Lawrence.

Tristram T. Rogers of Salem, polygamy. Verdict of guilty. Not sentenced.

Mary A Burns of Salem, as a common seller; verdict of guilty.

☞ The wife of a respectable tradesman in Brooklyn, N. Y., occupying a high social position, was brought before a police magistrate on Tuesday and fined $50, for stealing goods from a dry goods store.—The husband is in easy circustances, and, it is said, provides liberally for his family. When arrested the woman had $40 in her port-monnaie, which had been given her for "pin money."

☞ George F. Clayton, who holds a commission as Probate Judge for Brown county, Kansas, has been imprisoned at Chicago, for an attempt to pass counterfeit money, a considerable amount of which, was found on his person. He produced his commission at Court, as an evidence of good character, but the Judge thought it wasn't worth much, considering the source from which it emanated.

FIRE IN FRANCESTOWN, N. H.—The barn and out-buildings connected with the farm of E. K. Batchelder, together with farming tools, hay, grain, &c., in Francestown, a short distance from the village, were entirely destroyed by fire on Sunday afternoon. The dwelling house was saved from destruction by the neighbors. Loss $500 to $700. Insured for $275. The fire is supposed to have originated from children playing with friction matches.

The following named new post-offices have been established in this State; West Hopkinton, Merrimack county, Joseph P. Dow Postmaster; West Littleton, Grafton county, George Carter Postmaster.

SINGULAR DEATH SCENE.—MRS. Gaskell, in her "Life of Charlotte Bronte," relates the following incident, at the death of Patrick Branwell Bronte, only brother of Charlotte's:

"I have heard from one who attended Branwell in his last illness that he resolved on standing up to die. He had repeatedly said that as long as there was life, there was strength of will to do what it chose: and when the last agony come on, he insisted on assuming the position just mentioned.

☞ Joseph Tavenora, an English sailmaker, was left drunk in a yawl boat at Pier 14, North River, New York, on Wednesday evening, while the rest of the seamen went on a spree. In the morning he was found lying with his nose in the bottom of the boat, drowned in three inches of bilge water which had leaked in. He was but 22 years of age, and belonged to brig Ergo.

THE INTERVIEW.—This is the title of the frontispiece to Peterson's Magazine for July,—and also of a good tale of the Revolution, which begins in the number. Peterson gives many short stories, pithy and pleasant.

☞ The Daily News, the anti-slavery paper at Newport, Ky., is to be issued hereafter, on Sunday morning, instead of Monday. The paper is edited, set up, and printed by the editor and his family, and he says the object of the change is to give the family entire rest on Sabbath.

THE SECRET DISCOVERED AT LAST.—We have noticed in passing through Market street, lately, that the NEW STORE, No 15, always seems crowded with customers. We have at last discovered the secret of it. On stepping inside, we find that the proprietors, MESSRS. ALLEN & PAINE, in fitting up their store in the beautiful manner they have, had an eye for the useful, as well as for the ornamental; we noticed that the store appeared very light and cheerful, and on looking for a solution of the mystery, we discover that the store contains a Sky Light, giving them facilities for showing their Goods possessed by no other Dry Goods store in town; as Customers by such a light, have no difficulty in seeing just what they are purchasing, and can not be deceived in the color or quality of goods. We notice, also, that their stock is always composed of the best qualities and very latest styles, which is explained by the fact that one of the firm visits the market to replenish their goods every ten days,—and as they buy for Cash, all the time, they are able to offer their goods at as low prices as any other parties.

Those about to purchase Dry Goods will do well to visit them. Read their advertisement in another column.

Also, Kennedy's Medical Discovery, price 68 cents per bottle.

DOES ANY OF OUR HIGH LIVERS ever eat too much dinner? If any of our readers have cooks who tempt their appetite a little too far, I will tell a secret that will lead them to the enjoyment of their dinners, without a visit from that gouty old gentleman, Dyspepsia. Take a dose of Dr. Sanford's Invigorator after eating, and you will never be troubled with indigestion; but on the contrary, before the next meal time approaches, the appetite will be sharpened to appreciate any kind of food. If the food rises or sours, the Invigorator will fix the matter right at once, for there is something in it that, to use the expression of a friend, will let a man eat gravel stones, and take the Invigorator and they will digest. We have tried it in double doses, on one or two occasions, for sick headache, and it acts like a charm.

What we want to say to our readers, young or old, is, if anything ails you, go without delay and get a bottle of Dr. Sanford's Invigorator, and if it don't cure, come and tell us, for we want to see one person that it will not benefit.

ACCIDENT.—As two men, hailing from South Boston Point, were driving through Roxbury, Friday night, in a state of beastly intoxication, they attempted to run down the cars of the Metropolitan Rail road, in front of the Norfolk House. The cars withstood the collision, though two of them were badly damaged. The chaise met with a worse fate, and the occupants still worse, having been thrown out and considerably injured. One of them was taken to the Station House and his injuries cared for, by officer Jewett. The other took himself off, minus his hat.

ORDERED.—Capt. John C. Long has been ordered for duty on the Naval Court of Inquiry No. 3, in place of Commodore Kearney, (who is understood to have received preparatory orders to the command of the Brooklyn Navy Yard.)—This change makes Commodore Newton the President of this court.

☞ Among the recent light-house appointments, we notice that of keeper at Wood Island, Me., Jos. R. Bryant, ($350 per annum;) Beauchamp's Point, Me., Richard Grinnell, ($350 per annum.)

HEAVY DEFALCATION.—Columbus, Ohio, June 15th.—W. H. Gibson, State Treasurer, has resigned, a deficit of over half a million having been discovered in the treasury. Gibson says the deficit existed when he took the office, by defalcations of John G. Breslin, the former State Treasurer.—The Governor has appointed a committee of investigation.

THE OCEAN HOUSE,
ON RYE BEACH,

Is to be opened on the 25th of this month. The proprietors would invite their friends and neighbors in Rye and the adjoining towns to look through this splendid establishment, in which great improvements have been made the past season. No one can visit this beautiful house but to admire it, and it has been and is the admiration of thousands in this country and throughout Europe.

The proprietor would take this opportunity to return his sincere thanks to the people of New Hampshire for the liberal patronage bestowed upon him for the last ten years, and also to correct an error which prevails as regards the charges at the Ocean House.—The rate for transient boarders is $2 00 per day; and transient parties for fractions of days are accommodated on as low terms as at any first class hotel. The house will be opened June 25th, for inspection and business.

JOB JENNESS & CO., Proprietors.

THE SURF HOUSE,
AT RYE BEACH.

The proprietors of the OCEAN HOUSE have purchased the UNION HOUSE, which is hereafter to be called the SURF HOUSE, and will be conducted in connection with the OCEAN HOUSE, under the management of N. P. STEBBINS Esq., who has for the past six years been favorably known as one of the employees at the Ocean, and is to be kept open the year round. No pains will be spared to make the Surf House one of the best resorts on the coast for regular boarders, parties of pleasure, or invalids. The large stable connected with the house will be well conducted, where good horses and carriages may always be procured, and coaches will run daily to meet all the trains on the railroads. Sail boats will be kept for the accommodation of visitors, and the proprietor hopes, by attention to the wants of his guests, to merit and receive a share of public patronage.

Direct to "N. P. STEBBINS, Surf House, Rye Beach, N. H." Stop at the Greenland Depot, where coaches will take passengers to the House.

GROGGERY DOINGS.—Great were the doings of Saturday, in the liquor line. Some time in the day, a wife in the western part of the city, went to look up her husband, and found him drunk in the groggery of one Goodridge who has often broken the law, but escaped through its leaks; thereupon the woman who kept the drunkery, got into a quarrel with the wife, with the usual results of a groggery festival.

In the afternoon at 3 o'clock, a drunken woman, (of foreign birth,) led by another woman who held her up, passed along round Market Square;—and at the same time a large man, half drunk, with fiery red face, and with a lighted segar, staggered by, with a woman, probably his wife.

At sundown, as a friend living in Maine, had just crossed the bridge, he found on Kittery side in the highway, the body of a man dead drunk, who had been thrown down there by the drugged liquor he carried from the north end this side.

In the evening, one Whally, a "penitent fellow sinner," who has given bonds and made fair promises not to break the law, having been drinking himself, made an assault, in the drinking shop of one Horrocks, upon Frank Flannegan, the cousin of John Flannegan who was killed in Whally and Leaver's bar-room.—The assault was doubtless made because Flannegan testified before the Coroner's jury on John Flannegan's body.

On Sunday evening at 8 o'clock, as Uncle Toby passed through Market street, he came to a collection of a hundred or more of Irish men and women, near the corner of Deer street, and presently along came the city marshal to arrest some lambs of the groggery who had been bleating and butting.

Fair pictures of the lower ten.

POLICE COURT.

MONDAY, June 15.

Before Justice Odell. Daniel McCarty was accused of rude, indecent, and disorderly conduct in Bow street, on Sunday, the 14th. He plead guilty, and was fined two dollars; costs 3.86.

Thomas Whally was accused of assaulting Frank Flannegan on Saturday evening, June 13, in Robert Horrocks's shop. Plea, not guilty. Proved guilty, and fined $5; costs 6.85.

The same Thomas Whally and James Leaver, were accused of selling liquor on the 9th of May, to John Flannegan [now deceased.] Plea not guilty. But the justice held them for trial in bonds of $200 each, to come before the S. J. Court, on the first Tuesday of October, and in the mean time to keep the peace and especially not to violate any provision of the act for the suppression of intemperance. Wm. Critchley and Joseph Cooper became bail.

Four other cases of the same kind were brought against the said parties, and disposed of in the same way,—the same sureties being given.

[The evidence in these five cases, was brought out at the inquest, consequent on the death of John Flannegan, in Whally and Leaver's groggery—and the neighbors near their place "have reason to believe, and do believe," that they have continued to sell liquors all the time, notwithstanding their fair promises. The trap-door, private bar-room, jugs, and movements generally, leave no reasonable doubts.

☞ On Saturday last, a man in the employ of Col. Samuel Gookin, wood and coal dealer, while sawing wood with a circular saw, cut a frightful gash on his hand, extending from the top of the fore finger nearly down to the lower joint of the thumb. The accident was caused by the hand slipping from the stick, bringing his fore finger down on the saw.

ALMOST AN ACCIDENT.—A masons' staging, inside a semi-circular recess at the back of the new bank building, gave way with a crash, on Monday afternoon, precipitating tubs, mortar, plank, &c. into the cellar. Two men who were on the platform at the time preserved themselves from injury by clinging to a board nailed to the uprights.

☞ Six females, of various ages, from youth to one whom we should judge must have seen at least three-score years, candidates for admission to the Middle Street (Calvinist) Baptist Church, were baptized by immersion, at Noble's Island, on Sunday afternoon, by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Lanson. The number of spectators was large; and the services were brief, appropriate and impressive. We have rarely seen so large a crowd preserve such perfect decorum. The choir sang an introductory hymn, to the good old tune, Hamburg.

FRENCHMAN'S LANE.—Messrs, Editors—I understand that an effort is being made, by one of our wealthy citizens, to have this beautiful thoroughfare closed to the public. One of the abuttors, I am happy to hear, has the good sense to object. I, for one, on behalf of the public, protest against this measure, sacrificing the pleasure of many to the gratification of one.

Frenchman's Lane is the nearest breathing spot to the heart of the city, and if there is a little card-playing or a little gallantry going on there, as is alleged by the gentleman in question, a reason which he deems sufficient for its close, shutting it up would not abolish these practices, only move them to some other place; the same objections might apply to our beautiful cemetery at the foot of Auburn street.

VOX POPULI.

☞ Whatever other folks may think, or say, we certainly deem it ill-mannerly to disturb an audience or congregation by "leaving" during the performance of the last piece at a concert, or the pronouncing of a benediction at church. It is too much like a choir slapping to their books in the faces of the listeners, in the middle of the verse of a hymn. We know some people don't agree with us; and maintain the right of well-behaved and good-mannered folks to be as boorish as they choose—but we do like to see things done "with decency and in order," and must say that if this practice of having the closing piece on a concert programme used as accompaniment to a retreat, is good, it might be well to make an appropriate selection—a piece pertinent to the occasion, which we might name, but for fear of being pronounced impertinent.

☞ The New Hampshire Convention of Universalists will hold their annual meeting in this city on Wednesday and Thursday, at the Universalist Church. The opening sermon will be by Rev. Mr. Greenwood of Dover.

QUICK PASSAGE.—Capt. John Conner, of Exeter, on Friday last, made a trip to Portsmouth, loaded his Packet wit h a full cargo and returned to Exeter, accomplishing the passage, both ways, in the short space of 12 hours, the distance by water being 56 miles.—No Steamboat will ever dare compete with Mr. C., on the Exeter river, for he is bound to beat the lot.—News Letter.

FROM EUROPE—3 DAYS LATER.

NEW YORK, June 14.

The steamer Vanderbilt, from Havre and Southampton, arrived at 11 A. M. She brings London papers of the 3d inst., and Liverpool advices per telegraph, of the same date.

The Vanderbilt has 100 passengers, among them Rev. J. P. Labagh, bearer of important dispatches from the American Minister at Paris.

The Grand Duke Constantine paid a visit to Queen Victoria, at Osborne, on Saturday, returning next day to Calais. On his way to Osborne, the Duke was saluted by the English ships, as also by the American frigate Susquehannah, then lying in the roadstead; the latter immediately after proceeded to Gravesend.

The English-Persian treaty is fully ratified, and on its way to London.

A conflagration at Constantinople destroyed 1300 houses.

The British troops have evacuated the Persian town of Mohammerah.

There have been serious political outbreaks in Brussels, Antwerp, and other Belgian towns, growing out of the anti Catholic feelings of citizens. Several convents, monasteries, and Jesuit colleges were attacked, as was also the Bishop's place at Liege. The troops interfered, and, at last accounts, order was nearly restored, but at Brussels, the Civic Guard were kept under arms, and the troops were in readiness for any emergency. The mob commenced the outbreak with cries of, "Down with the Priests! Down with the Catholics!! Down with the Convents!!!"

Mr. Dallas had inspected the Niagara, and it was decided that she should be prepared to lay her portion of the Atlantic cable.

Parliament was not in session, owing to the Whitsun holidays.

The Council of the Liverpool Chamber of Commerce have issued a call for a public meeting in that city, on the 12th of June, to opt measures for securing a supply of cotton, adequate to the requirements of the country.

The U. S. steamer Susquehannah, was the first vessel to salute the yacht, conveying the Grand Duke Constantine. Her yards were manned, the Russian flag run up at the main, and a salute of 21 guns fired in splendid style.

On Sunday, the Grand Duke, accompanied by the Queen, visited the squadron off Spithead, and was received with a royal salute. On the following day, he left for Calais.

That part of the sub-marine telegraph cable, lying at the factory of Glass & Co., Greenwich, barely escaped destruction by fire, some of the sheds of the adjoining building, containing the cable, having been burned down.

The West Indian mail steamer Parana had arrived at Southampton, with over $3,000,000 in specie.

The recent storms in France, had done great damage to the vines and crops in the commune.

TO THE CITIZENS OF THE UNITED STATES.
CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.

After several years experimenting in the manufacturing of Gin, I fortunately succeeded, in the year 1848, in making a discovery in its manufacture by which it was deprived of all acrid and inflammatory properties, and rendered perfectly pure.

My manufactory is at Scheidam, Holland. After several months' reflection what title to give it, I introduced it to the American public under the name of "Wolfe's Scheidam Aromatic Schnapps." Scheidam is the name of the place in Holland where the Gin is manufactured. Aromatic derives its name from the Italian Juniper Berry with which it is flavored, and the word "Schnapps" is the German for drink—Cogne, Dram—Wolfe's Scheidam Aromatic Drink. No sooner had my Schnapps been introduced to the American public and received with approbation, than the Liquor Mixers of New York, Boston and Philadelphia, started in pursuit with their mixed and poisonous stuff under various names: Scheidam Gin, Scheidam Schnapps, London Club House Gin, London Cordial Gin, &c., and in several cases my labels have been so perfectly imitated, with only the addition of a few letters to plead a technical avoidance of the law, and so carefully prepared as to impose on careless purchasers. I understand a large quantity has been purchased by the merchants of the Eastern States on account of the cheapness of the articles. A merchant who participates indirectly in the fraud by selling the spurious articles, is as much an offender as the principal who planned the imposition.

I hope every respectable citizen who values the health of the community in which he lives will aid me in ferreting out and exposing the unscrupulous merchant, who, for the sake of a few cents, will put in jeopardy the lives of the community in which he lives. Such men should be nailed to the pillory of popular excoriation.

WOLFE'S SCHEIDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS is made from barley of the first quality, selected with great care from the produce of the most celebrated grain-growing districts, is flavored with the essence of the aromatic Juniper Berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process, which expels from the spirit every acrid particle.

As a means of preventing and correcting the disagreeable and often dangerous effects produced upon the stomach and bowels by a change of water—a visitation to which travelers and settlers, and all unacclimated persons in the West, the South and South-West are peculiarly liable—the Scheidam Aromatic Schnapps will be found absolutely infallible; while, in cases of dropsy, gravel, obstructions of the kidneys, diseases of the bladder, dyspepsia, and general debility, it is recommended most emphatically by the most distinguished members of the medical profession

It is put up in quart and pint bottles, in cases of one dozen, with the name of the undersigned on the bottle and cork, and a fac-simile of his signature and label.

For sale by all respectable druggists and country merchants. UDOLPHO WOLFE.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN

Is shown by the Records of the Custom House to be the only imported London Cordial Gin IMPORTED and sold in bottles; all others are made here in imitation of it.

It is a delicious tonic beverage, and by its peculiar flavor (so different from other gins) is universally esteemed by all who use it. It is adopted with great success in cases of Dyspepsia, Gout, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Gravel, Colic, Cholera, Fever and Ague, Stricture, Diseases of the Urinary Organs, Epilepsy, Female Irregularities.

Dr. Valentine Mott of New York, in a letter to the proprietor, says:

Charles' London Cordial Gin, is the purest, best, and most reliable Extract of Juniper I have seen.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN is sold by all Druggists and Grocers in the United States, and no also are numerous spurious called "London Cordial Gin"—to avoid them buy only "CHARLES'." Reject any other offered to you as you value your health. Price one dollar for quarts, fifty cents for pints.

The Medicine
THAT NEVER FAILS!

IS DR. WILSON'S

DYSENTERY POWDER,

Which cures Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Cholera Morbus, and all the affections of the Bowels attended with Pain and frequent Discharges.

This Medicine is now being introduced into all parts of the United States and British Provinces, and great success attends its use everywhere—These Powders are now offered to the world as a PERFECTLY SAFE AND EFFECTUAL MEDICINE, for the purposes they are recommended, and in nine cases out of ten

ONE POWDER WILL CURE THE WORST CASE,

when they are taken in the first stages, and almost invariably two will effect a permanent Cure; and unlike all other preparations, which, if they check the disease, leave the person in a condition that requires physic after it, which is not the case with the Dysentery Powders, for they regulate the Bowels, tone up the system, and leave it in a healthy state.

These Powders are put up in boxes, with full directions on each box, and sold for 50 Cents.

Please try them; if they do not give perfect satisfaction, return them and take your money.

On SATURDAY Afternoon, June 27th, at 3 o'clock,

TEN HOUSE LOTS!

Consisting in the aggregate of about 90,000 square feet of Land, which is bounded on the south by Islington street, on the east by Creek street, on the west by land of True M. Ball, bordering on Frenchman's Lane, and on the north by a new street, being the land now owned by Kittredge Sheldon.

This is in every respect the most eligible and desirable position for House Lots now in the market. It is about 10 minutes' walk from Market Square, in a direct line through the pleasantest and best street in the city, with a good sidewalk the entire distance, and combining in an unusual degree the advantages of rural and city life. The land is dry, the grounds are shaded with tall and graceful elms, forming the most picturesque landscape to be found in this vicinity. The lots vary in size from 5000 to 12000 feet; the smallest affording ample garden, as well as building room.

An accurate plan of the Lots may be seen at H. F. Wendell's Store, No. 70 State street, and further particulars may be obtained of the subscriber. KITTREDGE SHELDON.

Manny's Celebrated Mower
—AND—
MOWER AND REAPER.
IMPROVED.

Built expressly for the New England States.

THE MANNY MOWER has been extensively used for the past two years in New England, and more than six years at the West. Its success has caused many other Mower or Reaper ever constructed. Over 150 Premiums have been awarded it, including the Grand 1st Class Silver Medal at the WORLD'S FAIR, PARIS, 1856.

With the two past years' experience, we have been enabled to make a number of very important improvements. We find few English and Scotch farmers prefer a different Machine from other sections; the fields generally being small. It must be light, at the same time possess great strength; portable, with facilities to raise the cutter to pass obstructions, and to remove from field to field. A perfect cutting apparatus, to cut the fine grasses without clogging, and so constructed as to start in the grass unbeaten; easily adjusted to cut high or low, and have a Reel to cut equally well with or against the wind, and to be worked with ease by a light team, and so easily managed and simple that any one of common ability may operate it successfully, and to be built in the most thorough manner.

With this knowledge of the farmers' requirements, and with the determination to build a better Machine than has ever before been constructed in this country, we offer the Manny Mower of 1857 with confidence, as combining the qualities enumerated above, and as one particularly adapted to meet the wants of New England farmers.

☞ We invite the farmers to call and examine Machines. Orders should be sent early. Circulars, with testimonials, forwarded FREE, on application.

Price of Mower, $110; with Reaper attachment, $15 Extra. Delivered on board the cars at Worcester, Mass. JOHN P. ADRIANCE & Co.,

LOTTERIES.
The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. FRANCIS & Co are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and in connection with the Union Lottery, are sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as implicitly safe as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that all persons are legally entitled to send orders for tickets to Maryland; as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Ternary combinations. Prizes range from $50 to $50,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

☞ The drawings of the Maryland Lotteries are published by the State Commissioner in the following papers, viz: Sun, Clipper, Patriot, American, Argus, of Baltimore; also, the National Intelligencer and Union, of Washington, D.C.

Address T. H. HUBBARD & CO.,
No 29 Fayette st., or box No. 40,
ja 3 1y Baltimore, Maryland.

LOTTERIES.
THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners to see that everything is done in drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity to venture, the investment of a small sum of money, and have been so well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons living in legal right to send orders for tickets in Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every day throughout the year, and orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets sent by mail, $5 a quarter, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and they have so arranged that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $50 to $50,000; every prize being certain, and result of drawing published to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and Augusta Weekly Chronicle. Write your address plainly, and direct to S. SWAN & Co., Atlanta, Georgia

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.
All communications strictly confidential. m18ly

MARRIAGE GUIDE,
BY DR. YOUNG.

YOUNG'S GREAT PHYSIOLOGICAL WORK, THE POCKET ESCULAPIUS, or Every One His Own Doctor, by WM. YOUNG, M. D. It is written in plain language for the general reader, and is illustrated with upwards of one hundred Engravings. All young married people, or those contemplating marriage, and having the least impediment to married life, should read this book. It discloses secrets that every one should be acquainted with. Still it is a book that must be kept locked up, and not lie about the house. It will be sent by any one on the receipt of twenty-five cents. Address Dr. WM. S. D. & H. W. Smith,
—MANUFACTURERS OF—
Melodeons, Organ Melodeons,
—and—
PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,
No. 511 Washington Street, Boston.

The first premium ever all competitors, at the Fair of the Mass Charitable Mechanic Association, of the National Fair, Washington, D. C., also at the Ohio State Fair, held at Columbus, Ohio, was awarded to these Manufacturers.

By means of a new method of Voicing, known only to themselves they have succeeded in removing the harsh, disagreeable character formerly characterized the instrument, and rendering the tones full, clear and ocean like. The action is prompt and reliable, enabling the performer to execute the most difficult music without blurring he tones The swell is arranged to give great expression.

THE PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,
Are designed particularly for churches, Lodges, Halls, &c. It is arranged with two manuals, or banks of Keys, the lower set running an octave higher than the other, and may be used separately, or both in one case two distinct instruments; or by a set of the coupler, the two banks of keys may be played at the same time by use of the front set only. The combination with the Pedal Bass, produces the effect of a large organ, and is sufficiently heavy to fill a house that seats from 1000 to 1400 persons.

ORGAN MELODEON

is designed for parlor and private use. The construction is similar to the Church Instrument, being arranged with two banks of Keys, and may be used together, by means of the coupler, is capable of a great volume of power as the Church Instrument when used without the pedals. Also, every variety of MELODEONS for Parlor use.

Purchasers may rely upon instruments from our Manufactory, being made in the most complete and thorough manner. Having removed to the New Store, Buildings

511 Washington Street.

We have every facility for manufacturing purposes, and employ none but the most experienced and skillful workmen. In short, we will promote our customers an Instrument which is not inferior, to any Manufacturer, and guarantee an entire and perfect satisfaction.

Music Teachers, Leaders of Choirs, and others interested in musical matters, are respectfully invited to visit our Rooms at any time and examine or test the instruments on exhibition for sale at their pleasure.

As a further guarantee to the public as to the excellence of the MELODEONS from our Manufactory, we beg leave to refer, by permission, to the following

Pianos Forte Manufacturers of Boston,

who have examined our Instruments, and will give their opinion when called upon:

Chickering & Sons,	Hallett & Cumston,
J Gilbert & Co,	W. P. Emerson,
Brown & Allen,	A. W. Ladd & Co.,
George Hewes,	Woodward & Brown,
	Newhall & Co.

MELODEONS TO RENTED.

Persons who wish to hire Melodeons with a view of purchasing at the end of the year, can have the rent credited as part payment of the purchase money. This method is more liberal to the parties, as it enables those who desire a fair test of the instruments before purchasing, to obtain it at the expense of the manufacturers, to the extent at least of one year's rent.

Orders from any part of the country or world, sent direct to the manufactory in Boston, will be promptly attended to, and faithfully executed as if the parties were present, or employed an agent to select, and on as reasonable terms.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the act of 1837.)

No. 76 State st. opp. Kilby st, Boston.

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers relating to Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of any Patent, Invention, or Improvement, and advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for procuring patents, which secure the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office, and there were those who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skillful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure to them the early and favorable consideration at the Patent office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the Commissioner of Patents.

AUGUST 17, 1856.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

EXETER, June 15.

"As idle as a painted town,
Upon a painted canvass."

Dear Chronicle:—The report that a new paper is to be started here, devoted exclusively to local news, is worthy of Munchausen himself. The propounder of such a chimerical scheme merits an accommodation in the institution in Concord, especially designed for such as he. The grand programme of everything that happens here from day to day, might be stereotyped into something like the following:

We are unable to record the occurrences which take place before seven o'clock A. M. (for a reason that can easily be guessed,) but trusting in the good faith of Almanac-makers, and sundry "early birds" that are fonder of "worms" than we are, we firmly believe that the sun shoots up; and we have also indistinct ideas of a factory bell's ringing 20 minutes previous to that hour. The great event of the day is the regular performance (Sundays excepted) of an of-fish-al (dear reader, please laugh!) who is wonderfully taken with a musical instruments which sounds for all the world like a tin horn. One whose auricular system is daily blessed by the notes of this artist's manufacture can fully realize what is meant by the line of the poet:

At tuba terribilem sonitum procul aere canoro
Increpuit, &c.,

the brass being transferred from the instrument to the player thereon. For the benefit of those who have not been so unfortunate as to have their brains smothered beneath a pile of Latin and Greek dictionaries, the meaning of the above line may be given in good Saxon:

"Little boy blue! come, blow your horn!"

Half-a-dozen bells, all sounding alike, and ringing at all hours of the day, serve for a dash of variety. Lest, but not least, is that steam-whistle of the grate harsh-thunder style, located on the N. E. Gas Pipe Factory buildings. Ugh! Its tones (as the writers of thrilling novels have it) can be imagined, but not described—or endured. If you would take upon yourself the task of imagining them, let us throw in by way of suggestion an indefinite number of Indian war whoops, twice as many locomotive whistles, and a steam calliope an octave and a half higher than a woman's shriek. When anything happens outside of this regular formula, we endeavor to inform you of it, very well knowing that if a place is duller than Portsmouth, it is news for your people to hear it.

Speaking of steam-whistles reminds us of a free concert given here, one evening last week, by a devoted band of musicians called the 'Calathumpians.' A witty deacon in this neighborhood, yielding to Cupid's all-powerful darts, led to the altar a blushing bride. The United Fraternity of Calathumpians were aware of the fact.—The consequence was that the deacon's premises, about eleven o'clock, P. M., on the succeeding night, were converted into a perfect Pandemonium by the unearthly clangor of all the instruments, wind and string, which Tubal Cain or John Smith could devise. The kettle in truth spoke to the trumpet; the trumpet faithfully performed its duty to the cannonier without; the cannon thundered to the heavens, and the heavens re-echoed to the earth—now the deacon is a husband! The refreshments were brought out in an amazingly quick time, equalled only by the celerity with which they disappeared. The bards then took the hint and their departure, leaving the hero and heroine to the enjoyment of conjugal bliss.

Ole Bull, it seems, had twice as large an audience here as he did in Portsmouth, if the statement in your paper, to the effect that about three hundred of your citizens attended, be true. Miss Jenny Twichell, assisted by an able troupe, sang at the Town Hall one evening last week. An audience of one hundred and fifty, inclusive of dead heads, were satisfied with the performance.

The report in the Chronicle of Saturday that a man belonging in Nottingham hung himself in Exeter, on Wednesday morning last, is correct; excepting that the name of the individual was Harvey. We have not yet learned the result of the Coroner's inquest. The law term of the Supreme Judicial Court commences here to-morrow, a full bench presiding. Yours, F. C.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 17, 1857.

IMPORTANT QUESTION.

Should parties to actions be compelled to testify in their own cases?

Extract from Blackstone, book 3: chap. 23 — where, speaking of the defects of Courts of Law, he says:—

The principal defects seem to be,

1. The want of a complete discovery by the oath of the parties. This each of them is now entitled to have, by going through the expense and circuity of a court of equity, and therefore it is sometimes had by consent, even in the courts of law. How far such a mode of compulsive examination is agreeable to the rights of mankind, and ought to be introduced in any country, may be matter of curious discussion, but is foreign to our present enquiries. It has long been introduced and established in our courts of equity, not to mention the civil law courts; and it seems the height of judicial absurdity, that in the same cause, between the same parties, in the examination of the same facts, a discovery by the oath of the parties, should be permitted on one side of Westminster-hall, and denied on the other; or that the judges of one and the same court should be bound by law to reject such a species of evidence, if attempted on a trial at bar; but, when sitting the next day as a court of equity, should be obliged to hear such examination read, and found their decrees upon it. In short, common reason will tell us, that in the same country, governed by the same laws, such a mode of enquiry should be universally admitted, or else universally rejected.

FEELING IN THE SLAVE STATES.—A slaveholder informs the Memphis Eagle that there are, at least, 300 anti slavery men in Tishimingo county, Mississippi. This county is one of the richest cotton-growing districts in the State. This is thought to be very singular and rather startling. But, we presume, there are very few counties in any of the slave States, that do not contain, at least, 300 anti-slavery men. The number is everywhere in the South, larger than is suspected.

The Norfolk, Va., Argus says: "Maryland, by position and interest, is not entitled to be classed among the slave States. Her politics show that her press is fast bringing about a fraternization between her and the free States so called. On each side of the bay, her people are sound, but North West of Baltimore, there is but a shade of difference between the inhabitants of Maryland and Pennsylvania. It is through Maryland that most of the slaves now escape from Virginia. Her laws on this subject are wholly ineffectual, and public opinion will not tolerate one that is worth a straw."

THE RIGHT "NOT TO BE SUED," which has been fully established for our colored fellow citizens, by the decision of Judge Taney in the Dred Scott case, is likely to be a useful one. The Bangor Whig gives the following report of a case in the police court of that city:

David Sands vs. Wm. L. Barronnett, action of debt for $20, balance of account.—The defendant being of "African descent," and "having no rights which white men are bound to respect," put in a special plea that under the late decision of the U. S. Supreme Court by Judge Taney, he is not a citizen of the United States, and therefore can't sue in any court, nor be sued. The learned councellor for the plaintiff, being a hunker of the most hunkerish stripe, immediately upon reading the plea wilted, and allowed a non-suit. It is maliciously said, in groups where politicians do most congregate, that the counsellor had fears for his political standing, if he dared oppose the decision of Judge Taney, which is universally received by the Democratic press as a part of their party creed. The defendant, "guilty of a skin not colored like our own," departed from the awful presence of Judge Pratt with a smiling face, and humming snatches of—

"The de'il came fiddling thro' the town."

☞ Putnam's Monthly for July, is received by A. Williams & Co. Boston, and by J. H. Foster, Portsmouth. It contains an illustrated article, A Season at the White Mountains, with humor in the piece and sport in the pictures. The Embroidered Handkerchief, and Old Museum, both illustrated. Curious articles on the Venerable Bede, and the Baby Exterminator. 21 articles in all.

This monthly is enlarged, improved by being more lively, and will now be a popular Magazine. Miller & Curtis, publishers, New York.

☞ Mrs. Stowe has returned to Paris, from Rome, and is about starting for England, from whence she will sail for the United States, by the steamer of June 9. She leaves in Paris, at school, her two twin daughters, young ladies grown.

MANCHESTER POLICE.

The Manchester Mirror of Saturday says that 35 women were in the Police Court on Friday, to attend a liquor case before Justice Upton. The report proceeds thus:

At 2 o'clock P. M., a new feature presented itself at the Police Court. The scales of Justice were graced by the presence of twenty-five ladies, all, so far as we know, of respectable standing, and some wives of well known men in this city.—They appeared like discreet, sensible women, of sober cast of thought and devout purposes, such as we should expect to see at a Mothers' Convention, or a Woman's Meeting for the salvation of the world.—When we had written so much, waiting for proceedings to commence, three more ladies entered.

Isaac T. Bond was accused of selling one half-a-pint of liquor to Matilda Ballou.

Mrs. Ballou testified that she knew the respondent, and bought a half-a-pint of new rum of him, on the 12th of last December, paying four cents for it. Got it in a bottle that she carried.

Cross-examined.—I made a memorandum of she purchase at the time. Have not it with me; it is at my home. (The counsel for the respondent, John L. Fitch, said he would like to have it, and Mrs. Ballou had a talk with one of the other ladies present, and then with her counsel, L. B. Clough, who afterwards said that the memorandum was not at her house, but somewhere else, and it would be a trouble to get it. Mr. Fitch still desired to see it, and Mrs. Ballou had a private talk with Judge Upton, who spoke to Collector Batchelder to go for it. After waiting awhile, before the return of Mr. Batchelder, the case proceeded.)

I last had the memorandum in my possession at my home 49 Hanover street. The last time I saw it was last Monday. It was on a piece of white paper. Have shown it to a person whom I do not know. (The piece of paper was brought in by Batchelder and handed to the Court. Mrs. Ballou identified it as the one, and pointed out to the Court what was on it. The Judge then said, "I shall not show the paper to the counsel." Mr. Fitch said he thought he had a right to see. The Judge thought it was his duty to keep the paper, as it contained other minutes that might be of importance hereafter.) I purchased the new rum with the expectation that he would be prosecuted. Gave no reasons for the purchase—no reasons asked. Did not wish him prosecuted more than any one else. Hoped the day would come when liquor dealers would look upon the subject in a different light from what they now do. She'n't tell how many times I have bought liquor for the purpose of prosecution.—Have no compensation for my services.—Was not sent by any person. The only reason I know it was Mr. Bond of whom I purchased liquor was because I saw his name on the sign; had seen him before.—I she'n't tell where the liquor is that I bought; it is in a safe place and has not been used. I did not commence prosecution before because we had not got ready.

(To the Court) I am the wife of George O. Ballou.

(To Mr. Fitch) Have not known of any liquor being sold by the respondent since that day.

Here the testimony closed. Mr. Fitch then asked again for the memorandum, but the Judge said he should keep it. (At this point seven other ladies entered the Court Room.)

The Court ordered the respondent to give $500 bonds to answer to a higher Court.

HORSE THIEF ARRESTED.—In Worcester, on Friday evening, Henry S. Crosby of Nashua, N. H., took possession of the horse and chaise of Dr. L. B. Nichols, standing before his door, and drove off on the West Boylston road. He was speedily followed by the Worcester police, who caught him as he was in the act of trading the horse away, and in two hours and a half after the property was stolen, the thief was back to Worcester, where, on Saturday morning, he was bound over for trial. As the Spy remarks, this was quick work.

BASE INGRATITUDE AND ROGUERY.—Mr. George Mann, the tobacconist from Goshen, N. Y., who was diddled out of $800 at Roxbury, last week, by means of the "little joker" game, appears to be quite as much of a rogue as the men who fleeced him on that occasion. His misfortune so excited the benevolent feelings of Chief of Police Coburn at the time, that he raised the sum of $18 for him, and secured him a free pass to New York. The $18 was given him in the form of a draft drawn by Messrs. Clapp, Fuller & Browne, bankers, of Boston, on a house of New York, but when Mann presented the draft for payment it had been altered to read eighteen hundred dollars. The alteration was quickly detected, however, the scamp having overlooked a marginal note giving the true amount of the draft, and payment refused, and the drawers of the draft in Boston notified of the circumstances. The ingratitude as well as the roguery of Mann is the more flagrant from the fact that it was proposed by gentlemen in Boston to aid him still farther in a business way.

Perhaps Mann was not fleeced at all,—but only "played possum."

☞ Mr. Henry Call, of Charlestown, Mass., while driving a one horse team down Main street, in that city, Friday, fell under the wagon, and was drawn some distance, by having the reins twisted around his ancles. The horse was stopped, and Call escaped from his perilous position under the wagon, without any serious injury.

☞ In Plymouth, Illinois, Edward Wade sold a piece of land to his brother Shadrach, upon which he had sown wheat last fall; and, the crop having been winter-killed, Edward claimed the right to sow it again, and take off a crop of spring wheat. This, Shadrach resisted, and while Edward was sowing the seed, he deliberately shot him dead and fled as Cain did.

NASHUA.—The valuation of Nashua is returned by the assessors at $4,436,064.—The amount of taxes is $34,601,50 or 78 cents on $100. There are twenty individuals who pay a tax of $100 and upwards. Josephus Baldwin is the heaviest tax-payer, his assessment being $526,29.

☞ The Tampa Peninsula gives full credit to the recent statement announcing the discovery of an outlet for the swamp waters in the south of Florida. Officers of the army who have traversed the everglades at all stages, inform the editor that there is now less impediment to travel than before. It thinks troops in search of Indians will be able to continue scouting during the summer where it has heretofore been impossible.

☞ John C. Stevens, alias Commodore Stevens, of the New York yacht squadron, who took out the Amtrica, and crented such a sensation at the Cowes regatta, by beating all the English yachts, died at his residence at Hoboken, on Thursday, of enlargement of the heart.

☞ The Ladies' Repository for June, is just received from the publisher, A. Tompkins, Boston. It contains 17 articles, several of them very valuable.—Edited by three ladies.

☞ The 17th of June, the anniversary of the battle of Bunker Hill, is to be occupied in Charlestown, to-day, in the inauguration of a Statue of Gen. Joseph Warren, who fell in that battle.

☞ The Manchester American learns from Amherst that Richard Boyliston, the veteran editor of the Cabinet, is insensible from the paralytic shock he received a few weeks ago, and from which he will probably survive but a few days.

☞ A young buck in Philadelphia, who dresses in the height of the mode, and lounges on hotel steps, has been arrested for spitting tobacco juice on the dresses of several ladies and ruining them. His name is Henry McCool.

GONE SOUTH.—George A. Gordon, late editor of the Lawrence Sentinel, has gone to take a part on the Charleston (S. C.) Mercury, as assistant editor.

☞ Ralph Ellingwood, of Frankfort, Me. who died recently, at the age of 81, had lived with his wife on the same farm, for sixty-four years.

GOING UP.—Everything is "going up." The latest news from Havana was, that "sugar continued to 'go up.'" At the Bull's head, on Wednesday, beef went "up" a cent and a half a pound by wholesale (retail three cents.) At the trade sale of teas, on Thursday, tea, not to be behind the times, went "up," in some cases, four cents a pound. "Upward and onward" ("Excelsior") is the State motto—and it is right the people live "up" to their professions. We expect to hear that other things besides tea, sugar, and beef are likewise "going up." Nothing more natural. Population is increasing. Every year, somehow, there happen to be more and more to feed. Malthusian doctrine is defunct. Nobody believes it, that is certain.

One way to bring things "down," or rather, to enable us to wear the shoe without feeling the pinch, is to come down a peg or two. Clara ought to put up with a renewal of that "love of a bonnet" once a month only; Matilda must try and go to church twice with the same silks and satins on. It is a dreadful trial to be sure, but the thing must be done. Tom must smoke fewer cigars. Bill must abbreviate his libations at the restaurant.—Dick would do well to drive one hat horse the less on the avenue next Sunday.—"Nice young men" must work harder, and go to the theatres and the opera not quite so often.

It will not do to grumble at "high" beef, "high" tea, and "high" sugar, as long as your living is "high" or "higher" than it ought to be. If the crops are short abroad, we should take in a reef at home.—There is no other way to weather the gale when "every thing is coming up."—N. Y. Express.

Susan Farmer of Plaistow was arrested last Wednesday, for selling intoxicating liquors, contary to law, brought to Exeter, and tried before Wm. H. Moulton, Esq. and bound over to the trial term of the S. J. Court.—News Letter.

THE ELECTION RIOTS.—Washington, June 15.—Judge Crawford charged the Grand Jury to-day that it is their duty to make a full inquiry into the true condition of the election riots. They should ascertain the facts, and present them in an embodied form. Nothing short of this ought to satisfy the community. The laws, he said, must be maintained, and enforced, and the fair and full exercise of them without interference or hindrance from any quarter must be protected by whatever legally authorized means are necessary for these purposes.

☞ A new reading of an old couplet is thus rendered by a savage hater of hoops and that style of dress which leaves too little of woman's beauty to the imagination:—

"Lo! on a narrow neck of land,
'Twixt two unbounded shes I stand."

CINCINNATI, JUNE 13.—This morning, while four U. S. Deputy Marshals were arresting a fugitive slave and wife, the slave stabbed Deputy Elliott with a sword knife, whereupon another deputy shot at the negr. four times, lodging a bullet each time, mortally wounding him. The Marshal's wound is dangerous. The affray occured in a room where the fugitives were secreted.

MARRIED.

THE OCEAN HOUSE,

ON RYE BEACH,

Is to be opened on the 25th of this month. The proprietors would invite their friends and neighbors in Rye and the adjoining towns to look through this splendid establishment, in which great improvements have been made the past season. No one can visit this beautiful house but to admire it, and it has been and is the admiration of thousands in this country and throughout Europe.

The proprietor would take this opportunity to return his sincere thanks to the people of New Hampshire for the liberal patronage bestowed upon him for the last ten years, and aleb to correct an error which prevails as regards the charges at the Ocean House.—The rate for transient boarders is $2 00 per day; and transient parties for fractions of days are accommodated on as low terms as at any first class hotel. The house will be opened June 25th, for inspection and business.

JOB JENNESS & CO., Proprietors.

THE SURF HOUSE,

AT RYE BEACH.

The proprietors of the OCEAN HOUSE have purchased the UNION HOUSE, which is hereafter to be called the SURF HOUSE, and will be conducted in connection with the Ocean House, under the management of N. P. STRESINS Esq., who has for the past six years been favorably known as one of the employees at the Ocean, and is to be kept open the year round. No pains will be spared to make the Surf House one of the best resorts on the coast for regular boarders, parties of pleasure, or invalids. The large stable connected with the house will be well conducted, where good horses and carriages may always be procured, and coaches will run daily to meet all the trains on the railroads. Sail boats will be kept for the accommodation of visitors, and the proprietor hopes, by attention to the wants of his guests, to merit and receive a share of public patronage.

Direct to "N. P. STRESINS, Surf House, Rye Beach, N.H." Stop at the Greenland Depot, where coaches will take passengers to the House.

LOST, on Monday, a black and white DOG PUP. The finder will confer a great favor on the owner, by returning him to this office, or giving information as to where he may be found—and all trouble will be liberally paid for.

Information Wanted.

THE persons who mailed letters at the Post-office in this city for Rochester, N.H. on Sunday and Monday of last week, (June 7th and 8th) will confer a special favor, and perhaps promote the ends of justice, by immediately informing the Postmaster to whom such letters were addressed.

New Crockery and China Ware.

NOW opening from the above vessel a splendid assortment of New Goods comprising a complete assortment of

JOHN ALCOCK'S

WHITE GRANITE DINING AND TEA WARE.

In point of style, and especially DURABILITY, this ware has no equal among the other manufacturers of Europe, for while the finishing of Alcock's Ware is proof against any test, almost every other make will crack in the glazing, causing the ware to have an old and worn out look, at first using.

A beautiful assortment of

HAND AND WHITE CHINA,

Solar Oil and Fluid Lamps, Lanterns, China and Glass Vases, Britannia Tea and Coffee Pots, elegant Tea Trays and Waiters.

Table Cutlery of every description, and all kinds of GLASS WARE for Table use

Purchasers of any of the above goods will find this the only complete stock to be found from in this vicinity, and at as low prices as in Boston or elsewhere.

POLICE COURT.

MONDAY, June 15.

Before Justice Odell. Ellen Goodrich was accused of assaulting Sarah Moulton, on Sunday, June 14. Plea not guilty. Proved guilty, fined $6; costs 5.75. [This is the assault in the groggery which we stated, took place on Saturday.] Mrs. G. was also ordered to give bonds of $20 with sureties, to keep the peace.

The same Mrs. Ellen Goodrich was accused of keeping her shop open and trading on Sunday; plea not guilty. Case partly heard, and continued to the last Monday of this month.

TUESDAY, June 16.

The same Mrs. Ellen Goodrich was accused, on complaint of the city marshal, of keeping spirituous liquors for sale.—Plea not guilty.—But the court deemed the evidence sufficient to warrant sending her up for trial to the S. J. Court on the first Tuesday in October. She was ordered to give the usual $200 bonds, with sureties,—and in want thereof, a mittimus was issued, and she was committed.

[The children are provided for, at the Almshouse.—Her husband was under bonds for some police offence, but forfeited them and run away. This closes one of the 30 groggeries. It has been very mischievous; but no more so than the other 29.]

☞ On account of the interruption occasioned by the shower, at the time of opening the Juvenile Singing School, Saturday afternoon, Mr. Pearson will admit new scholars this (Wednesday) afternoon, at three o'clock.

☞ The stray barrel of pork has found its owner. It was stolen from A. A. Payne's Union Store in Market street.

☞ The New Hampshire Convention of Universalists will hold their annual meeting in this city on Wednesday and Thursday, at the Universalist Church. The opening sermon will be by Rev. Mr. Greenwood of Dover.

☞ The meetings at the Universalist Church in this city, to-day and to-morrow, are all open and public. To-day, there will be Sermons at the usual hours of 10 A. M., half past 2 P. M., and in the evening. To-morrow, sermons, morning and afternoon,—with other exercises usual at such conventions.

The Council will meet in the Vestry of the Universalist Church, at 8 o'clock this morning.

DR. CHAPIN AT THE CONVENTION.—Several distinguished clergymen from abroad are expected at the Universalist Convention, held in this city to-day—among them Rev. E H. Chapin, D. D., of New York.

☞ It will be seen by our advertising columns, that Mr. Stephen E. Grant, of York, is to run a Stage from Cape Neddick to Portsmouth, and back, every day—commencing in a few days.

☞ We are told that the Steam Ferry Boat commenced to run on Monday last; but as we have received no advertisement to that effect, and have not seen the Dover Stage, we don't state this as a fact.

NEW YORK, June 15.—A serious collision between parties of the old and new police occurred on Saturday night, in the Eleventh Ward, in which individuals on both sides were badly injured. The affair grew out of efforts on the part of one of the old police to rescue a prisoner in the hands of an officer belonging to the old department. Two of the old police were arrested and quiet finally restored. Later in the night one of the new police was dangerously stabbed while on duty.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT.—We have seen a private letter from Washington, which states there is no foundation for the report that Gov. Walker is to return from Kansas to preside over the State Department. Gen. Cass the veteran Secretary, is now in Detroit, preparing for a removal of his furniture and library to Washington, where he is to occupy the house recently tenanted by Gov. Marcy; and Mr. John Appleton, the assistant Secretary, has leased a residence on Georgetown heights. No one in Washington (says the latter) has any idea that there will be any chance at the State Department—Newburyport Herald.

FIRE IN BRENTWOOD.—On Wednesday afternoon last, about 2 o'clock, the house belonging to the heirs of the late Moses F. Marshal, was discovered to be on fire, and in two hours was totally destroyed, together with an L., woodshed, carriage house, &c. The house was occupied by Mr. Harlow Swain. Mr. Swain's furniture was mostly saved in a damaged state.

Insured at Exeter, in the Rockingham Farmer's Company.—News Letter.

CUSTOM HOUSE APPOINTMENT. — Albert Hanscom, of Kittery, Me., has been appointed a deputy Collector of the Boston Custom House, in place of George McClellan, who received his appointment under Mr. Greeley, in 1850.—Ledger.

THREE DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

HALIFAX, June 16.—The Royal Mail Steamship Europa, from Liverpool on Saturday 6th, arrived here this morning.—Her advices are three days later than those brought by the Vanderbilt at New York.

Parliament had re-assembled, but nothing important had been done.

It had been decided that the United States steam frigate Niagara should take part in laying the trans-Atlantic cable, and she had gone to Portsmouth, where the necessary alterations are being made.

The Anti-Catholic outbreaks in Belgium had been suppressed, and all was quiet.

Cotton at Liverpool generally unchanged. Sales of the week 40,000 bales.

NEW YORK, June 16.—Yesterday Mr. Conover, the new appointee of the Governor, attempted to obtain possession of the Street Commissioner's office. At the regular time for closing the office, he was ejected by a posse under Sheriff Willetts. Large forces of the metropolitan and municipal police were in attendance all day in the park and city buildings, and the Hall of Records was all night watched by a special guard of municipal men. It was rumored that the military would be called out today.

ROBBING THE MAILS.—Cleveland, June 15.—Special Agent Shallcross arrested on the 13th inst., A. L. and L. D. Tidball, sons of the postmaster of Millersburg, in Holmes county, on a charge of robbing the mails.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Lawrence's Carminative, advertised in our paper, is used in all infantile diseases.

THE SECRET DISCOVERED AT LAST.—We have noticed in passing through Market street, lately, that the New Stock No. 15, always seems crowded with customers. We have at last discovered the secret of it. On stepping inside, we find that the proprietors, MESSRS. ALLEN & PAINE, in fitting up their store in the beautiful manner they have, had an eye for the useful, as well as for the ornamental; we noticed that the store appeared very light and cheerful, and on looking for a solution of the mystery, we discover that the store contains a Sky Light, giving them facilities for showing their Goods possessed by no other Dry Goods store in town; as Customers by such a light, have no difficulty in seeing just what they are purchasing, and can not be deceived in the color or quality of goods. We notice, also, that their stock is always composed of the best qualities and very latest styles, which is explained by the fact that one of the firm visits the market to replenish their goods every ten days,—and as they buy for Cash, altogether, they are able to offer their goods at as low prices as any other parties.

Those about to purchase Dry Goods will do well to visit them. Read their advertisement in another column.

Also, Kennedy's Medical Discovery, price 68 cents per bottle.

DOES ANY OF OUR HIGH LIVERS ever eat too much dinner? If any of our readers have cooks who tempt their appetite a little too far, I will tell a secret that will lead them to the enjoyment of their dinners, without a visit from that gouty old gentleman, Dyspepsia. Take a dose of Dr. Sanford's Invigorator after eating, and you will never be troubled with indigestion; but on the contrary, before the next meal time approaches, the appetite will be sharpened to appreciate any kind of food. If the food rises or sours, the Invigorator will fix the matter right at once, for there is something in it that, to use the expression of a friend, will let a man eat gravel stones, and take the Invigorator and they will digest. We have tried it in double doses, on one or two occasions, for sick headache, and it acts like a charm.

What we wish to say to our readers, young or old, is, if anything ails you, go without delay and get a bottle of Dr. Sanford's Invigorator, and if it don't cure, come and tell us, for we want to see one person that it will not benefit.

TO THE CITIZENS OF THE UNITED STATES.
CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.

After several years experimenting in the manufacturing of Gin, I fortunately succeeded in the year 1848, in making a discovery in its manufacture by which it was deprived of all acrid and inflammatory properties, and rendered perfectly pure.

My manufactory is at Scheidam, Holland. After several months' reflection what title to give it, I introduced it to the American public under the name of "Wolfe's Scheidam Aromatic Schnapps." Scheidam is the name of the place in Holland where the Gin is manufactured. Aromatic derives its name from the Italian Juniper Berry with which it is flavored, and the word "Schnapps" is the German for drink—Cogne, Dram—Wolfe's Scheidam Aromatic Drink. No sooner had my Schnapps been introduced to the American public and received with approbation, than the Liquor Mixers of New York, Boston and Philadelphia, started in pursuit with their mixed and poisonous stuff under various names: Scheidam Gin, Scheidam Schnapps, London Club House Gin, London Cordial Gin, &c., and in several cases my labels have been so perfectly imitated, with only the addition of a few letters to plead a technical avoidance of the law, and so carefully prepared as to impose on careless purchasers. I understand a large quantity has been purchased by the merchants of the Eastern States on account of the cheapness of the articles. A merchant who participates indirectly in the fraud by selling the spurious articles, is as much an offender as the principal who planned the imposition.

I hope every respectable citizen who values the health of the community in which he lives will aid me in ferreting out and exposing the unscrupulous merchant, who, for the sake of a few cents, will put in jeopardy the lives of the community in which he lives. Such men should be nailed to the pillory of popular excoriation.

WOLFE'S SCHEIDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS is made from barley of the first quality, selected with great care from the products of the most celebrated grain-growing districts, is flavored with the essence of the aromatic Juniper Berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process, which expels from the spirit every acrid particle.

As a means of preventing and correcting the disagreeable and often dangerous effects produced upon the stomach and bowels by a change of water—a visitation to which travelers and settlers, and all unacclimated persons in the West, the South and South-West are peculiarly liable—the Scheidam Aromatic Schnapps will be found absolutely infallible; while, in cases of dropsy, gravel, obstructions of the kidneys, diseases of the bladder, dyspepsia, and general debility, it is recommended most emphatically by the most distinguished members of the medical profession.

It is put up in quart and pint bottles, in cases of one dozen, with the name of the undersigned on the bottle and cork, and a fac-simillie of his signature and label.

For sale by all respectable druggists and country merchants. UDOLPHO WOLFE.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN is shown by the Records of the Custom House to be the only London Cordial Gin IMPORTED and sold in bottles; all others are made here in imitation of it.

It is a delicious tonic beverage, and by its peculiar flavor (so different from other gins) is universally esteemed by all who use it. It is adopted with great success in cases of Dyspepsia, Gout, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Gravel, Colic, Cholera, Fever and Ague, Stricture, Diseases of the Urinary Organs, Epilepsy, Female Irregularities.

Dr. Valentine Mott of New York, in a letter to the proprietor, says:

Charles' London Cordial Gin, is the purest, best, and most reliable Extract of Juniper I have seen.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN is sold by all Druggists and Grocers in the United States, and so also are numerous poisons called "London Cordial Gin"—to avoid them buy only "CHARLES'." Reject any other offered to you as you value your health. Price one dollar for quarts, fifty cents for pints.

AUCTIONS.

By HENRY F. WENDELL,
Store at the Old Stand, No. 70 State Street.

HOUSE LOTS AT AUCTION.

A grand chance to lay the foundation for a home.

WILL be sold at Public Auction on the premises, in Portsmouth,

On SATURDAY Afternoon, June 27th, at 3 o'clock,

TEN HOUSE LOTS!

Consisting in the aggregate of about 90,000 square feet of Land, which is bounded on the south by Islington street, on the east by Creek street, on the west by land of True M. Ball, bordering on Frenchman's Lane, and on the north by a new street, being the land now owned by Kittredge Sheldon.

This is in every respect the most eligible and desirable position for House Lots now in the market. It is about 10 minutes' walk from Market Square, in a direct line through the pleasantest and best street in the city, with a good sidewalk the entire distance, and combining in an unusual degree the advantages of rural and city life. The land is dry, the grounds are shaded with tall and graceful elms, forming the most picturesque landscape to be found in this vicinity. The lots vary in size from 5000 to 12000 feet; the smallest affording ample garden, as well as building room.

An accurate plan of the Lots may be seen at H. F. Wendell's Store, No. 70 State street, and further particulars may be obtained of the subscriber. KITTREDGE SHELDON.

H. F. WENDELL, Auct.

Farm at Auction.

On TUESDAY, June 30, at 1 o'clk, P. M,

ON THE PREMISES,

(If not previously disposed of at private sale.)

SAID FARM is in Kittery, on the old post road leading from Portsmouth to York, 2½ miles from Portsmouth or the Navy Yard; within 60 rods of the town school house, and about half a mile from the Methodist Church. Said farm contains about 55 acres of land in a high state of cultivation, producing 50 tons of hay yearly. On the farm is a new containing 11 rooms, with a BARN and other outbuildings. A good Well, and a never-failing spring of water are on the premises.

DWELLING HOUSE,

Further particulars may be learned prior to the sale, of CYRUS FERNALD, in said Kittery; of C. W. WALKER, Portsmouth, N. H.; or of JOHN FERNALD, Boston.

CHARADE.

The daring exploits my first has accomplished
Since the days of Paul Jones, are a caution to all,
To all who will meddle where Yankees do paddle
Their nutmegs, their onions, ice, powder, and ball.
My next is a measure that clerks wield with pleasure,
And our lofty ships carry it high in the air.
My whole is a station prized high by the nation,
The home of my First when it's out of repair. BOILING ROCK.

Answer to the Charade in the Chronicle last week :—DEW-DROP.

TEMPERANCE CONVENTION. — The Essex County Temperance Society held a Convention in Newburyport on Thursday, at the Whitefield Church. Prayer was offered by Rev. Mr. Spalding. In the absence of the President of the Society, Prof. Stowe of Andover, Rev. D. P. Pike, Vice President, presided. A business committee of five were appointed to report resolutions, &c. During the absence of the committee, interesting remarks were made by Rev. Mr. Beman of Salem, Rev. Messrs. Spalding, Hooper, Reed, Paulson and Pike, of Newburyport, Mr. Thompson of Lynn, Rev. Edwin Thompson of Walpole, and others. Rev. D. M. Reed, chairman of the business committee, reported the following resolutions, which were adopted, after occupying most of the day in discussing them.

Resolved, That the sublimity, righteousness and equity of the Temperance cause demands on the part of its advocates strict regard, not only to the execution of the law and the penalty thereof, but the exercise of christian fidelity and love, and impartial exposure of all transgressors in high life, as in low. And that all means, whether moral or legal, should embody as a guiding principle, the reformation of the offender, as a child of God and brother of man.

Resolved, That greater zeal is demanded on the part of ministers and churches generally, in the cause of temperance in this country.

Resolved, That the progress of the cause of Temperance depends not exclusively upon the action of any one class, but upon personal effort, and the united, earnest and constant action of ALL its friends.

Resolved, That we congratulate the citizens of Essex county on the triumphant success of the Anti-Liquor Law, at the present term of the Court—especially when it is generally believed that some of the jurors are pecuniarily interested in the traffic.

Resolved, That we rejoice to learn that Mr. Sinclair, of Scotland, is meeting with great success in interesting the children;—and would recommend that the example of the children of Lynn be imitated in Newburyport and throughout the country, by the forming of societies in imitation of that of Lynn, designated "the Band of Hope."

Resolved, That we rejoice in the formation of the "Young Men's Temperance Association" of Newburyport, and would recommend to the young men in other cities and towns of the county, to unite in similar organizations.

The meeting was well attended, and the proceedings were of an interesting character. Hon. Asahel Huntington of Salem delivered an able and interesting address in the evening, at Dr. Dimick's Church.—Herald.

ROBBERIES.—A few nights since the sch. Gull, lying at Williams' wharf, Newburyport, was robbed by two of the crew, who took the captain's watch and wardrobe, valued at fifty dollars. The rogues "took the wings of the morning," and fled towards Portsmouth.

On the same evening the stores of Holland Payson and Wm. A. Little, were entered by rear windows, but nothing being missed it was supposed the rogues got frightened before they could effect their object.

On Saturday night Mr. Little's shop was again entered, the till robbed of a few cents, and a few pairs of boots and shoes taken away.—Herald.

☞ Among the passengers in a diligence, between the city of Mexico and Vera Cruz, which was lately robbed, was a Catholic priest, from whom the thieves took about four hundred dollars, and then compelled him to grant them absolution before they would let him go.

☞ Mary Rohr, the young girl for whose sake Theodore Ganz of Rochester committed suicide last week, by throwing himself before a locomotive, died on 10th, of regret and self-accusation for having rejected him.

☞ The Abingdon Virginian understands that there is a man by the name of Jesse, living in New Garden, Russel county, who is now 115 years old. It is said that on the day he was 100 years old, he made 100 rails!

☞ "DON'T KNOW BEANS."—This spring, "just for the fun of the thing," we planted in our potato patch some six-weeks beans, in letters—"Don't you know?" People come along and look, and begin to spell, "D-o-n-t, dont, y-o-u, you, k-n-o-w, know—what does that mean?" Not the first one, to our knowledge, has read it right off, "Don't you know beans?" The joke must be a dreadful poor one, or eles folks here-abouts are very obtuse.—Nashua Telegraph.

☞ The Grand Jury of Louisville have indicted for murder fifteen persons, and all they could discover as participators in the recent lynching of negroes.

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, Messrs. Edward Rich & Co are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they lived within the state of Maryland. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. Where prices of tickets range from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, (see the Havana plan), and Ternary combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100 '60. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

☞ The drawn numbers of the Maryland Lotteries are published by the State Commissioner in the following papers, viz: Sun, Clipper, Patriot, American, Argus, of Baltimore; also, the National Intelligencer and Union, of Washington, D.C.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the Lottery is established by a law authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next after the receipt of the order. Tickets range from $1 to $20. No tickets are sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $50,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to S. SWAN & Co., Atlanta, Georgia.

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

All communications strictly confidential. m13ly

S. D. & H. W. Smith,
—MANUFACTURERS OF—
Melodeons, Organ Melodeons,
—and—
PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,
No. 511 Washington Street, Boston.
The first premium over all competitors, at the Fair of the Mass. Charitable Mechanic Association, of the National Institute, Washington, D. C., also at the Ohio State Fair, held at Columbus, Ohio, was awarded to these Manufacturers.
By means of a new method of Voicing, known only to themselves, they have succeeded in removing the harsh and buzzing sound which formerly characterized the instrument, and rendering the tones full, clear and musical. The action is prompt and reliable, enabling the performer to execute the most rapid music without blurring the tones. The swell is arranged to give great expression.
THE PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,
Are designed particularly for Churches, Lodges, Halls, &c. It is arranged with two manuals, or banks of Keys, the lower set running an octave higher than the other, and may be used separately, and thus get in one case two distinct instruments; or by a simple coupler, the two banks of keys may be played at the same time by use of the front set only. This connected with the Pedal Bass, will produce the effect of the Organ, and is sufficiently heavy to fill a house that seats from 1000 to 1500 persons.
THE ORGAN MELODEON
Is designed for parlor and private use. The construction is similar to the Church Instrument, being arranged with two banks of Keys, and when used together, by means of the coupler, is capable of as great volume of power as the Church Instrument when used without the pedals. Also, every variety of MELODEONS for Parlor use.
Purchasers may rely upon instruments from our Manufactory, being made in the most complete and thorough manner. Having removed to the spacious Buildings
511 Washington Street,
We have every facility for manufacturing purposes, and can offer inducements to purchasers. Our Warerooms are kept constantly supplied with a choice selection of Melodeons, from the most approved manufacturers, to which we would respectfully invite the attention of those who may be in want of a first class instrument.
Music Teachers, Leaders of Choirs, and others interested in music, are respectfully invited to visit our Room at any time and examine or test the instruments on exhibition for sale at their pleasure.
As a still further guarantee to the public as to the excellence of the MELODEONS from our Manufactory, we beg leave to refer, by permission, to the following
Piano Forte Manufacturers of Boston, who have examined our Instruments, and will give their opinion when called upon.
Chickering & Sons, Hallet & Cumston,

MELODEONS TO RENT.
Persons who wish to hire Melodeons with a view of purchasing at the end of the year, if they have the rent credited as part payment of the purchase money. This matter is worthy of special note, as it enables those who desire a fair test of the instruments before purchasing, to obtain it at the expense of the manufacturers, to the extent at least of a year's rent.
Orders from any part of the country or world, sent direct to the manufactory in Boston, with cash, or satisfactory reference, will be promptly attended to, and as faithfully executed as if the parties were present, or employed an agent to select, and on as reasonable terms.

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY.
DR. CHESESMAN'S PILLS FOR FEMALES.
Prepared by an old Physician of 40 years experience.
THIS combination of the best ingredients in these Pills, is the result of a long and extensive practice; they are mild in their operation, and certain to bring on the MONTHLY PERIODS at the proper channel. In every instance have the Pills proved successful. They are certain to open those obstructions to which females are liable, and bring nature into its proper channel, when health is restored, and the pale and sickly countenance changed to the ruddy one. No female can enjoy good health unless she is regular and whenever an obstruction takes place, be it from what cause it may, or from other cause, the general health immediately begins to decline, and the want of such a remedy has been the cause of so many consumptions among the fairer sex, that it is a fearful truth, pale, palpitation of the heart, loathing of food, and debilitated sleep, that most always arise from the interruption of nature; and whoever that is the case, the Pills will invariably remove all these evils. In all cases of painful menstruation, or nervous and spinal affections in the back and limbs, however long standing, the Pills &c. Not are they less efficacious in the cure of Leucorrhœa, comm

S. D. & H. W. Smith,
—MANUFACTURERS OF—
Melodeons, Organ Melodeons,
—and—
PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,
No. 511 Washington Street, Boston.

The first premium over all competitors, at the Fair of the Mass. Charitable Mechanic Association, of the National Fair, Washington, D. C., also at the Ohio State Fair, held at Columbus, Ohio, was awarded to these Manufacturers.
By means of a new method of Voicing, known only to themselves, they have succeeded in removing the harsh and buzzing sound which formerly characterized the instrument, and rendering the tones full, clear and organ like. The action is prompt and reliable, enabling the performer to execute the most rapid music without blurring he tones. The swell is arranged to give great expression.
THE PEDAL BASS MELODEONS, Are designed particularly for Churches, Lodges, Halls, &c. It is arranged with two manuals, or banks of Keys, the lower set running an octave higher than the other, and may be used separately, and thus get in one case two distinct instruments; or by use of the coupler, the two banks of keys may be played at the same time by use of the front set only. This connected with the Pedal Bass, will produce the effect of a large organ, and is sufficiently heavy to fill a house that can contain from 1000 to 1500 persons.
THE ORGAN MELODEON
Is designed for parlor and private use. The compression is similar to the Church Instrument, being arranged with two banks of Keys, and when used together, by means of the coupler, is capable of equal volume of power as the Church Instrument whenused without the pedals. Also, every variety of Melodeons for Parlor use.
Purchasers may rely upon Instruments from our Manufactory, being made in the most complete and thorough manner, having removed to the spacious Buildings
511 Washington Street,
We have every facility for manufacturing purposes, and employ none but the most experienced and skilful workmen. In short, we will compare our Instruments as Instruments, equal if not superior, to any Manufacturer, and guarantee an entire and perfect satisfaction.
Music Teachers, Leaders of Choirs, and others interested in musical matters, are respectfully invited to visit our Rooms at any time and examine or test the instruments on exhibition for sale at their pleasure.
As a still further guarantee to the public as to the excellence of the MELODEONS from our Manufactory, we may leave to refer, by permission, to the following
Piano Forte Manufacturers of Boston,
who have examined our Instruments, and will give their opinion when called upon:
Chickering, Mackaye & Cumston, Hallet & Cumston,
T. Gilbert & Co., Wm P. Emerson,
Brown & Allen, A. W. Lade & Co.,
George Hewes, Woodward & Brown,
Newhall & Co.
MELODEONS RENTED.
Persons who wish to hire Melodeons with a view of purchasing at the end of the year, can have the rent credited as part payment of the purchase money. This matter is worthy of special note, as it enables those who desire a fair test of the instruments before purchasing, to obtain it at the expense of the manufacturers, to the extent at least of a year's rent.
Orders from any part of the country or world, sent direct to the manufactory in Boston, with cash, or satisfactory reference, will be promptly attended to, and as faithfully executed as if the parties were present, or employed an agent to select, and on as reasonable terms.

BURDEN'S
Pressed Boat, Ship, Brad & Countersunk Railroad Spikes
ARE well known in the United States, and are the component parts of the Track, for their regularity and finish, their unvarying uniformity of size, and for the excellent quality of iron from which they are made, to which may be attributed their rare strength. They are everywhere considered far superior to the hand made spike of common English iron, and inferior to nothing of the kind yet introduced to the public.

NEW HAMPSHIRE LEGISLATURE.

HOUSE. CONCORD, June 16.

Resolutions presented.—By Mr. Pitman, of Bartlett, that the Judiciary Committee be instructed to inquire into the expediency of so amending the law to prevent intemperance, that the Selectmen of towns shall not appoint agents for the sale of liquor, if the people decide against such sale. Tabled, on motion of Mr. Bellows, of Concord.

By Mr. Robinson, of Salisbury, that the Judiciary Committee be instructed to inquire whether any further legislation is necessary in relation to the sale of poisons. Referred to Committee on Judiciary.

The Dred Scott Resolutions.—By Mr. Mr. Fiske, of the Special Committee, to whom was referred the subject of the decision in the case of Dred Scott vs. John F. A. Sanford, the following resolutions were reported:

1. Resolved, That the great power vested in the Supreme Court of the United States, and the permanent tenure of office by which it is removed from the direct control of the people, require that its action should be the object of constant and vigilant observation;—that an influence upon it can be exerted only by public expressions of censure upon any attempt of the Court to transcend the limits of its authority, and that it is especially the duty of the Legislatures of the several States to expose and denounce any such attempt.

3. Resolved, That the decision of the Court in the case of Dred Scott vs. John F. A. Sanford, as pronounced by Chief Justice Taney, contradicts the facts of history, is repugnant to the Constitution, and subversive of the rights and liberties of the people.

3. Resolved, That we are compelled to believe, from the misstatements and perversions of historical facts in the the opinion delivered by the Court, that the decision was the result of pro-slavery sympathies, and an improper desire to favor and strengthen the slave-holding interest.

4. Resolved, That every person born within this State, and owing allegiance to no foreign government, is a citizen thereof, and by the Constitution of the United States entitled to all the privileges and immunities of citizens in every other State;—and the denial to him of the rights guaranteed by the Constitution, is a wanton violation of that instrument.

5. Resolved, That the assertion that the Constitution regards slaves as property in a general sense, beyond the range of local municipal regulations, or stipulated agreements, is an unwarrantable assumption, to which no free State can with honor submit.

6. Resolved, That the doctrines maintained in these opinions, that Congress has no power to legislate concerning slavery in the Territories, and that the effect of mere possession of Territories by the United States is to establish slavery there, are contrary to the express provisions of the Constitution, obnoxious to the laws and sentiment of civilization, and odious to the people of the free States.

7. Resolved, That the expression of extra judicial opinions from the Supreme Bench on subjects agitating the public mind, is undignified and unfitting the position; and the use made of such position to propagate political doctrines, tends directly to destroy confidence in the integrity of the Court and respect for its decisions.

Resolved, That in undertaking to decide these questions, which, according to its practice, were not in issue, the Court evinced a desire illegally to control the action of Congress; that such course justifies the apprehensions entertained by the framers of the Constitution that there might be danger arising from the too great latitude left to the discretion of the Court; that a repetition of, and persistence in, such action, would confirm the belief that there was a design and purpose on the part of the Court to usurp the functions of the legislative department.

On motion of Mr. Fiske the resolutions were laid on the table, and ordered to be printed.

Right of Citizenship.—Mr. Stevens of Nashua, agreeably to previous notice, introduced the following bill, which was read a second time and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

An Act to secure freedom and the rights of citizenship to persons in the State.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened, That neither descent, near or remote, from a person of African of African blood, whether such person is or may have been a slave, nor color of skin, shall disqualify any person from becoming a citizen of this State, or deprive such persons of the rights and privieges of a citizen thereof.

SEC. 2. Any slave who shall come or be brought into, or be in this State with the consent of his master or mistress, or who shall come or be brought into, or be in the State involuntarily, shall be free.

SEC. 3. Every person who shall hold or attempt to hold in this State in slavery, or as a slave, any person of whatever color, class or condition, in any form or under any pretence, or for any length of time, shall be deemed guilty of felony, and in conviction thereof, shall be confined to hard labor for a term of not less than one or more than five years; provided that the provisions of this section shall not apply to any act lawfully done by any officer of the United States, or other person in the execution of any legal process.

SEC. 4. Section first, chapter 25, of the Compiled Statutes, shall not be so construed as in any case, to deprive any person of color, or of African descent, born within the limits of the United States, and having the other requisite qualifications for voting at any election; but such person shall have and exercise the right of suffrage as fully and amply as persons of the white race.

Common School Commissioners.

Mr. Scott, of Peterborough, introduced a bill to amend chapter 82, R. S., in relation to the duties of Common School Commissioners. Read and referred to Committee on Education.

Indigent Insane.—The bill in relation to repealing chap. 1835, P. L., concerning the relief of the indigent insane, coming up on its second reading.

Mr. Lovering of Exeter, called for information in regard to the bill.

Mr. Bellows, of Concord, from the Judiciary Committee, stated that under the present law, some 300 indigent insane would necessarily come within its provisions, and to accommodate this large number, another asylum would have to be erected, at a large outlay to the State. The Judiciary Committee were unanimous in reporting the bill, which was ordered to a third reading this afternoon.

Property of Married Females.—On motion of Mr. Wells of Walpole, the Judiciary Committee was instructed to inquire into the expediency [of further legislation in regard to the protection of the property of married females.

A message was received from the Senate, that it had indefinitely postponed the resolution directing the Com. on State House and State House Yard, to inquire into the expediency of ventilating the State House, and lighting it with gas.

On motion of Mr. Gould of Manchester, ordered that all new bills or petitions designed for the action of the House, must be presented, as early as Wednesday, 24th inst., and that none will be received after that date.

Reports of Committees.—Mr. A. F. Stevens, from the Judiciary Committee, a bill to amend an act to establish the city of Portsmouth.

Mr. Greenleaf of Portsmouth, called for the reading of the bill, and after it had been read, said he had no idea that portion of it, altering the day for electing officers from March to December, would be incorporated in the bill without the people of Portsmouth having an opportunity to vote upon it.

On motion of Mr. Stevens, the bill was laid on the table for the present.

On motion of Mr. Varney, of Dover, a call of the House was ordered, and it appeared there were 153 members present, mostly Democrats."—Patriot's Report of Friday's proceedings.

Including the Speaker, 164 members were present; of whom 109, or two-thirds, were Republicans, and 55, or one-third, were Democrats.—Statesman.

CONCORD, June 16, 1857.

Dear Chronicle:—We had the election of the Commissary General this forenoon. Whole number 278;—Scattering 4; James Goodrich 113; Geo. Franklin Dennett 161 and is elected.

The Rockingham delegation, immediately after the adjournment this A. M., met and voted to build a new jail, not to exceed $8000 in cost, at Exeter. N. B.

☞ In the U. S. District Court at Exeter, Tuesday, in case of Ferdinand Clarke, in bankruptcy, W. H. Y. Hackett assignee, made a motion for the ordinary notices, preliminary to the distribution of the fund in the hand of the assignee, which was passed until the next term of the Court, to await the result of a bill brought by the bankrupt against his assignee. Hackett for assignee, Stevens for Clarke.

In libel of Jeremiah Noble et als., libellants, v. Brig Good Hope; Judge Harvey delivered an opinion awarding the libellants the amount claimed in their libel, and costs. Hackett for libellant. Towle for S. Pender, owner of the vessel.

SOUTHERN COMMITTEE FOR THE EXPURGATION OF INCENDIARY SCHOOL BOOKS.—The President of the late Southern Convention, James Lyons, Esq., of Richmond, requests the committee appointed by that body, to take the subject of "Southern school books under their auspices, and select and prepare such a series of books, in every department of study, from the earliest primer to the highest grade of literature and science, as shall seem to them best qualified to elevate and purify the education of the South," to meet at Columbia, S. C., on the 18th of May next. The committee consists of college professors and clergymen, chiefly.

FROM EUROPE.

BY THE EUROPA.

The London Times state there is not the least ground for the report that the U. S. steam frigate Niagara is not to take her share of the sub-marine cable. She was to leave the Thames on Friday for Portsmouth Dockyard, where some of her stanchions were to be taken out and her wardroom altered, to accommodate the cable. This done, she would at once proceed to Birkenhead and commence taking in the cable. At the Greenwich works about 900 miles of cable was completed; and the whole length would have been done, but for the fact that the daily consumption of fine wire has been more than all the wire-drawers of England could furnish. The Agamemnon was to commence taking in the cable at Greenwich on the 9th or 10th of June. Her tender is to be the steam frigate Leopard. All the vessels will rendezvous at Cork harbor, when the final arrangements will be made. The war steamer Cyclops is now taking soundings along the proposed deep sea route.

Liverpool Breadstuffs Market.—The breadstuffs market is dull, with a declining tendency, and all qualities slightly declined. Richardson, Spence & Co. report: Flour dull at ad ecline of 1s a 1s 6d per bbl. Wheat very dull at 6d decline. Corn quiet and prices easier, but remain unchanged. The Brokers' Circular and others report: Wheat dull at 2d decline; Flour dull at 6d a 1s decline: Corn quiet and steady. The weather has been favorable. Richardson, Spence & Co. gave the following quotations: Flour—Western Canal 31s a 31s 6d: Philadelphia and Baltimore 31s a 32s; Ohio 32s a 32 6d.—Wheat—red 8s 6d a 9s 1d; white 9s a 9s 6d. Corn—yellow 39s; white 40s.

Liverpool Cotton Market, June 6.—The Cotton market is generally unchanged; but a slight decline is noticed on inferior grades, with little inquiry, and prices weak. The sales of the week foot up 40,000 bales.

Spain.—Some cheap bread riots had occurred at Grenada. A large number of people paraded through the principal streets, and having assumed a menacing attitude, were ordered to disperse, and failing to do so, were fired upon by the troops which had been called out, and four persons were wounded. They then retired to their homes, and quiet was restored.—The city was, nevertheless, declared in a state of seige. On the 25th ult., all was tranquil.

Madrid dates are to the 30th ult. The disturbances at Grenada had entirely ceased, but the authorities continued to take military precautions, and were causing bread to be sold to the poor at a reduced rate.

THE NATIONAL HOTEL SICKNESS.—Messrs. Editors:—There will be found in the Boston Medical & Surgical Journal, vol. 56, page 371, a very interesting letter from Isaac O. Barnes, (who was one of the sufferers from the National Hotel disease in Washington,) that gives, I think, the true secret or key to the whole matter.

In addition to the street and private sewers, he mentions the offensive vaults under the house, which latter I think, was probably the great cause of all the disease originating at that hotel. The effect produced by these vaults, in connection with the sewers, was analogous to that which has been produced on communicants in some Catholic churches, where very many persons have been buried under the churches. Also that produced by eating vegetables on board ships that have been impregnated with a poison arising from the decayed vegetables and other filth on board said ships.

The disease in Washington had an intermittent type, from the nature of the country, and was otherwise modified by surrounding circumstances. ——.

☞ Lord Napier made a short speech at the dinner of the St. George's society, in New York, on Thursday evening, in which he stated there were now no differences between our own and the government of Great Britain. He uttered the following as an axiom which he said he had learned from Carlisle, Aberdeen, Clarendon and Palmerston, and which had been confirmed to him by his sovereign:—

"The United States form the great outlet for our surplus population, and the the great mart for our home industry."

And this important axiom, we have no doubt, will keep the peace between the two countries.

☞ A gentleman from Eliot yesterday shew us a coin which he lost in 1814, forty-three years ago. This spring while ploughing it was found and restored to the loser, who prizes it as the first piece of silver he ever possessed. It is a Spanish pistareen, coined in 1723, during the reign of Philip V., and is as well defined as if it had just left the mint.

NEW HAMPSHIRE LEGISLATURE.—Concord, June 16.—Resolves were introduced, strongly denouncing the decision in the Dred Scott case as an attempt to usurp the legislative functions of government. An act to secure personal freedom was also presented, giving all races and colors the same rights as white citizens.

N. G. Ordway has been appointed High Sheriff in place of Mr. Rixford, removed by address.

CONFLICT BETWEEN RIVAL POLICE.

NEW YORK, June 16.—Another serious riot between the two police forces occurred in the Park to-day, in consequence of an attempt made by a body of Metropolitan police to arrest Mayor Wood and Sheriff Willett, on a warrant granted by Judge Hoffman, for assault on Mr. Conover, the Metropolitan Commissioner of Streets. The Metropolitan police, while ascending in a body the steps of the City Hall, were beaten back with clubs by the Mayor's police, and many of them badly hurt.

Capt. Dilkes is reported to be mortally wounded.

Evening.—The warrant upon Mayor Wood was served this afternoon. He surrendered himself to the Sheriff, and gave bonds in $5000 to appear and answer.

The National Guard was under arms for an hour in the Park, and were then released from duty, and left for Boston, to take part in the Bunker Hill Celebration.

The Twelfth Regiment is now under arms at the City Hall.

At the affray this afternoon, several of the Metropolitan policemen, besides Capt. Dilkes, were so badly beaten, that their recovery is considered doubtful.

Mr. Conover, Governor's appointee, was again ejected from the Street Commissioner's office to-day, by Mayor Wood's police.

A large squad of police were detailed at the City Hall in case of riot.

Charles Devlin has been appointed Street Commissioner by the Mayor, with the approval of the Common Council. Devlin, with about twenty policemen, went into and took possession of the Street Commissioner's office shortly after 5 P. M. They intend to stay there all night and all day to-morrow.

LONDON PAPERS BANKRUPT.—The Alliance Weekly News of May 30, says:

The Morning Herald, Standard, and St. James Chronicle, after long hanging on hand, were disposed of last week, at some thousands below the Auction Mart valuation, to one of the Messengers of the Court of Bankruptcy.

What difference is there between a prince and a peasant? No more than between two bricks made of the same clay; only one is placed upon a turret, and the other at the bottom of a well.

☞ The New Hampshire State Convention of Universalists commenced their annual session in this city on Wednesday.—Sermon in the morning by Rev. Mr. Miller of Nashua, from Matthew 7, 29: "He taught them as one having authority;"—subject, the divine mission and teachings of Jesus.

In the afternoon, sermon by Rev. T. J. Greenwood of Dover, on the religious education of the young. This was the occasional sermon, preached by special assignment.

Sermon in the evening was by Rev. J. H. Moore of Concord.

The public services were well attended: and were enlivened by sacred music from the choir, with grand accompaniment on the organ by Mr. Crane.

The services will be continued to-day, at the usual hours of church services.

EQUESTRIANISM.—Since the days of pillions, there probably has rarely been more horseback riding, in Portsmouth, than during the present season, thus far. Hardly a pleasant day passes but some "lone horseman" or horsewoman is seen scouring the country round about; and couples are no longer a rarity (to the sight)—though the riding is rare pleasure to those who know how to enjoy it. From small beginnings, this invigorating exercise has come to be more generally participated in; and from parties of two and four, they have increased to a dozen or more—until a few evenings since, a group of seventeen young ladies and gentlemen rattled round our streets quite merrily. This included the largest number of lady riders we remember to have seen together—a dozen, we believe.

But probably the largest turn-out of saddles for the season, if not for all time, is appointed for this (Thursday) evening, should the weather prove favorable—if not, to-morrow, or the first pleasant evening. All gentlemen with ladies, or either alone, who would relish a ride on horseback, are invited to meet on Haymarket Square, near the Middle Street Church, at 6 o'clock, mounted and equipped in the style that best suit themselves and the circumstances of the case—to enjoy a social drive of an hour or two, as the party may choose.

There are probably about a hundred gentlemen's saddles, and thirty side-saddles, in the city—and of these, seventy-five could be manned (or womaned) well enough. The first trouble would be to find enough ladies' dresses and horses;—but this latter is made more of a bugbear than need be. To be sure, there is a choice of animals; but any horse that is much removed from a jackass or a mule, that has four good legs, and brains enough to keep in the path, will do well enough to be mounted—whether he trots, ambles or paces.

☞ It will no doubt be a pleasure to our spectacle wearing readers to hear that the celebrated Optician of No. 2 Park Row, New York, intends to visit Portsmouth, and exercise his profession for a few days, on his tour through the eastern States. Professor Franks is a gentleman of high Opthalmic talent, he is professor of Optics to the New York Eye Hospital, as well as to the New York Eye and Ear Infirmary, also patentee of Spectacles for defective vision, the superiority of which is now established beyond cavil, for they are used exclusively at all the institutions for diseases of the eye, and are recommended by the most eminent medical gentlemen in the Union; our friends with defective vision will therefore have an opportunity of obtaining a pair of his patent spectacles, and have them adjusted to the eye by himself, who is one of the most talented opticians in the States.

MANCHESTER POLICE COURT.—Before Justice Upton.—Saturday P. M.—State vs. Adoniram Hollis, on charge of selling intoxicating drinks.

Quite a large number of the most intelligent and respectable ladies of our city were present in Court, also a number of that class of outsiders who take a personal interest in liquor prosecutions.

Matilda Ballou testified that she is the wife of George O. Ballou who lives at 49 Hanover street, and that on the 12th of last December she bought at the shop of said Hollis on Manchester street, one half-pint of gin for which she paid 12 1-2 cents. She bought for the purpose of prosecution, made a memorandum, and had kept the liquor. She identified Hollis as the man of whom she bought the gin, and also knew his partner Colby. She had conversed with female friends on the subject, and had left the liquor in the hands of the City Marshal.

The Court put Hollis under $300 bonds to appear before the Supreme Judicial Court.—American

In Philadelphia, on Thursday afternoon, some workmen of the Pennsylvania Railroad Co., observed a curious phenomenon. At that time, rain fell in various parts of the city, some streets being drenched and others perfectly dry. At the corner of Fourth street and Willing's Alley, a small black cloud was seen hovering, and suddenly a large quantity of water—some of the workmen say about two hogsheads—dashed down upon them, and yet did not extend beyond a circumference of thirty feet. The opposite side of the alley was left perfectly dry.

Professor Simonds writes from Cracow to say that, after travelling through Holland, Hanover, Prussia, parts of Russia, &c., he has been unable to find the cattle murrain, which the authorities of Denmark now state in an imperial edict is only to be found in Schleswig and London.

At Pittsburg, at the last election, a voter too much in a hurry to examine his vote, dropped into the ballot box a slip of paper containing these words: "Dear Miss—I cannot meet you this evening—my wife suspects—keep shady.

Yours affectionately, ——."

A CURE FOR DYSPEPSIA.—The Oxygenated Bitters have been fairly tested in some of the worst cases of Dyspepsia among our own citizens, and proved to be the best remedy ever discovered for the cure of this troublesome disease.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

THE SECRET DISCOVERED AT LAST.—We have noticed in passing through Market street, lately, that the NEW STORE, No. 15, always seems crowded with customers. We have at last discovered the secret of it. On stepping inside, we find that the proprietors, MESSRS. ALLEN & PAINE, in fitting up their store in the beautiful manner they have, had an eye for the useful, as well as for the ornamental; we noticed that the store appeared very light and cheerful, and on looking for a solution of the mystery, we discover that the store contains a Sky Light, giving them facilities for showing their Goods possessed by no other Dry Goods store in town; as Customers by such a light, have no difficulty in seeing what shades they are purchasing, and can not be deceived in the color or quality of goods. We notice, also, that their stock is always composed of the best qualities and very latest styles, which is explained by the fact that one of the firm visits the market to replenish the goods every ten days—and as they buy for Cash, altogether, they are able to offer their goods at as low prices as any other parties.

Those about to purchase Dry Goods will do well to visit them. Read their advertisement in another column.

Also, Kennedy's Medical Discovery, price 68 cents per bottle.

DOES ANY OF OUR HIGH LIVERS ever eat too much dinner? If any of our readers have cooks who tempt their appetite a little too far, I will tell a secret that will lead them to the enjoyment of their dinners, without a visit from that gouty old gentleman, Dyspepsia. Take a dose of Dr. Sanford's Invigorator after eating, and you will never be troubled with indigestion; but on the contrary, before the next meal time approaches, the appetite will be sharpened to appreciate any kind of food. If the food rises or sours, the Invigorator will fix the matter right at once, for there is something in it that, to use the expression of a friend, will let a man eat gravel stones, and take the Invigorator and they will digest. We have tried it in double doses, on one or two occasions, for sick headache, and it acts like a charm.

What we want to say to our readers, young or old, is, if anything ails you, go without delay and get a bottle of Dr. Sanford's Invigorator, and if it don't cure, come and tell us, for we want to see one person that it will not benefit.

TO THE CITIZENS OF THE UNITED STATES.
CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.

After several years experimenting in the manufacturing of Gin, I fortunately succeeded, in the year 1846, in making a distinct variety in its manufacture by which it was deprived of all acrid and inflammatory properties, and rendered perfectly pure.

My manufactory is at Scheidam, Holland. After several months' reflection what title to give it, I introduced it to the American public under the name of "Wolfe's Scheidam Aromatic Schnapps." Scheidam is the name of the place in Holland where the Gin is manufactured. Aromatic derives its name from the Italian Juniper Berry with which it is flavored, and the word "Schnapps" is the German for drink—Cogne, Dram—Wolfe's Scheidam Aromatic Drink. No sooner had my Schnapps been introduced to the American public and received with approbation, than the Liquor Mixers of New York, Boston and Philadelphia, started in pursuit with their mixed and poisonous stuff under various names: Scheidam Gin, Scheidam Schnapps, London Club House Gin, London Cordial Gin, &c., and in several cases my labels have been so perfectly imitated, with only the addition of a few letters to plead a technical avoidance of the law, and so carefully prepared as to impose on careless purchasers. I understand a large quantity has been purchased by the merchants of the Eastern States on account of the cheapness of the articles. A merchant who participates, indirectly in the fraud by selling the various articles, is as much an offender as the principal who planned the imposition.

I hope every respectable citizen who values the health of the community in which he lives will aid me in ferreting out and exposing the unscrupulous menders, who, for the sake of a few cents, will put in jeopardy the lives of the community in which he lives. Such men should be nailed to the pillory of popular execration.

WOLFE'S SCHEIDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS is made from barley of the first quality, selected with great care from the products of the most celebrated grain-growing districts, is flavored with the essence of the aromatic Juniper Berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process, which expels from the spirit every acrid particle.

As a means of preventing and correcting the disagreeable and often dangerous effects produced upon the stomach and bowels by a change of water—a visitation to which travelers and settlers, and all unacclimated persons in the West, the South and South-West are peculiarly liable—the Scheidam Aromatic Schnapps will be found absolutely infallible; while, in cases of dropsy, gravel, obstructions of the kidneys, diseases of the bladder, dyspepsia, and general debility, it is recommended most emphatically by the most distinguished members of the medical profession

It is put up in quart and pint bottles, in cases of one dozen, with the name of the undersigned on the bottle and cork, and a fac-simile of his signature and label.

For sale by all respectable druggists and country merchants. UDOLPHO WOLFE.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN

Is shown by the Records of the Custom House to be the only London Cordial IMPORTED and sold in bottles; all others are made here in imitation of it.

It is a delicious tonic beverage, and by its peculiar flavor (so different from other gins) is universally esteemed by all who use it. It is adopted with great success in cases of Dyspepsia, Gout, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Gravel, Colic, Cholera, Fever and Ague, Stricture, Diseases of the Urinary Organs, Epilepsy, Female Irregularities.

Dr. Valentine Mott of New York, in a letter to the proprietor, says:

Charles' London Cordial Gin, is the purest, best, and most reliable Extract of Juniper I have seen.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN is sold by all Druggists and Grocers in the United States, and so also are numerous poisons called "London Cordial Gin"—to avoid them buy only "CHARLES'." Reject any other offered to you as you value your health. Price one dollar for quarts, fifty cents for pints.

HOUSE LOTS AT AUCTION.

A grand chance to lay the foundation for a home.

WILL be sold at Public Auction on the premises, in Portsmouth,

On SATURDAY Afternoon, June 27th, at 3 o'clock,

TEN HOUSE LOTS!

Consisting in the aggregate of about 90,000 square feet of Land, which is bounded on the south by Islington street, on the east by Creek street, on the west by land of True M. Ball, bordering on Frenchman's Lane, and on the north by a new street, being the land now owned by Kittredge Sheldon.

This is in every respect the most eligible and desirable position for House Lots now in the market. It is about 10 minutes' walk from Market Square, in a direct line through the pleasantest and best street in the city, with a good sidewalk the entire distance, and combining in an unusual degree the advantages of rural and city life. The land is dry, the grounds are shaded with (all) and graceful elms, forming the most picturesque landscape to be found in this vicinity. The lots vary in size from 5000 to 12000 feet; the smallest affording ample garden, as well as building room.

An accurate plan of the Lots may be seen at H. F. Wendell's Store, No. 70 State street, and further particulars may be obtained of the subscriber. KITTREDGE SHELDON.

AYER'S Cathartic Pills,

(SUGAR COATED,)

ARE MADE TO

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK Mankind, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians Philanthropists, read the Effects, and judge of their Virtues.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach

PITTSBURG, PA., May 1, 1857.

DR. J. C. AYER: Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache, and relieved from a dull stupid state of your Pills. It seems to arouse the stomach, which they cleanse at once. If they will do others as they do me, the fact is worth knowing.

Yours with great respect, Ed. W. PREBLE,
Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
WASHINGTON, D. C., 7 Feb., 1856.

SIR: I have used your Pills to my entire satisfaction in my family practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are a valuable remedy for derangement of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them.

Fraternally yours, ALONZO ROSS, M. D.,
Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

FORT OTTOMY, HARTLAND, LIV. CO., MICH., NOV. 14, 1855.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine. They have done my wife more good than I can tell you. She had been sick a long time, and had tried everything. We set off to be doctored at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. Her mother, sisters, and many others in this place have of bloody dysentery. One of our neighbors had it bad, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others around her paid from five to twenty dollars doctors' bills, and lost much time, without being cured entirely even then. Such a medicine as yours, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here.

ISO. J. GRIFFIN, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood they are the most efficacious remedy I have yet known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, WYOMING CO., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my family, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

JOHN G. MESELEM, M. D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of a humor which baffled the skill of our best physicians, pronounced incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cleared her of all humors.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From the Rev. Dr. Bowden, of the Methodist Episc. Church.

PULASKI HOUSE, SAVANNAH, GA., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and I became a confirmed rheumatic pain, which resisted all chronic rheumatism. Now, thanks to God and your skill, I am free from pain. Given publicly to make others who suffer as I did, seek relief. Yours, with gratitude, JOHN W. HEAP, Agent in Baltimore, Md. Nachoochee, I write very frequently. Their effects were slow, but sure, by persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well.

SENATE CHAMBER, BOSTON, MASS., Jan. 3, 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years. VINCENT MILLIKEN.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or Kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are the most reliable.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are agreeable and efficacious.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness, and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the alterative influence of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences which frequently follow its improper exhibition. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet of the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its efficacy, and have yet the communities any where which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and fatal nervous diseases of the throat and lungs. This is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the fatal, curable and dangerous disease of the pulmonary organs. It is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for children and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the sudden enemy that steals upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the Cherry Pectoral never fails to cure the complaint for it prevents than those it cures. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable, or neglect them until no human skill can reach them, the incurable cough, the exhausted lungs, the wasted frame, the hectic flush, the night sweat, the death rattle. Such are the results which they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not quote than to assure them it will do what we claim for it. We sincerely believe, and the affirmed those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their relief.

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries of which Messrs. Fearson & Co are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a fair and honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Attention is fixed to the fact that persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland. as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state, and drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand, unless otherwise directed (under the drawing are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and the Havana plan), and forming a combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100 00. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

☞ The drawn numbers of the Maryland Lotteries are published by the State Commissioner in the following papers, viz: the Sun, Patriot, American, Argus, of Baltimore; also, the National Intelligencer and Union, of Washington, D.C.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the lottery is done in a fair and honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. Attention is fixed to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Georgia have been legalized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the communication comes to hand, unless otherwise directed. Tickets according to the schemes one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to verify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $50,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Bulletin, Mobile Register, Nashville Banner, Nashville Union, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to S. SWAN & Co., Atlanta, Georgia.

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

All communications strictly confidential. m13ly

The Medicine THAT NEVER FAILS!

IS DR. WILSON'S

DYSENTERY POWDER,

Which cures Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Cholera Morbus, and all the affections of the Bowels attended with Pain and frequent Discharges.

This Medicine is now being introduced into all parts of the United States and British Provinces, and great success attends its use everywhere. These Powders are now offered to the world as a PERFECTLY SAFE AND EFFECTUAL MEDICINE, for the purposes they are recommended, and in nine cases out of ten when they are taken in the first stage, and almost invariably two will effect a permanent Cure; and unlike all other preparations, which, if they check the disease, leave the person in a condition that requires physic after it, these Powders, in nine cases with the Dysentery Powders, for they regulate the Bowels, tone up the system, and leave it in a healthy state.

ONE POWDER WILL CURE THE WORST CASE,

These Powders are put up in boxes, with full directions on each box, and sold for 50 Cents.

Please try them; if they do not give perfect satisfaction, return them and take your money.

CHLOROFORM. — The housekeeper to a bachelor gentleman who resides in Worcester, England, was one Saturday evening about 8 o'clock, called to answer a knock at the front door. On opening it, a respectable-looking youth about 18 years of age was there, and immediately threw some liquid in her face from a small bottle. To her great surprise, he immediately drew another phial from his pocket, poured the contents on his pocket handkerchief, and began passing it over her face, when she fell insensible in the passage. Her master, hearing a noise, came out, and, to his astonishment, saw his housekeeper and a young gentleman, lying with empty bottles by their sides. The young gentleman was discovered to be an assistant to a highly respectable chemist living near, who was then sent for. The youth, having come to his senses, in the presence of his master, and upon a promise of forgiveness, related that, hearing that the bachelor had a large sum of money in his house, he determined to obtain it and proceed to America. On the girl opening the door, he threw some chloroform in her face, and, finding that it did not produce the desired effect, he poured more of the drug on his handkerchief, when, to his surprise, he, like his victim, became insensible. The would-be burglar has been delivered into the hands of his mother, who promised to part with him for London.

RICH MEN OF BALTIMORE.—A Baltimore writer says the statement that there were no very wealthy men in that city, based on the tax list which has been published, is incorrect. He enumerates the following: George Brown, of the firm of Brown Brothers, worth all of three millions of dollars; John Hopkins, a million and a half; the Albers, each worth a million; A. S Abell, of the Baltimore Sun, a million; John S. Gittings, Zenas Barnum, Hugh Gelston, Noah Walker, Wm. McDonald, the Pattersons, and many others. He says there are at least fifty persons in that city, worth over half a million dollars. Robert Garrett & Sons are set down at over a million, and the present mayor, Thomas Swan, at a half million.

A farmer in Gormantown, N. J., claims that he makes $7000 a year clear profit from twelve acres of land. He raises principally early vegetables for the markets, and uses about $2000 worth of fertilizers on his land. From a patch 16 feet by 180 feet he has sold $50 worth of pie plant, this season, and can sell more from the same patch.

On Tuesday last, nine gentlemen of Newbury, Vt., "camped out," and secured six hundred and forty-seven trout. Pretty good fishing that for Green Mountain brooks.

A SHARK.—There is a class of young men in our manufacturing cities who seem to get their living by preying on the factory girls. One of these fellows was exposed in Manchester, yesterday, and he is a fair sample of the class. His name was Frank Williams, and about a year ago made the acquaintance of Miss Eliza Crayton, represented himself as being in good business, and solicited her confidence and respect, which he seems to have gained. Soon after, he commenced borrowing money of her, and finally borrowed $40 to pay his expenses home, which he said was in Portland. She had a gold chain that needed mending, and he proposed taking that along with him, getting it repaired in his absence. With the chain and money, Williams left the city, and was gone two months. On his return Miss Crayton asked him for the chain, but he put her off and left again, and was gone six months. On his second return he endeavored to shun the girl, who finding that he had sold her chain, had him arrested; and yesterday, he was bound over in the Manchester Police Court in $200 for trial.

There are hundreds of these sharks in our factory cities—young men who loaf the streets daily while their victims are toiling for their support in the mills; who have no apparent means for support yet who go well dressed, sporting flashy vests, plenty of jewelry (such as it is) and attending all the dances, and concerts. A portion of these characters partially sustain themselves by gambling, but many wholly live on our factory girls, too many of whom are unsuspecting enough to become their dupes.—Lowell News, 5th.

Our city police constables, for some time past, have had enough to do in the way of making arrests for gross intoxication—two or three per day, sometimes. Usually, the topers are kept a few hours in jail, until "sobered down," fed at the public expense, and then discharged with one of the Recorder's unique reprimands. Well, the sots ought to be arrested and imprisoned; and so ought those who make them drunk, while, in addition, the latter should be compelled to pay the jail fees of both. The idea of punishing the effect, but winking at the cause, strikes us as superlative nonsense and meanness.—Poughkeepsie (N. Y.) Examiner.

"BANDS OF HOPE."—There have been enthusiastic gatherings in different parts of Massachusetts among the young, for the purpose of awakening a deeper interest in the Temperance cause; Peter Sinclair, Esq., of Scotland is addressing these juvenile gatherings. The friends of Temperance are designing to organize the children into "Bands of Hope," organizations resembling the cold water army. This movement deserves to be encouraged. It acts upon the principle of prevention rather than of cure. Our hope is in the rising generation, to it we must look for standard bearers in these great enterprises for the weal of the race. Shall not the children of this city have the pleasure of listening to this distinguished Scotch Temperance Lecturer?—Manchester American.

☞ Alfred de Mossuet, the French poet, whose death was recently announced, died from the effects of habitual intoxication. He commenced during the early period of his literary career to drink brandy while he wrote, in the same way that Byron drank gin, as a sort of mental stimulant. But the habit grew on him so that the drinking of brandy and absinthe brutalized him into a sot.

On Thursday evening of last week Prof. D. Barton Ross, well known in Louisiana and the South, as the author of "The Southern Speaker," "Southern Fifth Reader," &c., attempted to commit suicide at his hotel in Petersburg, Va., by taking chloroform and stabbing himself in the breast. He was fortunately discovered and medical aid promptly summoned. His condition is very critical. Pecuniary difficulties and ill success in giving lectures, it is supposed, induced him to commit the act.

A SON OF HENRY CLAY GUILTY OF HOMICIDE.—In a quarrel between John Clay, a son of the departed statesman, and a horse-trainer named Edgar, in Lexington, Ky., the former shot the latter twice with a pistol. One ball entered his mouth and passed out behind his ear; another ball lodged in his back. Edgar is reported mortally wounded. Clay immediately left Lexington and has not been heard from since. The parties have not been on amicable terms for some time.—Cincinnati Commercial, June 13.

While at the artist's exhibition, Friday, our reporter was standing near to Mr. Stephenson's bust of "Ruth." A friend, pointing to the veiled head of the Jewish maiden, said, "It is not every girl gets such a beau as (Boaz) she did. The reporter meditated, then smiled, and immediately proposed to expend a couple of shillings for the pun of it. "Nay, owe me (Naomi,)" said the wag. Thinking the neighborhood too warm, the reporter turned to look at Champney's magnificent snow covered mountains.—Boston Trav.

Morning Chronicle.

FRIDAY, JUNE 19, 1857.

Gov. Walker's Assertions.—The subsidence of Nicaragua Walker allows more attention to be given to him of Kansas.—And it seems that the latter made some wrong statements as well as doubtful promises in his ambitious inaugural. For instance, he declared that the Topeka Constitution contained a clause excluding free and slave negroes from the Territory, whereas it was not so. But a separate article of instructions to the first Legislature had something of the kind, of no acknowledged binding force on even that Legislature, and certainly of none on any subsequent body. So the most adroit hit of his excellency proves harmless. But, if we may credit the Kansas correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune, Gov. Walker has made another assertion in private, which evinces even more personal adroitness, however it may result in practice. Having returned from church on the Sabbath, with his mind duly edified, it is supposed, he is represented as saying:

The abolitionists of Lawrence and of Kansas have never yet been understood.—Touch their pocket—that is the way to reach them.

This is his long exposition of the railroad grants boiled down to the very essence. We must wait and see how this assertion turns out.

The Military Expedition to Utah.—The St. Louis Republican thinks that the military expedition to Utah is projected too late in the season for effective operations, and it may fail altogether. The expedition will not start from Fort Leavenworth until the middle of July, and it will take at least sixty days to reach the neighborhood of Salt Lake City. Snows commence in that region in October, and if the Mormons prove hostile, it is to be feared that great sufferings and privations will befall the troops. The government contemplate such an emergency, as they have advertised for two thousand beeves at the point of destination, but the cunning of the Mormons, if they resist at all, will teach them to cut off supplies.

☞ There was a report in Boston on Wednesday, that the New York Regiment the National Guards, was gone home. It was not so. Wednesday forenoon Gov. King of New York received a telegraphic message, signed by three of the Police Commissioners and Major General Hall, stating that the state of affairs was such in New York as to render it eminently proper that he should at once return to that city, and stating that the Seventh Regiment was needed, and requesting him to order their immediate return. Gov. King, with Cols. Seward and Peary of his Staff took the 3 o'clock train for New York, leaving orders for the Regiment to go on at night. These orders reached Col. Duryee just as the escort had reached the Monument Grounds. On its becoming known to the officers of the Association, an invitation was sent to the Regiment to march through the Pavilion and see the statute, but as this would delay their return, with true soldierly conduct they refused to do so, and at once took up the line of march, on their return to Boston, under the escort of the first regiment of Infantry and the Light Artillery. The column reached Bowdoin Square at about 4 o'clock, when, after the usual military exchanges of courtesy, the troops were dismissed. The intelligence that the Regiment were about to return home caused many expressions of regret and disappointment. Arrangements had about been made for a special train and boat via the Stonington route, when Col. Duryee received from Major Gen. Sanford of the First Division N. Y. S. M. the welcome intelligence, that the presence of his command would not be needed, and he decided to remain till Thursday as had been originally contemplated. A private dispatch received at this time stated that the trouble in the Park was all ended and that the contest had resulted in the defeat of Mayor Wood's force, and the triumph of the State Police. The announcement that the Guards could remain was hailed with loud cheers.

The Seventeenth.—The weather was very favorable on Wednesday for the celebration of the anniversary of the battle of Bunker Hill, and the inauguration of the statute of Warren, and the whole affair was very successful. The procession was attractive and imposing, and the ceremonies of inauguration, the speeches, &c., were felicitous and appropriate. The day was very generally observed as a holiday, and the streets were thronged with people, and were gay with flags and streamers—We have not space to dwell upon the various features of the celebration.

MAYOR WOOD'S REBELLION.

In the city of New York, the long and hotly contested dispute between Mayor Wood and the new Metropolitan Police Commissioners, has resulted in blood shed. Mayor Wood set at defiance the laws of the State, and used his whole power to sustain himself in his apparent assumption of power. Without comment, we copy from the Courier and Enquirer, the following detailed account of occurrences of Tuesday:

The City Hall and Park were yesterday, the scene of unusual excitement and disorder. The violent measures resorted to, the day previous, in the Street Commissioner's Office, drew a large crowd of people to the Park. At about 9 o'clock in the morning, Mr. Conover, who has been appointed Street Commissioner, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Taylor, appeared at the Department, and was, by Mr. Turner and the Mayor's police, refused admittance to the desk occupied by him the day previous. Mr. Conover, therefore, took a position inside the rail of the outer office, and was attended by Messrs. Peckham, Pollock, and some other clerks of the Department. All passed off quietly for near an hour, during which time, Mr. Conover discharged one of the duties of the Street Commissioner, by giving a permit to a building for time, in the removal of some rubbish from the street.

A large number of citizens crowded about the Hall of Records, but few were admitted. There was, however, the usual number of rowdies and loafers, allowed within the walls. The Mayor's police force, led on by ex-Lieutenant Bennett and the Deputy Sheriffs, were stationed in the office and on the stairway leading to the lower floor, while several hundreds of the Mayor's newly organized night and day watch were in reserve, in the City Hall and Park.

At ten o'clock, Mr. Bennett requested Mr. Conover to leave the office, saying he was acting as Deputy Sheriff, as well as Police Captain, and had orders to put him out. Mr. Conover produced his papers, showing the authority of his appointments, and refused to go.—Mr. Bennett ordered ex-Sergeant Lewis of the Second Ward, to eject Mr. Conover, but the latter resisted, and would not go. A number of the members of the late police then rushed upon him, and he still resisted, but finding he would be violently ejected, he suffered himself to walk out with Mr. Bennett—the Mayor's police who were stationed along the stairway and corridors, making insulting remarks as he passed them.

A German gentleman present, was much excited at the indignities offered Mr. Conover, and told him, in the presence of the assumed authorities, that he would procure a force of 500 men to sustain him, if necessary. Mr. Conover, however, was calm and dignified, and preferred for the present, to take legal measures. He was well received by his friends in the Park, and at once repaired to the office of his legal adviser. In the meantime, the Mayor's watchman, with consent of his new subject, Mr. Turner, late Deputy, locked up the office, but as before stated, under protest from the Sheriff.

The sheriff thought he had Deputies enough, to keep possession of the furniture, books, papers, &c., without resorting to such measures as adopted by the Mayor.

Mr. Conover, by advice of D. D. Fields, Esq., and other counsel, procured a warrant from the Superior Court, for the arrest of the Mayor, to answer a charge of assault and battery. Another warrant was, on complaint of Mr. Conover, issued by Recorder Smith, charging the Mayor with inciting a riot.

There seemed to be some apprehensions on the part of the Mayor, that such proceedings would be taken, and 700 or 800 of his day and night watchmen were stationed in the City Hall. The crowd increased in the Park, and there was intense excitement in and around the hall.

About half past 2 P.M., Capt. Walling, of the Metropolitan Police, went to the Mayor's office with the Recorder's warrant and obtained admittance to the inner room, but the Mayor refusing to recognize his authority as policeman, would not suffer the warrant to be executed, and ordered his officers to put him out. Capt. Walling did not resist, being alone, and left the office. A few moments afterwards Coroner Perry, who had possession of the civil warrant from Judge Hoffman, called at the Mayor's office, and was admitted as far as the railing. He sent word to the Mayor that he wished to see him, and an answer came out from the Mayor that he would not comply. The officer who brought out the refusal, said it was the orders of the Mayor to eject the Coroner from the office, and proceeded to carry out such direction. The Coroner made no resistance, and left. He then went to the Recorder's office, where Mr. Field was waiting, and took legal advice as to his course of action. The criminal warrant was put in the hands of Sheriff Willett, who reported that he could not execute it, the Mayor's office being so strongly guarded by policemen.

Major General Sanford was then at the Recorder's office, and a requisition having been made by Coroner Perry for the calling out of the military, the necessity of it was for some time taken into consideration. A riot having been anticipated, companies of the National Guard had been in readiness at the Arsenal most of the day.

It was deemed advisable for the Coroner to make another effort to serve the process, and he was accompanied by about fifty of the Metropolitan policemen, under command of Lieutenant Sebring, of the 9th Precinct. The men marched over to the City Hall with the Coroner, and on arriving at the rear steps of the Hall, which was strongly guarded by the Mayor's police, they were rushed on by over a hundred ruffians, who commenced a furious assault on the officers of the law, and were stimulated and set on by oaths and yells from the Mayor's watchmen. Clubs and other weapons were used by the rowdies, and prominent among those who figured in the attack were Alderman Wilson of the 1st Ward, Eugene Sullivan, a fighting man from the 4th Ward, and Councilman Hughes, from the 6th Ward. Many of the mob climbed trees, breaking off the limbs to use them as clubs against the Metropolitan officers. The Mayor's watchmen, immediately after the attack was made by the mob, rushed on the Metropolitan officers, beating them while down with their clubs, and kicking them in the face. A small force of fifty men against the Mayor's force of nearly one thousand watchmen and fighting men, had therefore no chance, and they had to retreat to the Recorder's office in Chambers street as quickly as possible.

They were followed most of the way by the savage mob, who, being of the lowest grade, brought from the vilest haunts of the city, were incapable of reason, and would let their brute instinct lead them, under their Mayor, to any extent. The Coroner fortunately escaped injury, but upwards of a dozen of the Metropolitan police were severely wounded. The Recorder's office soon presented the appearance of a hospital. Five of the wounded men were brought in bleeding profusely from their wounds, and the Coroner reported that his attempt to serve the process had again been resisted, and with the Recorder urged the necessity of having the military immediately in the Park. Generals Sanford and Hall were present, and were readily convinced that the services of the military were required. The 7th Regiment of the National Guard were soon marching to the Park. In the meantime Deputy Superintendent Carpenter arrived with over a hundred men, and expressed his readiness to go to the City Hall, and serve any process put into his hands, at all hazards. Captains Speight, Hart and Turnbull, and Lieutenant Hutchings were also present with their forces, and there were over two hundred Metropolitan Policemen ready to act. The Recorder, however, thought it would be madness to send them against the Mayor's forces, which were augmenting continually from all the disorderly resorts in the city; and waited until the military arrived in the Park.

The appearance of the National Guard somewhat cooled the ardor of the mob, and the Mayor, under their influence, allowed himself to be visited by the Coroner, and taken into custody. Counsel were present, however, with sureties, and the Mayor was bailed without leaving his office, his brother, Benjamin Wood, and John Fitzpatrick becoming his bondmen in $5000. This writ being served, the sheriff then went into the Mayor's office with the Recorder's warrant, and declared the Mayor under arrest. A habeas corpus had, however, been prepared, issued by City Judge Russel, and requiring the sheriff to keep him in his custody until the matter was passed upon. Judge Russel took care to be out of the way, that the writ might not be argued, and the Mayor could not be lawfully taken before the Recorder on that warrant.

The Sheriff reported this state of the case to the Recorder, and said he would keep the Mayor, who was still in his office, in custody until Judge Russell disposed of the writ. The Recorder then, on the complaint of Coroner Perry, issued another warrant for the Mayor's arrest, on a charge of resisting a civil process. Capt. Speight went over to make the arrest, and was admitted by order of Gen. Hall, but the Mayor refused his authority and would not consent to accompany him. The Captain was dispatched on the same errand again, and would have insisted on the Mayor's going before the Recorder. Sheriff Willett, while expressing his intention to enforce the law and protect the public peace at all hazards by the assistance of the military, advised that the Mayor be left in his custody until this morning, when the last warrant could then be executed as well. If executed last evening, he thought it might create a riot, there being such an immense gathering in the Park.

Generals Sanford and Hall also advised that a little time be given, for fear of having to resort to more stringent action, and thought this warrant could as well be served in the morning. This conference was communicated to the recorder, and he assented. Gen. Hall promised to keep a portion of the military on duty at the Arsenal all night, and in the morning, to order out five regiments if deemed requisite.

The Park mob having made threats to burn the Recorder's house, as well as his office, and Mr. Conover's house, &c., it was thought advisable to keep a military force in readiness during the night, which was done.

The indignation of citizens against the Mayor and his political watchmen and shoulder-hitters was intense during the day, and last evening it almost amounted to the formation of a Vigilance Committee.

The Board of Aldermen met in the afternoon, at 5 o'clock, and confirmed the Mayor's nomination of Charles Develin, as Street Commissioner. Mr. Develin is the leading street contractor, and has now very heavy contracts with the city. His fitness for the office and the motive for placing him there, will be evident from that circumstance. Mr. Develin was escorted by some of the Mayor's watchmen, immediately after being sworn in last evening, to the Street Commissioner's office, and declared by the mob to be duly inaugurated. Mr. Conover will contest his right.

The Coroner had warrants for ex-Lieut. Bennett and Mr. Turner, but could not find either to arrest them up to last evening.

There was a report that Captain Dilks was fatally injured. The report was entirely false, as Capt. D. was at the Fifteenth Ward Station House when the affray commenced.

Another report was also circulated, that several private citizens were more or less injured, and that two seriously injured were taken down Chambers street.

One of the Metropolitan Police, named Samuel Macker, during the struggle was stabbed in the left breast with a knife about a foot long, in the hands of one of the mob that assisted the Mayor's men.

An assault was made on Police Commissioner Chalwell's house last night by a mob of Wood's friends, who had been incited to riot by his example. The mob was dispersed. We understand that the 5th, 9th and 12th regiments await orders in case of emergency.

The Police Commissioners on Tuesday evening issued a bulletin to the citizens, in which they recapitulate the occurrences of the day. Mayor Wood also issued a proclamation, calling upon the people to preserve the peace, and claiming that but for his efforts, the streets would have been deluged with blood.

New York, June 17.—The Park has been crowded the whole day, in expectation of another conflict between the police. At present, quiet prevails.

There are rumors that the 71st Regiment now at Newburg, on an excursion, has been telegraphed to return; and a dispatch from Boston states that Gov. King received a dispatch, in the midst of the ceremonies on Bunker Hill, urging his immediate return, and that, accordingly, he left in the land train at 3 o'clock with the National Guards.

Mayor Wood's second arrest was effected quietly by Capt. Speight of the new Police. He is now in the Sheriff's custody. Two other warrants are to be issued against him.

The city Hall is still held by the Mayor's police.

The habeas corpus in the Mayor's case is now being argued before Judge Russell.

The troops are still under arms in their armories.

N. H. LEGISLATURE.

Wednesday, June 17.

House. — Bills Introduced. — By Mr. Scott of Peterborough,—an act amending chapter 82 of the Compiled Statutes, relative to the duties of Commissioners of Common Schools. Read twice, and referred to the committee on Education.

On motion of Mr. Hackett of Portsmouth, the bill to amend the charter of the city of Portsmouth was taken from the table and considered.

Mr. Greenleaf of Portsmouth, offered an amendment, referring the adoption of the proposed bill to the legal voters of said city.

Mr. Brown of Portsmouth, approved the amendment.

Mr. Hackett explained the object of the bill to be to reinstate the provisions of the first charter, which were changed some six years since, because "the exigencies of the Democratic party demanded the change." The argument in that Legislature was too great to fail and the charter was altered. The citizens of Portsmouth were almost unanimously in favor of the return. He thought it needless to refer to the people a change they had been demanding for years.

Mr. March desired the change of time of elections ordered by the bill to be omitted, and then the bill would be mutually satisfactory. I hope the magnanimous majority will grant us all we ask in the matter of times of elections. Whatever may have been the exigencies of the Democratic party at that time,—said he,—we have no such exigency now. [Laughter.]

We have received full compensation in the matter. This is a world of mutations and the time may come soon when the circumstances of this House shall be again changed.

Mr. Hackett—I am willing to leave that question with the people.

After some further debate on a decision of the House, the amendment of Mr. Greenleaf was adopted. Aff. 126, neg. 94.

On the call of the yeas and nays, Mr. Greenleaf consented to withdraw his amendment submitting the bill to the voters of said city, on condition that the sections of the bill changing the times of elections be omitted.

On motion of Mr. Hackett, said sections were struck out, and the bill ordered to a third reading.

The rules being suspended on motion of the same gentleman, the bill was read a third time and passed.

LOCAL.

☞ On Wednesday evening, after the lecture in the Universalist Church, there was a Conference, which was well attended. On Thursday morning, the sermon was by Sylvanus Cobb, of Boston; in the afternoon a sermon was preached by Rev. Mr. Read of Newburyport, and the Lord's supper administered. This closed the Convention.

In the evening there was a sermon by Rev. Mr. Maxham, of Medford.

☞ Mrs. Eliza W. Haven, of this city, has presented to Harvard College more than 700 volumes from the library of her husband, the late N. A. Haven, Jr., and with them a collection of 269 coins. Her son, the late Horace A. Haven, was a munificent patron of the University.

THE CAVALCADE.—That grand horseback turn-out, which was to have been made on Thursday evening, was omitted by common consent, on account of the storm. The streets and roads will hardly get in good condition to-day; and it is deemed best to have the Cavalcade on Saturday evening, at six o'clock, if circumstances favor. All ladies and gentlemen are invited to join—and meet in Haymarket Square.

No RIOTS. — The Concord Patriot of Thursday reports Mr. March of Portsmouth (Ward 3), as saying in the House:

They had no riots in Portsmouth—the people there were a law and order loving people. They went in for all laws, moral, legal and social.

We think it quite probable the gentleman intended to speak the truth; if so, it only shows how much he knows about the place.

STEAMSHIP CANADIAN. — This steamer was got off the point on which she lay Saturday afternoon, but immediately after sank in fifeen fathoms of water. The Montreal Transcript intimates strongly that the Canadian was run on the rocks by the ignorance, stupidity or drunkenness of her pilots.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT. — On Monday evening last, about 9 o'clock, as three young women, employed in Whitehouse's Factory, Rochester, were returning from a ride, and while crossing the bridge just above that village, the wagon struck a wheelbarrow, containing a stick of timber, which was standing upon it, which frightened the horse, who sheared off, upset the wagon against the railing of the bridge, and threw them all into the water. Two of them, one named Mary Foss and the other Ruth Grove, were drowned, and the third, Abby Foss, was rescued by a man near by.

THE SECRET DISCOVERED AT LAST.—We have noticed in passing through Market street, lately, that the NEW STORE, No. 15, always seems crowded with customers. We have at last discovered the secret of it. On stepping inside, we find that the proprietors, MESSRS. ALLEN & PAINE, in fitting up their store in the beautiful manner they have, had an eye for the useful, as well as for the ornamental; we noticed that the store appeared very light and cheerful, and on looking for a solution of the mystery, we discover that the store contains a Sky Light, giving them facilities for showing their Goods possessed by no other Dry Goods store in town; as Customers by such a light, have no difficulty in seeing just what they are purchasing, and can not be deceived in the color or quality of goods. We notice, also, that their stock is always composed of the best qualities and very latest styles, which is explained by the fact that one of the firm visits the market to replenish their goods every ten days—and as they buy for Cash, all together, they are able to offer their goods at as low prices as any other parties.

Those about to purchase Dry Goods will do well to visit them. Read their advertisement in another column.

Also, Kennedy's Medical Discovery, price 68 cents per bottle.

DOES ANY OF OUR HIGH LIVERS ever eat too much dinner? If any of our readers have cooks who tempt their appetite a little too far, I will let a secret that will keep them to the enjoyment of their dinners, without a visit from that gouty old gentleman, Dyspepsia. Take a dose of Dr. Sanford's Invigorator after eating, and you will never be troubled with indigestion; but on the contrary, before the next meal time approaches, the appetite will be sharpened to appreciate any kind of food. If the food rises or sours, the Invigorator will fix the matter right at once, for there is something in it that, to use the expression of a friend, will let a man eat gravel stones, and take the Invigorator and they will digest. We have tried it in double dose on one or two occasions, for sick headache, and it acts like a charm.

What we want to say to our readers, young or old, is, if anything ails you, go without delay and get a bottle of Dr. Sanford's Invigorator, and if it don't cure, come and tell us, for we want to see one person that it will not benefit.

TO THE CITIZENS OF THE UNITED STATES.
CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.

After several years experimenting in the manufacturing of Gin, I fortunately succeeded in the year 1848, in making a discovery in its manufacture by which it was deprived of all acrid and inflammatory properties, and rendered perfectly pure.

My manufactory is at Scheidam, Holland. After several months' reflection what title to give it, I introduced it to the American public under the name of "Wolfe's Scheidam Aromatic Schnapps." Scheidim is the name of the place in Holland where the Gin is manufactured. Aromatic derives its name from the Italian Juniper Berry with which it is flavored, and the word "Schnapps" is the German for drink—Cogne, Dram—Wolfe's Scheidam Aromatic Drink. No sooner had my Schnapps been introduced to the American public and received with approbation, than the Liquor Mixers of New York, Boston and Philadelphia, started in pursuit with their mixed and poisonous stuff under various names: Scheidam Gin, Scheidam Schnapps, London Club House Gin, London Cordial Gin, &c., and in several cases my labels have been so perfectly imitated, with only the addition of a few letters to plead a technical avoidance of the law, and so carefully prepared as to impose on careless purchasers. I understand a large quantity has been purchased by the merchants of the Eastern States on account of the cheapness of the articles. A merchant who participates indirectly in the fraud by selling the spurious articles, is as much an offender as the principal who planned the imposition.

I hope every respectable citizen who values the health of the community in which he lives will aid me in ferreting out and exposing the unscrupulous merchant, who, for the sake of a few cents, will put in jeopardy the lives of the community in which he lives. Such men should be nailed to the pillory of popular execration.

WOLFE'S SCHEIDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS is made from barley of the first quality, selected with great care from the products of the most celebrated grain-growing districts, is flavored with the essence of the aromatic Juniper Berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process, which expels from the spirit every acrid particle.

As a means of preventing and correcting the disagreeable and often dangerous effects produced upon the stomach and bowels by a change of water—a visitation to which travelers and settlers, and all unacclimated persons in the West, the South and South-West are peculiarly liable—the Scheidam Aromatic Schnapps will be found absolutely infallible; while, in cases of dropsy, gravel, obstructions of the kidneys, diseases of the bladder, dyspepsia, and general debility, it is recommended most emphatically by the most distinguished members of the medical profession

It is put up in quart and pint bottles, in cases of one dozen, with the name of the undersigned on the bottle and cork, and a fac-similie of his signature and label.

For sale by all respectable druggists and country merchants.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN

Is shown by the Records of the Custom House to be the only London Cordial Gin IMPORTED and sold in bottles; all others are made here in imitation of it.

It is a delicious tonic beverage, and by its peculiar flavor (so different from other gins) is universally esteemed by all who use it. It is adopted with great success in cases of Dyspepsia, Gout, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Gravel, Colic, Cholera, Fever and Ague, Strictura, Diseases of the Urinary Organs, Debility, Female Irregularities.

Dr. Valentine Mott of New York, in a letter to the proprietor, says:

Charles' London Cordial Gin, is the purest, best, and most valuable Extract of Juniper I have seen.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN is sold by all Druggists and Grocers in the United States, and so also are numerous poisons called "London Cordial Gin"—to avoid them buy only "CHARLES'." Reject any other offered to you as being more your health. Price one dollar for quarts, fifty cents for pints.

HOUSE LOTS AT AUCTION.

A grand chance to lay the foundation for a home.

WILL be sold at Public Auction on the premises, in Portsmouth,
On SATURDAY Afternoon, June 27th, at 3 o'clock,
TEN HOUSE LOTS!

Consisting in the aggregate of about 30,000 square feet of Land, which is bounded on the south by Islington street, on the east by Creek street, on the west by land of True M. Ball, bordering on Frenchman's Lane, and on the north by a new street, being the land now owned by Kittredge Sheldon.

This is in every respect the most eligible and desirable position for House Lots now in the market. It is about 30 minutes' walk from Market Square, in a direct line through the pleasantest and best street in the city, with a good sidewalk the entire distance, and combining in an unusual degree the advantages of rural and city life. The land is dry, the grounds are shaded with tall and graceful elms, forming the most picturesque landscape to be found in this vicinity. The lots vary in size from 5000 to 12000 feet; the smallest affording ample garden, as well as building room.

An accurate plan of the Lots may be seen at H. F. Wendell's Store, No. 70 State street, and further particulars may be obtained of the subscriber. KITTREDGE SHELDON.

IMPORTANT NEW INVENTION

PATENT DOUBLE VISION SPECTACLES.
EDWARD S. FRANKS, PROF. OF OPTICS,
No. 2 Park Row, opposite the Astor House, New York.
SPECTACLE MANUFACTURER,
Lecturer on the Anatomy and Physiology of the Human Eye, and Use and Abuse of Spectacles.
Optician by Diploma to the N. Y. Eye Hospital, And Spectacle-Maker to the New York Eye and Ear Infirmary.

Has much pleasure in announcing that he has secured letters patent, granted by the United States Patent Office, for very valuable improvements in Spectacle Glasses.

He has a complete assortment of his improved patent spectacles, in gold, silver, steel, and all other mountings. It will be understood that Prof. Franks, being the patentee, the spectacles can be obtained only from himself; as he has no other persons authorized to manufacture or sell the same, unless specially licensed to do so by him.

THE ADVANTAGES OF THESE SPECTACLES OVER ALL OTHERS, ARE

1st. The only true lens known, being perfectly centered so as the focus of each surface shall be opposite each other, which renders them nearly free from chromatic light, so injurious to vision, a lamentable deficiency in all the old kind of spectacle glasses, and makes the change of spectacles to glasses of stronger powers, so often required.

2d. Can be worn with perfect ease for any length of time at one sitting, giving astonishing clearness of vision, particularly by candle or artificial light,—comforts to the spectacle-wearer hitherto unknown.

3d. Change of spectacles to glasses of stronger magnifying power, in most cases never required, should the effect arise from age, disease, or premature decay,—thus securing to the patient good sight during life.

4th. When the eyes pain or ache, from the action of bright light, such as is reflected from snow sunny weather, white paper, with fine print, writing or sewing on vivid colored bodies; these lenses by softening the rays, effect the most agreeable sensation, and a perfect cure.

5th. In all nervous affections of the eye, causing dull or startling pains in the eyeballs or temples, appearances of luminous or dark spots in the atmosphere, itching, or feelings like sand in the eyes, the disturbed nerves are quieted, soothed, composed, and entirely restored.

6th. Ground by peculiar machinery got up at a great cost, mathematically calculated expressly for the manufacture of this lens, so as to produce it with true spherical accuracy, and its focus at the exact centre,—a point of vital importance, and which no other lens possesses.

7th. Proof of superiority over the old kind of spectacles: They are exclusively used at all the Hospitals for diseases of the eye in New York, and have received the following unqualified

Testimony of Recommendation

Many years of public practice and study in the hospitals of New York, and London (in England), of adapting spectacles to patients, under every aspect of defective vision, as well as experience in an extensive long established business at his optical stores, both here and in Europe, Professor Franks considers it a sufficient guarantee of his ability, to apply such glasses as are best calculated for the assistance or recovery of imperfect sight.

Attendance from 9 A. M. to 6 P. M. j19

Rev. Matthew Lassiter, a resident of Napa Valley, California, was recently tried and convicted on the charge of unlawfully uniting in marriage a lady under eighteen years of age. The jury found a verdict of "guilty," and fixed the damage at "two bits." The fine was paid by the husband.

On Saturday last, the Keyport steamer brought to New York eight hundred and thirty-two barrels of strawberries, (about fifteen thousad baskets); they were sold for more than $6000. The season has only just commenced.

Advices from Belize, Honduras, of the 21st of May, state that a number of Gen. Walker's men had arrived there in a destitute condition, and suffering from wounds.

The comet was due on Saturday, and a Mrs. Decker of Newburg, N. Y., hung herself with a clothes line to avoid the expected annihilation.

AYER'S Cathartic Pills,

(SUGAR COATED,)

ARE MADE TO

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK
Invalids, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians Philanthropists, read their Effects, and judge of their Virtues.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach

PITTSBURG, PA., May 1, 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. Indeed, I believe they can cure any headache, if they cleanse it once. If they will do for others as they do me, the fact is worth knowing.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. FREBLE,
Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
WASHINGTON, D. C., 7 Feb., 1856.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since they made their appearance, and find they are the best cathartic we employ. Their roaring lating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of the organs. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of liver disease that did not readily yield to them.

Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D.,
Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

FORT COMPTON, HAMILTON, LIV. CO., MICH., Nov. 18, 1855.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the perfection of all medicine. They have done my wife more good than I can tell you. She had been sick and pining away for months. Went off to be doctored in great expense, but grew worse. Then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. They afterwards cured her and our two children of bloody dysentery, also of severe sickness of the stomach, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctors' bills, and had much time, without being cured entirely even then. Such a medicine as yours, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here.

GEO. J. GRIFFIN, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, WYOMING CO., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1853.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to clanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her. ASA MORRIDGE.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawkes, of the Methodist Episc. Church.

FUNDIN HOUSE, SAVANNAH, GA., Jan. 4, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which subsided only to return more. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until, by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Shedrick, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well.

SENATE CHAMBER, BATON ROUGE, LA., 5 Dec., 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease, which I had suffered for years. VINCENT SIDELL.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an extraordinary remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are agreeable and efficacious.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness, and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues throughout every town, and almost every hamlet of the American Union. Its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it familiar as a household word. Few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects; and fewer yet the communities anywhere where there has not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful remedy yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in their dwellings against the sudden attacks that crowd upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the CHERRY PECTORAL saves more lives by the consumption it prevents than it cures. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable. We expect them until no human skill can master the inexorable banker that, fastened on the vitals, can your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of neglected coughs, and they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not more than to assure them it is still made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, no skill, to render it the most perfect medicine that our art can afford those who require it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their use.

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. FRENCH & Co are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commission appointed by the legislature, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well guarded as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that all tickets have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled for the next drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Ternary combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100 000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

☞ The drawn numbers of the Maryland Lotteries are published by the State Commissioner in the following papers, viz: Sun, Clipper, Patriot, American, Argus, of Baltimore; also, the National Intelligencer and Union, of Washington, D.C.

Address T. H. HUBBARD & CO.,
No 39 Fayette st., or box No. 40,
Baltimore, Maryland.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of those at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets, and that the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that state. A lottery will be drawn every day throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten (four dollars) gets a prize, and the drawing takes quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so arranged that one ticket in ten gets a prize. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $6,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Herald. Write your address plainly, and send direct to S. SWAN & Co., Atlanta, Georgia

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

All communications strictly confidential. m18ly

DEATH OF A TEMPERANCE LABORER.—Mr. Jesse Goodrich, a well known laborer in the Temperance ranks, died in Worcester on Sunday, after an illness of three months. He established the Cataract, in the editorial charge of which most of his public life was passed. He was the means of inducing John B. Gough to give up his habits of drinking, to take the pledge and become a useful citizen. The ruling passion was strong in death. Previous to his decease he insisted on being removed from the sanitary establishment where he was seeking a cure, because, when insensible and supposed to be dying, they administered rum to him; and almost his last words were to one whom he had just enlisted in the ranks of temperance, "Be sure to keep the pledge."

☞ Hunt's Merchant's Magazine contains an article on the "Kerosene Oils," advertised in our paper. It speaks of the inexhaustibility of the new material itself, and then considers the products of these oil-burning coals.

The Kerosene Oils are now extensively used by Railroads, Manufacturers, and on many of our Steamships, where from their superiority and economy, they are generally approved.

THE DRUNKARD'S WIFE.—A bill has been introduced into the Senate of New Jersey, which provides that the wife of a drunkard, on proving him such before a Justice of the Peace, may become entitled to hold her own wages and those of her minor children until he reforms.

CASHMERE GOATS IN SOUTH CAROLINA.—A correspondent writing to the Boston Post from Greenville, S. C., says:

I am glad to learn that the Cashmere goat, introduced by J. R. Davis, does well here. The goat is hardy, prolific, and produces a heavy fleece of wool, so fine that the finest French merino is coarse in comparison, and then it is from six to nine inches long.

His son, Scott Davis, has a cargo of Angora Cashmere goats on their way to Gallatin, Tenn., where he intends to establish a colony of these Asiatics.

QUICK DISPATCH.—On Friday last, Mr. Wm. Porter discharged from schooner James Bliss, lying at Mooney's wharf, Newburyport, 250 tons of coal, which is a greater amount than was ever discharged in one day upon the Merrimac.

The eldest son of Robert Burns died lately in Scotland, aged 77.

A MELANCHOLY INCIDENT.—Day before yesterday, two females, inhabitants of some country town, whom the anniversaries probably had allured from their peaceful homes and induced to mingle in the busy scenes of Boston. That two ordinary females should do so, is not at all remarkable, especially since the arrival of spring goods, at the retail dealers' establishments. But these ladies were more than ordinary ladies. They differed from the rest of the fair sex in the one particular, that they wore "bloomers." Yes, when we had fondly hoped that this portion, at least, of the fools, had departed this life, our heart waxed exceedingly sorrowful at seeing that they had not, and that, although the Rev. Antoinette L. Brown had resigned her pastoral charge, and entered into the despised bonds of wedlock, her sex had not resigned the bloomer costume for hoops. These strong-minded women were surrounded by an immense crowd, jeering and hooting. Their stay in the metropolis was cut short. From Park street to the Providence depot, they fled, and behind them the mob, increasing momentarily. Arriving at the station, they would fain have found a refuge in the ladie's room, but it was denied them. The official informed them that no men were admitted there. Thus foiled, they were forced to enter the gentlemen's apartment, and there to await the departure of the train. The shouts of the rabble at this point, became too vociferous for us, and we walked home over the common, musing sadly on the degeneracy of the times.—Boston Courier.

The official of the railroad should have had walking tickets next morning; the writer of the paragraph is probably a very wise man in his own conceit, but his mind is too feeble to distinguish independence from folly; and the crowd of swinish idlers and rowdies who jeered and hooted, would have been better employed in rooting in the ground for a living, as many of their betters do, who walk on four legs instead of two, and wear the bristles on the back instead of the chin.

The difference between bloomers and hoops is a matter of taste and convenience; any woman has the right to choose or reject either or both; but neither should subject the wearers to the shouts of a rabble, in any city that makes the slightest pretensions to decency and order.

THE ROTARY MOVEMENT IN SALEM.—"Rotation" has commenced in the Salem Custom House. Capt. Henry W. Perkins has been "routed" from an Inspectorship into the more lucrative place of Weigher and Gauger, made vacant by the "rotation" of Mr. Pike into the Collectorship. Conner B. Swasey, a young protege of the Collector, has been transferred from a dentist's office to the place of Storekeeper, vacated by the resignation (to save an involuntary rotation out) of Mr. Colby, the able editor of the Newburyport Herald. Thomas P. Kinsley, cooper; Moses D. Randall, teacher of music, and Daniel B. Lord, carpenter, are appointed inspectors, in place of John H. Stone and Nathaniel Millett, rotated out, and H. W. Perkins, rotated up.—Boston Bee.

On this, Mr. Colby, editor of the Newburyport Herald, thus remarks:

By an absence from the State, we first came to a knowledge of the changes in the Salem Custom House, through the public journals, and with one exception, and that is not ours, where a bad man is called to fill a good officer's place, they are such as we should expect from Collector Pike, than whom there is not a better government officer in the State. The rotary principle is a humbug, and nothing can be more ridiculous than its application by such men as Mr. Buchanan and Gen. Cass, who have themselves rotated from place to place, for more than half a century, and now, in old age, hold on to office with a death grasp. They would furnish a good picture for Punch!

We have always held the opinion that no man has the ownership of office, and there are times when one should voluntarily give place to another. We presumed there was no one who could better yield in the Salem Custom House than ourselves, and we so notified the Collector, whom we valued as an old and tried friend, at his installation, and signified our willingness to depart at the earliest date, and we are glad to see that he has carried out his arrangements, and given us a worthy successor in Mr. Swasey, a young man of good character and good abilities. We do not say this because we should consider it disgraceful to make an "involuntary" exit; for once, and within six months of our appointment, we were removed from the same office, for adhering to the coalition against the hunker nominations. Then we had no wish to leave, but wanted the salary—(the office we did not care so much about)—this time it is entirely to our satisfaction, and according to our wishes; and if we do not lose anything by the change, we are pretty certain the public will not.

BURDEN'S
Pressed Boat, Ship, Brad & Countersunk Railroad Spikes
ARE well known in the United States, and are conspicuous for their regularity and finish, their unvarying uniformity of size, and for the excellent quality of iron from which they are made, to which may be attributed their rare strength. They are everywhere considered far superior to the hand made spike of common English iron, and inferior to nothing of the kind yet introduced to the public.

SATURDAY, JUNE 20, 1857.

EXTRAORDINARY PHENOMENON.

Under this heading the Utica, N. Y., Herald, of Monday, gives an account of a a most remarkable phenomenon which made its appearance in that neighborhood on Saturday afternoon. We condense the Herald's statement.

A tunnel-like column of cloudy or nebulous substance was seen on Saturday afternoon, extending from the heavens nearly to the earth, where it seemed to diminish almost to a point, but expanding gradually as it ascended, until the peculiar form was lost in the clouded sky. It passed over the city accompanied by a rushing, buzzing noise, and soon passed from sight, occasioning in the people of Utica only sportive conversation for an hour. Its effects, however, were most wonderful. It first settled to the earth near the residence of Milo Root, in Deerfield, where fences were torn down. Between here and Mr. Nathan Budlong's, in Schuyler, trees and fences were prostrated. At Mr. N. Budlong's, the mysterious agency in an instant scattered a barn to pieces, and tore up several trees on the opposite side of the road; the path of destruction then tended to the southeast, marked by prostrate trees and fences, until it approached the Baptist parsonage house, occupied by Mr. John Warren.

"Mr. W. informs us that he was engaged in his garden at about 4 o'clock, and saw the approach of the cloudy object, as it threw up the trees. As its course pointed in the direction of his own house, he ran to the dwelling, caught two of his older children, and called to his wife to save the other three and herself by following him to the cellar. The husband had descended two or three steps with his charge, and the wife, with the infant and two older children had reached the cellar door, when the house was struck. The whole framework was lifted from the stone foundation; the entire wood work above the first floor was carried some twenty feet, and then dropped in grand perfection of ruin, while the first floor with the sleepers attached, which caught in the foundation, was finally turned roof-like, over the entire mass. Mr. Warren, with two of the children, remained in the cellar enclosure, without injury; Mrs. Warren was found on the ground about ten feet from the cellar door, almost entirely stripped of her clothing, and so severely injured about her neck and body that she died within an hour after the calamity, although entirely conscious; her infant was found near by, and almost entirely free from injury, yet utterly destitute of clothing; a little boy who was following his mother to the cellar, is now lying unconscious, from the wounds he received in the common wreck; his recovery is very doubtful; an older girl escaped without any injury.—The dwelling was two stories, 18x26 feet, and substantially built. In the rear of it was a barn, distant about five rods, 25x32 feet, which was literally shivered into splinters.

Next, it crossed the road and demolished a new barn, 36 by 50 feet, scattering large timbers about the field, and taking up an iron cylinder threshing machine, weighing perhaps four hundred pounds, and depositing it at least eighty feet from the barn. A cow standing near the barn, was killed, without any apparent outward wound. About eighty rods further, a smaller barn was demolished.

Beyond the premises of Mr. B., for about a mile, prostrate trees and fences evidence the track of the destructive messenger. It however seems to have released its hold upon the earth soon after leaving the farm of Mr. B., for it was distinctly seen to rise from the surface and dissolve its conical shape into a general cloudy form. The phenomenon was followed by violent rain and wind. Two men at work in a field saw the strange apparition approach, and took to their heels, barely escaping its track as it passed on. It seemed to rise from the earth in four or five minutes from the time it was first seen, and the evidence before us of destruction, lies in a district not over four or five miles in extent, in a due south-easterly direction from where its first touch was felt, and in a track about 15 rods in width. Whatever of material substance presented itself in this track was swept away, and the ruin presented is certainly fearful to behold.

Had the mysterious body settled upon this city, and passed down Genesee street, there would not at this hour remain a vestige of its present formation. Of what the destructive power was composed, we are not prepared to affirm, but of its force, we can truthfully attest. Huge trees were tossed from their deep-rooted resting places as ready as a gardener would pull a radish from the sandy earth; fences, and even fence posts were scattered in all directions, as if they were chips, and buildings offered no more resistance than a clapboard to a forty horse power engine. The moving mass of ruin is represented by all who saw it, to have been a vapory substance; it was not accompanied by any wind or storm, but it seemed an independent agency, travelling on its own account, at a speed of perhaps a mile a minute. In its motion, there was a constant revolution, and when it was rising, this whirling peculiarity became more terrific and violent.—The peculiar buzzing sound, which was noticed in its passing, by our own citizens, was also remarked by the people along its course, in Deerfield and Schuyler.

STRAWBERRIES.—The Newark (N. J.) Daily Advertiser says:—The crop of strawberries in New Jersey this year has been unusually large. The steamboat Keyport took to New York on Saturday, 938 barrels, each barrel containing about 200 baskets, making 189,600 baskets, which sold on an average for 3¼ cents per basket, making $6,531 for a single trip. One basket contained only three berries, that measured 3¼ inches each in circumference. The season has only just commenced.

☞ A despatch from Toronto, says it is reported that the murderer Townsend, brought over from Cleveland, under the Extradition Treaty, was set at liberty by a mob of his old accomplices, while on his way from Toronto to Cayuga, where he was to be tried.

☞ During a thunder shower at East Hartford and Wethersfield, Conn., on Saturday evening, ice fell for a few minutes, of all shapes, from the size of a chesnut, up. Several pieces were measured and found to be over two inches in length, and one piece of triangular shape measured 3 1-8 inches in length, and 1 7-8 inches in width, and and about ¼ inch thick in the center.

On Tuesday, about noon, the villages of Ince, Hindley, Westhoughton, and the town of Wigan, Eng., were thrown into a state of intense excitement by the occurrence of a fearful explosion at a pit in the township of Ince. Four men were brought up dead. A boy, fifteen years of age, was brought up in an insensible state, and died in a few minutes. Thirteen others were brought up, more or less injured. The cause of the accident is at present unascertained. A collier, whose "place" of work is situated in that part of the mine where the effects of the explosion were most powerful, was absent from his employment under singular circumstances. He had requested a fellow-workman to call him in the morning, and on being so called said he should not go to work that day, for something had come across his mind that he had better not. He therefore remained at home, and by means of this vague presentiment escaped almost certain death.

A FACT FOR TEMPERANCE MEN TO CONSIDER.—While the leaders of the Democracy of New Hampshire, publicly and privately, in their State Convention, and in the highways and byways, are denouncing the prohibitary liquor law passed by the Republicans two years ago, and calling for a "judicious" regulation of the sale of ardent spirits, a man once prominent in their ranks, and the occupant of a responsible office in this county, member of a, learned profession, was the last week carried to the common bridewell of his town as a common drunkard! Will not such facts induce every man, who has the wellfare of his fellow men at heart, to pause—to consider—and to aid in the more strict enforcement of the law which we now have, instead of attempting by ridicule and denunciation to embarrass its operation and to deter others from aiding in its execution?—Dover Enquirer.

SUICIDE.—On Sunday night, a man named Thos. Hobill went to the house of a man named Murray in Charlestown, Mass., near Canal Brewery, on the Neck, to spend the night. Nothing was known of him, after he went to bed, but next morning, he was found in the cellar, with his throat cut frightfully, and dead. Hobill was an intemperate man, and the same person that attempted to cut his throat last winter, in a house on Bunker Hill, and it is supposed he was intoxicated at the time of taking his life.—Adv.

POPULATION OF CALIFORNIA.—A careful estimate based on the latest return of the local assessors, makes the population of California 507,067, of whom 332,380 are Americans, 65,000 Indians, 38,687 Chinese, 15,000 French, 15,000 Mexicans, 10,000 Germans, 10,000 Irish, 2000 English, and 15,000 other foreigners, besides 4000 colored persons.

☞ Thomas, the Grand Juror in the U. S. Court, Boston, who was convicted in the Municipal, of uttering a forged note, is said to be the keeper of a north end groggery. A motion in arrest of judgment, in his case, was overruled,—and another Thomas, a brother of his, in another case, held in $500 bonds, on a charge of perjury. Noble pair of brothers.

The Portsmouth Chronicle, the other day, undertook to ridicule the idea that any class of liquor sellers would unite in the conviction of others. The result at our last Court, where two liquor sellers were on the jury, uniting with their fellow jurymen in sending 'grog sellers' to the County House, proved that the Chronicle was mistaken, and the statement we made on that matter, correct. We wish the Chronicle would notice the fact, for it is universally true, that the more respectable class of liquor dealers are very severe upon tippling shops, for those shops disgrace the business they themselves follow.—Newburyport Herald.

What we did say, touching this particular point, was,

"The rumsellers will help no work which does not tend to make their trade lucrative and 'respectable.'"

If the action of the two men on the jury, as noted in the Herald, is any contradiction of our statement,—then we stand contradicted, or corrected. We don't see that it does. It is highly creditable to them, however, that, being lawbreakers themselves, they did not also commit perjury, by sitting on a jury, and refusing to bring in a verdict according to law and evidence.

☞ The New York State Temperance Society, is holding a semi-annual meeting at Albany. E. C. Delavan, the President, read an address on Tuesday. He regretted the passage of the Excise Bill, because it bound down the people to liquor taxation, for one year at least, and sanctioned and licensed crime which no true temperance man could do. He however advises no action of the Society, as such, in relation to it, leaving to each temperance man to pursue the course he deems best. He recommended the entire disconnection of the Society from party politics, and concluded by saying that the Society is in debt $6000, and if they will not pay it, he will. The address was adopted. Mr. Delavan was then re-elected President, receiving all the votes except that of Prof. McCoy and one other.

In the afternoon, resolutions were reported by the Business Committee, and Horace Greeley offered substitutes. Mr. Greeley's resolutions were denounced by Mr. John N. Wilder, as implying that the liquor traffic might be made safe and respectable.

ESCAPE OF PAROT, THE FRENCH RAILROAD REFUGEE.—On Wednesday, Capt. Rynders, U. S. Marshal, in New York, surrendered Parot to deputy jailor Harnard, who claimed to hold a civil process against him.—Messrs. Townsend and Galbraith, Parot's counsel, denied that the jailor had any right to detain him as a prisoner, and advised Parot to escape; and in order that he might do so they laid hold of the jailor, and held him while Parot made a lively usely of his legs. Up to Wednesday night, the jailor had not been able to find him.—So the follower of Schuyler and Tuckerman is not to be punished, after all.

FEMALE CONVICT CAUGHT.—W. W. Eastman, Esq., Warden of the New Hampshire State Prison, arrested a female named Margaret Torrence, in Lowell, on Tuesday, who escaped from that institution on the the 24th of November last. She was sent to the State Prison two years ago, on a charge of stealing a horse and wagon from the neighborhood of Amherst. Twenty-five months of her term are unexpired. She formerly lived in Lowell, and has been there for some time past, stopping at Tom Heathwood's. It is said that she was assisted away from the State Prison, and that her accomplice was lately killed on the Concord railroad.

☞ E. Ward Wilder, landlord of the Railroad House, was brought before the Cambridge Police Court, on Thursday morning, charged with being a common seller. After due examination, Justice Ladd ordered the respondent to recognize in the sum of $200 to appear before the Court of Common Pleas, on the 4th Monday in June current.

Frederick Thomas, a witness in behalf of the defence, was also ordered to give bonds in the sum of $500 to answer to a charge of perjury.

It appears by the census of Ireland that the old Irish language is going out of use. Less than one-fourth of the people can speak it.

Spiritual Meetings.

MRS. C. P. RICKER the eloquent TRANCE SPEAKING MEDIUM will Lecture on SUNDAY, June 21st, at ACADEMY HALL,
in the afternoon, and at the TEMPLE in the evening.
MR. GLEASON will also lecture in the morning at ACADEMY HALL.
These meetings will all be free, and we earnestly solicit the attendance of all interested. Mrs. Ricker is a truly eloquent speaker, and her power the more remarkable, as she is a young and delicate woman. But in the trance state the woman is lost in the orator, and glowing sentences and burning thoughts, beautiful with a higher inspiration, fall from her lips.
The above meetings will be held at the usual hours.
Per order of the Committee.

LOCAL.

☞ In Board of Aldermen, on Thursday evening, June 18, no business of particular public importance was transacted, except to grant leave to withdraw to the petitioners for the discontinuance of Frenchman's Lane.

No quorum in Common Council.

☞ As "circumstances" don't seem to "favor" that great horseback ride, for this evening, it is deemed advisable to wait till next week. Should the earth and the skies be propitious, for the occasion, and the comet don't sweep us off before that time, the Cavalcade will form on Monday evening at 6 o'clock, in Haymarket Square. A general invitation is extended to all equestrians.

"Having Eyes," it is very sad to "see not;" and it is especially desirable that those who have good eyes should know how to preserve them, and that those having defective organs of vision, or injured eyes, once good,—should apply themselves to learn the most efficient means to aid or restore their sight.

Prof. Franks, from New York, the celebrated Optican and Lecturer on the Eye, and inventor of the double vision Spectacles, is on a tour through the Eastern States, and is spending a few days at the City Hotel, Portsmouth. This affords an opportunity to purchase a pair of his spectacles, and for having them adjusted to the eye by the Professor himself. He comes with undoubted references,—a Diploma of Optical Professor to the New York Hospital for discuses of the Eye, and Spectacle maker to the New York Eye and Ear Infirmary: and numerous testimonials from the first medical men in the country. In accordance with an invitation from several of our citizens, to deliver a public Lecture on the Eye, and the use of Spectacles, &c., Professor Franks will deliver an address on these interesting subjects, at the Temple, on Monday evening next. As the Lecture is free, the house ought to be full—indeed, we doubt not that many a single hearer may derive benefit therefrom, which he would not exchange for more than the whole expense of the entertainment. The eye is a fearfully delicate organ, and not generally understood. Let us learn what we can of it, when there is so good a chance.

NEW HAMPSHIRE LEGISLATURE.

On Thursday, in the Senate, the following bills were read a third time and passed:

An act relating to clerks of courts in this State.

An act to incorporate the Ashuelot Manufacturing Co.

An act to amend the act to establish the city of Portsmouth.

Mr. Sawyer, from the Committee on the Judiciary, reported the indefinite postponement of the bill from the House entitled an "Act to amend the act to remodel the Judiciary, and for other purposes." Adopted.

In the House, a debate arose on an amendment to the bill rendering parties in civil suits competent to testify. The amendment, which was proposed by Mr. Bryant of Concord, proposed to render the principle applicable to suits now in process of trial: Messrs. Bryant and Lord of Manchester, speaking in its support, and Messrs. Bellows of Concord, and Stevens of Nashua, opposing it. In the afternoon the discussion was resumed, Mr. Bryant's amendment rejected, and the whole subject laid on the table.

A report was made from the Committee on the Judiciary, that the further consideration of the subject repealing all laws establishing a board of bank commissioners, &c., be indefinitely postponed.

The bill entitled "An act relating to divorce," was refused a passage.

Mr. Cilley of South Newmarket introduced can address for the removal of Ira St. Clair from the office of Judge of Probate for Rockingham county.

On the question—"Shall the address pass?" the yeas and nays were demanded, and resulted as follows: yeas, 153; nays, 112;—so the Address was adopted.

The Coroner's Jury, in the abortion case in Newburyport, have returned a verdict that the death was occasioned by persons known to them as Dr. L. Dix of Boston, and F. W. Ricketson of Newburyport.

Not Infallible.—Ex-Attorney General Cushing's decision against the validity of the purchase of the Exchange property in the city of Baltimore for a Post Office, has been reversed.

An Alabamian, a few days since, went out to see the depot of the Mobile and Ohio railroad. Near the depot were several Irish draymen. This king to quiz them, he shouted to one, "Has the railroad got in?" "One ind has, sir," was the prompt response.

Police Troubles.—New York, June 18.—Our city remained quiet until sundown. All the special Metropolitan police are discharged, and many of the Mayor's police withdrawn from the City Hall.

The Governor returned to Albany this afternoon.

Judge Russell closed the proceedings in the habeas corpus by discharging the Mayor from arrest.

The Grand Jury has under consideration the complaints against the Mayor and Judge Russell.

The Governor has ordered the calling of a special term of Oyer and Terminer in July, for the trial of the Mayor.

Mr. Crofut, one of the Metropolitan police beaton on Tuesday, died to-day.

Freshet.— Corning, New York, June 18.—The village of Corning is flooded.—The principal bridge and walks have been torn away, and the destruction of property is immense. The work-houses have been washed away.

Accidental Salute.—Providence, June 18.—Charles Lincoln, of the Marine Artillery, had his hand blown off, while engaged in firing a salute in honor of the New York Regiment, as it passed through this city this evening.

A gentleman from Utah, well acquainted with matters there, says that the American Mormons will, as soon as they are assured of government protection, revolt from the tyranny of Brigham Young, and co-operate with the territorial authorities in an effort to suppress Mormon abuses.

The Secret Discovered at Last.—We have noticed in passing through. Market street, lately, that the New Store, No. 15, always seems crowded with customers. We have at last discovered the secret of it. On stepping inside, we find that the proprietors, Messrs. Allen & Paine, in fitting up their store in the beautiful manner they have, had an eye for the useful, as well as for the ornamental; we noticed that their store appeared very light and cheerful, and on looking for a solution of the mystery, we discover that the store contains a Sky Light, giving them facilities for showing their Goods possessed by no other Dry Goods store in town: as Customers by such a light, have no difficulty in seeing exactly what they are purchasing, and can not be deceived in the color or quality of goods. We notice, also, that their stock is always composed of the best qualities and very latest styles, which is explained by the fact that one of the firm visits the market to replenish their goods every ten days, and as they buy for Cash, altogether, they are able to offer their goods at as low prices as any other parties.

Those about to purchase Dry Goods will do well to visit them. Read their advertisement in another column.

Also, Kennedy's Medical Discovery, price 68 cents per bottle.

DOES ANY OF OUR HIGH LIVERS ever eat too much dinner? If any of our readers have cooks who tempt their appetite a little too far, I will tell a secret that will lead them to the enjoyment of their dinners, without a visit from that gouty old gentleman, Dyspepsia. Take a dose of Dr. Sanford's Invigorator after eating, and you will never be troubled with indigestion; but on the contrary, before the next meal time approaches, the appetite will be sharpened to appreciate any kind of food. If the food rises or sours, the Invigorator will fix the matter right in one, or two days. If it does not, I ask you to use the expression of a friend, will let a man eat gravel stones, and take the Invigorator and they will digest. We have tried it in double doses, on one or two occasions, for sick headache, and it acts like a charm.

What we want to say to our readers, young or old, is, if anything ails you, go without delay and get a bottle of Dr. Sanford's Invigorator, and if it don't cure, come and tell us, for we want to see one person that it will not benefit.

TO THE CITIZENS OF THE UNITED STATES.
CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.

After several years experimenting in the manufacturing of Gin, I fortunately succeeded, in the year 1848, in making a discovery in its manufacture by which it was deprived of all acrid and inflammatory properties, and rendered perfectly pure.

My manufactory is at Scheidam, Holland. After several months' reflection what title to give it, I introduced it to the American public under the name of "Wolfe's Scheidam Aromatic Schnapps." Scheidam is the name of the place in Holland where the Gin is manufactured. Aromatic derives its name from the Italian Juniper Berry with which it is flavored, and the word "Schnapps" is the German for drink—Cogne, Dram—Wolfe's Scheidam Aromatic Drink. No sooner had my Schnapps been introduced to the American public and received with approbation, than the Liquor Mixers of New York, Boston and Philadelphia, started in pursuit with their mixed and poisonous stuff under various names: Scheidam Gin, Scheidam Schnapps, London Club House Gin, London Cordial Gin, &c., and in several cases my labels have been so perfectly imitated, with only the addition of a few letters to plead a technical avoidance of the law, and so carefully prepared as to impose on careless purchasers. I understand a large quantity has been purchased by the merchants of the Eastern States on account of the cheapness of the articles. A merchant who participates indirectly in the fraud by selling the spurious articles, is as much an offender as the principal who planned the imposition.

I hope every respectable citizen who values the health of the community in which he lives will aid me in ferreting out and exposing the unscrupulous merchant, who, for the sake of a few cents, will put in jeopardy the lives of the community in which he lives. Such men should be nailed to the pillory of popular execration.

Wolfe's Scheidam Aromatic Schnapps is made from barley of the first quality, selected with great care from the products of the two celebrated grain-growing districts, is flavored with the essence of the aromatic Juniper Berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process, which expels from the spirit every acrid particle.

As a means of preventing and correcting the disagreeable and often dangerous effects produced upon the stomach and bowels by a change of water—a visitation to which travelers and settlers, and all unacclimated persons in the West, the South and South-West are peculiarly liable—the Scheidam Aromatic Schnapps will be found absolutely infallible; while, in cases of dropsy, gravel, obstructions of the kidneys, diseases of the bladder, dyspepsia, and general debility, it is recommended most emphatically by the most distinguished members of the medical profession

It is put up in quart and pint bottles, in cases of one dozen, with the name of the undersigned on the bottle and cork, and a fac-simile of his signature and label.

For sale by all respectable druggists and country merchants. UDOLPHO WOLFE.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN

Is shown by the Records of the Custom House to be the only London Cordial Gin IMPORTED and sold in bottles; all others are made here in imitation of it.

It is a delicious tonic beverage, and by its peculiar flavor is different from other gins; is universally esteemed by all who use it. It is adopted with great success in cases of Dyspepsia, Gout, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Gravel, Colic, Cholera, Fever and Ague, Stricture, Diseases of the Urinary Organs, Epilepsy, Female Irregularities.

Dr. Valentine Mott of New York, in a letter to the proprietor, says:

Charles' London Cordial Gin, is the purest, best, and most reliable Extract of Juniper I have seen.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN is sold by all Druggists and Grocers in the United States, and so also are numerous poisons called "London Cordial Gin"—to avoid them buy only "CHARLES'." Reject any other offered to you as you value your health. Price one dollar for quarts, fifty cents for pints.

HOUSE LOTS AT AUCTION.
A grand chance to lay the foundation for a home.
WILL be sold at Public Auction on the premises, in Portsmouth,
On SATURDAY Afternoon, June 27th, at 3 o'clock,
TEN HOUSE LOTS!
Consisting in the aggregate of about 90,000 square feet of Land, which is bounded on the south by Islington street, on the east by Creek street, on the west by land of Free M. Ball, bordering on Frenchman's Lane, and on the north by a new street, being the land now owned by Kittredge Sheldon.
This is in every respect the most eligible and desirable position for House Lots now in the market. It is about 10 minutes' walk from Market Square, in a direct line through the pleasantest and best street in the city, with a good sidewalk the entire distance, and combining in an unusual degree the advantages of rural and city life. The land is dry, the grounds are shaded with tall and graceful elms, forming the most picturesque landscape to be found in this vicinity. The lots vary in size from 5000 to 12000 feet; the smallest affording ample garden, as well as building room.
An accurate plan of the Lots may be seen at H. F. Wendell's Store, No. 70 State street, and further particulars may be obtained of the subscriber. KITTREDGE SHELDON.

IMPORTANT NEW INVENTION

PATENT DOUBLE VISION SPECTACLES.
EDWARD S. FRANKS, PROF. OF OPTICS,
No. 2 York Row, opposite the Astor House, New York.
SPECTACLE MANUFACTURER,
Lecturer on the Anatomy and Physiology of the Human Eye, and Use and Abuse of Spectacles.
Optician by Diploma to the N. Y. Eye Hospital, And Spectacle-Maker to the New York Eye and Ear Infirmary.

Has much pleasure in announcing that he has secured letters patent, granted by the United States Patent Office, for very valuable improvements in Spectacle Glasses.

He has a complete assortment of his improved patent spectacles, in gold, silver, steel, and all other mountings. It will be understood that Prof. Franks, being the patentee, his spectacles can be obtained only from himself; as he has no other person authorized to manufacture or sell the same, unless specially licensed to do so by him.

The advantages of these Spectacles over all others, are

1st. The only true lens known, being perfectly centered so as the focus of each surface shall be opposite each other, which renders them nearly free from chromatic light, so injurious to vision, a lamentable deficiency in all the old kind of spectacle glasses, and makes the change of spectacles to glasses of stronger powers, so often required

2d. Can be worn with perfect ease for any length of time at one sitting, giving astonishing clearness of vision, particularly by candle or artificial light,—comforts to the spectacle-wearer hitherto unknown;

3d. Change of spectacles to glasses of stronger magnifying power, in most cases never required, should the effect arise from age, disease, or premature decay,—thus securing to the patient good sight during life.

4th. When the eyes pain or ache, from the action of bright light, such as is reflected from snow sunny weather, white paper, and in reading, writing or sewing on vivid colored bodies; these lenses by softening the rays, effect the most agreeable sensation, and a perfect cure.

5th. In all cases, nervous affections of the eye, causing dull or startling pains in the eyeballs or temples, appearances of luminous or dark spots in the atmosphere, itching, or feelings like sand in the eye, the disturbed nerves are quieted, soothed, composed, and entirely restored.

6th. Ground by peculiar machinery got up at a great cost, mathematically calculated previously for the manufacture of this lens, so as to produce it with true spherical accuracy, and its focus at the exact centre,—a point of vital importance, and which no other lens possesses.

7th. Proof of superiority over the old kind of spectacles: They are exclusively used at all the Hospitals for diseases of the eye in New York, and have received the following unqualified

Many years of popular practice and study in the hospitals of New York, and London (in England), of adjusting spectacles to patients, under every aspect of defective vision, as well as experience in an extensive long established business at his optical stores, both here and in Europe, Professor Franks considers it a sufficient guarantee of his ability, to apply such glasses as are best calculated for the assistance or recovery of imperfect sight.

SIGHTLY PERSONAL.—The following correspondence between Gov. Giles of Virginia and Patrick Henry—a generation ago—is reproduced by the Louisville Journal:

"SIR:—I understand that you have called me a 'bobtail' politician. I wish to know if it be true, and if true, your meaning. WM. B. GILES."

"SIR:—I do not recollect having called you a bobtail politician at any time, but think it probable I have. Not recollecting the time or the occasion, I can't say what I did mean; but if you will tell me what you think I meant, I will say whether you are correct or not. Very respectfully, PATRICK HENRY."

A GLASS OF BRANDY—Can't hurt anybody! Why, I know a person, yonder, he is now on high change, a specimen of manly beauty, a portly six-footer. He has the bearing of a prince, for he is one of our merchant princes. His face wears the hue of health, and now at the age of fifty odd, he has the quick, elastic step of our young men of twenty-five, and none more full of mirth and wit than he, and I know he never dines without brandy and water, and never goes to bed without a terrapin or oyster supper, with plenty of champagne, and more than that, he was never known to be drunk. So here is a living examplar and disproof of the temperance twaddle about the dangerous nature of an occasional glass, and the destructive effect of a temperate use of good liquors.

Now it so happened that this specimen of safe brandy-drinking, was a relation of ours. He died in a year or two after that of chronic diarrhœa, a common end of those who are never drunk, nor ever out of liquor. He left his six children; and he had ships at every sea and credit at every counter, which he never had occasion to use.

For months before he died—he was a year in dying—he could eat or drink nothing without distress, and at death, the whole alimentary canal was a mass of disease; in the midst of his millions, he died of insanition. That is not the half, reader. He had been a steady drinker, a daily drinker for twenty-eight years. He left a legacy to his children, which we did not mention.—Scrofula had eaten up one daughter for fifteen years; another in the mad-house; the third and fourth of unearthly beauty, there was a kind of grandeur in that beauty, but they blighted, and paled and faded into heaven, we trust, in their sweetest teens; another is tottering on the verge of the grave, and only one is left with all the senses, and each of them is weak as water. Why, we came from the dissecting room, and made a note of it, it was so horrible.—Hall's Journal of Health.

TEMPERANCE LEVEE.—The Temperance Association, composed of foreign residents of Newburyport, held its first anniversary Levee at Temperance Hall, Hale's Court, on Monday evening. This association commenced with ten persons, and has steadily grown through the year, till it now numbers 143, and is having a beneficial influence within its sphere of action. The report of its treasurer showed its receipts have been $124, and its expenses $113.

On Monday evening, the Company consisted of some two hundred ladies and gentlemen, who were enjoying themselves in a social, chit-chat manner, and in the most orderly, yet free and easy ways. The ladies were mostly dressed in white, and neatly decked with flowers.

The ball was properly prepared for the occasion. Over the rostrum were the "stars and stripes," and the name of the society; and on the right was the Irish flag, and upon the walls were appropriate mottoes, the whole presenting a very pleasing appearance.

The programe of proceedings covered addresses, which displayed much talent and eloquence, singing which was very fine, and dancing which was extremely enticing. It was a meeting for rational enjoyment, and we hope it may be repeated in many years to come.—Herald.

MODERN.—The New York Day Book discourses in the following eminently "Christian" vein upon the recent announcement that David Hunt of Mississippi has given $50,000 to the American Colonization Society:

"What wonderful, what world-wide, what incomprehensible delusion! Fifty thousand dollars are given, and for what? for stealing for benefiting, for improving negroes? Alas! no, but for sending them back to Africa to relapse again into their primitive barbarism, while at this very time the civilized world is actually suffering for increased supplies of cotton, sugar, coffee and all the tropical productions, which are only to be had through the labor of these negroes. Sugar and coffee are actually becoming so high as to be almost beyond the reach of the poorer classes, and yet a mistaken philanthropy is making these articles dearer and dearer, until like satins and ermines, they can only be procured by the wealthiest classes; and worst of all, it is transforming happy, Christanized, producing negroes into savage, non-producing barbarians. Verily, has honest delusion ever made a more pitiful, exibition of itself since Europe was whitewashed with the bones of the Crusaders?"

In a German tale, published some time since, is a description of "The First Kiss" in the following sensation style: "Am I really dear to you, Sophia? I whispered, and pressed my burning lips to her rosy mouth. She did not say yes; she did not say no; but she returned my kiss, and the earth went from under my feet; my soul was no longer in the body; I touched the stars; I knew the happiness of the seraphim!"

There are ten companies of colored firemen in Savannah, numbering in all between seven and eight hundred men.

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. Fraser & Co are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they were present at the drawing. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Ternary combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100 '00. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

☞ The drawn numbers of the Maryland Lotteries are published by the State Commissioner in the following papers, viz: Sun, Clipper, Patriot, American, Argus, of Baltimore; also, the National Intelligencer and Union, of Washington, D.C.

Address R. T. H. FRASER & CO.,

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan are authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received before 12 M. being filled the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2 50; eighths, $1 25. No tickets will be sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There are no combinations of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $60 to $50,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to SWAN & CO., Atlanta, Georgia.

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

All communications strictly confidential. m13 1y

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY.

DR. CHEESEMAN'S PILLS FOR FEMALES.

Prepared by an old Physician of 40 years experience

THE combination of ingredients in these Pills, is the result of a long and extensive practice; they are mild in their operation, and certain to restoring nature to its proper channel. In every instance have the Pills proved successful. They are certain to open those obstructions to which females are liable, and bring on the menses in proper channel, whereby health is restored, and the pale and deathly countenance changed to a healthy one. No female can enjoy good health unless she is regular; and whenever an obstruction takes place, whether from exposure, cold, or any other cause, the general health immediately begins to suffer. The use of one box of such a remedy has been the cause of so many consumptions among young females. Headache, pain in the side, palpitation of the heart, loathing of food, and distinct weakness of the whole frame, from the interruption of nature: and whenever that is the case, the Pills will invariably remedy all these evils. In all cases of painful menstruation, or nervous and spinal affections in the back and limbs, lowness of spirits, hysterics, &c. Nor are they less efficacious in the cure of Leucorrhœa, commonly called the "Whites." These Pills should never be taken during pregnancy, as they would be sure to cause a miscarriage. Warranted purely Vegetable, and free from anything injurious to life or health. Full and explicit directions which should be read, accompany each box.

These Pills are put up in square, flat boxes.—Persons residing where there are no Agencies established, can remit One Dollar in a letter, prepaid, to Dr. C. L. CHEESEMAN, Box No. 4,681, Post Office, New York City, can have them sent to their respective addresses by return of mail.

Manny's Celebrated Mower

—AND—

MOWER AND REAPER.

IMPROVED.

Built expressly for the New England States.

THE MANNY MOWER has been extensively used for the past two years in New England, and more than six years at the West.—Its success is beyond that of any other Mower or Reaper ever constructed. Over 150 1st Premiums have been awarded it, including the Grand 1st class Silver Medal at the WORLD'S FAIR, PARIS, 1856.

With the two past years' experience, we have been enabled to make a number of very important improvements. We find New England farmers require a different Machine from other sections;—the fields generally being small. It must be light, at the same time possess great strength; portable, with facilities to raise the cutters to pass obstructions, and to remove from field to field. A perfect cutting apparatus, to cut the fine grasses without clogging, and so constructed as to stay in the grass without backing, easily adjusted to cut high or low, and have a Reel to cut equally well with or against the wind, and to be worked with ease by a light team, and so easily managed and simple that any one of common ability may operate it successfully, and to be built in the most thorough manner.

With this knowledge of the farmers' requirements, and with the determination to build a better Machine than has ever before been constructed in this country, we offer the Manny Mower of 1857 with confidence, as combining the qualities enumerated above, and as one particularly adapted to meet the wants of New England farmers.

☞ We invite the farmers to call and examine Machines. Orders should be sent early. Circulars, with testimonials, forwarded FREE, on application.

Price of Mower, $110; with Reaper attachment, $15 Extra. Delivered on board the cars at Worcester, Mass. JOHN F. ADKINSON & Co., Manufacturers.

One of the above Machines can be seen at the store of Messrs. GOODWIN & CO., Portsmouth.

S. D. & H. W. Smith,

—MANUFACTURERS OF—

Melodeons, Organ Melodeons,

—and—

PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,

No. 511 Washington Street, Boston.

The first premium over all competitors, at the Fair of the Mass. Charitable Mechanic Association, of the National Fair, Washington, D. C., also at the Ohio State Fair, held at Columbus, Ohio, was awarded to these Manufacturers.

By means of a new method of Voicing, known only to themselves, they have succeeded in removing the harsh and buzzing sound which formerly characterized the instrument, and rendering the tones full, clear and organ like. The action is prompt and reliable, enabling the performer to execute the most rapid music without blurring the tones. The swell is arranged to give great expression.

THE PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,

Are designed particularly for Churches, Lodges, Halls, &c. It is arranged with two manuals, or banks of Keys, the lower set running an octave higher than the other, and may be used separately, and thus get in one case two distinct instruments; or by use of the coupler, the two banks of keys may be played at the same time by use of the front set only. This connected with the Pedal Bass, will produce the effect of a large organ, and is sufficiently heavy to fill a house that seats from 1000 to 1500 persons.

THE ORGAN MELODEON

Is designed for parlor and private use. The construction is similar to the Church Instrument, being arranged with two banks of Keys, and when used together, by means of the coupler, is capable of as great volume of power as the Church Instrument when used without the pedals. Also, every variety of MELODEONS for Parlor use.

Purchasers may rely upon instruments from our Manufactory, being made in the most complete and thorough manner. Having removed to the spacious Building

511 Washington Street,

We have every facility for manufacturing purposes, and employ none but the most experienced and skilful workmen. In short, we will promise our customers an instrument equal, if not superior, to any Manufacturer, and guarantee an entire and perfect satisfaction.

Music Teachers, Leaders of Choirs, and others interested in musical matters, are respectfully invited to visit our Rooms at any time and examine or test the instruments on exhibition for sale at their pleasure.

As a still further guarantee to the public as to the excellence of the MELODEONS from our Manufactory, we beg leave to refer, by permission, to the following

Piano Forte Manufacturers of Boston,

who have examined our Instruments, and will give their opinion when called upon:

Chickering & Sons, Hallett & Cumston,
T. Gilbert & Co., W. P. Emerson,
Brown & Allen, A. W. Ladd & Co.,
George Hewes, Woodward & Brown,
Newhall & Co.

MELODEONS RENTED.

Persons who wish to hire Melodeons with a view of purchasing at the end of the year, can have their rent credited in the payment of the purchase money. This matter is worthy of special note, as it enables those who desire a fair test of the instruments before purchasing, to obtain it at the expense of the manufacturers, to the extent at least of a year's rent.

Orders from any part of the country or world, sent direct to the manufactory in Boston, with cash, or satisfactory reference, will be promptly attended to, and as faithfully executed as if the parties were present, or employed an agent to select, and on as reasonable terms.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,

(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1836.)

No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston,

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he knows of no sufficient reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practical experience gained during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of law and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved to inventors.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business as the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and assiduousness. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,

Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,

Commissioner of Patents.

THE BEST

Planing, Tonguing & Grooving Machine

IN THE WORLD.

PATENTED Nov. 21, 1854, and Nov. 13, 1855.—These Patents were obtained for improvements upon the celebrated Woodworth Planing Machine, the Patent for which expired, Dec. 26th, 1856. By the combination of these several inventions, a machine is produced of unrivalled excellence.

A GOOD MEDAL for the invention was awarded by the Mass. Char. Mech. Asso., at their exhibition of 1856.

Machines of all kinds and sizes, from $150 to $2000.

ALL MACHINES WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction, and to be superior to any other machines now in use.

ARE well known in the United States, and are a conspicuous for their regularity and finish, their unvaying uniformity of size, and for the excellent quality of iron from which they are made, to which may be attributed their rare strength. DIVISIONS.—We have already alluded in our columns to the split in the great Presbyterian denomination. Divided twenty-five years ago into old school and new school, the former Calvinistic, the latter Arminian in its theology, the new school is again divided on the subject of slavery, the southern members of the body withdrawing.—Boston Courier.

The new school Presbyterians will not thank the Courier for calling them Arminians, as that term implies doctrines which they expressly disclaim.

THE BARQUE HOUQUA, Captain Cartwright, which sailed from New York on the 27th ult. for Hong Kong, was, says the Commercial, the first vessel that has gone out from that port without paying the customary advance wages. She took out all told 18 men, every one of whom returning in the ship will receive a bonus of 10 per cent. upon the wages due him at the end of the voyage. Comfortable clothing, equal to a suit for each man was put on board. The men were of a respectable character and all went sober and well provided.

☞ The Essex County, Mass. Court of C. P. is adjourned to this day, June 22, at Newburyport: an attempt will be made to clear the docket, upon which there is an unusual amount of business, consequent on the enforcement of the liquor law. There were a dozen cases tried before this court and a conviction in nearly every case, and eight of the convicts are already at work in the House of Correction. We believe all these convicts were keepers of tippling shops, which the people of that place deem to be a mere nuisance; and therefore the police have set the law in motion so far as to diminish their number, and perhaps may go far enough to break up most of them.

MUNICIPAL COURT, BOSTON.—George Tolliver, who has often been a practiciener on the wrong side of the bar in this and other courts, was brought up for sentence for an assault with a club on a person named Wood, who was his rival in business in Chelsea. Four months in the House of Correction. Tolliver has kept a groggery for years, and is a well known scoundrel.

Burrill L. Towner was arraigned on an indictment for enticing and inveigling a young woman from the country, named Atalanta Gibson, into a house of ill-fame, and he was held for trial in $1000 bail.

THE SOL. NORTHROP KIDNAPPERS.—A nolle prosequi has been entered in the New York Courts against the alleged kidnappers of Solomon Northrop, the negro whose narrative has been published and pretty extensively sold.

A Saratoga paper states that since the indictment was found, the District Attorney was placed in possession of facts that, while proving their guilt in a measure, would prevent a conviction; or to speak more plainly, it is more than suspected that Northrop was an accomplice in the sale, calculating to slip away and share the spoils, but that the purchaser was too sharp for him, and instead of getting the cash, Northrop got something else.

☞ We have received from T. B. Peterson, of Philadelphia, a copy of Little Dorritt, complete in one volume,—which has been favorably noticed in our columns.

All readers sympathise heartily with Little Dorrit in her patient endurance and unfaltering love for all who leaned upon her for aid; and they must heartily rejoice, when, at the altar of St. George's Church, she writes her name as the happy bride of Arthur. Mr. Peterson has now ready eighteen different editions of "Little Dorritt," all of which have been published simultaneous with the completion of the story in England, at an expense of Two Thousand Dollars for the privilege of having the sheets as they appeared in England, sent to him in advance of all others in this country. Enterprise of this kind is every way creditable, and we trust the enterprising publisher will be repaid for his outlay by a generous purchase of this, the best work, ever written by the immortal "BOZ." Price of the complete work, Fifty cents only.

WON'T PAY THEM.—The U. S. authorities have refused to pay some 150 persons, employed in the Gaines slave case at Cincinnati, a year or more ago. The President gives it as his opinion that, being officers of the law, they are bound to assist when called upon. We hardly think they will coincide with this opinion, or be over fast in volunteering in like cases hereafter.

☞ Daniel Clark, Esq., the newly elected Senator from this State, is 48 years of age, and a native of Stratham.

NEW HAMPSHIRE LEGISLATURE.

FRIDAY, June 19.

SENATE.—Bills read a third time and passed.—An act to amend chapter 1828 of the Pamphlet Laws, passed June 12, 1856.

An act for the preservation of deer.

An act to alter the names of certain persons.

An act authorizing the town of Mason to elect Trustees to the Boynton Common School Fund.

Mr. Marcy moved that the Senate adjourn to Monday next, at four o'clock in the afternoon. Adopted.

HOUSE.—From the Judiciary Committee, Mr. W. C. Patten reported that it is inexpedient to legislate farther in regard to the sale of poisons; also that the bill entitled "An act in relation to promissory notes and bills of exchange" be indefinitely postponed. Both reports were adopted.

Mr. H. A Bellows, from the same committee, reported that the bill entitled "An act in relation to days of grace" be postponed until the next session, and that the petitioners on said subject, have leave to withdraw. Adopted.

Mr. G. S. Towle from the same committee, to whom was referred so much of the Governor's message as concerned the propriety of requiring a longer residence in this country, before admitting emigrant strangers, to a voice in the direction of public affairs; also in relation to the propriety of adopting a provision requiring every citizen to be able to read the English language before being admitted to the right of suffrage, reported the following resolution:

Resolved, That it is inexpedient to legislate on the subject.

Mr. A. S. Scott, from the same committee, reported the act relative to chap. 82, Compiled Statutes, with an amendment, providing that the School Commissioners, referred to in the act, shall not appropriate money for their own compensation. The amendment was adopted, and the bill ordered to a third reading.

Mr. J. C. Varney, from the committee on House of Reformation, to whom was referred the Report of the Commissioner of that institution, reported a bill. The bill appropriates $15,000 to the completion and furnishing of the institution. Ordered to a second reading.

Mr. J. H. Ela from the committee on retrenchment and Reform, reported the bill relative to the new duties of the Office of Deputy Secretary of State, with an amendment; also a bill in relation to the returns of votes. The amendment was adopted, and the first bill ordered to a third reading, the other read and ordered to a second reading.

The Committee on Retrenchment and Reform report that they find the compensation of the chief officers of the State was fixed at a time when the expenses of living were much less than at the present time, and present no cases for reduction. They also find the prices of work to have been fixed at a time when the cost of performing it was much less than at present.

The Committee find that about two-fifths of all the State tax raised is required to pay the expenses of the House of Representatives, and are of opinion that an amendment of the Constitution, which would reduce the House to one hundred and fifty members, would result in an efficient retrenchment of the public expenditures, and also prevent a large expenditure for the enlargement of the House.

Resolved, That the Committee on Printers' Accounts be instructed to inquire whether the Journals of the Senate and House may not be reduced in size, to their manifest improvement, and whether any legislation is necessary to effect that object.

Resolved, That the Committee on Education be instructed to inquire whether that portion of the Report of the Board of Education, comprising extracts from the reports of Town Superintendents, may not be dispensed with.

The report was accepted and the resolutions passed.

By Mr. Gilmore of Newmarket—an address for the removal of John H. White from the office of Justice of the Police Court, city of Dover.

The yeas and nays were ordered on the question of the passage of the address and resulted—yeas, 148; nays, 119.

By Mr. Hayes of Milton—An address for the removal of John H. White from the office of Register of Probate, in the county of Strafford.

On the passage of the address the yeas and nays were demanded, and the address passed—yeas, 149; nays, 122.

Bills read a third time and passed.—An act allowing the town of Somersworth further time to accept a city charter.

An act relating to the return of votes.

An act altering the names of certain persons.

An act prescribing the duties of bank cashiers.

An act to attach new duties to Deputy Secretary of State.

An act in amendment of the charter of the Portsmouth South Parish Sabbath School.

Notices of bills.—By Mr. Brown of Portsmouth—an act to authorise cities and towns to set out shade trees.

THE ACCIDENT AT ROCHESTER.—A correspondent gives us full particulars of the accident by which two young women lost their lives at 'Gonic Village, Rochester, N. H., on the evening of the 15th of June.

Three girls employed in the woolen manufactory of the Hon. N. V. Whitehouse, in 'Gonic Village; by name Ruth Gove, (whose parents reside in Pittsfield—age 28 years) Mary Ann Foss and her cousin Maria Foss, (both of Barrington—the first 22 and the latter 18 years of age). After finishing their day's work, and wishing to go to the Plains, some 2 1-2 miles above, to do shopping, they obtained a horse and wagon for that purpose. They arrived home soon after 9 o'clock, and drove through the village; and when they came upon the bridge which crosses the Cocheco River, owing to obstructions there, and the night being quite dark, while they were guiding the horse wildly, they were all violently thrown out; the two first named being thrown into the river below the bridge, Miss Maria Foss striking heavily against the railway, depriving her of sensibility for a short time. The two who were thrown into the river were permitted to drown; though at the time, quite a number, (so I am informed) stood upon the bridge and saw them. It is said one man made some slight attempt to save them, but he was dragged in haste from the water by the spectators, who seemed more afraid of his life than that of the girls.—Although plank and poles were at hand upon the bridge, yet not the least exertion was made to save their lives. The water where they lost their lives was precisely 5 feet 8 inches in depth. On Tuesday afternoon their bodies were placed in coffins and conveyed each to the residence of her parents. The other girl is considered quite seriously injured, and her case quite critical. When the spectators were questioned as to why they did not use more exertion to save the girls, the replies were, "we were afraid," or "we didn't know how to swim!" Such is the universal report on all sides, and it would seem from the tragic conclusion to have been no exaggeration.

Rochester, June 16, 1857. R.

We give the above as a piece of sad information; merely stating what everybody knows, that it is much easier to talk of "keeping cool" in time of danger and need, than to practice it.

The Dover Gazette says, "the horse took fright at a wheelbarrow containing some sticks of timber, and wheeled by two men, Neil Riley and Lewis Horne, and sprang upon one side, canting the wagon and throwing the young ladies out—that two of them fell under the railing into the water and were drowned; and the other saved herself from the same fate by catching hold of the bridge. The water was only about five feet deep; and, singular to relate, these two stout men had the presence of mind to save the—wheelbarrow"

We think the man who let women have a horse to drive, that could be scared at all, merits a portion of the blame.

FROM MEXICO.—Washington, June 19. Private advices from Havana, received at New Orleans, confirm the previous statements that preparations were being made for the invasion of Mexico. Three months' rations for 10,000 men are ordered, and the navy yard are busily occupied in collecting material, enrolling volunteers, etc. Santa Anna's agency in the affair is also confirmed.

Utah.—A telegraphic despatch has been received from Emery D. Porter, accepting one of the vacant Utah judgeships. He is an ex-member of Congress from Ohio.—Another is offered to Mr Eckles, of Indiana, who probably will accept. It is uncertain whether Judge Stiles, who is now here, will return to the territory. Well-founded report assigns the Marshalship of Utah to Thos. H. Dunn, of Mississippi.—Col. Cummings will again be tendered the Governorship, and his acceptance is considered certain.

The California Overland Mail question has been referred to the Postmaster General, and the impression prevails that the Southern route will be selected, commencing at Memphis, and continuing by way of Fort Smith and Donna Anna to Fort Vuma. The object is to have the route through a country susceptible of easy settlement, and which will not be interrupted by heavy snows. Some of the bidders desire to know before the Postmaster General shall have finally disposed of the question.

EXETER.—A Council was held on Thursday, to consider the question of Rev. Asa Mann's dismissal from the Second Congregational Church in Exeter. After much discussion, the vote was taken, which stood 13 for dismissal, and 5 against it.

No opinions on the cases tried before the Supreme Judicial Court, have yet been declared.

Free Lecture on the Human Eye and SPECTACLES.
MONDAY EVENING, June 22nd.

PORTSMOUTH, June 19, 1857
MR. EDWARD S. FRANKS:—Sir: We, the undersigned, Physicians and inhabitants of Portsmouth, having heard of your high reputation as a Lecturer and Optician, will esteem a favor, your delivering a lecture on the Anatomy and Physiology of the Human Eye, and on the use and abuse of Spectacles. It will be of utility to the community, by instructing them respecting the danger of using improper spectacles and the benefit of wearing proper ones, at the same time promulgating information and instruction on the construction and functions of that delicate little organ, the Eye.

PORTSMOUTH, June 19, 1857.
GENTLEMEN:—I feel honored by your invitation to lecture. As my stay in Portsmouth is limited, I at once with pleasure accept your invitations and will have the honor to deliver a Free Public Lecture, on Monday evening, June 22d, in the Temple. Doors to be opened at half past 7: to commence—at o'clock, precisely. The Lecture will be illustrated by means of Diagrams, Models, Artificial Eyes, &c. Seats will be reserved for ladies.
I am, gentlemen, your very obedient servant,
E. S. FRANKS, Optician and Patent Spectacle Manufacturer,
City Hotel, Portsmouth.

LOCAL.

C. & P. Railroad.—A meeting of the rantees of the Concord & Portsmouth Railroad Corporation, composed of holders of the Bonds of the P. & C. R. R., was holden at the Court House in this city on Saturday.

The meeting was called to order by Mr. John Stavers, who read the call for the meeting, and stated the first business to be the choice of Directors.

After some discussion, on motion of C. L. Frost, Esq., of New York, it was voted that a committee of three, to be nominated by the floor, be chosen to prepare a ticket to be supported for Directors; and Ichabod Rollins, Charles L. Frost and Charles Levi Woodbury were chosen such committee—who subsequently made a report, when the following Directors were chosen:

Charles Levi Woodbury, Boston,
Horton D. Walker, Portsmouth,
Aaron H. Hill, " Peter Jenness, "
Josiah Minot, Concord,
S. Plumer Dow, Newmarket.

It was voted that the Directors have authority to close the subscription books when they see fit, by giving ten days' notice by publication in one paper in Portsmouth, and one in Concord.

It was also voted that the Directors create no debt for which the stockholders shall be individually liable; and the first annual meeting shall be holden on the first Thursday of October. The meeting then dissolved.

Afterwards, at a meeting of the Directors, Hon. Josiah Minot was elected President, and the 31st day of July next was the time fixed upon for closing the subscription books.

☞ It will be seen by our advertising columns that the various excellent Summer Hotels, about here, are now open for company, as usual.

The pioneer Atlantic House, the location of which, in some respects, is hard to excel; in charge of that most popular of landlords, John C. Philbrick, Esq., as of old, can't fail of holding its own; while the Appledore, with mine host Hon. Thos. B. Laighton,—a host indeed, of himself—occupies a field of its own, and no limited one either.

We also learn that Mr. J. H. Diman is yet at his beautiful Highland Cottage, in Stratham; and will be serving out his delicious strawberries and cream to callers—commencing to-day.

☞ In our General Court report of Wednesday, it was stated, that "Mr Brown of Portsmouth, approved the amendment," which was offered by Mr. Greenleaf, relative to a popular vote on an amendment of the City Charter. It should read,—he opposed the amendment.

☞ That Cavalcade stands adjourned to this (Monday) evening, at 6 o'clock—unless the weather again postpones it. In answer to numerous inquiries, we will just state that all ladies and gentlemen who enjoy a ride on horseback, are invited to join the crowd, which will meet near the Middle Street Church; and that probably the turnout will be large.

☞ Don't forget the free Lecture at the Temple this evening, by Prof. Franks—on the Eye and its treatment.

HIGHLAND COTTAGE,

Commencing on

Monday, June 22d,

And continuing day and evening, thirty days.

THE subscriber respectfully informs his former patrons that his house will be opened to visitors on

MONDAY, June 22d,

And remain open during the Strawberry Season only, during which Strawberries and other refreshments will be served every day and evening, Sundays excepted.

No regular meals will be served.

The grounds will be open to visitors through the season, and out flowers will be for sale as usual.

Atlantic House,

RYE BEACH;

IS now open for visitors. The reputation of this House is too well established to need any lengthy description of its advantages. The Proprietor will, as heretofore, devote himself to the comfort of his guests.

Passengers by the Eastern Railroad will stop at the North Hampton station.

Appledore House,

ISLES OF SHOALS,

IS now open for Public Accommodation.

The schooner BIBYL, (one of the beautiful yachts built by the late Geo. Steers,) will run daily to this island from Pier Wharf, in Portsmouth, immediately after the arrival of the morning train of cars from Boston, and return in the afternoon.

The Sibyl is commanded by Capt. RUFUS A. PREBLE, a thorough seaman, who will give every attention to the comfort and enjoyment of his passengers.

The Sibyl has a magnificent cabin, water closets, tanks, and every accommodation which a first class Packet requires.

The advantages this purely Ocean Retreat possesses over all others are well known. Resting on the broad bosom of the Atlantic—free from heat, dust and noise—it is peculiarly fitted to restore health to the invalid, and rest to the careworn and weary. j22 THOMAS B. LAIGHTON.

☞ The Portland Journal of June 18, contains the following item:

Mr. H. G. Cole has just given us notice of his intention to visit various portions of New Hampshire, commencing with Portsmouth, Dover, &c. He is a very fluent speaker, and is perfectly acquainted with both sides of the question, having been engaged in the liquor traffic, and shows up intemperance in its true colors. He has met with a cordial welcome wherever he has been, having traveled over a great portion of our State. We heartily wish him success, and hope the friends of the cause will assist in defraying his expenses by contribution. He will speak at the following places:

Portsmouth, Tuesday night, 23d inst.; Dover, Thursday, 25th; Salmon Falls, Friday, 26th; New Market, Sunday, 28th; Concord, Tuesday, 30th.

Kansas.—St. Louis, June 19.—The Democrat's Quindaro correspondence of the 16th says that the Legislature adjourned on the 13th. Acts,—providing for taking the census and apportioning the state; appointing an election on the first Monday in August for state officers and representatives in Congress; and locating the seat of government at Topeka,—were passed, as was also a joint resolution, under the Topeka Constitution Census Act, providing for the appointment of five Marshals, whose deputies shall take the census immediately and make an apportionment of the state giving a Senate of not more than 20, or a House of not over 60 members.

Some of the territorial county judges have pronounced parts of the census law inoperative.

It is reported that Gov. Walker has been informed that the Constitution will not be submitted to the people.

From Havana.—New York, June 20.—Steamer Black Warrior arrived last night, with Havana dates to the 15th. Santa Anna had not arrived at Havana. The Spanish fleet intended for the expedition against Mexico was said to be near the Island, and soldiers are arriving by every vessel from Spain. The Island is quiet and healthy. The sugar market remained as at last advices. Holders determined to keep it up.

(Times Correspondence.) The Georgia Democratic State Convention, to be held on the 24th inst., will denounce Walker's proceedings in Kansas.

Gen. Vidal, Santa Anna's father-in-law, has written to Santa Anna's friends that the former Dictator of Mexico will be in Vera Cruz in less than 90 days.

Petersburg, June 18.—The Old Dominion steam flour mills, in this place, owned by S. E. Paul, were entirely destroyed by fire last night. Loss $50,000, which is partially insured. Incendiary.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Those awful and terrific gripings in children are immediately relieved by the use of the celebrated Carminative. For sale by all apothecaries.

The Secret Discovered at Last.—We have noticed in passing through Market street, lately, that the New Store, No. 15, always seems crowded with customers. We have at last discovered the secret of it. On stepping inside, we find that the proprietors, Messrs. Allen & Page, in fitting up their store in the beautiful manner they have, had an eye for the useful, as well as for the ornamental; we noticed that the store appeared very light and cheerful, and on looking for a solution of the mystery, we discover that the store contains a Sky Light, giving them facilities for showing their Goods possessed by no other Dry Goods store in town; as Customers by such a light, have no difficulty in seeing just what they are purchasing, and can not be deceived in the color or quality of goods. We notice, also, that their stock is always composed of the best qualities and very latest styles, which is explained by the fact that one of the firm visits the market to replenish their goods every ten days,—and as they buy for Cash, altogether, they are able to offer their goods at as low prices as any dealers.

Those about to purchase Dry Goods will do well to visit them. Read their advertisement in another column.

Also, Kennedy's Medical Discovery, price 68 cents per bottle.

DOES ANY OF OUR HIGH LIVERS ever eat too much dinner? If any of our readers have cooks who tempt their appetite a little too far, I will tell a secret that will lead them to the enjoyment of their dinners, without a visit from that portly old gentleman, Dyspepsia. Take a dose of Dr. Sanford's Invigorator after eating, and you will never be troubled with indigestion; but on the contrary, before the next meal time approaches, the appetite will be sharpened to appreciate any kind of food. If the food rises or sours, the Invigorator will fix the matter right at once, for there is something in it that, to use the expression of a friend, will let a man eat gravel stones, and take the Invigorator and they will digest. We have tried it in double doses, on one or two occasions, for sick headache, and it acts like a charm.

What we want to say to our readers, young or old, is, if anything ails you, go without delay and get a bottle of Dr. Sanford's Invigorator, and if it don't cure, come and tell us, for we want to see one person that it will not benefit.

TO THE CITIZENS OF THE UNITED STATES.
CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.

After several years experimenting in the manufacturing of Gin, I fortunately succeeded, in the year 1846, in making a discovery in its manufacture by which it was deprived of all acrid and inflammatory properties, and rendered perfectly pure.

My manufactory is at Scheidam, Holland. After several months' reflection what title to give it, I introduced it to the American public under the name of "Wolfe's Scheidam Aromatic Schnapps." Scheidam is the name of the place in Holland where the Gin is manufactured. Aromatic derives its name from the Italian Juniper Berry with which it is flavored, and the word "Schnapps" is the German for drink—Cogne, Dram—Wolfe's Scheidam Aromatic Drink. No sooner had my Schnapps been introduced to the American public and received with approbation, than the Liquor Mixers of New York, Boston and Philadelphia, started in pursuit with their mixed and poisonous stuff under various names: Scheidam Gin, Scheidam Schnapps, London Club House Gin, London Cordial Gin, &c., and in several cases my labels have been so perfectly imitated, with only the addition of a few letters to plead a technical avoidance of the law, and so carefully prepared as to impose on careless purchasers. I understand a large quantity has been purchased by the merchants of the Eastern States on account of the cheapness of the articles. A merchant who participates indirectly in the fraud by selling the spurious articles, is as much an offender as the principal who planned the imposition.

I hope every respectable citizen who values the health of the community in which he lives will aid me in ferreting out and exposing the unscrupulous merchant, who, for the sake of a few cents, will put in jeopardy the lives of the community in which he lives. Such men should be nailed to the pillory of popular execration.

Wolfe's Scheidam Aromatic Schnapps is made from barley of the first quality, selected with great care from the products of the most celebrated grain-growing districts, is flavored with the essence of the aromatic Juniper Berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process, which expels from the spirit every acrid particle.

As a means of preventing and correcting the disagreeable often dangerous effects produced upon the stomach and bowels by a change of water—a visitation to which travelers and settlers, and all unacclimated persons in the West, the South and South-West are peculiarly liable—the Scheidam Aromatic Schnapps will be found absolutely infallible; while, in cases of dropsy, gravel, obstructions of the kidneys, diseases of the bladder, dyspepsia, and general debility, it is recommended most emphatically by the most distinguished members of the medical profession

It is put up in quart and pint bottles, in cases of one dozen, with the name of the undersigned on the bottle and cork, and a fac-similie of his signature and label.

For sale by all respectable druggists and country merchants. UDOLPHO WOLFE.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN

Is shown by the Records of the Custom House to be the only London Cordial Gin IMPORTED and sold in bottles; all others are made here in imitation of it.

It is a delicious tonic beverage, and by its peculiar flavor (so different from other gins) is universally esteemed by all who use it. It is adopted with great success in cases of Dyspepsia, Gout, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Gravel, Colic, Cholera, Fever and Ague, Stricture, Diseases of the Urinary Organs, Epilepsy, Female Irregularities.

Dr. Valentine Mott of New York, in a letter to the proprietor, says:

Charles' London Cordial Gin, is the purest, best, and most reliable Extract of Juniper I have seen.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN is sold by all Druggists and Grocers in the United States, and so also are numerous poisons called "London Cordial Gin"—to avoid them buy only "CHARLES'." Reject any other offered to you as you value your health. Price one dollar for quarts, fifty cents for pints.

HOUSE LOTS AT AUCTION.

A grand chance to lay the foundation for a home.

WILL be sold at Public Auction on the premises, in Portsmouth,

On SATURDAY Afternoon, June 27th, at 3 o'clock,

TEN HOUSE LOTS!

Consisting in the aggregate of about 90,000 square feet of Land, which is bounded on the south by Islington street, on the east by Creek street, on the west by land of True M. Ball, bordering on Frenchman's Lane, and on the north by a new street, being the land now owned by Kittredge Sheldon.

This is in every respect the most eligible and desirable position for House Lots now in the market. It is about 10 minutes' walk from Market Square, in a direct line through the pleasantest and best street in the city, with a good sidewalk the entire distance, and combining in an unusual degree the advantages of rural and city life. The land is dry, the grounds are shaded with tall and graceful elms, forming the most picturesque landscape to be found in this vicinity. The lots vary in size from 5000 to 12000 feet; the smallest affording ample garden, as well as building room.

An accurate plan of the Lots may be seen at H. F. Wendell's Store, No. 70 State street, and further particulars may be obtained of the subscriber. KITREDGE SHELDON.

IMPORTANT NEW INVENTION

PATENT DOUBLE VISION SPECTACLES.

EDWARD S. FRANKS, PROF. OF OPTICS,

No. 2 Park Row, opposite the Astor House, New York.

SPECTACLE MANUFACTURER,

Lecturer on the Anatomy and Physiology of the Human Eye, and Use and Abuse of Spectacles.

Optician by Diploma to the N. Y. Eye Hospital,

And Spectacle-Maker to the New York Eye and Ear Infirmary.

Has much pleasure in announcing that he has secured letters patent, granted by the United States Patent Office, for very valuable improvements in Spectacle Glasses.

He has a complete assortment of his improved patent spectacles, in gold, silver, steel, and all other mountings. It will be understood that Prof. Franks, being the patentee, his spectacles can be obtained only from himself; as he has no other person authorized to manufacture or sell the same, unless specially licensed to do so by him.

The advantages of these Spectacles over all others, are

1st. The only true lens known, being perfectly centered so as the focus of each surface shall be opposite each other, which renders them nearly free from chromatic light, so injurious to vision, a lamentable deficiency in all the old kind of spectacle glasses, and makes the change of spectacles to glasses of stronger powers, so often required.

2d. Can be worn with perfect ease for any length of time without straining the optic nerve, causing dizziness of vision, particularly by candle or artificial light,—comforts to the spectacle-wearer hitherto unknown;

3d. Chance of spectacles to glasses of stronger magnifying power, in most cases never required, should the effect arise from age, disease, or premature decay,—thus securing to the patient good sight during life.

4th When the eye pain or aches from the action of bright light, such as is reflected from snow sunny weather, white paper, and in reading, writing or sewing on vivid colored bodies; these lenses by softening the rays, effect the most agreeable sensations and a perfect cure.

5th. In all nervous affections of the eye, causing dull or startling pains in the eyeballs or temples, appearances of luminous or dark spots in the atmosphere, itching, or feelings like sand in the eye, the disturbed nerves are quieted, soothed, composed, and entirely restored.

6th. Ground by peculiar machinery put up at a great cost, mathematically calculated expressly for the manufacture of this lens, so as to produce it with true spherical accuracy, and of the exact centre,—a point of vital importance, and which no other lens possesses.

7th. Proof of superiority over the old kind of spectacles: They are exclusively used at all the Hospitals for diseases of the eye in New York, and have received the following unqualified

Testimony of Recommendation

from medical gentlemen, professors of the highest ophthalmic talent in the Union.

ALEXANDER E. HOSACK, M.D.,

WILLIAM CLAY WALLACE, M.D.,

Many years of public practice and study in the hospitals of New York, and London (in Russell Square), adapting spectacles to patients, under every aspect of defective vision, as well as experience in an extensive long established business at his optical stores, both here and in Europe, Professor Franks considers it a sufficient guarantee of his ability, to apply such glasses as are best calculated for the assistance or recovery of imperfect sight.

AYER'S Cathartic Pills,

(SUGAR COATED,)

ARE HERE TO

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK

Invalids, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians, Philanthropists, read the Effects, and judge of their Virtues.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach

PITTSBURG, PA., May 1, 1856.

DR. J. C. AYER, Sir: I have been regularly cured of the worst headache any body can have, by the use of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they cleanse at once. If they will do others as they do me, the fact is worth knowing.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE, Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, WASHINGTON, D. C., 7 Feb., 1856.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice and other public services, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently in bilious attacks they are invaluable as a purgative. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them.

Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D., Physician of the Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

FORT ORTON, HIGHLAND, LIV. CO., MICH., Nov. 15, 1855.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine. They have done my wife more good than I can tell you. She had been sick and gradually wasting away for nine years. Went off to be doctored at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. They afterwards cured her and our two children of bloody dysentery. One of our neighbors had it bad, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctors bills and got much less relief, without being cured entirely even then. Such a medicine as yours, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here.

HIRAM G. GRIFFIN, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood they are the best article I have met with, or have known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARLAW, WYOMING CO., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Prominent Druggist of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of obstinate sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother, too, was most grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her. VINCENT SLIDELL.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawley, of the Methodist Episc. Church.

PULASKI HOUSE, SAVANNAH, GA., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold accident in my limbs settled upon them in severe neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until by the circulation of your excellent pills in Baltimore, Dr. Mayfield urged me to try your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well.

BENJAMIN CHAMBERS, BRYON BELLE, LA., 5 Dec., 1855.

DR. AYER: I have no hesitation in publicly ascribing my cure by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years. VINCENT SLIDELL.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are agreeable and effectual.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness, and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow the incautious exposure. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet of this American Union, the agonizing throes of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its virtues; and fewer yet the communities any where which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtile and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that stands upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the Cherry Pectoral cures more than half the consumptions it prevents than these it cures. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable, for neglect them until no human skill can master the fastening malady fastened on the lungs, and what can we say? All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and as they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not dwell upon it to assure them it is still worthy their trust. We spare no pains, nor care, nor toil to produce it the most perfect possible, and thus afford those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their relief.

PREPARED BY DR. J. C. AYER,

Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. Rowe & Co are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything is conducted with them in honor and strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. A ticket in these lotteries entitles the holder, in addition to, it, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. Drawings are drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, (after the Havana plan), and Tertary combination. Prizes vary in amount from $30 to $100 000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the strictly honorable and fair dealing manifestly after it is over.

☞ The drawn numbers of the Maryland Lotteries are published by the State Commissioner in the following papers, viz:—Sun, Patriot, American, Clipper, of Baltimore; also, the National Intelligencer and Union, of Washington, D.C.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Snow & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is managed in a fair and honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Managers would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Snow & Co are authorized by the legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after their receipt. Tickets are only $1 each; quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no complication whatever in the lottery the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $25,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Picayune, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to S. SWAN & Co., Atlanta, Georgia.

Prizes paid by express, a percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

All communications strictly confidential. m15ly

MARRIAGE GUIDE,

BY DR. W. YOUNG.

YOUNG'S GREAT PHYSIOLOGICAL WORK, The POCKET ESCULAPIUS, or Manhood: His Ones Doctor, by W. YOUNG, M. D. It is written in plain language for the general reader, and is illustrated with upwards of one hundred Engravings. All young married people, or those contemplating marriage, and having the least impediment in married life, should read this book. It discloses secrets that every one should be acquainted with. Still it is a book that must be kept locked up, and not lie about the house. It will be sent to any one on the receipt of twenty-five cents. Address Dr. WM. YOUNG, No. 152 BEEKMAN street, above Fourth, Philadelphia.

FAIR PLAY.

Messrs. Editors:—The following facts I learn from a friend in Exeter: About six months since a number of young men proposed forming a Cornet Band in E., and by their own exertions, with some little foreign assistance, they procured good instruments, nearly all of which they now own. They have met twice a week for rehearsal; and with one of their own number as a teacher; they have learned to perform a few pieces very finely. They now need a more experienced person to teach them, but their funds are not large enough to defray this extrra expense. The ladies of the town, perceiving how much the interests of the community were at stake, have nobly come to the rescue. They are making arrangements to give a Promenade Concert on Tuesday evening of this week, when they will furnish refreshments, while the Band will play their best tunes. The Town Hall will probably be lent them free of expense, and it is hoped at least $200 will be realized from this laudable undertaking.

It is very unreasonable to suppose that our Portsmouth girls will not take this hint; but that they may not fail of so doing, I would suggest that the young ladies of this city, who are such adepts in fairs, levees and the like, follow the example of their Exeter sisters. There is not the least doubt that our citizens would liberally patronize anything of the kind which may be proposed, and that our Band would thus be relived of a considerable portion of the debt which now hangs so heavily upon them. If there is to be no celebration here on the Fourth, let us have some entertainment of this kind, where one can enjoy himself to his heart's content and the content of his pocket, and at the same time lend a helping hand to those persevering young men who so richly deserve it. Ladies, what say you? KETTLE-DRUM.

TREMENDOUS CONFLAGRATION AT CAPE ISLAND, N. J.—At a quarter of 12 o'clock Thursday night, flames were discovered issuing from the rear of the Mansion House, Cape Island, New Jersey, and they spread so rapidly, that all efforts to subdue them were unavailing, and in a short time, the "Kursaal" and two adjoining buildings, together with the Mansion House, were enveloped in a sheet of fire. They are now a mass of ruins. No damage was done to the adjacent hotels.

☞ The Wilberforce College, at Xenia, Ohio, has already nearly fifty colored students. Twelve of them were emancipated, and their expenses paid by Southern friends.

HOG CHOLERA AND POISONED WHISKEY. "Communipaw" writes to the Boston Post that henceforth he is a Jew. He says he has long been leaning that way, but now he has seen "the last bristle that breaks the grunter's back. "No more pork, no more bacon for him; he bids sausages "avaunt," and his "gorge" rises at lard, as Hamlet's did, at the skull! But we will let him tell his own story in his own way:—

I have long believed that the Jews, both in ancient and modern times, had good reason for forswearing swine's flesh. There are several diseases, I am told, which are prevalent among Christans, that Jews seldom have. I have heard of diseases among swine in California, that are too disgusting for human ears. Butchers in New York say that half the hogs they slaughter, have consumption. I heard a physician say he had often examined the lungs of the swine in the shambles, and found them full of tubercles! I heard another doctor say he got a fine looking ham for his own use, had it boiled, and when on the table, he discovered that it was studded with tubercles! I know scrofula and consumption are far less prevalent among Jews than among Christians. Swine, as well as cows, that are kept in stables and pens, and fed on still slops, are far oftener more consumptive than if running at large in green fields. Though starting at the west, the "hog cholera" has broken out at the east.

And see all the ramifications of this vile poison. Strychnine, juice of tobacco, and vitriol, are used in distilling whiskey from corn; and the hogs fed on the still slops, run mad and die. Loads of hogs smothered in railroad cars, on reaching Albany, are sold; very likely many of these die of the still poison, and these dead and diseased animals that were never slaughtered, but died, are sold to speculators, and taken to New York, and there unquestionably sold for human food! No doubt of it. These carcasses are probably served up as "Ohio sugar cured hams!" And this is only the commencement of it. The lard (grease!) is sold in the market, and much of that lard is mixed with butter, to adulterate that. Then thousands and thousands of barrels of lard oil—the tried-out grease from poisoned hogs—goes to Europe, to Bourdeaux and Marseilles, and is there made over into "pure olive oil" and comes back to us Yankees again. The poisoned chalice is returned to our own lips.

And there's the whisky. Tobacco juice, vitriol and strychnine; enough of the one article of vitriol, Dr. Emerson, the chemist, says, to burn a hole in a man's stomach. It makes me think of the shark that followed a ship, and got to catching chunks of pork that were thrown over to him. Finally they heated a four-pound shot to a white heat, threw it over, and sharkey caught it! It never stopped, but dropped into the unfortunate fish's mouth, and went right through his stomach! It gave him a warm reception. This may serve as a warning to all who drink whisky.

Much of this strychnine whisky goes to France, and comes back "fine old Otard," or "fourth proof Cognac!" Oh! Jehosaphat, what a splendid lake this stuff would make to roast and boil and burn and bake a lot of these sinners in!

Then our sherry is carried in a pig-skin, in Spain, and our champagne is be-deviled and drugged, and our Scotch whisky is made of this western blue ruin and kreosote, and our ale and beer is brewed from impure ponds, and the fear next, is that the Chinese will poison our tea! I heard an eminent physician in Boston say that the disease of which Napoleon died, cancer in the stomach, had increased vastly within fifteen or twenty years, and he had no doubt it was from drugged liquors, and of this there was none that suffered more than champagne. He said sugar of lead entered largely into the domestic consumption of champagne. Let us sum up, and see how many abominations grow out of this vile system of distillery poison in whisky. First there's the pork, the bacon, sausages, lard, and from that the butter. Then there's the sweet oil, adulterated with—not lard oil—dead pig grease! Then there is the whisky, and from that nearly every kind of liquor and wine used in the country, brandy, port, Madeira, sherry and champagne wines; New England and Jamaica rum, and Scotch whisky. Well, this is a wicked world. It will be a long time before I shall drink any more ardent, or eat anything that I suppose stands any chance of having in it lard oil, or lard; and as for pork, the flesh of swine, farewell forever!

ANECDOTE OF WESLEY.—At one time, when Mr. Wesley was travelling in Ireland, his carriage became fixed in the mire, and the harness broke. While he and his companions were laboring to extricate it, a poor man passed by in great distress. Mr. Wesley called to him and inquired the cause of his distress. He said he had been unable, through misfortune, to pay his rent of twenty shillings, and his family were just being turned out of doors. "Is that all you need?" said Mr. Wesley, handing him the amount—"here, go and be happy." Then turning to his companion he said pleasantly, "You see now why our carriage stopped here in the mud."

TUESDAY, JUNE 23, 1857.

LAW.—In the British House of Commons, June 5,—

After some further debate, the bill was referred to a select committee. On the report of amendments made in the Divorce and Matrimonial Clauses Bill, Lord Brougham replied at some length on the principles of the bill, which he approved of, but expressed his strong disapprobation of the clause prohibiting a divorced woman from marrying: it would be productive of immorality, destitution and prostitution. Lord Redesdale defended the clause, upon the ground that whoever married a divorced woman, committed adultery.

Lord Redesdale doubtless refers to the words of Jesus, Matt. 5: 33, last clause of the verse, where we read, "and whosoever shall marry her that is divorced, committeth adultery."—But if the noble Lord had carefully read the whole verse, with the verse preceding, he would have seen that the crime occurs, only in one particular species of divorce for insufficient cause. Lord Brougham has the right of the case, as all experience shows, in some of our American States, where one party is at liberty to re-marry, and the other is not. This latter way is bad law, and not very good gospel.

NEW HAMPSHIRE LIQUOR LAW.—The Manchester American comments thus sensibly, upon the "Law for the Suppression of Intemperance," and its effect, in this State.

What a pity it is, that so important a question as the Temperance movement, could not be settled upon its intrinsic merits, without respect to party. Good men of all parties have mourned over the disastrous influence to the best interest of the State, resulting from the indiscriminate sale of intoxicating drinks. If the present prohibitory law, with such modifications as the circumstances of the case may require, will not avert the terrible scourge of intemperance, then we shall despair of accomplishing the noble object, so long and laboriously sought for. But we do not despair; there is sufficient power in the law, to effect the contemplated good, if strictly and judiciously enforced.

Many of the leaders of the Democratic party, and many who now vote and act with that party, three years ago were in favor of a prohibitory law. They now oppose the present prohibitory law, not because of its defects, but because it is a party measure, as they say. It isn't the law they now dislike, but it is the party that has shouldered it, and is attempting to enforce it. When the ranks of the Democracy were not made up mostly of rum drinkers and rum sellers, it approved temperance principles, and a prohibitory liquor law; then it was not against its interest to be for correct measures.

The law has done considerable, already, in suppressing intemperance in the State, and nobody who is really a friend of temperance, denies it. It may not be so strictly enforced in some instances as it might be; yet all sensible people should understand that is not so easy a matter to enforce the law in every case. No law, civil or criminal, can meet every case, and reach every transgressor. In disposing of a matter which affects individual interests so largely, it may be much easier to point out the steps, than to pursue them in every instance. The Municipal authorities may be negligent in their duties, yet we shall not hold them responsible for what may appear neglect, until it is proved to be such. In Manchester, the authorities are endeavoring to sustain the law, and they should receive the cordial and ready aid of every citizen. The law, it is true, is often violated, but it is done in a way not readily reached by the authorities.

THE ROCHESTER ACCIDENT.—Respecting the drowning of the young women at Rochester, last week, the Great Falls Advertiser says, that when "the horse became frightened, he sheared to the side of the bridge, where the wheel of the carriage sunk into a hole, upsetting the carriage and precipitating the girls over the railing of the bridge. The bridge is unsafe, and no doubt damages might be recovered in this case.

As a singular incident connected with this sad affair, a beautiful bird flew into the mill and lit upon one of the looms previously occupied by one of the deceased, and commenced singing. The operatives were much affected, and the room was immediately vacated for the day."

FATAL ACCIDENT.—As the down train on the Boston, Concord and Montreal Railroad was passing Woburn on the Lowell railroad, about six o'clock on Saturday afternoon, one of the brakemen, in attempting to pass from the baggage car to the tender, was struck by a bridge and fell on the wood on the tender. As he fell he struck upon the bell rope, setting it in motion, and causing it to toll forth his own parting knell. He died in about half an hour after reaching the Hospital in Boston.

A Wisconsin editor says, that at Marietta (Ohio) the French Minister, Count de Sartiges, was introduced as Count Sausages.

THE NEW YORK POLICE WAR.—All the men injured in the encounter of last Tuesday are doing well. Officer Crofut is very low, but it is thought will recover. By special request of his wife, a policeman has been stationed at the house to prevent the annoyances he was subjected to by the Mayor's police, who were almost constantly in front of the house, rapping on the sidewalk or on the front door, on pretense of inquiring how he was. Some who obtruded themselves within the house, upbraided the sick man for deserting the Mayor. Alderman Wilson has given bail in $5000 to answer to the charge of rioting. It is thought that the judgment of the Court of Appeals in the Metropolitan Police case will be rendered to-day (Tuesday.)

MILITARY DISCIPLINE.—A writer in the Boston Transcript gives the New York National Guard, which appeared there at the celebration of the 17th of June, the following compliment. That's the way to train—anything worth doing at all, it will pay to do well.

In the first place, they drill together as a battalion once every month; and through the month, at least one company is drilled thoroughly every night. Their organization is complete, and their pride is in appearing not as companies, but as a regiment. Their rule with recruits is that they must go through with a six months' ordeal of drill before being allowed to wear the uniform and equipments of the company, or to appear in the ranks on parade.

During the procession not a man left the ranks, and even when the order "in place rest" was given, it was literally obeyed, the men scarcely turning round to converse in the ranks, and while in line or on the march their eyes and faces were where they should have been, "front." At home or abroad, they have always maintained the same good character; and it has been said that in point of discipline and all belonging to the profession, they will outdo anything in or out of the army in this country, and cannot be excelled by the soldiery of any other.

"In marked contrast," the writer continues, "appears the Massachusetts Militia."

With the exception of two or three companies, whose bearing and discipline is always good, and whose equipments are always at least clean, the regiment did not do itself credit. In Charlestown, especially, did one, if not more, of the companies act in the most unsoldierly, not to say ungentlemanly, manner; during a halt, almost the entire company left the ranks and rushed into a bake shop, and having procured pies and sheets of gingerbread and the like, put them on their bayonets, and strewed them about the street, throwing them at each other like so many children snowballing; and we must say, to the discredit of their officers, no attempt was made to check it.

WARNING TO TOBACCO CONSUMERS.—A letter from Kentucky says, that tobacconists are using prussic acid to give an almond flavor to the leaf, and in consequence of this poison, a number of smokers have lost the use of their lower limbs.—Exchange.

Well, we wish all the smokers might "lose the use of their lower limbs,"—at least while smoking, so that they couldn't circulate the "disgrant" odor of their imbruting practice.

A HINT.—The Manchester American, in its Police Court report, thus touches up one John Marden, who was arraigned for drunkenness on the 19th inst., plead guilty, and was fined $2, and costs $3.13.

His face was somewhat familiar to the Court room, as he has been up for other transgressions. He is one of the fast young men who sport with fast horses, wear good clothes, and visit liquor saloons. He is getting somewhat notorious, and it would be well for him to "hold up" for awhile.

ALDERMANIC INTEGRITY.—Mr. Devlin, Mayor Wood's Street Commissioner, was not acceptable to the New York Aldermen for some time, but finally the latter yielded. The Times offers the following explanation of the change:

"Mr. Devlin was accepted by the Aldermen for Street Commissioner, on the condition that the immense patronage of the office should be divided among the Aldermen by lot. All the best offices in the gift of the Commissioner were made up in parcels and numbered, and the prizes put into a hat, each Alderman being entitled to the number he might draw."

FIRE WORKS—FOURTH OF JULY.—Committees of cities and towns are referred to the Firework advertisement of Messrs. J. G. Hovey and Co., who have received the Boston contracts for the coming Fourth of July.

☞ We have received, through Messrs. Harvey & Son, a biographical sketch of Gen. Joseph Warren, with two of his orations, portrait, and a representation of the old monument which stood for forty years on the spot now occupied by Bunker Hill Monument. Boston; Published by Shepard, Clark & Brown.

At the Boston Celebration on Wednesday, Samuel W. Johnson of Epping, N.H., had his pocket relieved of $410; Lewis Howe of Providence of $25, and Ezra Hoyt of Essex, Mass., of a watch.

FROM KANSAS.—A Mass Convention was held at Topeka on the 9th inst. The points of difference between the majority of the Committee on Resolutions and Judge Conway, who made a minority report, are expressed in the speeches. The resolutions which were agreed to were those of the moderate party.

About 10 o'clock, the crowd broke up, and they marched down to Garvey's hotel and called for Walker, who appeared and addressed them for an hour, in one of his most eloquent speeches. And it is thought it would be a good thing to take Gov. Walker into the free State party for six months on probation, for no one can be more fair or more desirous to see peace in Kansas than Governor Walker, if we may take his speech as a guarantee.—Cor. of the Traveller.

Atchison has left the Territory in disgust, and Stringfellow has seen the folly of resisting fate, and has selected Memphis, Tenn., for his future residence.—St. Louis Democrat.

If this is true, it is significant. These two men were the commissioned agents of the South, to force slavery into Kansas. They instigated violence and bloodshed to accomplish their purpose. Robbery, arson and murder were all resorted to in order to achieve their mission. If, now, they find themselves discomfitted, and have left the field in hopeless disgust, it will indicate a victory more sublime than any achieved since the days of '76.—Albany Eve. Journal.

Gen. J. H. Lane's steam saw-mill on the Kansas river, between Lawrence and Lecompton, was destroyed by fire on Thursday night, 11th. On the day previous, he made a strong speech at Big Springs, in reply to Gov. Walker, and it is supposed that the mill was destroyed by the Lecompton Ruffians in consequence.

A WIDOW MURDERED BY A SCHOOL TEACHER.—In Louisville, St. Lawrence Co., N. Y., Edwin Eldridge of Louisville was charged with the murder Mrs. Sarah Jane Gould. He went where the deceased resided, to board, and informed the family that they were shortly to be married.—About the middle of May last arsenic was seen in a valise of Eldridge's; on the 25th Mrs. Gould was taken sick and her symptoms was such as usually follow cases of poisoning. She died on the 30th. A post mortem examination revealed that she was enciente. On being charged with having committed the offence, he attempted to poison himself, but took so much that it operated as an emetic, and did not destroy life. The Court held him for trial.

POLICE COURT, BOSTON.—Dr. Lewis Dix, alias Hughes, was brought up for further examination on the complaint for procuring an abortion upon the person of Emma Post, since diseased; but it appearing that officer Welsh of Newburyport was present with a process for homicide against him, the Court surrendered him to that officer, who took him to Newburyport.

THE NEWBURYPORT ABORTION CASE.—In the Boston Police Court on Friday, Dr. Louis Dix was brought up for his connection with the late abortion case, and on motion of his counsel—there being a warrant superseding the one drawn in Boston—he was given into the custody of Constable Welch, and taken to Newburyport to answer to the charge of abortion, death ensuing. He arrived there just after two o'clock, and was committed to jail.

Dix was discharged from jail about 9 o'clock in the evening: Augustus H. Mather and Charles F. Burton, of Boston, being sureties for his appearance before the Court of Common Pleas to be holden at Lawrence on the second Monday of October next, in the sum of four thousand dollars.

The examination of Ricketson will take place on Tuesday, before Judge Marston at Newburyport.—Herald.

☞ There is a monomaniac named Bougham, in Montgomery county, Mo., who has lived under a shelving rock, on the bank of the Loutre, for the past three years, all of which time, he has spent in digging in the solid rock, searching for treasure, which he says his uncle and some other men, who were miners, buried there more than a hundred years ago. His only garments are of leather, and his only tools an axe and a tin pail.

☞ In St. Louis, last Wednesday, a German about 30 years of age, named John Hart, fell insensible on the levee, from drinking freely of ice-water, when overheated by labor, and shortly after expired. He leaves a wife and two children.

☞ The newspapers of Northern Mississippi are loudly complaining of the loss of negroes, large numbers of them having succeeded this spring in escaping from their masters.

☞ At a rowing match (wherry race) at Concord, Mass., last week, in single-manned boats, the best time made was a mile in a little less than 11 minutes.

It is said that larger outfits than usual have been made from Nova Scotia for the Labrador fishery the present season, and that from Lunenburg county alone, no less than seventy vessels have been fitted out.

RECEIVED HIS REWARD.—The Rev. A. M. Fitch of Michigan, has been appointed Indian Agent for the Indians of Northern Michigan. The M. E. Conference of that State, last fall, passed resolutions, with only one dissenting vote, condemning the buying and selling of men, as being anti-scriptural and unchristian. That one dissenter was the Rev. Mr. Fitch.

MINNESOTA.—The St. Paul Times of the 13th says:—"The Republicans have carried the Territory beyond a doubt." It gives the Delegates as 57 Republicans and 41 Democrats. The 4th District, heretofore reported Democrat, has gone Republican.

☞ Harper's New Monthly for July, is received from A. Williams & Co., Boston, and J. F. Shores, jr., in this city. The Carib Settlements, North Carolina, and the Shakers, are interesting articles, illustrated. The Two Kates is a possible story, just strange enough to be interesting.

The Richmond Enquirer states that at a meeting holden on Monday last, the Baptist Association of Virginia, by an almost unanimous vote, resolved to "withdraw their countenance and support from the American Tract Society."

TEMPERANCE MEETING.

The Temperance Cause.—Mr. Harrison G. Cole, of Portland, Me, will address the citizens of Portsmouth this evening, at the Temple. Subject: Evils of Intemperance; detailing his experience under the Prohibitory Law, commencing at 8 o'clock. Admission 5 cents.

Mr. Cole comes well recommended, from Portland, the place of his residence, and will speak of the business as he has seen and known it. All are invited to attend.

☞ On Sunday evening, June 20, there was a large assembly convened in the Old South Meeting House in this city. Rev. Mr. Hall of the M. E. Church, opened the meeting with the invocation. Rev. Dr. Peabody of the South (Unitarian) Church, read the first hymn and the Scripture Lesson. Rev. Mr. Whiting of the North (Orthodox) church, offered prayer. Rev. Dr. Samson of the Middle Street Baptist church, preached the sermon; and Rev. Mr. Patterson of the Universalist church, offered the concluding prayer. The meeting showed the friendly interest of these pastors and the hearers, in the city mission, and their friendly and fraternal relations to each other.

The Sunday School and Congregation at the Old South, we understand are increasing in the number of attendants.

Caution to City Officials.—We learn that at the Supreme Judicial Court, which adjourned at Exeter on Saturday, in the suit of Ira Willey against the City of Portsmouth, wherein Willey received a verdict against the city, for injuries received near the Creek Bridge, and which suit was carried up to the higher court by the City, on exceptions filed by them; the judgment of the Court below has been affirmed, and Mr. Willey receives his damages. We hope to see no more suits of this nature; they are expensive affairs for our city, and fully illustrate the truth of the old adage, "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."

Messrs. Editors:—Please to ask the City Fathers how much is gained by refusing to let a Vegetable Stall in the Spring Market, on the plea that it is wanted for country people—when the same stall is occupied by ice and sheepskins, and not by green peas or radishes. B.

Concord & Portsmouth Railroad.—Messrs. Editors:—Every holder of a P. & C. Railroad bond for $100, can now, by paying in $3 in money, subscribe for and hold a $30 share in the new corporation.—This information may be of use to some bondholders. N.

☞ The house offered for sale [see advertisement] by Mr. E. S. Wendell, is one of the most eligible residences in the city, being situated exactly on the summit of a gentle elevation, on one of the best streets, and in a good neighborhood. It is thoroughly built, and is just the place and the house for a genteel family.

☞ On the outside (first and fourth pages) will be found a variety of interesting matter. With the communication of Kettle-Drum, concerning our new Portsmouth Cornet Band, of course all who have any music in their souls—the negative of which, it seems to us, is equivalent to having no soul at all—will agree. There is no reason why we can't have a pleasant social celebration on the Fourth of July, somewhere in our beautiful suburbs, and employ the Band—as suggested recently. Who will start it?

☞ Baltimore and its vicinity was visited on Wednesday afternoon, with a succession of thunder storms, the most terrific which have been experienced there for several years. The house of Dr. Theodore P. Murdock was struck by lightning, and badly injured, and the inmates were stunned. The Eight Mile House was struck, and a negro man killed.

The New Militia Bill.—The bill now before the legislature in effect abolishes the present system, and provides for the organization of a Volunteer Militia at the discretion of the Governor.

☞ A washerwoman in Portland told her child to go out and buy some hard soap, and he very properly went into a shop on Fore street, that displayed at its window this sign, "Castetesi Soap." The Advertiser is responsible.

In Petersburg, Va., a horse belonging to Gov. Wise displayed his agility by leaping from a stone wall twelve feet high, which supported an embankment, just above the Whig building. He alighted in Governor street unharmed, and continued his frolic by cantering off to avoid the hostler who who was pursuing him.

Elopement and Sad Result.—Last summer, a Mr. Brownell, of Washington county, eloped with his wife's sister. It was recently ascertained that they went to St. Paul, Minn., where they lived for some time at a hotel as man and wife, but finally went to housekeeping. Last fall Brownell died. His adulterous sister-in-law then attempted to gain possession of his property, as his lawful wife. The advertisements in the case attracted the attention of the relatives of the deceased, and a few weeks since Brownell's brother-in-law reached St. Paul, and exposed the guilty woman, who took the first downward bound packet and fled. The injured wife shortly after arrived at the scene, and was probably able to preserve her legal rights.—Rochester Democrat.

Providence, June 19.—The fifth trial to elect a Mayor to-day, has resulted in the choice of Wm. H. Rodman, the American Republican candidate, by 983 majority over all. Every ward gave him a majority.

The Mission to Russia.—Augusta, Ga., June 20.—Col. F. W. Pickens, of South Carolina, declines the mission to Russia.—He will doubtless succeed Mr. Butler in the U. S. Senate.

☞ There are not far from 192,000 legal voters in Massachusetts. About 800 votes will be required to elect a representative to the Legislature, as remodeled.

☞ Through the liberality of several citizens, Philadelphia is to be favored with a new park of several hundred acres, on the bank of the Schulkill.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ Go to the Davis Brothers and get one of those splendid Ambrotypes.

No one who has tried Lawrence's Carminative, will be without it.

The Secret Discovered at Last.—We have noticed in passing through Market street, lately, that the New Store, No. 15, always seems crowded with customers. We have at last discovered the secret of it. On stepping inside, we find that the proprietors, Messrs. Allen & Paine, have fitted up their store in the beautiful manner they have, had an eye for the useful, as well as for the ornamental; we noticed that the store appeared very light and cheerful, and on looking for a solution of the mystery, we discover that the store contains a Sky Light, giving them facilities for showing their Goods possessed by no other Dry Goods store in town; as Customers by such a light, have no difficulty in seeing just what they are purchasing, and can not be deceived in the color or quality of goods. We notice, also, that their stock is always composed of the best qualities and very latest styles, which is explained by the fact that one of the firm visits the market to replenish their goods every ten days,—and as they buy for Cash, altogether, they are able to offer their goods at as low prices as any other parties.

Those about to purchase Dry Goods will do well to visit them. Read their advertisement in another column.

Also, Kennedy's Medical Discovery, price 68 cents per bottle.

"IN PEACE PREPARE FOR WAR."—In the days of our youth, it behooves us to make some preparation for the approach of age. How many persons have become prematurely bald by neglecting to apply appropriate remedies to prevent the hair from falling out. The use of Professor Wood's "Hair Restorative" will prevent the hair from falling off, impart to it a healthy growth, and even restore the hair of the bald. Thousands have testified to its efficacy. To be had of Druggists everywhere.

DOES ANY OF OUR HIGH LIVERS ever eat too much dinner? If any of our readers have cooks who tempt their appetite a little too far, I will tell a secret that will lead them to the enjoyment of their dinners, without a visit from that gouty old gentleman, Dyspepsia. Take a dose of Dr. Sanford's Invigorator after eating, and you will never be troubled with indigestion; but on the contrary, before the next meal time approaches, the appetite will be sharpened to appreciate any kind of food. If the food rises or sours, the Invigorator will fix the matter right at once, for there is something in it that, to use the expression of the friend, will let a man eat gravel stones, and take the Invigorator and they will digest. We have tried it in double doses, on one or two occasions, for sick headache, and it acts like a charm.

What we want to say to our readers, young or old, is, if anything ails you, go without delay and get a bottle of Dr. Sanford's Invigorator, and if it don't cure, come and tell us, for we want to see one person that it will not benefit.

Atlantic House,

RYE BEACH,

Is now open for visitors. The reputation of this House is too well established to need any lengthy description of its advantages. The Proprietor will, as heretofore, devote himself to the comfort of his guests.

Passengers by Eastern Railroad will stop at the North Hampton station.

Rye Beach, June 20. 6w J. C. PHILBRICK.

Appledore House,

ISLES OF SHOALS,

Is now open for Public Accommodation.

The schooner SIBYL, (one of the beautiful yachts built by the late Geo. Steers,) will run daily to this island from Pier Wharf, in Portsmouth, immediately after the arrival of the morning train of cars from Boston, and return in the afternoon.

The Sibyl is commanded by Capt. RUFUS A. PRESLE, a thorough seaman, who will give every attention to the comfort and enjoyment of his passengers.

The Sibyl has a magnificent cabin, water closets, tanks, and every accommodation which a first class Packet requires.

The advantages this purely Ocean Retreat possesses over all others are well known. Resting on the broad bosom of the Atlantic—free from heat, dust and noise—it is peculiarly fitted to restore health to the invalid, and rest to the careworn and weary. j22 THOMAS B. LAIGHTON.

TO THE CITIZENS OF THE UNITED STATES.
CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.

After several years experimenting in the manufacturing of Gin, I fortunately succeeded, in the year 1840, in making a discovery in its manufacture by which it was deprived of all acrid and inflammatory properties, and rendered perfectly pure.

My manufactory is at Scheidam, Holland. After several months' reflection what title to give it, I introduced it to the American public under the name of "Wolfe's Scheidam Aromatic Schnapps." Scheidam is the name of the place in Holland where the Gin is manufactured. Aromatic derives its name from the Italian Juniper Berry with which it is flavored, and the word "Schnapps" is the German for drink—Cogne, Dram—Wolfe's Scheidam Aromatic Drink. No sooner had my Schnapps been introduced to the American public and received with approbation, than the Liquor Mixers of New York, Boston and Philadelphia, started in pursuit with their mixed and poisonous stuff under various names: Scheidam Gin, Scheidam Schnapps, London Club House Gin, London Cordial Gin, &c., and in several cases my labels have been so perfectly imitated, with only the addition of a few letters to plead a technical avoidance of the law, and so carefully prepared as to impose on careless purchasers. I understand a large quantity has been purchased by the merchants of the Eastern States on account of the cheapness of its articles. A merchant who participates indirectly in the fraud by selling the spurious articles, is as much an offender as the principal who planned the imposition.

I hope every respectable citizen who values the health of the community in which he lives will aid me in ferreting out and exposing the unscrupulous merchant, who, for the sake of a few cents, will put in jeopardy the lives of the community in which he lives. Such men should be nailed to the pillory of popular execration.

Wolfe's Scheidam Aromatic Schnapps is made from barley of the first quality, selected with great care from the products of the most celebrated grain-growing districts, is flavored with the essence of the aromatic Juniper Berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process, which expels from the spirit every acrid particle.

As a means of preventing and correcting the disagreeable and often dangerous effects produced upon the stomach and bowels by a change of water—a visitation to which travelers and settlers, and all unacclimated persons in the West, the South and South-West are peculiarly liable—the Scheidam Aromatic Schnapps will be found absolutely infallible; while, in cases of dropsy, gravel, obstructions of the kidneys, diseases of the bladder, dyspepsia, and general debility, it is recommended most emphatically by the most distinguished members of the medical profession

It is put up in quart and pint bottles, in cases of one dozen, with the name of the undersigned on the cork and cork, and a fac-simile of his signature and label.

For sale by all respectable druggists and country merchants. UDOLPHO WOLFE.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN

Is shown by the Records of the Custom House to be the only London Cordial Gin IMPORTED and sold in bottles; all others are made here in imitation of it.

It is a delicious tonic beverage, and by its peculiar flavor (so different from other gins) is universally esteemed by all who use it. It is adopted with great success in cases of Dyspepsia, Gout, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Gravel, Colic, Cholera, Fever and Ague, Stricture, Diseases of the Urinary Organs, Epilepsy, Female Irregularities.

Dr. Valentine Mott of New York, in a letter to the proprietor, says;

Charles' London Cordial Gin, is the purest, best, and most reliable Extract of Juniper I have seen.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN is sold by all Druggists and Grocers in the United States, and so also are numerous poisons called "London Cordial Gin"—to avoid them buy only "CHARLES'." Reject any other offered to you as you value your health. Price one dollar for quarts, fifty cents for pints.

HOUSE LOTS AT AUCTION.

A grand chance to lay the foundation for a home.

WILL be sold at Public Auction on the premises, in Portsmouth,

On SATURDAY Afternoon, June 27th, at 3 o'clock,

TEN HOUSE LOTS!

Consisting in the aggregate of about 90,000 square feet of Land, which is bounded on the south by Islington street, on the east by Creek street, on the west by land of True M. Ball, bordering on Frenchman's Lane, and on the north by a new street, being the land now owned by Kittredge Sheldon.

This is every respect the most eligible and desirable position for House Lots now in the market. It is about 10 minutes' walk from Market Square, in a direct line through the pleasantest and best street in the city, with a good sidewalk the entire distance, and combining in an unusual degree the advantages of rural and city life. The land is dry, the grounds are shaded with tall and graceful elms, forming the most picturesque landscape to be found in this vicinity. The lots vary in size from 5000 to 12000 feet; the smallest affording ample garden, as well as building room.

An accurate plan of the Lots may be seen at H. F. Wendell's Store, No. 70 State street, and further particulars may be obtained of the subscriber. KITTREDGE SHELDON.

IMPORTANT NEW INVENTION

PATENT DOUBLE VISION SPECTACLES,

EDWARD S. FRANKS, PROF. OF OPTICS, No. 2 Park Row, opposite the Astor House, New York.

SPECTACLE MANUFACTURER,

Lecturer on the Anatomy and Physiology of the Human Eye, and Use and Abuse of Spectacles.

Optician by Diploma to the N. Y. Eye Hospital, And Spectacle-Maker to the New York Eye and Ear Infirmary.

Has much pleasure in announcing that he has secured letters patent, granted by the United States Patent Office, for very valuable improvements in Spectacle Glasses.

He has a complete assortment of his improved patent spectacles, in gold, silver, steel, and all other mountings. It will be understood that Prof. Franks, being the patentee, his spectacles can be obtained only from himself; as he has no other agent authorized to manufacture or sell the same, unless specially licensed to do so by him.

The advantages of these Spectacles over all others, are

1st. The only true lens known, being perfectly centered so as the focus of each surface shall be opposite each other, which renders them nearly free from chromatic light, so injurious to vision, a lamentable deficiency in all the old kind of spectacle glasses, and makes the change of spectacles to glasses of stronger powers, so often required.

2d. Can be worn with perfect ease for any length of time of any sitting, giving astonishing clearness of vision, particularly to those who have tried in vain for years to find spectacles wherein to see comfortably.

3d. Change of spectacles to glasses of stronger magnifying power, to most easy sight or proportion, should the effect arise from age, disease, or premature decay, thus securing to the patient good sight during life.

4th When the eyes pain or ache, from the action of bright light, even as much as from reading by sunny weather, white paper, and in reading, writing or sewing on vivid colored bodies; these lenses by softening the rays, effect the most agreeable sensation, and a perfect cure.

5th. In all nervous affections of the eye, causing dull or startling pains in the eyeballs or temples, appearances of luminous or dark spots, like atmospheric itching, or feelings like sand in the eye, the disturbed nerves are quieted, soothed, composed, and entirely restored.

6th. Ground by peculiar machinery got up at a great cost, mathematically calculated expressly for the manufacture of this lens, so as to produce it with true spherical form and surface, and in focus at the exact point—a point of vital importance, and which no other lens possesses.

7th. Proof of superiority over the old kind of spectacles: They are exclusively used at all the Hospitals for diseases of the eye in New York, and have received the following unqualified from medical gentlemen, professors of the highest ophthalmic talent in the Union.

Testimony of Recommendation

Many years of public practice and study in the hospitals of New York, and London (in England), of adjusting spectacles to patients, under every aspect of defective vision, as well as experience in an extensive long established business at his optical stores, both here and in Europe, induces Professor Franks considers is a sufficient guarantee of his ability, to apply such glasses as are best calculated for the assistance or recovery of imperfect sight.

STATE REFORM SCHOOL.—On Wednesday afternoon, the Governor and Council, with the Committee on the State Reform School and their invited guests, visited that Institution.

The 'Palace for Prostitutes and Thieves' as it is forcibly if not elegantly termed by our Democratic friends, is situated near the line of the Concord Railroad, but a few miles this side of the city of Manchester. The edifice, of which but little more than the walls are as yet completed, stands on the brow of a hill, rising not too abruptly from the easterly bank of the Merrimack. It is built of brick, is five stories in height, and flanked with semi-Norman towers, from which the movements of their future occupants can be closely watched. Of its internal arrangements, in their present incomplete state, we can judge but little.

The old Stark farm, on which it stands, contains some poor and much very good land. It would reflect little credit upon the judgment on one of the most sagacious generals of the Revolution, had he chosen the sand bank for a residence, which has been described at such length in some of our public journals. With the exception of the site of the main building, and a little knoll lying to the north, it is a productive and well cultivated tract of land. The barrenest spot within its limits is more fertile than that not unproductive estate which appertains to the Insane Asylum. Nor has nature restricted her bounty to the soil alone. If more sublime scenery can be found amid the gorges of the White Mountains, or on the shores of Winnepisseogee, we have yet to discover a more calm and peaceful prospect than greets the eye from the hills of the Stark Farm.—Concord Statesman.

HORSE STORIES.—We think we cannot meet the taste of this enlightened community, better than by indulging in our love of horse stories. Why, there isn't a man in this town, who makes the least pretension of being anything at all, who isn't "up" in horse flesh, if he doesn't own one who has either the merit, the reputation, or the suspicion of being a "fast un."—And if he has neither, all sorts of innocent little tricks are resorted to, to beget the suspicion in the public mind. The veriest old "coolikens" in the world, are driven through the streets, in skeleton vehicles, without blinders, the reins lying with studied carelessness on the dashboard, much as to say, "Here's one of 'em that can go"—with their own heads down—possibly for the reason that they can't hold them up—and the driver looking exceedingly knowing. Everybody "talks horse," now-a-days, and so we have published another of Shillaber's capital horse stories from the Evening Gazette, on the first page.—Nashua Gazette.

BRINGING IT HOME TO THEM.—The New York Express has hit upon a new style of argument with which to induce the democratic city authorities to clean the streets of Gotham. It is a home appeal, and must, we think, be effective:

Looking at the strongholds of the democrats here, such as the Five Points, Hook, Church street, &c., &c., where are masses of democratic voters, policy, as well as humanity, forbids their being killed off by disease before November and December.—The upper ten can fly out of town the moment Yellow Jack turns up here—but the under ten will have to stand and take it.—A pestilence here would cost the democracy ten thousand votes next November and December. Think of that, common council, now, and let us have, right off, clean streets—to save their votes, if not their lives.

A HARD BOY.—General Sir Charles J. Napier tells the following story of his childhood: "There was in Limerick a great coarse woman, wife of Dr. ——. When she heard of my misfortune she said, 'Poor boy, I suppose a fly kicked his spindle shanks.' Being a little fellow then, though now, he it known, five feet seven inches and a half high, this offended me greatly; and as the Lord would have it, she broke her own leg just as I was getting well. Going to her house with an appearance of concern, I told the servant how sorry I was to hear that a bullock had kicked Mrs. ——, and hurt its leg very much, and that I had called to know if her leg was also hurt.—She never forgave me." This is a very characteristic opening of a long life passed in public and private warfare.

ALMOST A COMET.—The telegraph office was the scene of rather an unusual freak of electricity on Sunday evening. At about 6 1-2 P. M. the wires were struck at some point west, by a pretty smart shock of lightning, and a ball of fire, the size of an orange, dodged past Carpenter's elbow, and exploded with a report like that of a pistol. Three valuable relay magnets were badly burned, and copper wire in their neighborhood melted. We learn that the Albany office received a similar visit, and four fine magnets were rendered useless in consequence.—Troy Whig.

Mrs. Sally Chase, widow of the late Wm. Chase, of Amesbury, left by will one-eighth of her property to the Amesbury and Salisbury Congregational Society, and one-eighth to the American Board of Foreign Missions, the American Tract Society, and the American Home Missionary Society, besides various donations to individuals. We understand that an effort will be made to break the will, as some near relatives were not remembered in the will.—Villager.

THE CENSUS OF NEWBURYPORT just taken by the Aldermen, we regret to learn, shows a decline in population from 1855, of some five or six hundred. Should the depressing influences that have opperated for a twelve-month continue, it may sink the number as much more; but it is to be hoped that we shall touch bottom before long and take a start upwards.—Herald.

LOTTERIES.

The well known Missouri Consolidated Lotteries, of which Pierce, Cole & Co. are the managers, are now in full operation, fairly and squarely conducted by the parties, who is known connected with them to be every thing honorable and upright. Our policies are well worth the money, and we feel confident that they will give satisfaction to all who may favor us with their patronage. Our business is conducted on the principle of small profits and quick returns. Our office is in the city of St. Louis, and we can pay the highest prices for prizes, and remit the money by express, free of charge, to any part of the country. Our facilities for obtaining the best information, and for purchasing tickets to any lottery, are unsurpassed by any other house in the business. We have no connection with any other office in the city, and no agents to pay, and can therefore afford to sell tickets at lower rates than those who have. Our business is conducted with the strictest regard to the interests of our patrons, and we guarantee to them the same fair treatment they would receive if personally present at the drawings. Another advantage we offer our patrons is, that we do not confine our sales to any one lottery, but we can supply tickets in any lottery that may be authorized by special law to sell. A lottery is known by every one to be good, when it has been in existence for several years, and has proved itself worthy of public patronage. When such a lottery comes to hand, we can offer tickets in it at prices varying from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sold for less than the money for the same received with the prize. The drawings are under the supervision of commissioners appointed for the purpose by law, and are conducted with the utmost fairness and impartiality. Tickets are issued in sums of $1, $2, $5, $10, $20, and $100. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

☞ The drawings of the Missouri State Lotteries are published by the State Commissioner in the following papers, viz: Sun, Clipper, Patriot, American, Argus, of Baltimore; also, the National Intelligencer and Union, of Washington, D.C.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the laws of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners to attend to the management of the drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the profits of which, if the adventure hence be well patronized, will be shared with all who may be present. The Managers would respectfully call attention to the fact that they have never been given legal right to send orders for tickets in Georgia, the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every day in the year. Orders for tickets in all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same come to hand. According to the chance one ticket in every ten (most of the prizes are ten times the price of the tickets), quarters, eighths, and whole tickets, in the money accordingly as ordered. The drawings are upon the principle of one number to each ticket, and the number that may come last to be understood by them. There is no composition of numbers to mystify the lower. Tickets every from $1 to $20. Orders are to be addressed to me, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published in the Georgia papers, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Parties ordering tickets will please direct to S. SWAN & Co., Atlanta, Georgia.

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY.

DR. CHEESEMAN'S PILLS FOR FEMALES.

Prepared by an old Physician of 40 years experience.

THE combination of ingredients in these Pills, is the result of a long and extensive practice; they are mild in their operation, and certain to regulate nature to its proper channel. In every instance where the Pills are taken according to Directions they are certain to open those obstructions to which females are liable, and bring nature into its proper channel, whereby health is restored, and the pale and deadly hue of sickness changed to a healthy one. No female can enjoy good health unless she is regular; and whenever an obstruction takes place, whether from exposure, cold, or any other cause, the general health immediately begins to decline, and the want of such a remedy has been the cause of so many consumptions among our young females. Headache, pain in the side, palpitation of the heart, lassitude, low spirits, and disturbed sleep, that most always arise from the interruption of nature; and whenever that is restored, these Pills invariably remedy all these evils. In all cases of painful menstruation, nervous and spinal affections in the back and limbs, lowness of spirits, hysterics, &c. Nor are they less efficacious in the cure of Leucorrhœa, commonly called the "Whites." These Pills should never be taken during pregnancy, as they would cause a premature miscarriage. Warranted purely Vegetable, and free from any thing injurious to life or health. Full and explicit directions which should be read, accompany each box.

These Pills are sold at $1 per box, flat boxes.—Persons residing where there are no Agencies established, by enclosing One Dollar in a letter, prepaid, to Dr. C. L. CHEESEMAN, Box No. 4,581, Post Office, New York City, can have them sent to their respective addresses by return of mail.

DEATH IN THE CARS.—A friend of the editor of the Providence Journal, writes of a sad scene which he witnessed, while travelling west from Michigan city. A young woman in the last stages of consumption was taken into the cars with her mother, brother and sister, and she was reclining on her mother's breast, the mother affectionately smoothing her hair, when she suddenly raised her head, and fell back dead. The writer says—"A scene of grief ensued, which no power on earth can describe."

NEVER LET INSURANCE POLICES GO UNRENEWED.—At the burning of the Mansion House, at Cape Island, N. J., and adjacent houses, an exhibition hall and range of dormitories called the Kursaal, was destroyed. An old policy of insurance, on this latter edifice, for $10,000, expired on Tuesday, and the buildings were burned just thirty-six hours after, or at midnight of Wednesday.

A FITTING MONUMENT TO FRANKLIN.—The tomb of Franklin (if a plain flagstone even with the earth can be so called) is concealed from the public view by a venerable brick wall at the corner of Fifth and Mulberry streets, Philadelphia. The remains of the lightning-philosopher are deposited there, in the old burial ground belonging to Christ church. An appropriate monument has been accidentally reared above them, in the shape of a telegraph post, and the lightning is at constant play over, if not under, the eye of the man who first chained it to the earth.

THE "USUAL RATES."—A good story is going the newspaper rounds concerning a Western editor and his wife who were walking out in the bright moonlight, one evening. The wife was of an exceedingly poetical nature, and said to her mate: "Notice the moon, how bright, and calm, and beautiful." "Couldn't think of noticing it," returned the absent minded editor, "for anything less than the usual rates, a dollar and fifty cents for twelve lines."

The facts published by Dr. Cox, inspector of liquors at Cincinnati, in respect to the poisons by which liquors are adulterated, has made the dealers highly incensed.—Some of them refuse to allow the inspection of their liquors, and treat the inspector with profaneness and brutality. The inspector publishes the names of all such, and thus affords the public a pretty sure means of determining what dealers intentionally sell poisoned liquors.

FOUR MEN HUNG IN ONE DAY.—St. Louis, June 20.—John Lapoint, for the murder of Robert Wheaton; Israel Shoultz, for shooting John Inham; and Jacob Woesfilin, for killing his wife, were executed in the jail yard in this city yesterday; and at Edwardsville, Illinois, George W. Sharp and John Johnson were hung for the murder of Barth.

HOW THEY DO THINGS IN ENGLAND.—The Manchester Weekly Alliance of June 6, contains the following item.

At Reigate, on Tuesday, Mr. James Algernon Stuart Austen, a middle-aged man, of Headley, Surrey, stated to be a merchant in London, son of a baronet, and brother to a county magistrate, appeared before the bench of justices to answer the complaint of Miss Emily Burley, ladies' maid to the Rev. Lord Charles Hervey, rector of Chelmsford, for committing a gross and indecent assault upon her in a railway carriage in the Merlsham tunnel. The complainant having given the particulars of the offence she imputed to the prisoner, Mr. Morrison addressed the bench on his behalf, contending that it was quite possible she might be mistaken as to his identity. The chairman (Mr. Frazer) said that a stop must be put to such cases, and the bench would therefore sentence the defendant to three weeks' imprisonment. Mr. Morrison appealed to the bench, offering to give £50 to any charity, if they would only mitigate the sentence. The defendant was a highly respectable London merchant, and his character and prospects for life would be ruined if he were sent to prison; and besides, he had no time to confute the evidence. The bench, however, declined to accept any compromise, and the defendant was removed to the lock-up, preparatory to being removed to Wandsworth prison.

OLE BULL.—When the great Norwegian violinist first appeared in Italy, the immense and enraptured audience knew not which to applaud most, his genius or his superhuman strength in performing four distinct parts on the violin at once, and keeping up the motion of his bow with such lightning swiftness, for so long a time. The novelty and marvellous difficulty of the finale, in which the violin alone performs four distinct parts, and keeps up a continuous shake through fifteen bars, completely electrified them. No person who has not tried it can conceive of the extreme difficulty of playing at once distinct parts on each of the strings. It requires muscles as strong as iron, and elastic as India Rubber. Paganini had sufficient elasticity but not sufficient strength. Ole Bull is the only man in the world that ever did it. When the Parisians first heard him produce this wonderful effect of four violins, it seemed so incredible that a story was circulated in the papers that it was all a deception; that some other musician was playing two of the parts behind the scenes. Thus originated the charge of "charlatanry," so often and so unjustly repeated.

OLE BULL IN LOWELL.—The people of Lowell have long wanted a chime of bells. They could not agree upon a place to hang them; every church, in the opinion of its members, possessing unrivalled qualifications; but the chief difficulty lay in the fact that the money was not forthcoming. Ole Bull, bearing of their troubles, volunteered a concert, the proceeds of which were to be devoted to the purchase of the largest bell of the chime. On Tuesday evening the promised entertainment came off. Nearly 2500 persons were present, and the bell is to be bought, Ole Bull's name and the date of the presentation inscribed upon it, and the whole chime will soon discourse music from some lofty tower.—Concord Statesman.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—A terrific thunder storm passed over this city this afternoon. Hail fell from ten to fifteen minutes, some of the stones weighing five or six ounces, causing immense destruction to skylights and windows of churches, public and private buildings. The government conservatories, and several private galleries of art were seriously damaged. The trees were stripped of their foliage, and the grain, vegetables and shrubbery beat to the earth, and in some cases horses and cows were severely cut. The storm extended for twelve miles in breadth, in a course from southwest to north-east.

There are no reports as yet from the plantations in the vicinity, but the crops are undoubtedly greatly injured, if not entirely ruined.

A BRIGHT BOY.—Abel H. Fuller was examined before a Justice at Groton, (Mass.) on Thursday, on two complaints for liquor selling, and found guilty of both. Among the witnesses against Fuller was his own son, a lad of twelve or fourteen. He testified that his father kept liquor in the granary for his men; "but then," said he, "It doesn't hurt 'em any, because father waters it well!" This innocent confession caused infinite amusement.

The Connecticut House of Representatives refuse to concur with the Senate in passing the bill to allow towns to grant licenses to circuses, &c. Those "institutions" are now prohibited in Connecticut, because, some years ago, an exhibition resulted in a row and murder.

INSTALLATION.—Rev. S. Clarke was installed pastor of the Unitarian Society in Wilton, on Thursday, June 11th.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 24. 1857.

WHERE IS THE POWER?—Is it in a statute, written on parchment, and printed in a book? Or is it in the heart and habits, the conscience and the will of the people? Chiefly in the latter;—and this latter acts upon the former, giving it power, or making it powerless. Two illustrations meet our eye at this moment.

An editor who has recently traveled a thousand miles on the border of the Slave States, found constant complaints that the slaves flee away in great numbers, which numbers are increasing, while a very small per centage only, are ever recovered.

The other illustration is drawn from the prohibitory law, so called, on the subject of intemperance, which stands on the statute books of several States.

It is undeniable that the Statutes of the Slave States, and of the United States, conspire to make it a crime for a slave to escape into freedom, and also a crime for any body to help him. It is well known that there is a public opinion or will in the Slave States, and to some extent in those termed free, that upholds these laws, and by which they are sometimes executed and enforced.

But this opinion is not universal or unanimous. Far from it. The feeling and the opinion of thousands is rather,—let him run if he can; we will not stop him. For this reason, among others, and beyond most others, it is, that not so much as one per centum of the runaways, is reclaimed by law.

A similar conflict of opinion, will, and action, is visible on the operation of those laws intended to suppress intemperance. They stand on the book; in several states, they have breasted the shock of parties organized against them; they are executed in many cases, yet not in all; and their influence for good is greatly narrowed by the strong opposition, which is so readily arrayed against them and so difficult to be removed.

What we need, in regard to both, is the enlightening of the public mind, and the improvement and elevation of the public morals. This would make one set of laws weaker and the other stronger; would give power to the good, and take it away from the evil.

☞ Godey's Lady's Book, July number, contains 100 pages, 56 engravings and 60 contributors. The fashion plate contains 7 figures, more than has ever before been given in a single fashion plate in America—and it contains childrens' fashions, beautifully colored. Grandfather's Watch is is a truly beautiful engraving, and one of Godey's best. It is splendid in engraving, and beautiful in sentiment.

This is the first number of Vol. 55, and the 27th year of publishing the Book, and Mr. G. has been sole publisher during all that period. There are a few who commenced with the first number and still continue their subscriptions. Now is an excellent time to commence new subscriptions. Those who wish it can commence with the January No.

☞ Some people are green enough to believe that an animal's weight will not vary perceptibly, in a few hours,—according to the circumstances in which they are placed—whether they travel or stand still, or whether they eat a full meal or not. The late Com. Stevens, the celebrated sporting man of New York, recorded, as a remarkable instance to the contrary of this, says Porter's Spirit, that his mare "Black Maria lost over one hundred weight, in her twenty-mile race!"

HOOPS ORDERED OUT OF A MARKET.—The Norfolk, Va. Argus states that on Saturday, a mulatto girl went to the market of that city, with hoops so extensive, that the clerk ordered her away from the place as an obstruction.—In the meantime, a noisy crowd had collected, and the girl becoming frightened, attempted to tear her hoops off, in which she was successfully aided by two or three colored women present.

☞ The thieves in Philadelphia have attained to an effrontery in the profession, which the brethren elsewhere can hardly pretend to, as yet. It is a practice with them now to tear off street door plates—especially the silver ones. As many as forty plates were missing one morning last week! Some of the plates being silver, the thieves made quite a haul.

CUSTOM HOUSE APPOINTMENTS.—Philadelphia, June 22.—Collector Baker has made his appointments in the Custom House, including, it is said, several old Whigs. There is, in consequence, much dissatisfaction among the faithful Democrats.

ONE WEEK LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE PERSIA.

NEW YORK, June 23.—The royal mail steamship Persia, from Liverpool, with dates including the 13th, arrived this morning.

Proceedings in the British Parliament have been chiefly of local interest. The bill for the admission of Jews into Parliament was read a second time. The Roman Catholic members, headed by the Duke of Norfolk, are opposed to the measure, and had waited upon Lord Palmerston, and also held a meeting for the purpose of securing relief for the Catholics from the objectionable passages in the oaths now taken by members of the Legislature. The interview with Lord Palmerston was not satisfactory, and the Catholics have therefore resolved to support amendments to the bill in committee embodying their views, and also to memorialize Parliament to frame an oath for all classes, without distinction of creeds.

A public meeting of merchants was held in Liverpool on Friday, for the purpose of assisting the movements for obtaining an increased supply of cotton.

Douglass Jerrold is dead.

The sch Silver Key, from Boston, with apparatus for raising the sunken vessels at Sebastopol, sailed from Malta May 27, for the scene of operations.

General rains in Ireland had largely benefited the crops, which gave promise of great abundance.

Evans, Hoare & Co., of London, engaged in the Australian trade, have failed. Their liabilities are estimated at nearly £200,000.

The warehouse of Pickford & Co., railroad carriers, at Camdentown, have been destroyed by fire.

An immense amount of merchandise, including 40,000 quarters of corn, was consumed. Loss $250,000.

FRANCE.—The election movement is the prevailing topic in French politics. Accounts are contradictory.

The monthly return of the Bank of France and its branches shows an increase in cash of 50,000,000 francs.

A dispatch from Florence states that the scenery of the theatre took fire on Thursday evening during the performance of the Seige of Sebastopol. A panic arose, when forty three persons were killed, and one hundred and thirty-four wounded.

CHINA.—Advices from China state that the rebels are again making headway in the districts surrounding Foo-chow-foo.

No movement of importance had taken place with the English forces.

PERSIA.—It was supposed that the bulk of the British army in Persia would remain there for some months to come.—The general health of troops had been good

LIVERPOOL COTTON MARKET, June 13.—In this market, an active demand had sprung up, and under the influence of the news from America, received by the Asia, an advance of 1-2d had been established.

The Breadstuffs market was generally firm. Wheat had rapidly recovered the decline of the previous Friday, and closed at an advance of 3d a 4d per bushel on the rates current at the departure of the Europa. Flour steady. Corn quiet at about former quotations, except for white.

☞ In a back township in Upper Canada, a magistrate who kept a tavern, sold liquor to the people till they got drunk, and fought in his house. He then issued a warrant, apprehended them, and tried them on the spot, and besides fining them, made them treat each other to make up the quarrel.

INCREASED CULTIVATION DOWN EAST.—The Machias Republican says:—"There will be at least a quarter more farming in this county this year, than ordinarily." We are glad to hear that the people are endeavoring to lessen the pressure of hard times, by cultivating, each man, whatever land he can command.—The reports from the grain and grass crops at the eastward are good.

☞ Father Sawyer, the venerable centenarian preacher, is now in Bangor, where he intends to make his home. His health remains as good as it has been for some years past, and his bodily and mental vigor does not seem to have abated since his visit last year. He has now passed eight months of his 102d year.

REV. E. E. Adams, of the Pearl street Church, Nashua, and chaplain of the House, has been invited to become the District Secretary of the American and Foreign Christian Union at Philadelphia. It is stated that on account of his health, he feels it to be his duty to accept the appointment, and will soon do so.—Manchester American.

THE METROPOLITAN POLICE LAW—ANTI-RENT DIFFICULTIES RENEWED.—Albany, June 22.—A renewal of the anti-rent difficulties has occurred. Sheriff Church and Deputies, while proceeding on Saturday to attend a sale in Berne, of property seized for rent, were fired upon from ambush, and narrowly escaped. Two persons, father and son, owners of the property levied upon, have been arrested.

Only five Judges were present at the Court of appeals, to-day. It is still thought that a decision will be reached in the New York Police case to-morrow, (Tuesday.)

TEMPERANCE IN MANCHESTER.

Horace D. Corliss was arraigned on a complaint for selling liquor, on the 10th day of January last, to one Eli T. Prescott.

Prescott sworn.—Bought of Mr. Corliss on the first of January half a pint of new rum—that was what he called for—purchased it of Mr. Corliss himself—he carried a half-pint bottle—it was put into the bottle which he carried—he paid him five cents.

Cross examination.—He was 17 years of age—lived with his mother, Mrs. L. L. Prescott—got it for her for medical purposes—she so stated to him when he went after it—she sent him for the liquor—carried it home to her—when he carried it home to her she asked him where he got it—didn't recollect whether she told him to go there and get it—had not so sworn—didn't recollect what she did with it—had not seen it since she carried it home—she said nothing to him about prosecuting Mr. Corliss at that time—she first spoke to him about prosecution two weeks ago—didn't recollect what she said about it—there was another boy who purchased some, 4 days before, the 29th of Dec.—didn't wish to tell whom he purchased of—the boy's name was James Collins—(finally being very hard pressed) he said that the boy had purchased it of one Dr. Tibbets—did not know by whose request Collins purchased—he showed me liquor at the time—didn't recollect that he had purchased any other liquor—he would not swear that his mother had never sent him to any other places—she spoke of prosecution and he would be expected as a witness—she said she wanted the liquor "to mix up some lobelia with"—told him at the time he bought it—don't know whether she used it for that purpose—he thought she had told him that she bought it for the purpose of prosecution.

The Court thought the evidence sufficient to hold the respondent, and bound him over in the sum of $400 to appear at the higher Court in December, and to keep the peace and sell no liquor hereafter.

City Marshal Lowell for the government, J. L. Fitch, Esq., for the respondent.—Manchester American.

ESSEX CO., MASS.—At the Court of Common Pleas in Newburyport, June 22, as reported in the Herald, the jury to which was given the case of Andrew Cassy of Amesbury, for a violation of the liquor law, rendered a verdict of guilty. Casey and his sureties were defaulted.

Charles W. Buxton of Salem, indicted for keeping a nuisance under the liquor law. Verdict of guilty.

Joseph Herrick of Gloucester, common seller—verdict of guily on two counts.

ANOTHER OF THE LETTERS.—In answer to our calls for settlements of accounts, especially those at a distance on our Weekly list, we get various letters. The following is one we received yesterday. There may be more cases like it.

I did not get your letter you sent in your paper, till recently. We have got a rum, hunker Postmaster, and everything that is in favor of temperance or anti-slavery is handled to his liking. I don't get some of your papers at all; and others come in six weeks, and some in two months,—which you are not to blame for. Please bear with me, for I am poor; but I would be prompt in all things, if I could.

I send you one dollar; let this answer, till I get some more.

NAVAL AND MARINE NEWS.—Washington, June 22.—New Orleans mails of the 16th are received.

Lieut Craven has received preparatory orders for building boats, and making other arrangements for a survey of the Isthmus of Darien, with the view of a ship canal. He will not start before October. The Navy Department has made application to the War Department for the assignment of an officer to co-operate with the expedition. For this purpose the Varina will take the place of the Arctic, which will be employed by the coast survey, under Lieut. Berryman, in taking deep sea soundings on the coast of Newfoundland for the sub-marine telegraph.

The Saranac, which has been ordered to the Pacific, will precede the Merrimac, as the flagship there, and take the place of the John Adams.

CENTENNIAL MASONIC CELEBRATION.—Providence, June 22.—Extensive preparations are being made to celebrate the Centennial Anniversary of St. John's Lodge No. 2, in this city on the 24th inst. Encampments, chapters and lodges from various parts of the county have given notice of their intention to be present. Many distinguished persons are also expected.—The DeMolay Encampment of Knight Templars, of Boston, will act as escort.

SIX BROTHELS DESTROYED BY A MOB.—Detroit, June 22.—A mob of 50 or 60 persons made an onslaught on Saturday night, on the houses of ill-fame in the upper part of the city. They burned three, demolished two others, and drove out the inmates of the sixth. A large crowd gathering, the rioters were compelled to desist. One person was stabbed. No arrests were made.

CHARGE OF MAIL ROBBERY.—Portsmouth, Va. June 22.—Chas. Cowlan, a clerk in the Post Office here, has been arrested for robbing letters, containing $5000, and has acknowledged his guilt. About $2200 have been recovered.

The Herald complains bitterly of the "price of living in New York." It certainly is a fair subject of complaint, that living is so dear where life is so cheap.—Louisville Journal.

MARRIED.

LOCAL.

☞ We see it stated that the Navy Department have determined to build one of the five sloops-of-war, by private contract, for which proposals are soon to be issued.

The Government of course will not get a ship equal to one built by the day on a Navy Yard, out of Government materials; but if a ship is to be built by contract, we hope that some of our Portsmouth builders will hand in proposals. We would like to see the sloop-of-war built here; and there could not possibly be a time when our builders could more conveniently attend to such a job, than at present.

☞ On Saturday afternoon, a couple of half-drunken rowdies went into the Stone Stable, and were insolent to one of the hostlers,—who could handle half-a-dozen such chaps in such a condition. At his suggestion, they deemed it best to leave—on doing which, one of them drew a jack-knife, and brandished it as he we went.—They soon returned to the stable—to whip the hostler, as they said; but were met by one of the proprietors, who refused them admittance. After some attempts to enter, one of the intruders received a severe blow on the head with a fork-handle, which reduced him to his proper level;—when the other threw a stone at the head of the stable-keeper—but both were finally driven off.

There was also an Irish fight and knock-down at the foot of Daniel Street,—on the same afternoon—from the same cause. "No riots," eh?

☞ Mr. H. G. Cole, who lectured on Intemperance last evening, in the Temple, will lecture there again this evening. Admission 3 cents, to pay expenses. Mr. C. was formerly a seller of intoxicating drinks, —but is now laboring for temperance.

☞ We had the pleasure to attend, at the Temple in Portsmouth, an excellent lecture on the anatomy and physiology of the human eye, and use and abuse of spectacles, delivered by Prof. E. S. Franks, the talented optician of New York, who is now in this city, on a professional visit for a few days. There was assembled a large and respectable audience, who seemed to listen with much interest and marked attention to the lecturer's scientific remarks. We were not aware of what vital importance it is to the eye-sight, to have good glasses, and accurately applied, or the injury we sustain by bad lenses, or improperly adjusted ones.

The lecturer left no doubt in our mind of his perfect knowledge of the subject he treated on. He commenced by clearly describing the laws of optics, and principles of light; then the formation, functions, physiology, and capabilities of the human eye, and action of spectacles, perfect and imperfect on that organ. He has materially aided by some of the best models and diagrams in the States, of which, Dr. Franks is the author. He exhibited on some very ingeniously contrived working models of the eye, in a very masterly manner, the action of spectacles, which proved to us very satisfactorily, that spectacles are often (even by the medical faculty) recommended, where they ought not to be used, and that the mere vender of spectacles is oftener in the habit of offering his deleterious counsel, and seriously injures the eye by maltreatment, for want of understanding its form and functions, and the action of spectacles thereon.

The Professor is a good speaker, gentlemanly in his manner, and a thorough optician. In fact we earnestly recommend our friends using spectacles, to have their eyes examined and supplied with glasses, during the Doctor's limited stay here, as this is an opportunity of obtaining his spectacles, and advice, that may never occur again. He is the sole patentee and forms no agencies.—His office for the short time he remains in Portsmouth, is at the City Hotel, where we understand he has a large stock of patent spectacles for sale. Execution of J. M. Ward.—The execution of this man, for the murder of his wife, took place in the jail of Toledo, Ohio, on Friday last. He made a confession some two weeks previous, in which he confessed he not only killed his wife and burnt her, but that he also killed two men at Richland, Ohio, at different times, when he was keeping a tavern there. He had been suspected of these two murders, but had never been arrested for them. On the day of his examination he denied the murder of the men, but acknowledged the killing of his wife.

Dress Reform.—The Reform Convention is now in session at Syracuse. A large number of "Bloomers" are in attendance. They go in for the "higher law," as applicable to dress.

The Elections in Kansas.—[Special despatch to the Traveller.]—St. Louis, June 22.—Not more than 1500 votes were cast in Kansas. In Leavenworth, the vote was 225. In Douglas County, which includes within its limits both the towns of Lawrence and Lecompton, 175 votes were thrown. In Jefferson county, 50.

The Free State Convention has been called to meet at Topeka, on the 15th day of July.

Lawrence, K. T., June 15.—(Via St. Louis, June 22)—The total vote of Douglas county is only 293. Only three precincts had their polls opened. The ultra ticket is elected. Only five precincts were opened, south of the Kaw river, except in border counties. The total vote will fall short of 4,000.

St. Louis, June 22.—The Republican learns that in the counties of Doniphan, Atchison, Leavenworth, Johnson, Jefferson, Shawnee and Douglas, in Kansas, 41 Democratic delegates were elected to the Constitutional Convention.

A letter to the Democrat says that the vote at Leavenworth was 225, and the whole vote of the county will not exceed 506. Jefferson County gives 50 votes; Douglas 175; Franklin 30, as far as heard from.

Large Paper Mill Burned.—Pittsburg, Pa., June 20.—Yesterday, the paper mill of Jas. Howard & Co., at Manchester, near this city, was burned to the ground with all its contents. The loss amounts to $25,000, and the insurance, which is in the Pittsburg offices, to $10,000.

The Secret Discovered at Last.—We have noticed in passing through Market street, lately, that the New Store, No. 14, always seems crowded with customers. We have at last discovered the secret of it. On stepping inside, we find that the proprietors, Messrs. Allen & Paine, in fitting up their store in the beautiful manner they have, had an eye for the useful, as well as for the ornamental; we noticed that the store appeared very light and cheerful, and on looking for a solution of the mystery, we discover that the store contains a Sky Light, giving them facilities for showing their Goods possessed by no other Dry Goods store in town: as Customers by such a light, have no difficulty in seeing just what they are purchasing, and can not be deceived in the color or quality of goods. We notice, also, that their stock is always composed of the latest styles and very latest styles, which is explained by the fact that one of the firm visits the market to replenish their goods every ten days,—and as they buy for Cash, altogether, they are able to offer their goods at as low prices as any other parties.

Those who purchase Dry Goods will do well to visit them. Read their advertisement in another column.

Also, Kennedy's Medical Discovery, price 68 cents per bottle.

"IN PEACE PREPARE FOR WAR."—In the days of our youth it behoves us to make some preparation for the approach of age. How many persons have become prematurely bald by neglecting to apply appropriate remedies to prevent the hair from falling out. The use of Professor Wood's "Hair Restorative" will prevent the hair from falling off, impart to it a healthy growth, and even restore the hair of the bald. Thousands have testified to its efficacy. To be had of Druggists everywhere.

DOES ANY OF OUR HIGH LIVERS ever eat too much dinner? If any of our readers have cooks who tempt their appetite a little too far, I will tell a secret that will lead them to the enjoyment of their dinners, without a visit from that gouty old gentleman, Dyspepsia. Take a dose of Dr. Sanford's Invigorator after eating, and you will never be troubled with indigestion; and if the contrary effect should be next meal time approaches, the appetite will be sharpened to appreciate any kind of food. If the food rises or sours, the Invigorator will fix the matter right at once, for there is something in it that, to use the expression of a friend, will let a man eat gravel stones, and take the Invigorator and they will digest. We have tried it in double doses on one or two occasions, for sick headache, and it acts like a charm.

What we want to say to our readers, young or old, is, if anything ails you, go without delay and get a bottle of Dr. Sanford's Invigorator, and if it won't cure, come and tell us, for we want to see one person that it will not benefit.

ISLES of SHOALS,

Is now open for Public Accommodation.

The schooner SIBYL, (one of the beautiful yachts built by the late Geo. Steers,) will run daily to this island from Pier Wharf, in Portsmouth, immediately after the arrival of the morning train of cars from Boston, and return in the afternoon.

The Sibyl is commanded by Capt. RUFUS A. PREELE, a thorough sailor, who will give every attention to the comfort and enjoyment of his passengers.

The Sibyl has a magnificent cabin, water closets, tanks, and every accommodation which a first class Packet requires.

The advantages this purely Ocean Retreat possesses over all others are well known. Resting on the broad bosom of the Atlantic—free from heat, dust and noise—it is peculiarly fitted to restore health to the invalid, and rest to the careworn and weary. ☞ THOMAS B. LAIGHTON.

TO THE CITIZENS OF THE UNITED STATES
CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.

After several years experimenting in the manufacturing of Gin, I fortunately succeeded in the year 1848, in making a discovery in its manufacture by which it was deprived of all acrid and inflammatory properties, and rendered perfectly pure.

My manufactory is at Scheidam, Holland. After several months' reflection what title to give it, I introduced it to the American public under the name of "Wolfe's Scheidam Aromatic Schnapps." Scheidam is the name of the place in Holland where the Gin is manufactured. Aromatic derives its name from the Italian Juniper Berry with which it is flavored, and the word "Schnapps" is the German for drink—Cogue, Dram—Wolfe's Scheidam Aromatic Drink. No sooner had my Schnapps been introduced to the American public and received with approbation, than the Liquor Mixers of New York, Boston and Philadelphia, started in pursuit with their mixed and poisonous stuff under various names: Scheidam Gin, Scheidam Schnapps, London Club House Gin, London Cordial Gin, &c., and in several cases my labels have been so perfectly imitated, with only the addition of a few letters to plead a technical avoidance of the law, and so carefully prepared to impose on careless purchasers. I understand a large quantity has been purchased by the merchants of the Eastern States on account of the cheapness of the articles. A merchant who participates indirectly in the fraud by selling the spurious articles, is as much an offender as the principal who planned the imposition.

I hope every respectable citizen who values the health of the community in which he lives will aid me in ferreting out and exposing the unscrupulous merchant, who, for the sake of a few cents, will put in jeopardy the lives of the community in which he lives. Such conduct should be nailed to the pillory of popular execration.

Wolfe's Scheidam Aromatic Schnapps is made from barley of the first quality, selected with great care from the products of the most celebrated grain-growing districts, is flavored with the essence of the aromatic Juniper Berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process, which expels from the spirit every acrid principle.

As a means of preventing and correcting the disagreeable and often dangerous effects produced upon the stomach and bowels by a change of water—a visitation to which travelers and settlers, and all unacclimated persons in the West, the South and South-West are peculiarly liable—the Scheidam Aromatic Schnapps will be found absolutely infallible; while, in cases of dropsy, gravel, obstructions of the kidneys, diseases of the bladder, dyspepsia, and general debility, it is recommended most emphatically by the most distinguished members of the medical profession.

It is put up in quart and pint bottles, in cases of one dozen, with the name of the undersigned on the bottle and cork, and a fac-similie of his signature and label.

For sale by all respectable druggists and country merchants. ADOLPH WOLFE.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN
Is shown by the Records of the Custom House to be the only London Cordial Gin IMPORTED and sold in bottles; all others are made here in imitation of it.

It is a delicious tonic beverage, and by its peculiar flavor (so different from other gins) is universally esteemed by all who use it. It is adopted with great success in cases of Dyspepsia, Gout, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Gravel, Colic, Cholera, Fever and Ague, Stricture, Diseases of the Urinary Organs, Epilepsy, Female Irregularities.

Dr. Valentine Mott of New York, in a letter to the proprietor, says:

"Charles' London Cordial Gin, is the purest, best, and most reliable Extract of Juniper I have seen.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN is sold by all Druggists and Grocers in the United States, and so also are numerous poisons called "Imitation Cordial Gin"—to avoid them buy only "CHARLES'." Reject any other offered to you as you value your health. Price one dollar for quarts, fifty cents for pints.

HOUSE LOTS AT AUCTION.
A grand chance to lay the foundation for a home.

WILL be sold at Public Auction on the premises, in Portsmouth,
On SATURDAY Afternoon, June 27th, at 3 o'clock,

TEN HOUSE LOTS!

Consisting in the aggregate of about 90,000 square feet of Land, which is bounded on the south by Islington street, on the east by Cross street, on the west by land of True M. Ball, bordering on Frenchman's Lane, and on the north by a new street, being the land now owned by Rittredge Sheldon.

This is in every respect the most eligible and desirable position for House Lots now in the market. It is about 10 minutes walk from Market Square, in a direct line through the pleasantest and best street in the city, with a good sidewalk the entire distance, and combining in an unusual degree the advantages of rural and city life. The land is dry, the grounds are shaded with tall and graceful elms, forming the most picturesque landscape to be found within a mile of the city. The lots vary in size from 5000 to 12000 feet; the smallest affording ample garden, as well as building room.

An accurate plan of the Lots may be seen at H. F. Wendell's Store, No. 70 State street, and further particulars may be obtained of the subscriber. RITTREDGE SHELDON.

IMPORTANT NEW INVENTION

PATENT DOUBLE VISION SPECTACLES.
EDWARD S. FRANKS, PROF. OF OPTICS,
No. 3 Park Row, opposite the Astor House, New York.
SPECTACLE MANUFACTURER,
Lecturer on the Anatomy and Physiology of the Human Eye, and Use and Abuse of Spectacles.
Optician by Diploma to the N. Y. Eye Hospital,
And Spectacle-Maker to the New York Eye and Ear Infirmary.

Has much pleasure in announcing that he has secured letters patent, granted by the United States Patent Office, for very valuable improvements in Spectacle Glasses.

He has a complete assortment of his improved patent spectacles, in gold, silver, steel, and all other mountings. It will be understood that Prof. Franks, being the patentee, his spectacles can be obtained only from himself, as he has no other person authorized to manufacture or sell the same, unless specially licensed to do so by him.

The advantages of these Spectacles over all others, are:

1st. The only true lens known, being perfectly centered so as the focus of each surface shall be opposite each other, which renders them nearly free from chromatic light, so injurious to vision, a lamentable deficiency in all the old kind of spectacle glasses, and makes the change of spectacles to glasses of stronger powers, so often required.

2d. Can be worn with perfect ease for any length of time at one sitting, giving unbounded pleasure of vision particularly to those accustomed to efforts to use the spectacles we are doing away with.

3d. Chance of specimen to suit any age, giving power to most eyes almost required, should the effect also last long, consequently saving much money thus securing to the patent glass well during life.

4th. Which the eyes pain or ache from the reflection of bright light such as is experienced on a sunny weather, white paper, and in reading, writing or sewing on vivid colored objects; these lenses by softening the rays, effect the most sensitive sensation, and a perfect relief.

5th. In all nervous affections of the eye, causing dull or startling pains in the eyeballs or temples, appearance of luminous or fiery spots in the atmosphere, itching, or feelings like sand in the eye, the disturbed nerves are quieted, soothed, composed, and entirely restored.

6th. Ground by peculiar machinery got up at great cost, mathematically calculated exactly for the manufacture of this lens, so as to produce it with true spherical accuracy, and its focus at the exact center, a point of vital importance, and which no other lens possesses.

7th. Proof of superiority over the old kind of spectacles: They are exclusively used at the Hospitals for diseases of the eye in New York, and have received the following unqualified

Testimony of Recommendation

ALEXANDER E. HOSACK, M.D.,
WILLIAM CLAY WALLACE, M.D.,

Many years of public practice and study in the hospitals of New York, and London (in England), of adjusting spectacles to patients, under every aspect of defective vision, as well as experience in an extensive long established business at his optical stores, both here and in Europe, Professor Franks considers it a sufficient guarantee of his ability, to apply such glasses as are best calculated for the assistance or recovery of imperfect sight.

DEATH FROM DELIRIUM TREMENS. — A young man named Simmons, died in the Tombs, early yesterday morning, of delirium tremens. He was committed as a common drunkard. It was a melancholy spectacle. The deceased occupied a high position in the community but a year or two since, having been a clothing dealer in Salem. When brought to the Tombs he was attired in fashionable garments, with a diamond pin and other ornaments. His sufferings before dying were severe in the extreme. A more horrid death can hardly be conceived. His sad and ignominious end should be a warning to all young men. Here was a man who, in a very brief time, by dissipation ran through a handsome property, ruined his character and business, and ended his life still in the early prime, in a manner sad beyond language to express.—Boston Bee.

The panel work of the store of Stephen Webster, on Market street, Amesbury, Mass., was mutilated one evening last week by some miscreant. Mr. Webster has recently been appointed as agent for the sale of liquors by the Selectmen, and it is conjectured that this act was done by some one to whom he had refused to sell liquors, being satisfied that it was wanted for other purposes than those of "medicinal or mechanical."—Villager.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)

No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston,

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to procure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed in liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber, and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of Specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office, and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in advising inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

The Medicine THAT NEVER FAILS!

IS DR. WILSON'S

DYSENTERY POWDER,

Which cures Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Cholera Morbus, and all the affections of the Bowels! attended with Pain and frequent Discharges.

This Medicine is now being introduced into all parts of the United States and British Provinces, and great sales attend its use everywhere. These Powders are now offered to the world as a PERFECTLY SAFE AND EFFECTUAL MEDICINE, for the purposes they are recommended, and in nine cases out of ten

ONE POWDER WILL CURE THE WORST CASE,

when they are taken in the first stages, and almost invariably two will effect a permanent Cure; and unlike all other preparations, which, if they check the disease, leave the person in a condition that requires physic after it, which is not the case with the Dysentery Powders, for they regulate the Bowels, tone up the system, and leave it in a healthy state.

These Powders are put up in boxes, with full directions on each box, and sold for 50 Cents.

Please try them; if they do not perform satisfaction, return them and take your money.

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. Franck & Co are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to support the constitution and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at drawing. It is another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state, and the drawing every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the application comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Ternary combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100 000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

☞ The drawn numbers of the Maryland Lotteries are published by the State Commissioner in the following papers: Sun, Clipper, Patriot, American, Argus, of Baltimore: also, the National Intelligencer and Union, of Washington, D.C.

Address R. H. HUBBARD & CO.,
No 39 Fayette st., or box No. 40,

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is conducted in a honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Georgia are legalized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $10: halves, $5; quarters, $2 50. A ticket and drawing number accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $30,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Picayune, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to SAM'L SWAN & CO., Atlanta, Georgia.

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

All communications strictly confidential. m18 ly

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY,

DR. CHEESEMAN'S PILLS FOR FEMALES.

Prepared by an old Physician of 40 years experience

THE combination of ingredients in these Pills, is the result of a long and extensive practice; they are mild in their effect and certain to restoring nature to its proper channel. In every instance have the Pills proved successful. They are certain to overcome those obstructions to which females are liable, and bring nature back to proper channel, whereby health is restored, and the cold and deathly countenance changed to a healthy one; perfect health and good health immediately begins to decline. Suppression of the menses has been the cause of so many consumptions among young females. Headache, pain in the side, palpitation of the heart, loathing of food, and disturbed sleep, that most females know from the interruption of nature; and whenever that is the case, the Pills will invariably remedy all these evils. In all cases of painful menstruation, or nervous and spinal affections in the back and limbs, lowness of spirits, hysterics, &c. Nor are they less efficacious in the cure of Leucorrhœa, commonly called the "Whites." These Pills should never be taken during pregnancy, as they would be sure to cause a miscarriage. Warranted purely vegetable, and free from anything injurious to life or health. Full and explicit directions which should be read, accompany each box.

These Pills are put up in square, flat boxes.—Persons residing where there are no Agencies established, by enclosing One Dollar to Agent, prepaid, to Dr. C. L. CHEESEMAN, Box No. 4,581, Post Office, New York City, can have them sent without receive add

SHOEING HORSES.—A farmer of Niagara county, New York, states some important facts in relation to the proper and improper way of Shoeing Horses. He says:

"About six months since, I adopted a plan for the cure of this complaint, which has been so successful in three cases, that I am disposed to communicate it. My opinion is, that nine-tenths of the foundered horses are made so by the shoer. For a number of years my horses were shod by one man, who fitted his shoes very carefully—opened the heels handsomely, by trimming the frog and the heel of the hoof, and thinned the sole nicely, taking off all appearance of bars—making the shoe nearly straight from the ball of the foot to the heel. First, one horse became lame in one foot, then in the other; soon another began to be lame, and in spite of all our experiments, the third one was beginning to show the effects of this shoeing, when I changed the practice. Now the two latter are perfectly sound, and the first one, that had become so bad that it was painful to drive her even upon a walk, is so much improved that she feeds and acts like a different animal. Now for the plan.

Pare the foot pretty close; shin the sole in front of the bars, but cut no more off the bars than that the shoe may not press upon them; fit the shoe to the shape of the foot, making it come fairly under the heel of the hoof, and as wide as you can have it and get the nails in. Do not open the heels—at any rate cut nothing from the frog, whether ragged or not; if you choose, you may take a very little from the heel of the hoof where it comes in contact with the frog, but the practice is questionable. I think the bars and the frog are intended to keep the heels apart; therefore, save all the strength you can in the former, and do not disqualify the latter from accomplishing its object by cutting it away so that it cannot come in contact with the heels. Now cultivate the growth of the frog by applying daily either soap and tar boiled together, or soft soap, or urine, which latter I think is best of all. Take up the foot, clean it out carefully, and make your application to the sole of the foot, the frog and the heel. Standing in mud of blue clay for a few hours every day, is excellent."

☞ Senator Wilson, of Massachusetts, has written a letter on Massachusetts and national politics, which closes as follows:

I would now remind my Republican friends that the great object to be attained is the overthrow of the slave power, and its influence over the nation, and the prohibition of slavery everywhere under the exclusive authority of Congress. To secure that desired object, the Republican party must be increased, consolidated, organized. To accomplish that great work, it's friends must not only be firm in principle and fixed in purpose; they must be tolerant, self-sacrificing, and magnanimous in act. They must cordially welcome the "affiliation of men of all parties," and if in all the States they cannot at once secure that "affiliation," they must welcome the "co-operation of men of all parties." Time will bring together in one organization men who work together in the noble and ennobling cause of liberty. I would labor not only to unite in one harmonious party the one hundred and eight thousand men who voted for Fremont, but I would extend a generous welcome to the twenty thousand who voted for Fillmore, and the forty thousand who voted for Buchanan. I would say to all of these: "Come, act with us Republicans in the glorious strife for liberty—share our fortunes. If victory comes, we will rejoice together. If honors come, we will share them together." I would strive to win to our ranks every man, and make Massachusetts as unanimous for freedom as South Carolina is for slavery.

☞ The late Com. Stevens, of New York, was one of the most enterprising and scientific men in the country. Porter's Spirit of last week has a short but most interesting account of his experiments and experiences. In conjunction with his brother, he built hundreds of splendid steamers, yachts, &c.

The iron floating steam battery, now building at Hoboken, for the defense of New York city, in case of invasion, was expressly ordered by government, and the contract given to the Stevens brothers, who have already expended upon it over seven hundred thousand dollars! It will be enough "to fright the isle from its propriety."

A few years since, Com. Stevens purchased a "dismal-looking pine forest, covered with sand up to one's knees," at South Amboy, New Jersey.

The ground was filled with ugly pine trees and stumps. Mr. S. set to work clearing the pine barren in a style quite marvellous to his neighbors. He brought to his aid an enormous locomotive engine, and with double blocks and tackle, brought down the giants of the forest in no time.—It was his habit of a morning, having made fast his tackle over night to a couple of venerable stumps, to rise with the sun, get up steam on the locomotive, and then, "stand from under" was the word. One or the other must give way, and presently the doomed one sprang into the air, perhaps sixty feet, falling with a thundering crash.

A SUBSTANTIAL FAMILY.—A correspondent writing from New Sharon, Me., informs the Boston Journal that in the town of Kingfield, Franklin county, Me., there is living a family of father, mother, seven sons and four daughters. The father is fifty-five years of age, stands erect, is supple in limb, and has scarcely a gray hair on his head. His height is six feet six inches—weight 215 pounds. His wife is five feet seven inches in height, and weighs 160 pounds. The total height of their seven sons is forty four feet two inches, (average six feet three inches) — total weight 1400 pounds. The total height of the girls is twenty-three feet (average very near six feet—total weight 600 pounds. This family reside on the high lands of Northern Maine, about thirty-five miles from Portland. Neither the father, nor any member of his family, have ever been addicted to the use of tobacco or intoxicating liquor.

Manny's Celebrated Mower

—AND—

MOWER AND REAPER.

IMPROVED.

Built expressly for the New England States.

THE MANNY MOWER has been extensively used for the past two years in New England, and more than six years at the West.—Its success is beyond that of any other Mower or Reaper ever constructed. Over 150 1st Premiums have been awarded it, including the Grand 1st Class Silver Medal at the World's Fair, Paris, 1855.

With the two past years' experience, we have been enabled to make a number of very important improvements. We find New England farmer require a different Machine from other sections;—the fields generally being small. It must be light, at the same time possess great strength; portable, with facilities to raise the cutters to pass obstructions, and to remove from field to field. A perfect cutting apparatus, to cut the fine grasses without clogging, and so constructed as to start in the grass without backing, easily adjusted to cut high or low, and have a Reel to cut equally well with or against the wind, and to be worked with ease by a light team, and so easily managed and simple that any one of common ability may operate it successfully, and to be built in the most thorough manner.

With this knowledge of the farmers' requirements, and with the determination to build a better Machine than has ever before been constructed in this country, we offer the Manny Mower of 1857 with confidence, as combining the qualities enumerated above, and as one particularly adapted to meet the wants of New England farmers.

☞ We invite the farmers to call and examine Machines. Orders should be sent early. Circulars, with testimonials, forwarded FREE, on application.

Price of Mower, $110; with Reaper attachment, $15 Extra. Delivered on board the cars at Worcester, Mass. JOHN F. ADRIANCE & Co., Manufacturers.

BURDEN'S

Pressed Boat. Ship, Brad & Countersunk Railroad Spikes

ARE well known in the United States, and are conspicuous for their regularity and finish, their unvarying uniformity of size, and for the excellent quality of iron from which they are made, to which may be attributed their rare strength. THURSDAY, JUNE 25, 1857.

LETTER FROM "OTTERBANK."

WESTERN VERMONT, June 4.

Dear Uncle Toby:—Did you think that Otterbank was dead? I suppose not, for his paper still comes regularly, and is read with an interest that no other secular paper excites in him.

I am indeed glad to be out of that annual political strife in which it takes so long for the party to get used to being defeated, and in which the more respectable of the allies (if you can tell which that is) is getting nearer on a par with the other in character. Still I take great interest, not in your politics, but in the cause that has been unwisely coupled with them. Here we are quiet. Domagogues do not prove to us that the public mind is opposed to the principle of prohibition, and that the only way to save the country is by legalizing a traffic that they, for their own part, abhor, but which they consent to, in deference to the will of the dear people.

Not that the temperance cause here meets with no opposition. But I think that there is no class of respectable men (I do not count those so who make politics their living) who do so little to advance the cause of temperance as the lawyers. I was talking with one of them about this, as we met in highly respectable company, while his accomplished wife was talking with the lady of the house.

"You well-meaning persons do not understand so much about the evils you would suppress, as we do."

"I know it, my dear sir," Otterbank replied; "but there are two considerations. In the first place it is for the good of your profession that intemperance continue.—This does not influence you so much as the other; and that is, that lawyers are in fact the most convivial class of respectable men we have. Circuit practice gives occasion for suppers; and if one of the party likes strong drink and cigars, there is a tendency in others to slide into his example.—Hence it is unreasonable to expect as cordial aid from the bar in the execution of the prohibitory law, as from other people of the same respectability and equally enlarged views."

Just then his lady rose to go, and when they were gone, the hostess let me know that the lawyer was drunk then. He once had sunk very low; his companion was then a widow with a nice little property, and had been the means of his reformation. Some years after, he (out of gratitude, I suppose.) rewarded her with his hand.—Quiet domestic drunkenness is permitted by the laws of Vermont, as well as in your State.

Little compunction is shown here by any class for the victims of the prohibitory law. Just as court closed its session here last week, the Sheriff had a little bundle of papers which he was about serving with no more compunction than if they had been for money lent.

Some weeks ago an Irishman got drunk in Middlebury, Vt., and wandered bareheaded in the night some miles up the railroad track, over numerous spots rendered impassable to cattle, and at length fell off a bridge, as it is supposed. Long after they had ceased looking for him, the body was found with his watch, money and bottle of spirits still about him. Two Irishmen were discovered to have sold him liquor. They paid their fines with an alacrity that seem to indicate that they had dreaded a closer reckoning for the homicide.

It is useless to discuss whether the law diminishes the use of spirits here. As well might we enquire, whether this cold June we are having is warmer than April. Some liquor is brought from distances of twenty or thirty miles in New York; some is sold with great secrecy, but I doubt whether there is an open sale of spirits in any town in Vermont. And, long as I have been in this town, I do not know where the authorized agency is, or whether there is any.

But I took my pen mainly to speak of another matter. I am somewhat exercised on the subject of school books. I have been obliged to spend much precious time, these few months past, in the examination of text books; nor am I yet through. The multiplication of school books is a serious evil, and I fear there will be no remedy till copy-right works are excluded by law from our common schools. I am inclined to favor that step from what I have seen, but am not clear on it. Book publishing is a trade; and the character and talents of the authors have very little to do with the success of their works.

Numerous as are the geographies in use, I am told that there is but one house in this country that is actively engaged in geographical study. I allude, of course, to the Coltons of New York. Probably they would not have engaged in it with any earnestness, but for their great General Atlas, in which they are continually making changes, to keep up with the times.

They publish also two school geographies, and have still another in preparation. This last will prove a better atlas than has ever yet been published for schools in the United States. The pages are a little larger than those of any of the others, and the maps will be more numerous. These school geographies are in constant course of correction. Singapore was a British city as large as Boston before it found its place on our school atlases.

Mount Everest, the highest now known, is not probably to be found yet in any school atlas, unless it be in those Colton has issued this month. One author naively tells his pupils in 1856, that since his maps were engraved the Vermont Central has been built, running from such to such a point. Others anxious to be up with the times give projected roads as completed through, long since abandoned. So we go.

It is a satisfaction to see that the School Authorities of your State have adopted the two younger of Colton's Geographies for another reason. The pronunciation of all the names on the maps is given in a place by itself in the Geographies. And for this reason I find it convenient to have one of these little works in reach, and I make it my standard.

Lastly, Colton's Atlases have another peculiarity, in which they are, so far as I know, unique. All the maps are on the same scale when possible, and when it is not on a multiple of that scale. The importance of this to correct geographical notions has been much under-rated. The attainment of this costs something, but we can afford it.

I designed to speak of some other books, but I find that I have spun out my letter to an unreasonable length, and must conclude abruptly. Ever Yours,

OTTERBANK.

NEW HAMPSHIRE LEGISLATURE.

CONCORD, (N. H.) June 23.—In the Legislature, to-day, the Personal Liberty bill was discussed in the forenoon and part of the afternoon. It was adopted by a vote of 184 to 114.

The resolutions, condemnatory of the Dred Scott decision, were considered this afternoon. Mr. Greenleaf, of Portsmouth, made an elaborate speech against them. An adjournment was had till evening.—There was much interest manifested in the discussion, and the galleries and lobbies were crowded.

Mr. Greenleaf supported Judge Taney's decision and opinion. The inequality of the races was dwelt upon, and the degraded estimation in which the negro has been held for the century past, held fully to justify the assertion of Chief Justice Taney. Mr. Greenleaf has for years been for the opinion that the legislation of the nation on the subject of slavery, and of his own party too, was unconstitutional as the Supreme Court decision now declares it to be.

[Mr. Greenleaf, in this respect is one of the most consistent politicians in New-England;—as he has opposed every anti-slavery movement and effort since we can remember.]

According to previous notice, Mr. Lovering of Exeter, introduced an address for the removal of Hiram R. Roberts from the office of Judge of Probate for Strafford County.

The address passed, the yeas and nays being demanded, by the following vote—yeas, 147; nays 142.

SENATE.—Bills read a third time and passed.

An act to enable contiguous school districts to unite and form a single district.

An act relating to proceedings against stockholders in corporations.

An act in addition to an act to incorporate the Manchester Iron Co.

An act to enable the town of Claremont to establish a high school.

An act to extend the charter of the Sullivan Savings Institution.

An act to alter the names of certain persons.

An act to incorporate the Manchester Aqueduct.

An act in amendment of an act to incorporate the Portsmouth South Parish Sabbath School.

An act in addition to chapter 82 of the compiled statutes.

An act to incorporate the Holderness Shoe Manufacturing Company.

A message was received from the House, with information of the non-concurrence on their part in the Senate's amendment to the resolution in favor of William B. Randall.

The resolution and documents were recommitted to the committee on Claims.

AUGUSTA, GA., June 23.—The Democrats of the 3d district have nominated Mr. Bailey for Congress. They have also passed resolutions denouncing Walker's course in Kansas.

JUSTICE'S COURT—NEW YORK.—Perjury following close upon the Heels of Violence.—Patrick Garvin, the person who recently made a complaint against Mr. Jacob Cholwell, one of the Police Commissioners, charging him with threatening to take the life of Mayor Wood, was himself arrested on Saturday on a charge of perjury, preferred by Mr. Cholwell, and held under heavy bonds to answer. Mr. C., in complaint, denies the truth of some of the important allegations made by Garvin, among which are the following: His threatening to run a dirk knife into the heart of Mayor Wood; his opening the breast of his coat and exhibiting the handle of a knife; and the statement that he was armed to the teeth with pistols. Mr. C. further states that he made no threat to take the life of Mayor Wood, or to do him any bodily harm.

Wm. West, Isaac L. Lent, of the Metropolitan Police, and several others who were present on the night when the threats were alleged to have been made, testified that they heard all the conversation referred to, and heard Mr. C. make no threats of personal violence against the Mayor. Garvin, on being taken before Justice Flandreau, gave bail in $3000 to answer the charge of perjury.

Still Another Incident of the Police War. From the following case it will appear that the subordinates of new police are disposed to follow the example of their superiors, in taking advantage of the law whenever they can make it bear against the opposing force. Inspector Sebring of the 9th patrol precinct made the following return to the Metropolitan Police Commissioners on Saturday morning:—

"Information was received by Sergeant Carpenter that a man was lying in a beastly state of intoxication on the corner of 15th street and 7th avenue. Officer Clark was dispatched to the location designated, where he found Harrison Bellamy, one of the Mayor's police, lying on his back; his star and club were in possession of some citizens; his cap was lying on the sidewalk, while his coat, which was buttoned to his throat, plainly showed that he belonged to an army that assumed 'doubtful powers,' and had taken the responsibility of encumbering the sidewalk without permission."

The fated one was removed to the station house, detained till he got sober, and then taken before Justice Flandreau, who fined him ten dollars.

ELECTION NEWS.—St. Louis, June 23.—The Leavenworth Journal says the twelve regular Democratic candidates of that county have been elected by an average vote of 420. The average vote of the independent candidates was 75.

In Douglas County the Democratic nominees received an average vote of 135, and the independent candidates 100.

A hail storm in Buchanan county, Mo., on Saturday, destroyed all the crops, and killed some cattle in the fields. Several men were injured, and one, a negro, was killed. The hail stones were as large as goose eggs.

THE MORMONS.—Washington, June 23. (N. Y. Herald correspondence.) — Gen. Scott is here, having been sent for by the President to arrange matters with reference to the movements of troops for Utah. Their final orders are now being prepared. They are to act, while in the territory, as a posse comitatus; the United States laws are to be enforced, and strictly carried out, and the troops are not to interfere, in any manner, with the Mormons, or their religion. It is the intention of the President that the Governor, Judges, Marshal, etc., shall all proceed to Utah together, doubtless with the U. S. troops.

UTAH MATTERS.—Washington, June 23.—Gov. Cumming will take his family with him to Utah, intending to make that territory his permanent home.

Col. Jack Hays, of Texas celebrity, now Surveyor General of California, will probably be transferred to Utah in a similar capacity. Brigham Young has never recognized the United States surveys, but claims possession of all the soil in Utah. Not one of the inhabitants there holds lands derived by government title; hence even Salt Lake City is open to pre-emption.

The troops and civil officers will leave for Utah the middle of July or first of August.

☞ In the Manchester Police Court, June 22, Michael Haley, for assaulting Henry Bennett, an officer, was fined $10 and costs, $4,38, and ordered to give $200 bonds to keep the peace. Judge Smith appeared for the city and asked that a heavy fine should be imposed on Haley, as had heretofore been the case for assaulting officers in the discharge of their duty. He plead guilty.

Michael Lane was sentenced the same same way for the same offence. These two rescued a prisoner from the hands of Bennet, and both got nabbed by Bennett, as a result.

☞ On the 5th, a disgraceful riot occurred at Milnwood Academy, Shade Gap, Huntington county, Pa., which has resulted in the abandonment of the school by Mr. Woods, the principal. It seems that he endeavored to stop the selling of whisky to the students, and having made an example of one of them, fifteen or twenty of the other boys got drunk, attacked the house of the principal, and kept up a disturbance all night.

This is precisely the usual line of argument in favor of whisky selling and drinking.

LOCAL.

☞ Mr. Harrison G. Cole, of Portland, formerly a liquor dealer in that place, but now an advocate of temperance, lectured at the Temple on Tuesday evening,—and is to lecture here again, on Thursday evening of next week, July 2.

☞ John Newton, a midshipman in the U. S. Navy, son of Commodore Newton, of the Portsmouth Naval Station, was killed in Brooklyn, N. Y., on Friday night, 19th, by a fall upon the sidewalk, which broke his skull and produced congestion. He was with his father in the Missouri, when that vessel was burned at Gibraltar, a few years ago.

ACCIDENT IN YORK.—On Tuesday afternoon, as Rev. Mr. Patten and Dr. Putnam were about returning home from their duties as Superintending Committee of the Schools, the horse started suddenly, throwing Dr. Putnam backward over the seat on the ground, injuring him considerably.

ANCIENT.—Being in York, Me., a few days since, we had the pleasure of sitting in a chair six hundred years old, which formerly belonging to one of the Doges of Venice, has stood on the bridge of sighs, and is now the property of Capt. Putnam of York, who brought it from the seat of its faded glory. It is of oak, quaintly carved, much worm-eaten, and with rude in-laying.

☞ The Republican State Convention at Worcester, Mass., is attended by a large number of delegates. Hon. Joseph White of Lowell is President. Before going into ballot for Governor, the Convention adopted a series of anti-slavery resolutions, the first declaring the Republican party of the State will support no candidates for office who do not subscribe to the principles of the Philadelphia platform, and acknowledge them as the permanent object of action.

On an informal ballot for Governor, Hon. N. P. Banks received 291 out of 464 votes. He will doubtless receive the nomination.

☞ In the Court of Common Pleas at Newburyport on Tuesday, June 23, James F. Kirk of Salem, as a common liquor-seller, convicted at a former term of this court, and carried to the Supreme Court on exceptions, came in for sentence. He was ordered to pay a fine of $50 and costs, to be confined to hard labor in the House of Correction at Ipswich for the term of three months, and further, to recognize in the sum of $1000, not to violate any law relating to the sale of intoxicating liquors for one year.

Charles Briley of Lynn, indicted as a common seller, was ordered to recognize in the sum of $300, for his appearance from day to day, to answer. Failing to find sureties, he was committed.

Michael Carney of Lawrence, as a common seller—verdict of guilty on two counts.

NEW HAMPSHIRE YEARLY MEETING.—The great anniversary of the Freewill Baptist Churches in New Hampshire, took place this year, at Lake Village, beginning the 11th inst., and lasting 4 days. 105 ministers were present, of which, says the Morning Star, 94 are Freewill Baptists.—The public meetings were fully attended; and the convention the most numerous ever held by the denomination.

Corresponding delegates were present from the Mass. and R. I., the Vermont, the Maine Western, and the Kennebec Yearly Meetings — also, from the New Hampshire Methodist Conference, the N. H. Congregational and Presbyterian Association, and the N. H. Baptist Association. Rev. Mr. Brown represented the American and Foreign Bible Society, and Rev. Mr. Bernard, the Bible Union.

Resolutions were passed unanimously, condemnatory of the Dred Scott decision, and also expressing the sympathies of the Conference towards fathers H. D. Buzzell, Blaisdell and others, in their afflictions.

Rev. John Fullonton, Rev. I. D. Stewart, and Rev. S. Curtis, spoke in behalf of New Hampton Institution, and received a response in the sum of $800. About one hundred dollars was taken in contribution for Home and Foreign Missions.

☞ Rev. Elijah Anderson, a colored preacher of Madison, Indiana, has been convicted in the Bedford Circuit Court of Kentucky, of aiding in the escape of slaves; and sentenced to the penitentiary for eight years.

UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT—SPRINGFIELD, ILL.—A Watch not Mailable Matter.—United States vs. Burton.—The defendant, who was Postmaster at Ewington, Ill., had been indicted for stealing two watches that came to his office, which had been mailed at Freeport. According to the evidence at the prisoner's first examination, the watches had been put into a paper box about four inches square, containing no other letter or writing, and when they had arrived at Ewington, Burton took them out of the box, and appropriated them to his own use.

Burton was indicted under the 21st section of the act of Congress of March 3d, 1825. His counsel moved to exclude the testimony of the witness who mailed the watches, on the ground that watches were not "mailable" matter under the act of Congress of March 3d, 1845.

Judge Treat decided that under this act, in connection with that of 1825, the watches, having been put up in a separate package, were not "mailable matter" within the meaning of the law; and that the defendant was not liable to a prosecution under the United States laws for abstracting them from the United States mails—being only amenable to the laws of the State for the larceny.

The prosecuting attorney having stated that this was the only point at issue, the court instructed the jury to find a verdict of not guilty.

SUICIDE.—Mr. John Hutchings, of Biddeford, Me., committed suicide by poison, on Monday morning. He was a man about 40 years of age, and had no family.

THE SECRET DISCOVERED AT LAST.—We have noticed in passing through Market street, lately, that the NEW STORE, No. 15, always seems crowded with customers. We have at last discovered the secret of it. On stepping in side, we find that the proprietors, MESSRS. ALLEN & PAINE, in fitting up their store in the beautiful manner they have, had an eye for the useful, as well as for the ornamental; we noticed that the store admits very light and cheerful, and on looking for a solution of the mystery, we discover that the store contains a Sky Light, giving them facilities for showing their Goods possessed by no other Dry Goods store in town; as Customers by such a light, have no difficulty in seeing just what they are purchasing, and can not be deceived in the color or quality of goods. We notice, also, that their stock is always composed of the best qualities and very latest styles, which is explained by the fact that one of the firm visits the market to replenish their goods every ten days,—and as they buy for Cash, all together, they are able to offer their goods at as low prices as any other parties.

Those about to purchase Dry Goods will do well to visit them. Read their advertisement in another column.

Also, Kennedy's Medical Discovery, price 68 cents per bottle.

"IN PEACE PREPARE FOR WAR."—In the days of our youth, it behooves us to make some preparation for the approach of age. How many persons have long coughs, asthma, bronchitis, croup, catarrh, consumption, and disease of the throat and lungs. Price 75 cents per bottle.

Also, Kennedy's Medical Discovery, price 68 cents per bottle.

"IN PEACE PREPARE FOR WAR."—In the days of our youth, it behooves us to make some preparation for the approach of age. How many persons have become prematurely bald by neglecting to apply appropriate remedies to prevent the hair from falling out. The use of Professor Wood's "Hair Restorative" will prevent the hair from falling off, impart to it a healthy growth, and even restore the hair of the bald. Thousands have testified to its efficacy. To be had of Druggists everywhere.

DOES ANY OF OUR HIGH LIVERS ever eat too much dinner? If any of our readers have cooks who tempt their appetite a little too far, I will tell a secret that will lead them to the enjoyment of their dinners, without a visit from that genteel old gentleman, Dyspepsia. Take a dose of Dr. Sanford's Invigorator after eating, and you will never be troubled with indigestion; but on the contrary, before the next meal time approaches, the appetite will be sharpened to appreciate any kind of food. If the food rises or sours, the Invigorator will fix the matter right at once, for there is something in it that, to use the expression of a friend, will let a man eat gravel stones, and take the Invigorator and they will digest. We have tried it in double doses, on one or two occasions, for sick headache, and it acts like a charm.

What we want to say to our readers, young or old, is, if anything ails you, go without delay and get a bottle of Dr. Sanford's Invigorator, and if it don't cure, come and tell us, for we want to see one person that it will not benefit.

TO THE CITIZENS OF THE UNITED STATES.
CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.

After several years experimenting in the manufacturing of Gin, I fortunately succeeded, in the year 1848, in making a discovery in its manufacture by which it was deprived of all acrid and inflammatory properties, and rendered perfectly pure.

My manufactory is at Scheidam, Holland. After several months' reflection on what title to give it, I introduced it to the American public under the name of "Wolfe's Scheidam Aromatic Schnapps." Scheidam is the name of the place in Holland where the Gin is manufactured. Aromatic derives its name from the Italian Juniper Berry with which it is flavored, and the word "Schnapps" is the German for drink—Cogne, Dram—Wolfe's Scheidam Aromatic Drink. No sooner had my Schnapps been introduced to the American public and received with approbation, than the Liquor Mixers of New York, Boston and Philadelphia, started in pursuit with their mixed and poisonous stuff under various names: Scheidam Gin, Scheidam Schnapps, London Club House Gin, London Cordial Gin, &c., and in several cases my labels have been so perfectly imitated, with only the addition of a few letters to plead a technical avoidance of the law, and so carefully prepared as to impose on careless purchasers. I understand a large quantity has been purchased by the merchants of the Eastern States on account of the cheapness of the articles. A merchant who participates indirectly in the fraud by selling the spurious articles, is as much an offender as the principal who planned the imposition.

I hope every respectable citizen who values the health of the community in which he lives will aid me in ferreting out and exposing the unscrupulous merchant, who, for the sake of a few cents, will put in jeopardy the lives of the community in which he lives. Such men should be hunted to the pillory of popular execration.

WOLFE'S SCHEIDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS is made from barley of the first quality, selected with great care from the products of the most celebrated grain-growing districts, is flavored with the essence of the aromatic Juniper Berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process, which expels from the spirit every acrid particle.

As a means of preventing and correcting the disagreeable and often dangerous effects produced upon the stomach and bowels by a change of water—a visitation to which travelers and settlers, and all unacclimated persons in the West, the South and South-West are peculiarly liable—the Scheidam Aromatic Schnapps will be found absolutely infallible; while, in cases of dropsy, gravel, obstructions of the kidneys, diseases of the bladder, dyspepsia, and general debility, it is recommended most emphatically by the most distinguished members of the medical profession.

It is put up in quart and pint bottles, in cases of one dozen, with the name of the undersigned on the bottle and cork, and a fac-similie of his signature and label.

For sale by all respectable druggists and country merchants. JOSEPH HOLLOWAY.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN

is shown by the Records of the Custom House to be the only London Cordial Gin IMPORTED and sold in bottles; all others are made here in imitation of it.

It is a delicious tonic beverage, and by its peculiar flavor (so different from other gins) is universally esteemed by all who use it. It is adopted with great success in cases of Dyspepsia, Gout, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Gravel, Colic, Cholera, Fever and Ague, Stricture, Diseases of the Urinary Organs, Epilepsy, Female Irregularities.

Dr. Valentine Mott of New York, in a letter to the proprietor, says:

Charles' London Cordial Gin, is the purest, best, and most reliable Extract of Juniper I have seen.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN is sold by all Druggists and Grocers in the United States, and so also are numerous poisons called "London Cordial Gin"—to avoid them buy only "CHARLES'." Reject any other offered to you as you value your health. Price one dollar for quarts, fifty cents for pints.

HOUSE LOTS AT AUCTION.

A grand chance to lay the foundation for a home.

WILL be sold at Public Auction on the premises, in Portsmouth,

On SATURDAY Afternoon, June 27th, at 3 o'clock,

TEN HOUSE LOTS!

Consisting in the aggregate of about 30,000 square feet of Land, which is bounded on the south by Islington street, on the east by Creek street, on the west by land of True M. Ball, bordering on Frenchman's Lane, and on the north by a new street, being the land now owned by Kittredge Sheldon.

This is in every respect the most eligible and desirable position for House Lots now in the market. It is about 10 minutes walk from Market Square, in a direct line through the pleasantest and best street in the city, with a good sidewalk the entire distance, and combining in an unusual degree the advantages of town and city life. The land is dry, the grounds are shaded with tall and graceful elms, forming the most picturesque landscape to be found in this vicinity. The lots vary in size from 5300 to 12000 feet; the smallest affording ample garden, as well as building room.

An accurate plan of the Lots may be seen at H. F. Wendell's Store, No. 70 State street, and further particulars may be obtained of the subscriber. KITTREDGE SHELDON.

IMPORTANT NEW INVENTION

PATENT DOUBLE VISION SPECTACLES.

EDWARD S. FRANKS, PROF. OF OPTICS,

No. 2 Park Row, opposite the Astor House, New York.

SPECTACLE MANUFACTURER,

Lecturer on the Anatomy and Physiology of the Human Eye, and Use and Abuse of Spectacles.

Optician by Diploma to the N. Y. Eye Hospital, And Spectacle-Maker to the New York Eye and Ear Infirmary.

Has much pleasure in announcing that he has secured letters patent for the above, from the United States Patent Office, for very valuable improvements in Spectacle Glasses.

He has a complete assortment of his improved patent spectacles, in gold, silver, steel, and all other mountings. It will be understood that Prof. Franks, being the patentee, his spectacles can be obtained only from himself; as he has no other person authorized to manufacture or sell the same, unless specially licensed to do so by him.

THE ADVANTAGES OF THESE SPECTACLES OVER ALL OTHERS, ARE

1st. The only true lens known, being perfectly centered so as the focus of each surface shall be opposite each other, which renders them nearly free from chromatic light, so injurious to vision, a lamentable deficiency in all the old kind of spectacle glasses, and makes the change of spectacles to glasses of stronger powers, so often required.

2d. Can be worn with perfect ease for any length of time at the sight, and without the usual pain of vision, particularly by candle or artificial light,—and forts to the spectacle-wearer indicate a blessing.

3d. Change of spectacles to glasses of stronger magnifying power, to most persons never required, and the effect arises from age, disease, or premature decay,—thus secured to the patient good sight during life.

4th. When the eyes pain or ache, from long use or action of bright light, sunlight is reduced from snow sunny weather, white paper, and in reading, writing or sewing on white colored cloth, these lenses by softening the rays, effect the most agreeable sensation, and a perfect cure.

5th. In all nervous affections of the eye, causing dull or morbid pains in the eyeballs or temples, appearances of luminous or dark spots in the atmosphere, itching, or feelings like sand in the eye, the disturbed nerves are quieted, soothed, composed, and entirely restored.

6th. Ground by peculiar machinery got up at a great cost, mathematically calculated expressly for the manufacture of this lens, so as to produce the true spherical accuracy, and its focus at the exact centre, a point of vital importance, and which no other lens possesses.

7th. Proof of superiority over the old kind of spectacles: They are exclusively used at all the Hospitals for diseases of the eye in New York, and have received the following unqualified

Testimony of Recommendation

from medical gentlemen, professors of the highest ophthalmic talent in the Union.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)

No. 76 State st, opposite Kilby st, Boston,

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, specifications, assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that more of THESE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice he has enjoyed during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of law and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

All notesity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office, and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent or trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them as early and favorable consideration as Mr Eddy.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

Ancost 17, 1856.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. Tyson & Bro. are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they lived or were present in the city. As a proof of her efficacy, the managers call attention to, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The price of tickets ranges from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of every one on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Ternary combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

☞ The drawn numbers of the Maryland Lotteries are published by the State Commissioner in the following papers, viz: Sun, Clipper, Patriot, American, Argus, of Baltimore: also, the National Intelligencer and Union, of Washington, D.C.

Address R. TYSON & BRO.,
No 39 Fayette st., or box No. 10,
ja 31v Baltimore, Maryland.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawing, and certify to ascertaining that everything with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well attended to as they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, and the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received before that day will be filled to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $5 for a quarter, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are sworn to by a Judge of the State, and certified them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $20,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Dog Book. Any one can address plainly, and direct to S. SWAN & Co., Atlanta, Georgia

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

All communications strictly confidential. m13 1y

MARRIAGE GUIDE,

BY DR. W. YOUNG.

YOUNG'S great medical work, The POCKET ESCULAPIUS, or Every One His Own Doctor, by WM. YOUNG, M. D. It is written in plain language for the general reader, and is illustrated with a variety of one hundred Engravings. All young married people, or those contemplating marriage, and having the least impediment to married life, should read this book. It discloses secrets that every one should be acquainted with. Still it is a book that must be kept locked up, and not lie about the house. It will be sent, post paid, on the receipt of twenty five cents. Address Dr. WM.
